Panama Canal Opened to Ships Up to 10,000 Tons Register.

Steamship Ancon Through the Gatun Locks in Seventy Minutes.

Rules Governing Passage of War Vessels of Belligerent Nations.

Panama, Aug. 15.—The United States war department steamship Ancon passed through the Gatun locks without a hitch today in seventy minutes. The total lift at these locks is 85 feet.

With the passage of the Ancon through the canal today the great waterway becomes "free and open to the vessels of commerce and of war of all nations on terms of entire equality" in accordance with the provisions of the Hay-Pauncefote treaty.

Vessels drawing not more than thirty feet of water may now take the passage. It would be possible to put some of the big American dreadnoughts through at any time.

Vessels of Belligerents. No embarrassment will face the United States should one of the war vessels of the belligerents in the European war seek passage. Strict rules are laid down in the treaty for the perpetual neutralization of the canal, and every detail will be under the direction of Governor Goethals and his staff.

Except in cases of absolute necessity vessels of belligerents must make uninterrupted passage through the canal. They may not coal, refuel, or embark or disembark troops in the canal zone and these provisions also apply to the terminal waters at both ends of the canal, within a limit of three miles.

Can Remain Full Day. Twenty-four hours is the limit of time a belligerent vessel can remain within the canal, except in cases of distress and a vessel of war of one belligerent cannot depart within twenty-four hours of the departure of a vessel of war of another belligerent.

All of the plant and establishments that are part of the canal are immune from attack or injury by any belligerent.

GERMAN CHANCELLOR DENOUNCES BRITAIN

Says Americans Will Side With Germany When They Understand.

London, Aug. 15.—(3:55 a. m.)—A Marconi wireless dispatch from official sources at Berlin, dated Friday, gives an interview with the German imperial chancellor, Dr. von Bethmann-Hollweg, who, representing the war as a life and death struggle between the Germans and Russians, arising from the assassination of Archduke Francis Ferdinand and his wife, declared that England avails herself of a long and effective opportunity to begin a war for the destruction of the commercially prosperous Germany.

"It is with a heavy heart," said the chancellor, "that we are ranged against our opponents, not withstanding the ties of blood and culture between England and Germany. The former placed herself on the side of Russia, whose instability and barbaric insolence helped on this war in order to humiliate and suppress the German race by Russian Slavism."

Appeals to Americans. "We expect that the sense of justice of the American people will enable them to comprehend our situation. We sided English representations and asked them to examine our point of view in an unprejudiced way."

"The sympathy of the American nation will then lie with German culture and civilization, which is fighting against a half-Asiatic and slightly cultured barbarism."

KRONPRINZ WILHELM HEARD FROM AGAIN

Skipper of Steamer Aztec Thinks He Saw Her.

New York, Aug. 15.—Word of the North German Lloyd liner Kronprinz Wilhelm, which, like the German cruisers, has become somewhat of a phantom of the sea since she slipped out of New York harbor more than ten days ago, was brought to port today by the steamer Aztec from Norfolk. The Aztec's skipper reported that on Aug. 10 he sighted a four-funnel steamer which he believed was the Wilhelm. He did not give her position.

The last previous report of the Wilhelm was that she was sighted coaling the German cruiser Karlsruhe, southwest of Bermuda, on Aug. 6. The coaling was interrupted by the British cruiser Bristol, which fought an ineffective long range duel with the German cruiser.

MINNESOTA IS HOME FROM MEXICAN PORT.

New York, Aug. 15.—The battleship Minnesota, flying her homebound pennant, arrived at New York today after her long stay in Mexican waters. The Minnesota sailed from Tampico on Aug. 7. All are well on board.

French Paper Says Japan Will Declare War on Germany.

Excitement at Rome Over War Is at Acute Stage.

London, Aug. 15, 1:50 a. m.—The Daily Telegraph learns from a diplomatic correspondent that the Japanese government intends to carry out to the full its obligations under the Anglo-Japanese treaty. The correspondent says that the Japanese navy has put to sea and will keep with the British fleet in taking effective action against the enemy's ships in the Pacific.

Declaration Expected. Paris, Aug. 15, 2 a. m.—The Petit Journal, the editor of which is Stephen Pichon, who was formerly minister of foreign affairs, says today that it learns on unimpeachable authority that Japan is resolved to declare war on Germany, and that official action probably will be taken today following the return of the emperor to Tokyo.

Italians Excited. Rome, Aug. 14, 9:45 a. m., via Paris, Aug. 15, 7:30 a. m.—The excitement in the Italian capital has become very acute since the declaration of the state of war between England and Hungary on the one side and Austria-Hungary on the other, was declared. The Tribune, in an article evidently inspired in official quarters, emphasizes the fact that Great Britain and France did not really declare war on Austria, but simply announced that a state of war existed by reason of Austria's own acts and that therefore Italy is not obliged to assist Austria-Hungary.

Would Unite Balkans. The most active work is now going on among the governments of the various Balkan states to bring about a reconstruction of the former Balkan league which defeated Turkey in the recent war. The object of the movement is to assist Russia against Austria-Hungary and to keep Turkey inactive.

TWO REGIMENTS OF AUSTRIANS WIPED OUT

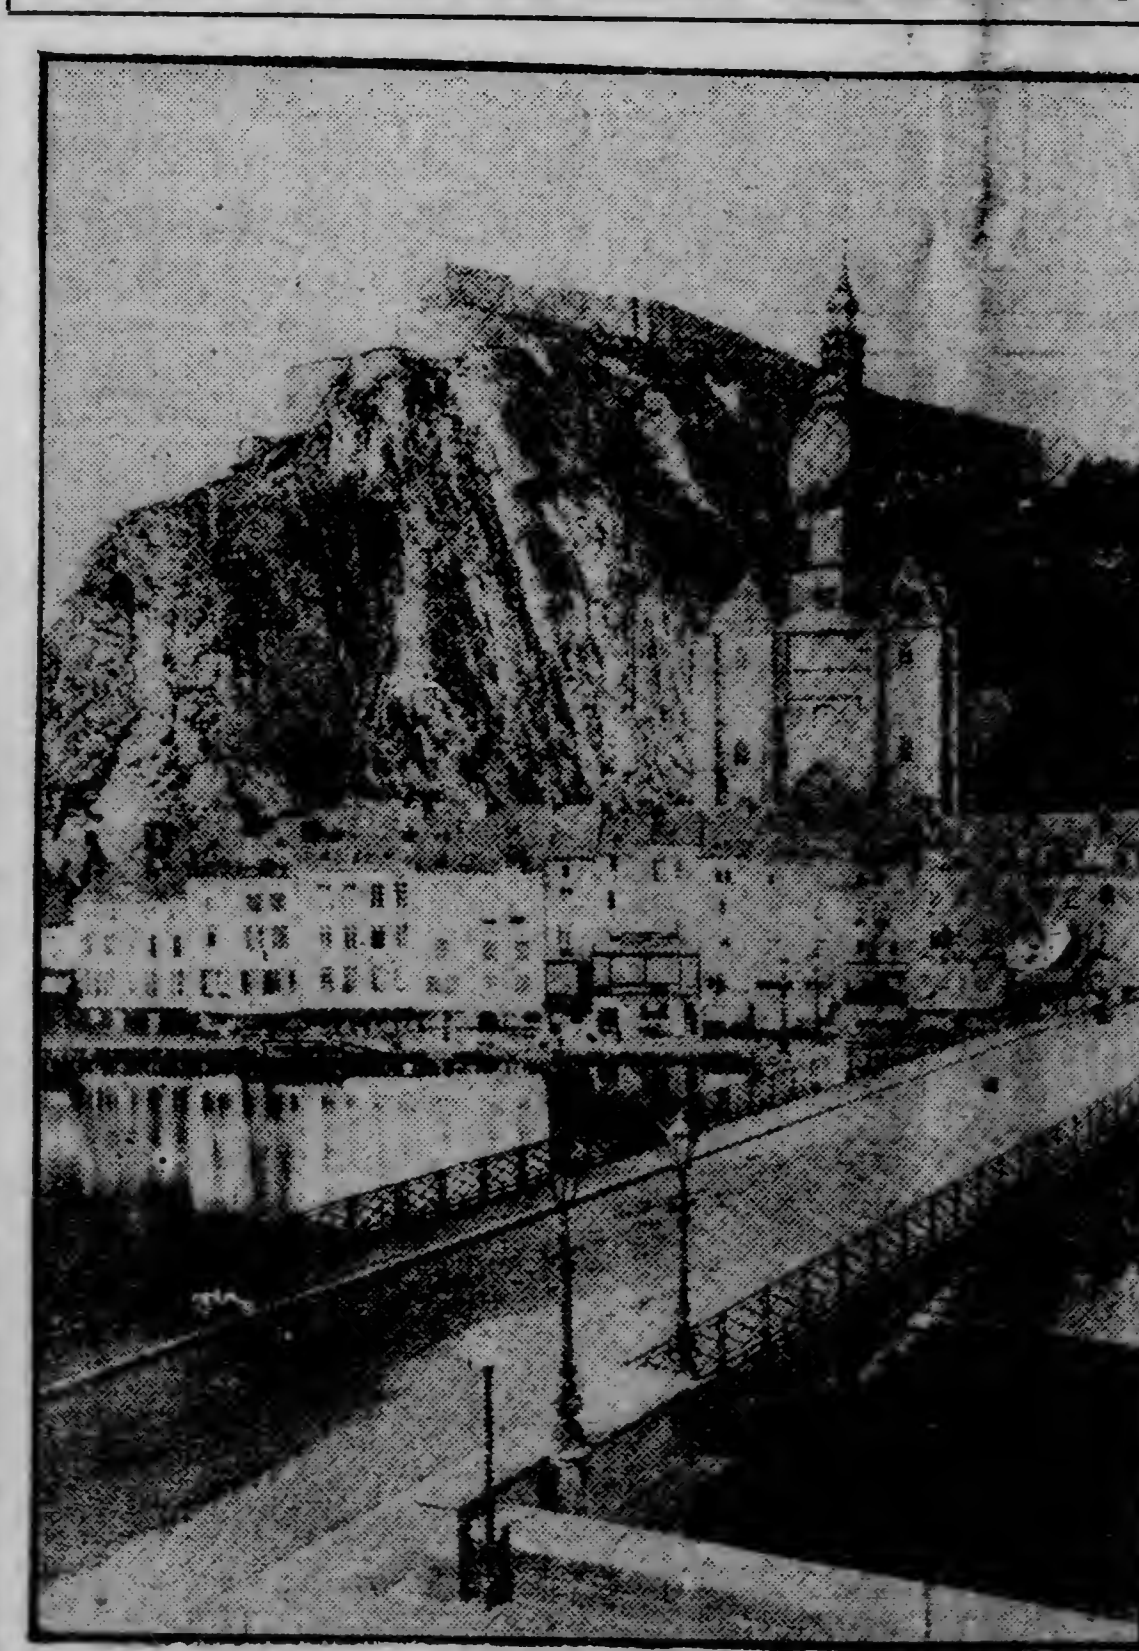

Russian Victory on the Dniester Confirmed From Paris.

London, Aug. 15.—The French minister of foreign affairs, in telegraphing the French embassy here today a summary of the various conflicts about which reports already have been published, given official confirmation of a Russian victory over the Austrians on the River Dniester. He says the Fourth Infantry regiment and the First Cavalry regiment of the Austrian army were annihilated by the Russians.

The French minister adds that the positions in Upper Liège, Belgium, are unchanged, and concludes:

"In consequence of the universal outcry, the German government has decided to remit to the former French ambassador at Berlin the $900 he had been compelled to pay for his journey back to France."

SS. BOHEMIA DODGES BRITISH WARSHIPS

Lands Lot of Baggageless Americans—Some Are Wealthy Passengers.

New York, Aug. 15.—The five-masted German freight steamer Bohemia arrived today from Hamburg, after having made the run across with lights darkened and funnels painted to resemble a White Star liner. The ship's wireless picked up messages showing that British cruisers were on patrol, at times close to the Bohemia. She managed to dodge them all, however, including one of the Ambrose channel lightships this morning.

No Lights at Night. The Celtic took a northerly course and steamed without lights at night, but the trip was without incident. Other passengers were Mrs. Alfred Vanderbilt and son, Capt. C. A. Barbour, Ernest Iselin and Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Westinghouse.

Another baggageless lot of Americans who fled Europe to avoid the war reached New York on the Celtic. The cabins were jammed and the stewards had a hard time feeding the throng.

In the first cabin were 304 persons, in the second 600 and in the steerage 666.

Washington, Aug. 15.—Reports to the department of justice today show that the investigation into food prices is progressing in every state and almost every large city.

The United States attorney at San Francisco telegraphed that the investigation already had prevented an increase in shipping rates to foreign ports on canned goods.

From Kansas City came a report that there was no beet sugar on the market.

William J. Youngs, district attorney at Brooklyn, telegraphed that he had issued subpoenas for a grand jury which will meet next Wednesday. Other district attorneys asked for special agents to supplement their own efforts.

Wants Help at Baltimore. The district attorney at Baltimore wants three special agents because of inflation of prices there.

The department of justice is gathering comparisons of food prices on July 1, 1913, and July 1, 1914, the prices being the first indication of war in Europe, and the present prices in this country.

Grand Jury in Session. Chicago, Aug. 15.—The Federal grand jury now sitting will be the medium for the Chicago inquiry into war-time prices.

According to a statement made by District Attorney Wilkerson who returned from his vacation today:

"Today," said Mr. Wilkerson, "I shall confer with agents of the department of justice, to learn what they have ascertained. Further information will be gained by summoning merchants and dealers in foodstuffs before the grand jury next Monday. First we must ascertain the true causes of the advances in prices."

Cut meats at wholesale were unchanged today, but the packers said that the tone was easier.

Rich Refugees. NEW YORK, Aug. 15.—More than a hundred persons of means were in the steerage of the Celtic when it arrived today. One passenger who obtained first cabin accommodations refused an offer of $2,700 for his state room.

Excepting the Rochambeau and the Patria of the French and Fabre lines, which sailed with 1,300 French reservists, cabins and steerage of all ships from New York today were practically deserted. The Celtic carried less than 200 persons, the Minotaur a dozen, the Kronland 40, the Sakonka, America and Potsdam correspondingly small numbers.

LOAN DISAPPROVED. Washington, Aug. 15.—President Wilson today formally disapproved of the plan of American bankers floating loans in the United States for the benefit of belligerent countries of Europe, but expressed no objections to loans made to neutral countries.

Sayville, Long Island, Station Gets Message of Victory.

British Press Bureau Gives Out Story of French Gain.

Says Belgian Cavalry "Continues Successful" Near Hasselt.

New York, Aug. 15.—A dispatch from German official sources in Berlin was received here today via Sayville, L. I., wireless, as follows:

"The Seventh French army corps and an army division from Belfort which had invaded Upper Alsace were defeated yesterday by German troops near Muelhausen."

The dispatch, somewhat mutilated by poor transmission, indicated that French entrenchments were taken at the point of the bayonet.

FRENCH GAINS IN ALSACE REPORTED

London, Aug. 15, 1 p. m.—The British official press bureau in its communication today says:

"The German offensive is for the moment arrested in Upper Alsace and there are indications that the French have made progress on that side."

The communication says:

"The French troops are advancing into the high Alsatian valleys and the Vosges mountains. Since their occupation of the Sasles region in German territory on the frontier of Alsace, which was announced yesterday, the French troops have entered the town of Sasles itself, driving out the German troops. Today they collected the kits abandoned by the German fugitives."

In the Woerwe district, in the Department of the Meuse, the French troops today fired at and brought down a hostile aeroplane which was flying at a height of 1,000 yards. The (Continued on page 2, fourth column.)

BELIEVE NO RUMORS, SAYS GERMAN PAPER

Gen. Stein, Through Press, Denounces British Reports.

Copenhagen, Aug. 15, via London, 1:05 p. m.—The Berliner Tageblatt of today, which reached here today, contains a manifesto to the German nation by Gen. Stein of the German general staff, in which the public is cautioned against believing any statements except those given by the general staff. It says:

"In England and France falsehoods are being spread broadcast. 'You Germans have too much faith in your government to accept rumors too easily.'"

Partition of Holland. "The English accuse us of having suggested partition with Holland in exchange for her neutrality. Such charges are beneath contempt and demonstrate the righteousness of our cause and the wickedness of our enemies."

"You Germans also are spreading rumors of victories and defeats such as the German occupation of Belfort and the destruction of French regiments wholesale."

"Everything will be published at the proper time, and we have given our word that nothing shall be exaggerated and nothing minimized."

"Few except those who are experienced in warfare can know or show with what difficulties victories are won."

Another Berlin paper declares that Great Britain is paralyzing American diplomatic relations by preventing the American ambassadors sending dispatches in cipher.

NO RIFLING WITH "BILL"

Duluth Englishmen May Be Shot If They Lend Kaiser Money.

Not Forbidden to Privately "Stake" German Neighbor Until Payday.

If any English subject in Duluth happens to have a few million dollars loose and tries to lend it to Kaiser Wilhelm or the German government, he is going to call down on his head the Royal anger of King George—and what is worse—of Queen Mary.

In fact he will be guilty of treason, and if the king ever lays hands on him, the traitorous whelp will probably be stood up against the wall and have his badly head shot off.

It is not against the rules for an Englishman in Duluth to stake his German neighbor to $5 until payday if the German needs the money and the Englishman has it, but no rifling with the German government is allowed. He can't even send a cashier's check over to Berlin to help pay the salary of a German soldier for a few days. Ye Gods, how they trample on personal liberty.

Up to the hour of going to press, none of the 19,000 Canadians who have become industrious, loyal citizens of Duluth, had signified any intention of lending a million dollars or any other trifling sum to Germany, so no Duluthians are likely to be shot by Royal order. But here is the proclamation hot off the presses of Buckingham palace, and with the Royal signature (stamped), as it was received by David Quail, British vice consul at Duluth, with the capital "O" for the Royal "Our":

"GEORGE R. I.

"A PROCLAMATION.

"Whereas, a state of war exists between Us on the one hand and the German Empire on the other;

"And Whereas, it constitutes adherence to Our enemies for any of Our subjects or persons resident or being in Our dominions during the continuance of the state of war to contribute to or participate in or assist in the floating of any loan by the German Government, or to advance money to or enter into any contract or dealings whatsoever with the said Government (save under Our command), or otherwise to aid, abet, or assist the said Government;

"Now, therefore, We do hereby warn all Our subjects and all persons resident or being in Our dominions who may be found doing or attempting to do any such treasonable acts as aforesaid that they will be liable to be apprehended and dealt with as traitors, and will be proceeded against with the utmost rigour of Our law."

Comprehensive Reports.—The state department of the condition of the Americans in Russia, Switzerland, Norway and Denmark.

The American charge d'affaires at Stockholm reported that about sixty Americans had left; that others were leaving daily, and only about ten needing assistance. Twenty-five Americans at Moscow sought permission to go to Sweden and were advised by the American embassy to go there at once.

Can Leave Germany.—Americans now leave Germany as rapidly as train service is restored. Ambassador Gerard at Berlin reported to the state department, via Copenhagen, today by cable.

No American require assistance at Odessa, according to the American embassy report, and the only bad situation is at Riga, where about sixty Americans believe they can get transportation, but about twenty-five are destitute.

American Minister Stovall at Bonn cabled asking that all schools and colleges in the United States be informed that teachers in Switzerland must remain in that country until they have arranged for transportation to leave. This was interpreted by department officials to mean that Switzerland did not want Americans to

Herrick Gets Ships.—

Paris, Aug. 15.—American Ambassador Myron Herrick, on behalf of the United States government, has contracted with the French Compagnie Generale de Navigation for the steamship Espagne to sail on Aug. 15 from Havre for the United States with 250 Americans aboard. Mr. Herrick also arranged for the liner Rochambeau to leave Havre on Aug. 28 with 1,500 Americans, all placed by the committee.

Thousands From Glasgow.—

London, Aug. 15, 12:10 p. m.—The departure of the Ancon, a German liner, today was followed by that of another thousand from Glasgow.

The carrying capacity of the vessels sailing for trans-Atlantic ports during the next five days is estimated at 60,000, or three times the number of Americans in the British Isles. While the number on the continent of Europe is not known, it is believed not to exceed 10,000.

Many American tourists in London who had booked passage on small vessels, when the German liner Ancon arrived, offering to sell their tickets, as they preferred to make a larger and more comfortable passage.

The members of the committee say they fail to see the necessity for the dispatch of transports to take stranded Americans back to the United States.

In view of the new sailings which have been announced, the committee has announced that the Ancon, the Arcadia, the Andania and the Anconia will sail on Aug. 15, and the Adriatic Aug. 29.

done in completing the canal is the deepening and widening of the channel through Culebra cut as well as excavation operations at both approaches.

Start of the Ancon.—

Shortly before 7 o'clock this morning the Ancon was drawn away from her berth at Christoval and anchored at the end of the deep water channel from Atlantic ocean to the datum locks. The program called for putting her through the locks at 9 o'clock, her passage of the Culebra cut at about noon and arrival at the end of the deep water channel in the Pacific at 8 o'clock this evening.

All the seventy-four regular officers and men aboard the Ancon appeared in spotlessly white uniforms and the ship itself glistened with new paint, over which fluttered signal flags and the ensigns of all nations.

At the forepeak was the ensign of the Panama republic, while at the mainmasthead fluttered the house pennant of the Panama steamship fleet. On the jackstaff was the flag of the United States.

Invitations Much Coveted.
Invitations to be guests on this first trip had been much coveted and the rails were lined with local canal officials and those of the Panama republic, together with their ladies, as the big steamer backed away from her berth.

Col. George Goethals, builder of the canal and governor of the zone, was on the bridge beside Capt. Hugh Rodman, U. S. N., superintendent of transportations who has overseen the plans for putting the first

Other distinguished persons included President Porras of the republic of Panama and his staff.

The Panama national band and the regimental band of the Tenth United States infantry played the "Star Spangled Banner" as the ship pulled away, but the music was almost drowned by the whistles of the steamers in the harbor.

All Traffic at Standstill.
To insure unimpeded passage for the Ancon all of the traffic, including the working boats in Culebra cut, was brought to a standstill from early this morning on.

The several thousand canal workers enjoyed a holiday and they, together with villagers of all types from the surrounding territory, lined the banks from various vantage points.

The Ancon was fully loaded with the regular cargo that she had brought from New York the freight having been purposely left on board to give the canal a full test with the ship drawing its full depth of water.

While canal zone celebrated today were both local and suggested little of the international significance of the event. The official Panama celebration set for next spring, even the United States was not officially represented today, except by the men who have long been in the canal zone.

It signals the opening of the canal to all ships up to 10,000 tons register.

In conformity with a promise made by Col. Goethals, the peace flag of the American Peace society fluttered from the forepeak of the Ancon beneath her decks. However, were two huge pieces of artillery which are destined to defend the important part in the defense of the waterway.

BRITONS WILL PAY WAR RISK ON GRAIN.

Portland, Or., Aug. 15.—Grain exporters have received word that British buyers would assume all war risks on grain shipped from Portland to Great Britain by way of the Pacific, and preparations were made here immediately to send out cargoes. The British vessel Fernly was ready to begin loading grain. The British steamship River Fort slipped over the Columbia river bar at dawn bound for Belgium, where she is to load lumber for Sydney.

FRENCH CONTROLLING VALLEY OF BRUCHE.

London, Aug. 15, 3:50 a. m.—A dispatch to the Reuters Telegram company from Paris, dated last midnight, says that an official communication announces that French troops occupy the valley of the Bruche. The French artillery took the German position in the rear, which the communication says "greatly facilitated our task. Our infantry had a number wounded but none killed."

WHETHER WAR IS THE CAUSE OR ONLY AN EXCUSE, PRICES OF MANY STAPLE PRODUCTS ARE SOARING IN DULUTH

Canned Provisions and Smoked Meats Almost Out of Market.

Sugar Has Almost Doubled in Price in Last Two Weeks.

District Attorney Jaques to Conduct Investigation in Minnesota.

Much has been said and written of late about the too-hold that the H. C. of L. is getting on the general public, and rightly or wrongly much blame has been showered on dealers who have been shown up because of the belief that they are arbitrarily putting up the prices, using the war as an excuse, but with really no ground for the advance.

While a great many things will be advanced in price—some actually the prohibitive point except those who rank in the "pluto" class, and some things will not be advanced at all—there are many products that will not be affected at all, and a few whose prices will be reduced instead of increased. Not in all cases are war conditions to blame; many of the advances in price are for purely natural reasons, as for instance in the matter of eggs, butter, cheese, and the like. In such dairy products the best season of the year is passing, the grass is not as nutritious as it was and there is more cream. The time for the hens to take a vacation is at hand, and therefore fresh eggs are naturally going to higher prices.

War Tax. There has been some talk of a war tax being put on liquor and tobacco; and in such a case the prices of these luxuries to most but necessities to some—will go up. Whether across the country the prices will be raised by "liquors" or charges made at the rate of 15 cents for a pony and 25 cents for a drink, is a matter of conjecture, and in the matter of cigars it is not yet known whether the price will be reduced, the price increased, or move Wisconsin and Connecticut tobacco used in the Havana.

Meats Higher. Meats are up—generally speaking—but it is claimed by the packers that the war has nothing to do with the price. Pork advanced in the first place of speculation when the war scare started, but later settled, and is now only 2 cents higher than it was at the time the scare broke out. Packers here declare that they expect pork to go back to normal basis within a very few days, for there is no actual reason further than the speculation following the scare to shove it up; unless it should be influenced by the foreign demand for hams, bacon, and other smoked meats.

Canned Meats Scarce. The meats that are affected, however, will soon, it is believed, be at a prohibitive price. Such meats are corned beef, hams, bacon, smoked meats of all kinds, and canned meats. The European armies are bidding for such provisions at such a rate that it is believed they will soon be practically all out of the market. England, especially, is taking almost everything of that kind she can get. The same is true of canned milk. Only this week, England bought from one firm alone in Chicago 40,000 cases of canned milk, and that commodity has advanced 30 cents a case and is still heading up. Hams and bacon have gone up 2 1/2 cents a pound over peace prices, and will soon be much higher. Corned beef has doubled in price and is being grabbed by England, France, and the other warring nations as fast as they can get it. The price of the trip to Europe are particularly anxious for their provisions for which they are being shipped to the front. Things for which prices are being boosted out of sight because of the demand for them for army provisions are dried peas, dried beans and the like. They have jumped 25 cents a bushel, and will likely go higher within the next few days.

As to commodities affected by the war because of dealers here being unable to obtain a sufficient supply, there are scores of them. Among the real staples that affect the average household are sugar, flour, and butter. In the last two weeks that has almost doubled in price, it is selling today at 9 cents a pound, whereas two weeks ago it was selling at about 5 1/2 cents. Harry F. Sleepack, a leading sugar broker here explained the situation this morning. He says that he cannot get nearly the quantity of sugar to supply the demand made upon him, and has to get it at a price that all of his customers may get at least a small share.

"The reduced price not giving out large amounts of sugar so that those receiving it may hold it for speculation," said Mr. Sleepack. "They are letting out only enough to cover actual needs."

Cause of Advance. As to the cause of the advance in sugar, Mr. Sleepack said: "Russia, Germany and Austria are the greatest producers of beet sugar in the world. The war has shut off that supply, and besides that the beet sugar harvest must be made by the women for the men at war. Even after it is over, I fear that maimed and incapacitated men will return to the farms and the development of the beet sugar industry over there will be reduced and almost wiped out. The world's production of sugar in times of peace is about 100 million tons. In this year, and we must depend upon our own raising, and what we can get from Cuba, Hawaii and the Philippines. England and France, unable to get sugar from the continent, want ours. They are outbidding us for Cuban sugar, and in almost every instance where we have been expected to supply sugar from Hawaii and the Philippines, the sugar has been shipped in English bottoms, and these have had to take refuge in neutral and English ports; therefore we are not getting the sugar. The long and short of it is that we are up against it for a supply, and naturally when the supply is scarce and demand enormous, the price is bound to go up. The price of raw sugar from which the refined sugar is made has advanced since the first of the month from $3.25 per hundredweight to $8.50, to you see it is in keeping with the advance of the refined stuff."

J. E. Willcuts, buyer for the Stone-Ordean-Wellis wholesale grocery company, declared today that there are many commodities that will be off the market, some that will be hard to get COMMODITIES AFFECTED BY THE WAR.

Dates and figs will be off the market. Olives so scarce that quotations are withdrawn. Olive oil advances 40 per cent. Corned beef, hams, bacon, canned meats, etc., in demand for European armies, and prices may become prohibitive. Imported herring has big jump in price. Rolled oats advance, owing to army demand. Canned milk being purchased wholesale by England. Dried beans, peas, etc., advancing materially. Sugar almost doubles in price, owing to shutting off of European supply. Teas and coffees higher; latter likely to decline. Lemons reaching high level. Spices, shelled nuts, prepared mustard, all advance. Domestic preserves higher, affected by sugar advance. Mushrooms soon out of reach of average household.

and scores that will be bound to advance. Said he:

Thinks Probe is Futile.

"The advance of prices is a thing that cannot be helped in almost every instance where the price has been boosted, and the investigation that is proposed will accomplish little if anything at all. Take rolled oats for instance. Europe to good advantage and already they have advanced 25 cents a barrel and will likely go more. Norwegian salt herring, which is going to be a very scarce article has advanced $2.50 a barrel, and Irish and Scotch kippered herring is up over 40 per cent. Teas have advanced 3 cents a pound and will likely go higher, and coffee is up 1 cent, but I do not expect it to hold that advance as we have a good stock of coffee stored in this country. Cocoa and chocolate will certainly go higher, and it may be that it will entirely disappear from the market, for they come through Germany, and the result of that fact needs no explanation. Raisins, which can be used for the armies, is up a cent a pound and flour, which is selling at $4.50 a barrel is now $6 a barrel, and will go higher. In this connection let me say that if exportation is arranged, as they are trying to do now, you will see flour take a jump that will make the recent one seem as nothing, for wheat is bound to advance tremendously. Mixed flour has now advanced 80 cents a barrel also.

No Dates or Figs. "As to delicacies, mushrooms have jumped $5 a case, and will likely go out of reach. I do not expect to see them for some time. Currants, which are imported from Greece, and for these things come through Greece, and will be practically impossible to get. All quotations on olives have been reduced for there are scarcely any left, crop being only 20 per cent of normal.

PEACE RULES MEXICO CITY

Federal Evacuation Complete and New Regime Is Awaited.

Fifteen Thousand Refugees Have Fled to Vera Cruz.

Mexico City, Aug. 15.—When Gen. Jose R. Velasco, the Federal commander leaves Mexico City this afternoon with his staff, the evacuation of the city, which has been going on for several days, will be complete. Mexico City today is awaiting the coming of the Constitutionalists under Gen. Obregon. The last suburbs of the capital already are occupied by the invaders.

The program of occupation calls for the assumption of the presidency by Gen. Carranza, the first chief of the Constitutionalists, immediately he enters the city.

To Give Up Arms. The plan for the dissolution of the Federal army calls for the delivery of all arms and munitions to the Constitutionalists, which seemingly indicates that if it is complied with, there will be no fear of a counter-revolution on the part of the Federal army.

The army will be distributed along the Mexican railway in the towns bordering the capital and Puebla. The new military units will be assigned to the Constitutionalists to receive the arms of the Federalists. The fare of the Federalists to their home towns will be paid by the Constitutionalists.

Probable Cabinet. It is probable the cabinet of Gen. Carranza will be as follows: President, Carranza; Minister of the Interior, Gen. Alvaro Obregon; Minister of War, Gen. Eduardo Ray; Minister of public works, Alberto J. Pineda.

Orders closing all Catholic churches were issued yesterday by the archbishop, who will not permit them to reopen until the new regime is established. Many clergymen are leaving for Spain.

Some 15,000 Fled. Vera Cruz, Aug. 15.—Official estimates fix the number of refugees who have fled from Mexico City to Vera Cruz at 15,000.

Carranza President. Washington, Aug. 15.—Venustiano Carranza was named provisional president of Mexico in the agreement signed outside of the City of Mexico by Gen. Obregon and representatives of Federal forces here, according to an agency here.

Dispatches to Rafael Zubaran Capmany, head of the agency, said the agreement provided that Carranza should fill all offices necessary to conduct the government until a general election can be held.

Carothers to See Villa. El Paso, Tex., Aug. 15.—George C. Carothers, special agent of the state department, arrived in El Paso last night and will leave today for Chihuahua City, where he will await the arrival of Gen. Francisco Villa. Carothers was silent regarding his purpose of his mission, but it was the strong representations from the United States to Villa as to the danger which the Villa administration would look upon an armed breach between Carranza and himself.

Gen. Eugenio A. Echeverria, former commander of the Zaragoza brigade in Villa's army, denied emphatically rumors that Villa will break away from Carranza.

Carranza. He claimed to have knowledge that substantiated the denial.

Orders Funds Surrendered. Douglas, Ariz., Aug. 15.—Governor Maytorena has issued a proclamation ordering all Federal employees of the Constitutional government in Sonora to deliver immediately to the Constitutionalists all funds in their possession, according to statements of Constitutional officials in Agua Prieta. They said the only justification given in the order was that the Federal employees were betraying "the cause."

The Federal employees affected by the order include the revenue bureau, the treasury, the post office, the land office, every town of Sonora as well as the customs officials in all ports and also the port of Guaymas.

The Federal officials at Agua Prieta say they will refuse to will the funds along the border will bring the money to the Arizona side whenever necessary in order to keep it from falling into Maytorena's hands.

PLAN FARM EXHIBITS.

St. Louis County Products Will Be Feature of Exposition.

Farm products and livestock will again be the big feature of the agricultural and industrial exposition which will be conducted here during the week of Sept. 21. This was decided upon today by the committee on arrangements, which sat at the Commercial club this noon.

According to the general plans, the whole first floor of the curling rink will be devoted to farm products, and it is planned to make the agricultural displays larger and of greater variety than ever before. Potatoes will be one of the big features of the exhibit, as this section of the state is second to none in the land for the production of the tubers.

Arrangements will be made rapidly now until the whole program has been completed. The work of the committee this noon will be reported to the general committee Monday.

DULUTH IS NOT IMMUNE BUSY DAY AT "RECEPT" ALL MARKETS WAS A NOTE

Bubonic Plague May Be Found Wherever Rats Are Numerous. Duluth People Rush for Fresh Products of the Farm. Cruisers Claim That $500 Given Them Was for Expenses.

Government Surgeon Here Establishing Uniform Medical Inspection. Number of Farmers Larger Than Ever, But All Offerings Are Sold. Later Found That They Were Expected to Repay It.

Because of the fact that Duluth is a shipping port and that considerable grain passes through here each year, there is just a possibility of the bubonic plague being found here, according to Dr. L. L. Williams, chief surgeon of the United States public health service at Ellis Island, who arrived here this morning in connection with his trip of inspection of all ports along the Canadian border.

Dr. Williams is at the head of the corps of physicians and surgeons at Ellis Island and his trip at this time is being made to arrange for a uniform system of medical inspection of all aliens coming into ports along the Canadian border. He started at Halifax and will continue on to Victoria, B. C. This morning he was with Brown McDonald, immigrant inspector here, and Dr. E. L. Cheney, alien examiner at this port.

"The bubonic plague," said Dr. Williams, "is a disease which is found wherever rats may live. This is especially true of ports and in the case of Duluth is even probable owing to the fact that there is so much grain going through here each year. There are always rats to be found in any elevators which are poorly constructed."

"In New Orleans the condition is very bad and our department is doing everything in its power to stop the plague. It will take some time, but we hope to win the battle eventually. The officials of New York are co-operating with us and only last week an ordinance was passed compelling all building owners to make their structures rat-proof. New buildings will all have to conform with this regulation."

"The bubonic plague is an infection carried by a rat flea. It is not a disease of the human and once infected, a human being has but a slight chance for recovery. The flea is poisoned by the blood of the rat and then carries the plague to the human being."

"We find that the best way to fight the plague is to make buildings rat-proof and to starve all the rats. It is interesting to note that rats will not eat poisoned food when there is other food about. This is why we keep all food away from the rats and keep the rats starved. The rats are not as hungry as they are made out to be, even the poisoned rats, he said this morning."

Dr. Williams will leave Duluth with a couple of days, he said this morning.

LIMIT SENTENCE FOR KIDNAPER.
New York, Aug. 15.—The maximum sentence of from twenty to fifty years in Sing Sing was imposed upon Pasquale Milano, a resident of the city, who had been charged with the kidnapping of a 10-year-old child from his home on the East side and held him a captive for nearly two weeks. Federal Commissioner Tells Seattle Labor and Capital Will Agree.
Seattle, Wash., Aug. 15.—A note of optimism regarding the outlook for the amicable settlement of all differences between labor and capital was sounded by Frank P. Walsh, chairman of the Federal Industrial Relations Commission, in an informal address before the Seattle Commercial club.

"After eight months' investigation, during which time I have heard more than 400 witnesses, I am convinced," he said, "that the labor and capital meet on a common ground for the settlement of their disputes. We are hopeful that our inquiry will be productive of a code of treatment for all laws unnecessary."

HEARS MOTION TO OVERRULE MOTION
Court Proceedings in Gran Divorce Case Becoming Complicated.

Judge Cant in district court this afternoon will hear arguments on a motion which will be urged by A. E. McManus, attorney for Victor H. Gran, for an order setting aside a former order of the court extending the time in which B. M. Goldberg and J. A. P. Neal, attorneys for Mrs. Olga Gran, might present a motion for a new trial of the divorce action which was reviewed by the court several months ago. The claim of Attorney McManus is that the notice that it was to be made was served upon him.

The extension in time was granted by the court on the ground that the court reporter had not been able to get a transcript of the testimony, on which to base a motion for a new trial. Since the extension in time was granted the transcript has been prepared. It consists of three bound volumes comprising 1,800 pages. Mr. Gran secured a divorce from his wife on the grounds of adultery.

THIS HORSE HAS THE RUNAWAY HABIT
The horse belonging to Julius Paul, 1220 East Fourth street, which ran away twice last night and which appeared altogether on Kenwood road, was reported found this morning. The animal turned up in Fred Johnson's farm about one-half mile out on the Lake road and he telephoned the police this morning.

Paul was giving his horse a drink of water at the First street fountain when he saw a horse attached to a poplar wagon start to run away. Paul left his own horse and caught a runaway animal and while doing so his own horse made a dash for liberty.

About 9 o'clock last night Whitney Wall, Jr., came to police headquarters and reported that he had a horse on Kenwood road, a short distance from the intersection of the road and the lake road, and that he had tied the animal to a post. Patrolman Westlund went back with the horse and found it tied to the post. The horse had again fled, leaving his bridle tied to the post.

Early this morning Fred Johnson telephoned Capt. Fiskett that he found a runaway horse and that he would hold it for the owner. Paul was notified of this fact by Capt. Fiskett.

OBSERVES ANNIVERSARY OF HIS OWN DEATH
Fifty years ago yesterday, when the armies of the North and South were fighting for supremacy, Capt. Thomas H. Pressnell, deputy clerk of the United States court, was reported killed in the battle of Deep Bottom in Virginia. The news was flashed throughout the country at the time, but a few days later the same newspapers carried an account of his miraculous escape from death on the battlefield.

Capt. Pressnell was first sergeant in Company A, First Minnesota. His regiment had forced an attack on the rebel pierce his body but had penetrated through his blanket and tent, which he had wrapped about his body and then planned off his cartridge belt. He was knocked senseless for a time, but he soon recovered.

ENGLISH THATCH ROOFED DESIGN No. 2

We present to our readers this week the second design of the English series. This design appeals to the artistic nature of most people, and if situated on a good lot can be made even more beautiful by growing vines up its walls. The interior is well arranged and presents several new and novel features. The first floor is finished in birch and the second floor in yellow pine. It would cost, complete, to build in Duluth about $7,500.

TWO COOKS GIVEN WORK FARM TERMS

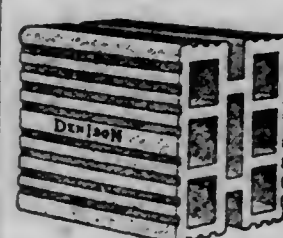

Forger Given Warning By Court to Leave Liquor Alone.

"You better leave drink alone and save your money," were Judge Cant's parting words with Hector Foster in district court yesterday afternoon after Foster had been sent up for ninety days at the work farm on a larceny charge. Foster, 30, cook, forged the name of Charles Fisher on a time check and cashed it on Henry Castner on June 22 last. Foster told the court that he was an ex-soldier and that he had eight sisters and two brothers residing in Rhode Island. William B. Kendig, 24 years old, also a cook, pleaded guilty to a charge of Williams has been unable to recognize members of his own family and his end was momentarily expected by the attending physicians. His wife died several years ago in Aitkin and he is survived by six children, five daughters and one son. They are Mrs. T. M. Homhold of 807 London road, Catherine, Florence, Annabel, Nell and John, all of Aitkin. The body of Judge Williams was this morning taken to Aitkin, accompanied by his daughter, Florence, who was at his bedside when the end came. The other members of the family were all here during the week and were visiting with their sister, Mrs. Homhold. No funeral arrangements have been made as yet, but it is probable services will be held at Aitkin on Monday afternoon. The Masons there will have charge of the funeral.

WORK FARM IS WELL ADVERTISED

Duluth Institution Widely Commented On By Newspapers and Magazines.

Duluth's work farm is attracting attention all over the United States, according to a letter received at the Commercial club today. Some time ago, the club furnished an article on the work farm to Town Development, a magazine devoted to community development. World's Work later commented editorially on the project. The club has now been advised

In a letter to the Commercial club, the editor of Town Development says: "I hope that whenever Duluth has another institution as sensible and interesting, I may hear from you, as such helpful ideas are exactly what the cities of America are searching for."

AMERICA'S OPPORTUNITIES.

With the assurance of the passage by congress of the bill designed to open American registry to foreign ships, and with the Atlantic ocean routes made secure from peril by the English and French fleets, it will be only a short time until trans-oceanic transportation facilities will be provided and international exchange resumed. This will present to the United States the greatest opportunity in the country's history to become the leading exporting nation of the world.

Many of the manufacturers of this country have been striving for years to develop export trade, and while some have succeeded others have found it difficult to gain a firm foothold. With a large part of the male population of the European countries taken from the mills and shops and sent into the field of battle, and owing to the financial stringency that will prevail there, their industries will be prostrated. The manufacturers will find great difficulty in supplying home requirements, and they will certainly not be in a position to supply the normal demands of neutral markets, whose needs will be as great as they ever have been. This presents a great opportunity to the American manufacturers, and it will be surprising if they do not take full advantage of it.

It is stated on reliable authority that the South American countries show strong indications of an early and rapid recovery from the recent financial depressions from which they have been suffering, and that they will enjoy a very marked development in the next two or three years. This is a large and inviting field for the American manufacturers. It has been largely occupied in the past by the German and English manufacturers. These countries must now look to the United States for their supplies. The same is true to a great extent of the Scandinavian countries, which have been obtaining the greater part of their imports from Germany. Another fertile field for the American manufacturer is presented in South Africa, and opportunities for increased sales of American-made products will be found in the Far East and in Australia. Indeed, the chances everywhere are so good that it may be said with confidence that all the American manufacturers have to do now is to go after the export trade and establish themselves with the merchants and consumers of these lands so that the trade will be of a permanent character.

What effect the war will have upon the iron and steel trade is outlined in the following extract from the Iron Trade Review:

"More than 50 per cent of the total iron and steel capacity of the world is represented among the European nations now at war. Some of it undoubtedly is running the hazard of a spoil of battle. The future nationality of many iron and steel plants is in doubt.

"Out of an estimated world's production in 1913 of approximately 75,000,000 tons of steel ingots and castings, at least 40,000,000 tons were manufactured by the works of Germany and Luxembourg, France, British Isles, Austria-Hungary, Russia and Belgium. Of the remaining 35,000,000 tons of the world's output, more than 31,000,000 tons were made in the United States, leaving but the comparatively small portion of 4,000,000 to 5,000,000 tons to unaffected countries, including Italy, which sooner or later also may be drawn into the conflict.

"This astounding fact, implying the tremendous effect that the great European struggle must exert upon the position of the iron and steel industry of the world, is presented from the official statistics of production of the six countries now involved. It requires but little imagination to picture how a considerable part of this capacity may be indefinitely paralyzed, perhaps much of it destroyed before the victor at arms of the present titanic contest shall have been proclaimed. The great damage that the works at Liege, commonly known as the Pittsburgh of Belgium, may now be undergoing as the result of the German bombardment or that they may finally incur, if they fall into the hands of the invading army, suggests the direct destruction of capital that already has occurred to some extent in the iron and steel industry. Finally the circumstances emphasize what a heavy pressure for tonnage may be laid upon the United States—as the only great steel power now conducting a normal business—in order to preserve some semblance of regularity in the world and to meet the barest demands of necessity of those nations which are continuing the life of peace.

These facts show the great opportunity for the United States to extend its exports of iron and steel products. There is no doubt that full advantage will be taken of this opportunity, and as a result all our furnaces and mills will be running at full capacity to supply the demand, and an era of great industrial prosperity will set in that will utilize all the idle labor in the country.

In view of what has been happening, it did seem rather unnecessary for England to declare war on Austria-Hungary.

A BOOM FOR RED SALMON.

A circular issued by the bureau of fisheries at Washington provides quite a boom for the salmon industry.

It shows that the same amounts of nutriment that costs 12½ cents in pink salmon would cost 13½ cents in ham, 21½ cents in chicken, 32 cents in leg of mutton, 33 cents in sirloin steak and 36 cents in eggs.

Says the New York Times: "The manner of preparing salmon, the Federal report says, is of the best. While meats are inspected, they are handled by many persons afterward, exposed in the market place, and may be decayed or infected when the consumer gets them. The salmon comes directly from the cold waters which are their habitat, are washed and delivered alive to the 'iron chink' whence no human hand touches them until, dressed and minus heads, tails and fins, they find their way into the sanitary solderless cans and are cooked. The salmon of the Pacific coast packed last year amounted to 38,745,456 pounds, valued at $38,563,891. One hundred million fishes, weighing from three to twenty-five pounds and sometimes measuring five feet long, supply the raw material for this enormous pack. Apparently the cheapness and excellence of the fish are already well recognized."

This reads like very valuable free advertising for the salmon industry. Very well, so be it. Any information that helps to solve the cost of living by pointing the way to cheap and wholesome nutrition is worth spreading.

"In a hundred years," said Napoleon after his great defeat, "Europe will be either all Cossack or republican." His prophecy may soon be verified.

GOING FARTHER OUT.

One of the most eminent architects in the country says that the city house is becoming obsolete. The country residence is becoming so popular, he thinks, and is being made available for so many people, that before very long most of us will live in the country.

Speed the day! Instead of flats and houses on cramped lots, with lawns two feet wide, it means real yards for the kiddies to play in and flowers and vegetables to grow in. It means better health, greater happiness and sounder contentment.

The idea reminds us of the beautiful dream that Mr. Maxwell dreamed for us a few years ago—a dream of Duluth as a Homecroft city, with every worker on a half-acre or an acre; with not only room for the little ones to play in and grow fat and healthy and strong in, but room for the home garden in which a large part of the family provender could be raised; with the policy of gardening for the year round carried out by a judicious canning of the summer surplus to deck forth the table in winter.

And there was nothing impracticable in that dream, either. If Duluth and a working population scattered around on suburban homes with large garden plots would mean cheaper and better living and a more contented and fruitful working population.

Says the Cleveland Plain Dealer, discussing this architect's notion: "There is much evidence in support of his contention. The drift of householders toward the country from all the large cities is pronounced. New York has changed so much in this respect that it is possible to foresee it in the next few years essentially an immense colony of business establishments and hotels. Suburban dwellings are reaching out from it for a distance of fifty miles, and for several hundred miles around it country homes are being maintained. This means a transformation of the general method of living, made possible by the electric railroad, the automobile and the telephone. It means better housing. The movement may even become so general that many factories will eventually go out into the country and group their workmen about them instead of congesting in the city."

Why should factories cling to cities where property costs and living costs are so high? Factories have to put their products aboard cars anyway; and why not as well in the suburbs as in the heart of a city? The transportation cost on cars moved ten miles is no more than that on freight moved half a mile.

The movement from the congested city to the open country is all to the good for humanity.

When we think of "country residences," we have been in the habit of associating them with wealth. But why? Given proper transportation, proper extensions of electric lines, and the laborer can as easily live in the country as his employer. Move the factory into the outskirts and build a suburb around it, and both worker and employer can have "country residences" and be happy.

The tendency in Duluth toward scattering the population away from the congested centers is as pronounced as it is anywhere. Given proper suburban trolley facilities, and this altogether good tendency will become even more pronounced than it is.

Even Boston now realizes that the cost of living is high. There has been an advance in the price of beans.

WAGES AND PROFITS.

When we see a man doing his work well, we all want him to have good and liberal pay—unless, perhaps, we are employing him. And even then the only difference may lie in our judgment of what constitutes good and liberal pay.

And when men working not for wages but for profits are doing good work and giving us good service, we all want them to do well, too. But when men working for profits, not wages, get the high end and pay themselves ridiculous sums at the cost of workmen's fair wages and of decently comfortable living conditions for everybody, then we lose patience. And that's about the sum of the economic problems of the hour.

Woman suffrage failed in the Georgia legislature by one vote. Probably it will win on the next attempt.

THE COST OF A STRIKE.

Nearly three years ago trouble arose between the men and the companies on the Illinois Central and Harriman lines. Thirty-five thousand men were involved, and for many months all were out of employment. The railroad managers called it a strike, and the men say it is a lock-out. Anyway it was a grim, desperate struggle, and costly.

Through its railway employees' department the American Federation of Labor has instituted an investigation of the human cost of this strike. When it is completed, this investigation should be intensely interesting. Coming from a friendly source, it will cause a more spontaneous response than a cold official investigation, and the facts and figures of woe and suffering that it will yield will constitute a human document of thrilling interest.

The questions sent out to these striking (or locked out) workers are specific and direct:

"Since the strike have you lost your home because you could not make the payments?"

"Were you compelled to take any of your children out of school and send them to work?"

"Was your wife compelled to take up work to earn money because you were forced out of your job?"

"Have you been forced to get along with poorer and less food and clothing for yourself and family since the strike?"

"Have you had sickness in your family since the strike, directly or indirectly caused by poverty?"

"Do you know of any striker or member of his family who committed suicide because of the poverty into which he was forced by the strike?"

There are fifty-two such questions, and they seem to exhaust the possibilities of human misery growing out of a strike or lockout. They seek to determine, among other things, how many homes have been broken up and how many men have been made tramps. Finally, every man is asked to tell the story of his life since the beginning of the strike in his own way.

The questions themselves are illuminating and suggestive. They conjure up a distressing picture of the cost of a prolonged strike. When the answers are completed, the document that will result should be a terrible indictment both of strikes and lockouts, and a terrific arraignment of a state of civilization that has provided no better way of determining disputes about wages and working conditions than these barbarous cousins of war.

Everybody knows that these disputes ought to be adjudicated in some other way. Everybody realizes the loss to labor, the loss to capital and the loss to society as a whole that is inevitably and invariably entailed by strikes and lockouts. Everybody realizes that it ought to be possible to submit every labor difference to unbiased adjudication while the workers stay at work and the industry goes on without interruption. Everybody realizes that arbitration is civilization, and that strikes and lockouts are barbarous.

Yet, in the main, strikes and lockouts are the only methods used where employers and employees fail to agree between themselves.

It may happen, when the war has ended, that the American navy will occupy first place.

ALLITERATIVE NEWSPAPER TITLES

The Kansas Industrialist notes that Kansas newspapers are "long on alliterative titles," and it cites these:

Barnard Bee, Belpre Bulletin, Bison Bee, Bucklin Banner, Claffin Clarion, Coats Courant, Courtland Comet, Cunningham Clipper, Dexter Dispatch, Everest Express, Greeley Graphic, Horton Headlight, Hugoton Hermes, Kirwin Kansas, Louisville Lyre, Manchester Motor, Mankato Monitor, Manhattan Mercury, Olpe Optimist, Potwin Progress, Preston Pilot, Protection Post, Severy Severyite, Summerfield Sun, Valley Falls Vindicator, Wiley Warbler.

But if Kansas wishes to get ahead of Minnesota, it will have to try some other titles. The above list numbers twenty-six; the following Minnesota list of fifty-four exceeds it both in number and in originality of titles:

Annandale Advocate, Alden Advance, Beaver Creek Banner, Bronson Budget, Brownston Bulletin, Brownville Blade, Crosby Courier, Crosby Crucible, Cottonwood Current, Cyrus Citizen, Erie Eleven Towns, Evansville Enterprise, Elmore Eye, Elysian Enterprise, Echo Enterprise, Edgerton Enterprise, Eskine Echo, Ellendale Eagle, Ferguson Falls Free Press, Frazee Free Press, Euda Free Press, Glenwood Gopher-Press, Gary Graphic, Gilbison Gazette, Howard Lake Herald, Hawley Herald, Hartland Herald, Hinckley Herald, Holloway Herald, Jasper Journal, Kimball Kodak, Lewistown Leader, Lafayette Ledger, Lanesboro Leader, Lakeville Leader, Maple Lake Messenger, Montgomery Messenger, Minnesota Mascot, Motley Mercury, Morgan Messenger, Nevis News, Northfield News, Pine City Pine Poker, Pine City Pioneer, Plummer Pioneer, Remer Record, Red Wing Republican, Revere Record, Roseau Region, Sanborn Sentinel, Sunbeam Sunbeam, St. Hilaire Spectator, Twin Valley Times, Truman Tribune, Virginia Virginian.

And now the warring nations are looking to the United States for war loans of large amounts.

DEMOCRACY AND THE COMMISSION PLAN.

Former Attorney General Wickersham, speaking before the bar association of Pennsylvania, declared the other day that the commission plan of city government is undemocratic. "It has thus far resulted," he said, "in vastly increased authority, efficiency and great economy in municipal government. But it is framed upon a principle that is essentially undemocratic."

Mr. Wickersham keeps up his own and the Taft administration's pace for being wrong.

As a matter of fact, the commission plan is the most democratic form of city government ever devised.

And as that fundamental fact bears in upon the public consciousness, we expect to see the principle of the commission plan expanded to take in counties and states as well as cities.

Mr. Wickersham does not make himself clear at all, but manifestly what he means is that the commission plan is undemocratic because it concentrates authority.

And that is precisely what makes it really democratic—because in concentrating authority it also concentrates responsibility and puts it right where every citizen can see it, and where the citizenship can reach it quickly if things go wrong.

Presumably Mr. Wickersham thinks the old style city government is democratic. It isn't. It is just a utterly undemocratic because it scatters authority and responsibility so effectively that no man can find either, and the citizenship is almost utterly helpless.

That's why, under the old plan, an extra-legislative system of machine politics two men from each of so many wards, became the real city government.

Take the old type of city council, and bossism, on the job all the time. There, after all, was the ostensible center of power, authority and responsibility. How was the citizenship to get at this source of power? IT COULDN'T!

No voter had any power whatever over any aldermen except those from his own ward. And as these were elected alternately, he could reach only one at a time. If his city had eight wards, the voter could reach only one-sixteenth of his city government in any one election. Power and authority and responsibility were utterly beyond the reach of the voters, except during an occasional and very rare revolution when the whole citizenship rose up and swept the city from end to end.

But under the commission plan every voter can reach directly every member of the council. Every commissioner is responsible personally for a definite department, and all are responsible and responsive directly to all the voters, no matter in what part of the city they live.

Direct responsibility definitely fixed, and direct control of the responsible officers by all the people—this is true democracy.

The old style was sham democracy, and its best test was that it didn't work.

Seeing an egg fry on a cement sidewalk with the heat from the sun was a diversion enjoyed by a bunch of Wichita, Kan., men the other day. It was fried and well done in thirty minutes. It's hot in Kansas.

Justice and Women

Life: Once upon a time there was a man with two souls and a woman with none.

They fell in love.

The man with two souls was not aware of them. He went along without knowing it.

But the woman with no soul knew that he had two souls, although she did not know what they were.

One day the woman said to the man: "You have something that I have not."

"What is that?" asked the man.

"There are two of them," said the woman.

"But I don't know what they are," said the man.

The man had never thought of this before. But the woman having aroused his curiosity, he dwelt upon himself. And he saw.

He perceived that he had two souls and the woman none. He was unhappy.

"I will divide with you," said the man. So he offered her one of the souls.

The woman did not hesitate. She took one of the souls and thanked him lavishly. But she also was unhappy.

Then the woman tempted the man and he slept. And when he was asleep she came in the night and took from him his other soul.

"He will never miss it," whispered the woman, "because he did not know he had it until I told him. Without me he would never have known." And the woman slept.

When she awoke she perceived that both of her souls—the one she had given her and the one she had taken from him—had vanished. Then she wept.

And when the man awoke he saw instantly what had happened, for he had given him the soul of his thought.

"Never mind, dear," he said. "I should have been satisfied with one," she replied.

True. But on the other hand, if he had been a gentleman I would have offered you both, and then you would have been content with one. Justice is one thing. Knowing how to use it is another."

The rich man's son inherits lands, and piles of brick and stone and gold.

And he inherits soft white hands, and tender flesh that fears the cold, and dares to wear a garment old; and dares to wear a garment old.

One scarce would wish to hold in fee the rich man's son inherits cars;

The band may break, the factory burn; a breath may burst his bubble shares; and soft white hands could scarcely earn.

A living that would serve his turn; a heritage, it seems to me, the one scarce would wish to hold in fee.

The rich man's son inherits wants, and stomach craves for dainty fare; with sated heart he hears the pants of tattered hinds, with brown arms bare.

And wearies in his easy chair; a heritage, it seems to me, the one scarce would wish to hold in fee.

What do the poor man's son inherit? Stout muscles and a sinewy heart; a hardy frame, a hardier spirit; king of two hands, he does his part in every useful toll and art;

A heritage, it seems to me, the one scarce would wish to hold in fee.

What do the poor man's son inherit? Wholesome joy with humble things; a rank adjudged by toil-worn merit; content that from employment springs.

A heart that in his labor sings; a heritage, it seems to me, the one scarce would wish to hold in fee.

What do the poor man's son inherit? A patience learned of being poor; courage, if sorrow come, to bear it; a fellow feeling that he is sure to make the outcast bless his door; a heritage, it seems to me, the one scarce would wish to hold in fee.

O poor man's son! scorn not thy state; there is worse weariness than thine; in merely being rich and great; till thou give the soul to shine, and make rest fragrant and benign.

A heritage, it seems to me, the one scarce would wish to hold in fee.

Mother—A Prayer

From the Gary Times.

Tom Dillon, who used to be a Minnesota newspaper man, gets his pay envelope from the Seattle Post-Intelligencer. Dillon is a newspaper man, one of that fraternity much abused, oft ridiculed. In Tom Dillon is a heart as big as an ox, thoughts as sweet as dew-covered wood petals and a faculty for weaving words that Walt Whitman had.

No more beautiful prayer than Dillon wrote has ever found echo from rostrum or pulpit than the one he evolved entitled "My Mother." Would that every boy and girl might read it and having read it keep and read it again.

Here it is:

"For the body you gave me, the bone and the sinew, the heart and the brain that are yours, my mother, I thank you. I thank you for the light in my eyes, the blood in my veins, for my speech, for my life, for my being. All that I am is from you who bore me."

"For all the love that you gave me, unmeasured from the beginning, my mother, I thank you. I thank you for the hand that led me, the voice that directed me, the breast that nestled me, the arm that shielded me, the lap that rested me. All that I am is from you, who nursed me."

"For your smile in the morning and your kiss at night, my mother, I thank you. I thank you for the tears you shed over me, the songs that you sang to me, the prayers you said for me, for your vigil and your ministrations. All that I am is by you, who reared me."

"For the faith you had in me, the hope you had for me, for your pride and your joy, my mother, I thank you. I thank you for the justice you bred into me and the honor you made mine. All that I am you taught me."

"For the sorrows I caused you, for the visions and despair, my mother, forgive me. Forgive me the peril I brought you to, the sobs and the tears I wrung from you, and for the strength I took from you, mother, forgive me."

"For the fears I gave you, for the alarms and the dreams, my mother, forgive me. Forgive me the joys I deprived you, the toils I made for you, the hours, the days and the years I claimed from you, mother, forgive me."

"For the times that I hurt you, the times I had no smile for you, the times I did not give you, my mother, forgive me. Forgive me for my anger and revolta, for my doubts and evasions, for all the pangs and sorrows I brought to you, mother, forgive me."

"For your lessons I did not learn, for your wishes I did not heed, for your counsels I did not obey, my mother, forgive me. Forgive me my pride in my youth and my glory in my strength that forgot the holiness of your years and the veneration of your weakness, for my neglect, for my forgetfulness, for all the great debts of your love that I have not paid, mother, sweet mother, forgive me."

"And may the peace and the joy that passeth all understanding be yours, my mother, forever and ever. Amen."

Just a Moment

Daily Strength and Cheer.

Compiled by John G. Fennell, the Sunshine Man.

When St. Theresa was laughed at because she wanted to build a great orphanage, and build it in the poorest of the poor, she answered, "With three shillings Theresa can do nothing, but with God she can do anything."

"Alone, yet not alone." (John xv. 22.)

When Fisher, bishop of Rochester, came out of the Tower of London and saw the scaffold upon which he was to be beheaded, he took out of his pocket a book and his eye fell upon the above text. He instantly closed it, saying, "Praise God! this is sufficient for me and for eternity."

I was riding in a railway carriage one morning in company with a man who talked loudly of his own importance, that he never believed anything that he could not understand, especially upon matters of religion. After a pause I ventured to ask him if he would tell me the name of the animals that were grazing in a field. He laughed and readily replied, "Why, sheep, of course." After a pause, and passing another field, I repeated the question. "To tell the truth," he replied, "I know of no sheep, but I know of no other animals that are grazing in that field."

He could not understand and explain the mystery, yet he believed the fact. "A vain boast of a man to talk, for their very existence gives the lie to their assertions."—S. Coley.

officer's heroism, told by a veteran of our wars. Morgan's "Christening" is a capital story of the Scotch Highlands; then comes one of Cape Cod's inevitable sea yarns, which is followed by a description of a fishing trip into the rugged mountain country of Western Wyoming.

Among the short stories in the September issue of Women's Stories, "The Rules," by Herman Whitaker, and "The Little Girl," by Mrs. Elizabeth Newport Hepburn, are particularly to be recommended. The first is a tale of love and tragedy. The second is a love story of the largest magnitude. In the second Mrs. Hepburn has again tackled one of those vital problems which are ever rising in a high-spirited family of today, and she has solved it with work out a practical solution.

they did not help me. I had headaches and could not eat, and the doctor claimed I had female trouble and must have an operation. I read in the paper about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I have taken it and feel fine. A lady said one day, 'Oh, I feel so tired all the time and have headaches.' I said, 'Take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound,' and she said it feels fine now.' — Mrs. R. KARSCHNICK, 1438 N. Paulina Street, Chicago, Illinois.

Vegetable Compound relieved me of pains in my side that I had for years and which doctors' medicines failed to relieve. It has certainly saved me from an operation. I will be glad to assist you by a personal letter to any woman in the same condition."—Mrs. J. W. SHERER, 126 Cass St., Dayton, Ohio.

HAYNES COMPANY IMPROVES PROCESS

M. W. Turner Tells How Streamlines and Fenders Are Made.

"Streamline bodies and crowned fenders were not used on automobiles until within the last year or so for the simple reason that nobody knew how to make them," states M. W. Turner, local distributor for the Haynes, American's first car. "The most logical material from which to build bodies is sheet steel, but the difficulty comes in obtaining the desired curves and shapes. The first sheet steel bodies were laboriously worked up and shaped by hand with the aid of small power hammers and foot presses. The metal would be thin at one curve and unduly thick at another, so that the results were generally unsatisfactory. In keeping with the history of the automobile, the streamlining process has come rapidly, and now the bodies are formed in gigantic presses. Any desired curve or streamline can now be obtained by merely altering the shape of the dies in the press. The light six car represents the latest achievement of the body makers. One thing the steel wheelers are pressed into is not hammering out at any point in order to develop the curves. Consequently, the steel is of uniform thickness and strength at all points. All joints are electrically welded at the doors, so that the finished body is actually composed of a single piece of sheet steel without seams. A light construction is obtained in combination with the desired rigidity. Following the success of the streamline body, came the first crowned fenders. These are being pressed out in dies, but the chief objection to the process is that a heavy gauge steel must be used to make a durable fender. The latest practice is to roll the crown fender between concave and convex rollers. Medium gauge steel can be used, which not only becomes rigid on account of the arched effect of the crown, but materially aids in reducing the total weight of the car. The combination of the streamline body and the crowned fender give the most pleasing appearance that has yet been attained in an automobile."

DETACHABLE TOP PROVES POPULAR

Local Kissel Kar Agent More Than Pleased With Responses.

"For immediate and appreciative response, I have never in my experience known of so effective an automobile announcement as that of the new Kissel Kar detachable top," says J. T. Kitch, Jr., local agent for the Kissel Kar. "The explanation is easy. The same service that is offered by the Kissel Kar '36' with detachable top, formerly necessitated the use of separate complete bodies at an initial cost to the owner of at least $1,000 more. And in addition to the original investment, the changing of bodies has meant a further expense of at least $100 a year. "In the detachable Sedan top, every advantage of the finest closed coach is preserved. There is nothing to indicate a makeshift, nothing that displeases the eye, nor that sacrifices comfort or convenience. All the bolts, top irons and hinges are concealed beneath the lining of the car. Electric wiring is automatically connected as the two halves meet. And the work of converting the car may be done by anyone who can use an ordinary wrench and screwdriver. "The plan of the detachable top is so simple that many people at first ask why it has not been done before. The answer is that it was not and is not possible with the conventional four-door touring body, the forward doors offering an insurmountable objection. But of the two-door Kissel Kar touring body it is a logical and expected evolution. "The tremendous public interest in this body feature has not, I am happy to say, obstructed the merits of the new '36' chassis. Here is a chassis that has everything—power, economy, beauty, riding quality, all in the most liberal measure. While selling for several hundred dollars less than any Kissel Kar was ever before listed at,

DURING JUNE, JULY AND AUGUST it isn't very pleasant to face the task of using stove heated irons, is it? As a matter of fact, they are annoying the year round. As soon as you begin to use a G-E Electric Iron the real hardship of ironing day disappears.

become hot without heating the air. They save you the usual steps from ironing board to stove. You iron straight ahead with the same iron until your work is done. The iron is ready for use a few minutes after you turn the switch and will not cool off until its task is finished. The average cost of operating the G-E Iron is but a few cents for a whole week's ironing. Let us show you one.

AUTOS WILL VIE WITH RAILROADS

Motor Cars Will Convey Thousands to Panama Exposition.

Motor cars will vie with the railroads in conveying the many thousands who will attend the Panama-Pacific exposition in San Francisco next year, according to M. A. Croker and Fred Wilkins, pilots of the Saxon car that made the coast-to-coast run over the Lincoln highway. The drivers upon their return to Detroit after crossing the continent in thirty days declared that at least 2,500 motorists will tour to the coast for the exposition. They found interest over the idea of a high pitch in every section of the country. By 1915 the Lincoln highway will be in much better shape than it is now," said Mr. Croker. "And it should be a difficult feat to traverse the continent by automobile. One thing the run of the Saxon car did was to prove that it is possible for a small car to run from ocean to ocean, even with roads in some sections of the West still in primitive condition. "Only a few years ago the largest and most powerful cars would not have attempted to go across the continent. By contrast we found the feat not only possible, but a simple matter, showing that a light car may even have some advantages over the heavier cars for country driving as well as in the cities. "With the opening of the coming spring there is going to be a great rush of tourists to California and from there to the coast. We figure that fully 2,500 motorists will journey to the coast for the exposition."

BIG TRADE WITH WESTERN FARMERS

Crop Reports Entuse Distributors of Overland Company.

Early prophecies of a record automobile business among the Western farmers during the next twelve months are confirmed by government reports. In that section of the country the volume of motor car sales depends almost entirely upon agricultural conditions. "Overland distributors throughout the West are enthusiastic over the prospect of a busy season after harvest is over," says John N. Willy, president of the Willy-Overland company. "Never before have conditions been so uniformly favorable for the farmer. There is no crop failure to grieve. There is no bumper crop to glut. Corn is well above the ten-year average, hay is abundant, pastures are green, cattle is bringing a good price and there is an air of prosperity throughout the rural districts which rises superior to legislation and business pessimism. "This condition means many more automobiles for the farmers. The time has passed when every farmer feared at the sight of a motor car—even in the thinly populated districts. Automobiles have become a rural necessity. They are considered indispensable by the more prosperous class of farmers. With a motor car the farmer who lives ten miles or more from town is practically as independent as the man whose house is just outside of city limits. "In four years Kansas alone lost 70,000 horses. During the same period the state gained 20,000 automobiles. Of these, almost three-fourths are owned by the farm population. Many of the big farms in Western Kansas do not use more than half a dozen horses, and the rest are sold for meat. "The American farmer not only has come to realize that he can enjoy his demands the better things of life just as much as the man of the city, but at present he is busy threshing and gathering in the big crops. He is up at daybreak and works till dusk, but in the evening you will often find him taking an automobile spin through the country before bedtime. "After the harvest is over, a number of farmers and their families congregate in Hutchinson, in the heart of the Kansas wheat belt, where they start a two or three weeks automobile tour into the mountains of Colorado. It is simply a go-as-you-please affair with no one seeking to reach the destination ahead of the others. It is more a matter of enjoying the trip than of proving that it is possible for a small car to run from ocean to ocean, even with roads in some sections of the West still in primitive condition. "Good roads have helped the farmer greatly from a mere financial standpoint, but already they have more than paid for themselves in the real pleasure and recreation they enable him to get from his automobile."

CARS FOR GERMAN PROVINCE HELD UP

Are at Vancouver En Route for Tsingtau, China.

Word has reached the Detroit office of the Maxwell Motor company that a shipment of 1914 Maxwell cars en route to Tsingtau, China, has been held up in Vancouver, B. C. The cars were to be shipped by boat to Tsingtau. "This bit of news has a special significance," says a representative of the company, "because the German province, and the German army, are now in possession of the Great Britain will, of course, take every precaution to see that no exports leave her province to other countries, and, for this reason, has undoubtedly seized the consignment of German cars for country driving as well as in the cities. shipment were 1914 models, and with one or two exceptions, were ready for sale at the time of the seizure. Two of the cars had been sold to German residents of Tsingtau, while others were going to customers in the inland.

The Maxwell Motor company also has several large consignments in New York ready for shipment to foreign countries, and these, like all other exports, are held up indefinitely, due to the war and its consequent prohibitions on international trade and shipping.

MOTORCYCLE NOTES

Officials of the Panama-Pacific exposition are promoting a mammoth motorcycle endurance run to center in San Francisco next year. According to present plan one contestant will be selected to represent each state in the Union on the run. Foreign riders will also be permitted to enter making the event international. It is contemplated that the start will be from New York the early part of May, the run to be made in stages of about 200 miles, the contestants being required to cross the Atlantic in the early part of the year. George Middleton, of Urbana, Ohio, is counting on his motorcycle to help him land the Republican nomination for governor in his state. On the two-wheeler, Middleton is making a tour of the state, getting acquainted with the voters and gathering in recruits for his cause.

A leading automobile company of Louisville is sponsoring a motorcycle rescue work. When a call of distress is received at the garage motorcyclist is immediately dispatched to the scene with necessary repair parts.

The Dominion of Canada motorcycle championship race meet will be held at Winnipeg Aug. 8 to 10.

as to the coming year's business was shown in the most substantial way possible—every dealer at the convention signing increased contracts for immediate car deliveries.

Y. A. Harris, commercial manager of the Buick company, in his capacity as chairman of the convention, provided a three days program of entertainment busy every moment. Starting Thursday, July 30, with a reception at the factory at which President J. Walter Drake acted as host, the first day was entirely a get-together affair. In the afternoon the visitors were taken on a lake and river ride to Bois Blanc island, where dinner was served at 6 in the evening. A moonlight ride on Lake Erie followed the dinner, and vaudeville on the main deck kept the visitors in the right frame of mind.

Some little anxiety is felt at the Detroit office of the Maxwell Motor company concerning the whereabouts of several of its representatives.

Carroll Forster, Maxwell representative in Austria and captain of a cavalry troop in the Austrian army, has undoubtedly joined his countrymen in the service of his country.

Further public recognition of the Cadillac car in California, where the highway commissioners have just purchased three Cadillacs for use in inspection of highways, was made at the same time the state commission of their choice, the Cadillac for similar work over their new highways.

For some years, state, county and municipal officers the country over have been selecting Cadillacs for their particular hard work.

In California the car's reputation for hard service is being enhanced almost by the new applications for Cadillac membership in the 50,000-mile club. One of the most notable in Pasadena which owns a Cadillac with a record of 150,000 miles and still in service. Even this is exceeded by 153,000 miles and the other 15,000 miles; they are both on the go every day and their owners are proud of them.

Coleman A. Mulford and party of Great Neck, L. I., abandoned their motor car on the coast after reaching the gates of the Yellowstone national park in Wyoming. An urgent business call from the East was the reason.

The Mulford trip, which was made in a 1912 Kissel Kar, covered more than 6,000 miles, and on the return to New York an average of more than 185 miles a day was made. No mechanical trouble was experienced.

At the National Automobile shows to be held in New York and Chicago, Jan. 2-9 and Jan. 22-30, respectively, it is the intention of S. A. Miles, manager of the show, to give prominence to the Cadillac car. The new applications for Cadillac membership in the 50,000-mile club. The latest claimant to motoring favor is a booklet describing by means of 1,600 maps a tour de luxe of the world's famous resorts of the Berkshires, the Adirondacks, Lakes George and Champlain, the Green and the White Mountains, the Maine lakes, and the New England coast drive, and to New York. The entire work has been compiled by Henry MacNair, former editor of leading guides and maps, with the assistance of other experts, and comes with a wonderful scenery and hotels of excellence and charm.

Opposite each map are condensed directions with mileage, brief historical notes, and photographs of the most striking views and chief hosts. The traveler has constantly before him all needed information, thus relieving him from former cumbersome methods of obtaining such information printed on plate paper with dull ink thus eliminating the annoying glare when read in the sunlight. The artistic Indian ink being particularly restful to the eye. This booklet, which is the product of Mr. MacNair's mature experience, may be had for asking, at leading automobile clubs, travel agencies and from the publisher at 334 Fifth Avenue, New York.

Reports on the work of motor driven street sprinklers were the subject of a remarkable story of the same service, showing the efficiency of the Kissel Kar sprinkling and flushing outfit which the city clerk states is doing work formerly requiring twenty-two horse teams. The truck, which is kept running twenty-four hours with three crew shifts, cost $27 a day, including maintenance, operation and wages, as against $121 a day for the horse-drawn vehicles replaced by it. It has a record of covering seventeen blocks in twenty-one minutes, including time for two re-fillings.

When the Olds Motor works announced a new four-cylinder model early in the season, considerable discussion was caused by the price, set at $1,350, since it was determined that the new car should uphold the well-known Oldsmobile reputation for quality. The makers promised a car that should be the exact replica of their "Big Six" in everything but size, and many thought the price in the specifications that promise—for seemed to put it in at least the $2,000 class.

Now comes word of a changed price—not upward as many predicted but downward by $55.

Last season the automobile industry was made to blink by the appearance of a four-cylinder car on the American market, embodying a great many features, most prominent of which was the high speed, high efficiency block motor.

More 1915 Announcements

Fifty-one improvements are incorporated in the 1915 Buick, according to the announcement of the new model made last week by C. E. Finlay, local manager of the Northwest Buick company, Washington agent. Among the more important improvements are the electric control on the dash, increased breaking surface, full streamline body, the headlights, inside curtains, a proved tire rack and windshield without stars.

A series of automobile tours on a scale hitherto unapproached in motoring history is now in progress, featuring the appearance of the first of the new Studabaker "Four and Six" models, and the deliveries of demonstration cars to the thousands of Studabaker dealers in various parts of the country.

In order to get these cars into the hands of the dealers at the first possible moment, trainload shipments are being sent each of the Studabaker branches. The dealers meet at an appointed time and drive their cars home, thus avoiding the delay which might ensue were they to wait for the doubtful schedule of railway freight trains.

Tours of this nature are taking place from New York, Boston, Atlanta, Philadelphia, St. Louis, Dallas, Kansas City, Omaha, Los Angeles, Minneapolis and Portland.

The new Jeffery Chesterfield Six is right now creating an equal amount of comment because it looks like a Peugeot or a Delage and is the first moderate priced American car to incorporate the worm drive silent rear axle.

It is said that 50 per cent of the cars in England are using worm drive rear axles and that France and Germany are rapidly taking it up. The claims made for the worm drive would seem to be substantiated by its silent, smooth and efficient operation and economy of fuel.

The worm and pinion being constantly in contact eliminates the jerks incident to starting or changing gears. Both the front and tonneau seats are tilted back so as to give a most restful position for long drives. The upholstery is so designed as to shape itself to the curves of the human body and give support where it is most needed.

The Jeffery Four and the Jeffery Big Six with Chesterfield seven passenger body rounds out the Jeffery line.

Motor car slogans came into existence with the first automobile placed on the market and have been coined pretty frequently since. "No Hill Too Steep, No Sand Too Deep," "The Choice of Men Who Know," "Ask the Man Who Owns One," "Car With a Conscience," "Car of the American Family" are all by-words that convey the name of some particular car to most of us.

Latest acquisitions to the list of slogans is that put forth by the Chandler Motor Car company of Cleveland—"The Car With the Marvellous Motor." During the coming year, all efforts of Chandler salesmen and advertising men will be devoted to placing the newest slogan in as many different quarters of the country as possible.

Manufacturing operations at the Cleveland factory of the Chandler Motor company, have doubled and tripled in intensity since the 1915 announcement made recently. The profit-sharing plan by which Chandler Sixes can be purchased at $200 less cost than last year, and the sweeping success with which the car has met everywhere, is responsible for the great increase in activities. Practically every Chandler dealer has doubled his orders for the coming season, and preparations are under way for an extremely busy fall and early winter.

A number of added refinements and conveniences are noted in the new model of the Saxon car which has just been announced.

Prominent among the new features are full running boards with molded oval fenders, headlights in front, change in color to dark blue body with black running gear, three hinged bonnet and gasoline filler cap extending through the cowl.

Refinements have also been made in the mechanism of the car but nothing in the way of radical change. Standard motor car practice has been followed in all the essential features of the car, such as the 4-cylinder engine, sliding gear transmission, dry plate clutch, semi-floating rear axle with pressed steel housing, drop-forged heat-treated I-beam front axle, standard type of steering gear, and standard trend.

The new car is noted for its roominess. Comparative measurements show that it possesses as much leg room and as great width as high priced cars. Increased production, continuation of the one chassis policy, marked reduction in price and introduction of a new type in an electrically started and lighted stream-line touring car selling for less than $1,000, are striking features of the 1915 program of the Empire Automobile company, as announced this week. This gives the company a line of three distinct cars for the year, a roadside car, a car for the two touring cars.

The announcement is noteworthy as an indication of the Empire's steady advance along the lines laid down at the time of the company's foundation and steadfastly followed since that time. Lower prices, the reduction this year being $40 for an improved car, has become characteristic of the annual announcement, a practice made possible by adherence to the one chassis plan.

The new touring car is one of striking beauty—with its streamline body and many points of continental design as well as electric starting and lighting. It stands out as a harmonious blending of European beauty with American convenience. It has everything to be desired for comfort, safety and convenience of the motorist. Seats are set low, allowing backs of more than ordinary height. Unhinged throughout is Turkish type of selected leather. All door hinges are concealed, and with the body tapering to the cowl gives a most pleasing flush side effect, completely by the limousine back. Roll crown fenders add to the general attractive appearance.

WAGING CAMPAIGN AGAINST FLIES

Herr Falck's Ambition Is to See a Flyless Denmark.

Copenhagen, Aug. 15.—On the billboards of Copenhagen appears the sign, "The most dangerous of all animals is not the lion, the tiger or the reptile, but—the fly." This is the means Herr Falck uses in waging a campaign against flies.

Herr Falck is the bitterest enemy the fly has in Scandinavia, and his ambition is to see a flyless Denmark. To preach his new crusade he has organized in Copenhagen the first complete fly exhibition in the world. It contains every kind of weapon yet invented for trapping, poisoning or smothering flies. Most of these contrivances come from the United States.

An old superstition that Herr Falck hopes to rid the people of is that a Christmas fly brings good luck. A Christmas fly, according to Herr Falck, is the potential mother of 150,000,000 descendants in the course of the summer season.

CATTLE PURCHASED BY JAMES J. HILL

Blooded Animals to Improve Stock in the Northwest.

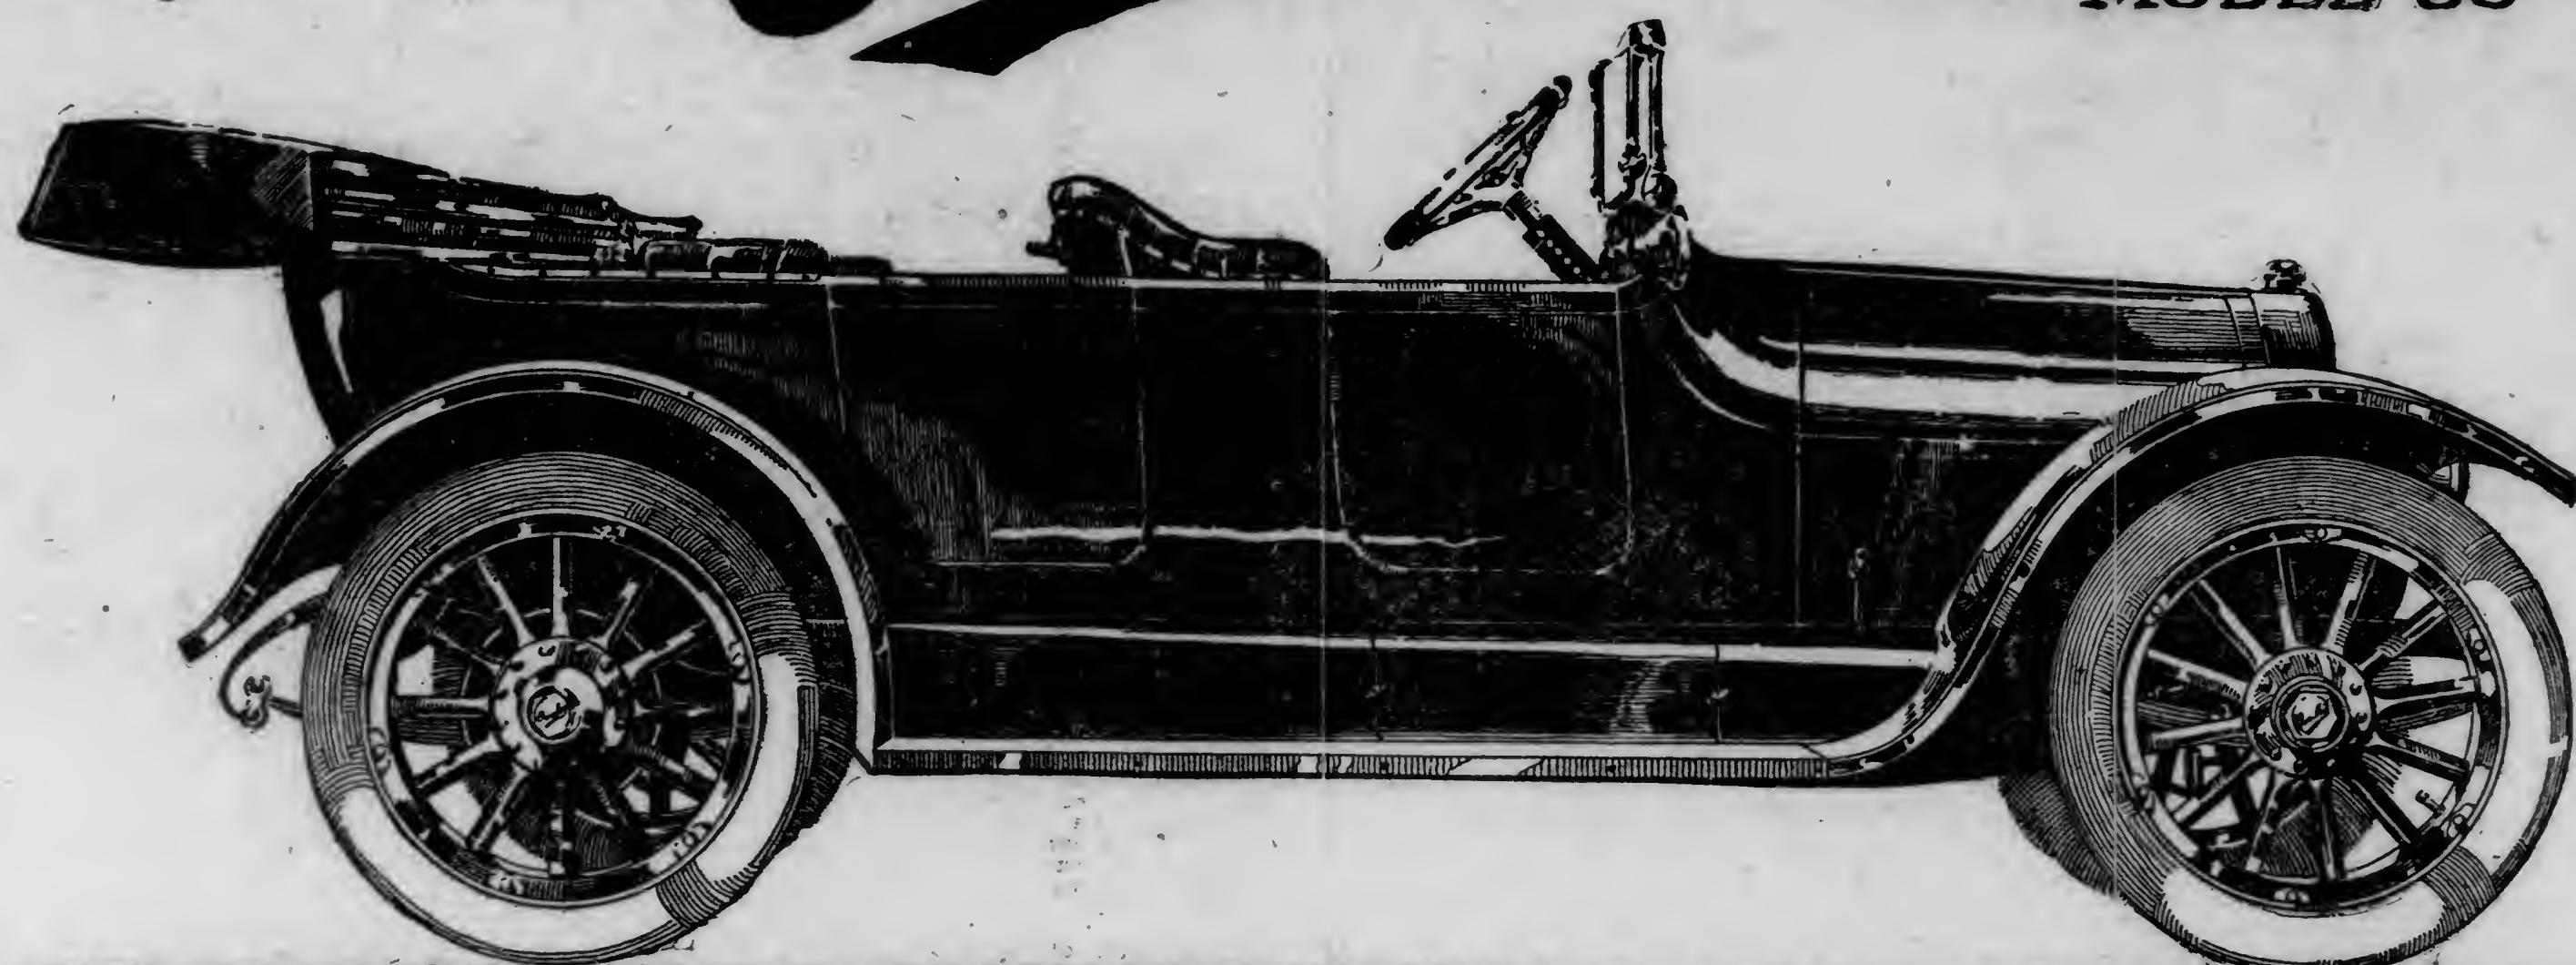

London, Aug. 15.—For the purpose of improving the breed of cattle in the Pacific Northwest, some important purchases of English cattle have been made here for James J. Hill. One shipment is of fifty dairy shorthorn bulls, which will be given away to as many counties in that section of the country. Each of these bulls is the born of a cow with a milk record of 10,000 pounds or more the year.

Besides the gift of these blooded animals to the farmers of the Northwest, a herd of three and a bull of South Devon, the first to be imported to America, will be sent to Hill's Minnesota farm, as well as a prize-winning dairy shorthorn to his North Dakota farm.

The purchases were made by Prof. Thomas Shaw, the well known expert of Minnesota. According to Eugene Grubb, the United States livestock commissioner now in England, this is the most important shipment of blooded cattle ever made to America from England and is well on a great improvement in breed in the Northwest, both for milk and beef purposes.

MODEL 80

The Latest and Greatest Overland of All

THE latest Overland—model 80—is now on exhibition at our local dealers. This is, by far, the handsomest and most artistic car we ever produced.

Again we have made expensive improvements, costly enlargements and incorporated numerous, high-priced refinements.

But we have not advanced the price.

This Overland has a beautiful, brand-new stream-line body. Its full sweeping streamlines blend and harmonize perfectly with the balance of the symmetrical design. All visible lines are absolutely clean, unbroken and uninterrupted.

The new crowned fenders, new rounded radiator, new hood slightly sloped, and flush U doors with disappearing hinges, contribute the additional touches of exterior grace and modishness which distinguish costly imported cars.

The new tonneau is much larger—both in width and in depth.

The new cushioned upholstery is also considerably deeper and softer.

This model is equipped with the finest and most reliable electric starting and electric lighting system. All switches, in a compact switch box, are conveniently located on the steering column. Thus in the driving position, without stretching forward or bending down, you start the car, drive the car and control the electric horn and all head, side, tail, and dash lights.

This car has left-hand drive and center control.

The tires are larger this year, being 34" by 4" all around. These tires can be quickly detached from the rims which are demountable. One extra rim furnished.

BLIND OARSMEN ON THE SEVERN

Four Schoolboys Win Boat Race From Four Men.

Worcester, Eng., Aug. 15.—Four blind schoolboys, pulling with a clean, steady stroke, recently won a race here on the Severn against a crew of four blind men. The victors belonged to the Worcester College for the Blind and their rivals were former pupils. Out of this has resulted a rowing boom at the school, and three "fours" are now in training out of the thirty boys. They hope to enter next season for the public school cup at the Molesey regatta.

The boys were trained by their headmaster, G. C. Brown, who, having eyes, acted as coxswain. "The beginning was the hardest part," says Mr. Brown. "First, they had to feel all over the boat and the oars, while I explained things to them. We trained in a 'tub' with outriggers and fixed seats. But once they learned the feeling of the water, they picked up the stroke easily. Their keen sense of hearing and the movement of the boat enables them to keep perfect time."

No form of athletics introduced at the school has been taken up as eagerly by the boys as rowing.

LIGHTHOUSES FOR PANAMA REPUBLIC.

Panama, Aug. 15.—Work will be begun soon on the construction of four small lighthouses for the Panama government. The work will be done by private contractors. All of the lighthouses will be on the Pacific coast and will be a distinct aid to the navigation of these waters, especially to the small coast traders that make the port of Panama their home port. The lighthouses will be located as follows: One at the entrance to Panama bay, one on Melon Island, one at San Carlos, one at Port Obaldia, one at Port Chitre at the entrance to the La Villa river, two at Mensabe, one at Santa Lucía river, and two on Linartes rock.

UNIVERSITIES IN GERMANY CROWDED.

Berlin, Aug. 15.—Almost 61,000 students were enrolled at Germany's twenty-one universities in the last semester, and 4,000 more attended certain lectures without being regularly inscribed. The smallest university, that of Rostock, has a trifle more than 1,000 students, and the University of Berlin leads with 8,538. Only 5,000 of the 61,000 were women. Recalling the outcry of the last year or two against foreign students, one is surprised to find that there were only 6,000 foreigners enrolled. Medicine attracts the greatest number of students, but philosophy, philology and history are not far behind. Most of the universities were crowded until the war started.

AN INTERNATIONAL SPORT EXPOSITION.

Berlin, Aug. 16.—An international sport exposition in connection with the Olympic games of 1916 is assured, the committee in charge of the games having decided to carry out the suggestion to this end which was made at Stockholm two years ago. The necessary ground for the exposition has been placed at the committee's disposal. It adjoins the new stadium. Sporting apparatus, outfits, physical culture appliances—in short, everything connected with the development of the body—will be represented. One of the main features will be exhibits showing the contrasting methods of physical culture of various countries. The crown prince, already the patron of the Olympic games, will, it is expected, also consent to act as patron of the exposition.

LAMPING THE SPORT SHOW FROM THE SPORT EDITOR'S EASY CHAIR

Doyle, One of the Best Featherweights of the Country, to Meet Freddy Couture, and Billings to Meet Johnny Salvatore---Hotel Porters Playing Golf---The War Spirit and Baseball.

BY BRUCE.

WITH Warriors Jack Doyle, Frederick Couture, Kid Billings and Johnny Salvatore, not to mention Red Riley and his opponent of ring lore were learned by Doyle in the near vicinity of the Cherry Hill district of New York city. Scrappers of the eminent ability of Leach Cross have graduated from the same hard school as the little scrapper who is making his present home on the other side of the bay.

The fine points of boxing have been acquired by Doyle from such past masters as Mike Gibbons, whom the youngster used to work out with at the New Polo A. C., Abe Attell, Packey McFarland, and others of that high toned pugilistic ilk.

Couture is an aggressive and tough boxer. He made a great battle against Doyle on the evening of Independence day, and while Doyle says he will annihilate Couture in the coming encounter, the wise ones are not so sure of this forecasted result. Billings has risen to the point in the boxing game where the followers of the sport are beginning to take him seriously. A win in decisive fashion and workmanlike manner over the tough and enduring Salvatore, a veritable Battling Nelson in some respects of the heavier lightweights, will materially boost Billings' stock.

Both of these fights should be filled with action from going to going, for every one of the boys listed in the two star bouts of the evening has far more than the average incentive in winning; an incentive, in fact, greater than the money hung up for the winner's end.

How Times Have Changed.

ONE of the local travelers reported yesterday that last week he was in Peoria's once most popular saloon and found the bartender reading to help kill time.

Mike O'Brien of the Northland Country club declares that the janitor and porter of the Pfister hotel, Milwaukee, are two of the most ardent devotees of the public golf links of Milwaukee. Thus does civilization creep upon us apace.

The Conquering Heroes.

JAMES TEN EYCK leaned against a building yesterday, cocked his panama over his eye and in thoughtful meditation declared that he would like much to take his oarsmen down to the fall regatta of the New England Rowing association. He said that the regatta is held on Oct. 12, on the famous Charles river.

"We could enter a sculler or two, a quadruple four and an eight," said James. "With eight or ten oarsmen could wreck a lot of damage to the rowing reputation of the men of the East."

It Would Not Please Us.

HAVING labored zealously during the passing week in the unblinking midst of the golfers, we could be caught drinking tea any afternoon at any downtown place and not be confused in the least.

We Also Want You, Roy.

IM RICE, coach of the Columbia crews, asked Roy Kent to enter Columbia, asked John MacGregor to ask Roy, and then supplemented these exhortations with a beseeching letter. Granted, old chap, that Roy would make a valued addition to the Columbia crew, the fact remains, notorious, persistent and puissant, that we need Roy right at home.

The pleadings of Rice give rise to the alarming thought: Will the rowing coaches of the schools of the various parts of the country try to cajole, coax, entice and otherwise lure our young men away from the home rowing school training plant? Leaping mentally ahead to Henley and the rousing honors beyond, we join in the lively din of chiding "no's."

The Effervescent Alibi.

CHARLES THORNTON, of wheat culture and board of trade fame, now a resident of Winnipeg and well liked by the best citizens of that city and respected by the police, was down on the more cultured side of the border line during the present week. Upon our broad and well paved thoroughfare yesterday Charles casually mentioned the complaint sprung by some of the members of the Winnipeg Rowing club regarding our crew members.

Some of the Winnipeg folks have spoken up in indignant refrain and declared that our boys are given board and room and are as near the professional line of athletic endeavor as men can well be.

Nay, nay, sayeth not so; our boys pay regular coin of the realm for the steaks and rare roasts that are served at the club--and as for the place where they loiter--heaven! The place is a long and wide room, unadorned and unfitted, alongside of which a box car would resemble the fable mentioned several times in the home, sweet home ditty.

The Winnipeggers, we are wot of, are terribly cut up over their notoriety, but verily they should seek and obtain a more sportsmanlike kick than the

GRAND CIRCUIT TO PITTSBURG

Finishing Harness Events at Kalamazoo With Good Card.

Kalamazoo, Mich., Aug. 15.—Today marked the end of a week's grand circuit racing in Kalamazoo and from here the horses will be shipped to Pittsburg for a five-days' meeting. The get-away program consisted of four events, the free-for-all, 2:07 pace, 2:12 trot, 2:15 trot and also the completion of the 2:17 pace, which started yesterday.

Five races, with an aggregate of four horses competing, furnished a heavy card yesterday. Two of the contests, the $3,000 Burdick hotel stake, for 2:10 pacers, and the 2:12 pace, went five to six heats respectively, and were gruelling struggles. The 2:15 trot, purse $2,000, and the 2:17 trot were won in straight heats. Interest centered in the 2:10 pace. The field numbered eleven horses, including Peter Stevens and King Couchman, who were figured as the most dangerous contenders. King Couchman won the first heat, the second and going to Peter Stevens. Then Carmelle took a heat. Peter Stevens had the class of the bunch and captured the fourth and fifth heats and the race.

The time, 2:05 1/2, 2:05 1/2, 2:06 3/4, 2:06 3/4 and 2:07 1/2 were disappointing, faster miles being expected. The track was a bit slow as a result of Thursday's heavy rain and a breeze down the stretch hindered the horses in the get-away. The 2:12 pace was a race won the second, third and sixth heats and the race. Lella Patch finished first in the fourth and fifth, while the first heat went to Grand Opera. There were whipping dishes in practically every mile. The 2:15 trot was easy for Barney Gibbs.

BLANCHE HURLS NO-HIT GAME AGAINST THE BILLS

Fort William Beaten By Score of 3 to 0 By Dooks.

New League Record Established When Sixteen Bills Are Whiffed.

Fort William, Ont., Aug. 15.—Henry Blanche of the Duluth White Sox yesterday pitched a no-hit-no-run game against the Bills, the visitors from the head of Lake Superior winning the contest by the score of 3 to 0.

In addition to holding the locals hitless, Blanche whiffed sixteen of the record is a new high figure of the season. Two batters walked, one other reached the initial sack by being hit by a pitched ball, and one of the local runners advanced as far as second by the medium of a sacrifice hit. No one of the local players reached the third sack.

Duluth got but six hits off Larry Sutton, but the hits of the Dooks were timely and came in precisely the time to yield runs.

The hitting and work on the bases of Right Fielder Bond of the visitors was one of the features of the game. The score:

Brooklyn, N. Y., Aug. 15.—Yesterday's game between Brooklyn and Philadelphia was a mixture of tragedy and comedy. SPORTING EVENTS OF THE WEEK AS SEEN BY THE HERALD CARTOONIST of the United States Lawn Tennis association, and among the leading exponents of tennis in the early days of the game in this country.

In 1907 Dr. Dwight, in a letter to his friend, Herbert Chipp, in England, suggested a match between American and English players, as this proved to be the basis of a correspondence followed by negotiations between British and American lawn tennis associations which, although disrupted for a long time owing to the outbreak of the Spanish-American war, culminated in a match between the British Isles and American teams at the Longwood Cricket club's grounds, Boston, Aug. 8, 9 and 10, 1910, which was won by the Americans, M. D. Whitman, Dwight F. Davis and Holcombe Ward, the British players being A. W. Gore, H. Roger Barrett and E. D. Black. England was unable to send a team here the following year but they did so in 1902 and again American won. In 1913, however, the Doherty brothers and Harold S. Mahony captured the trophy and took it to England with them and it remained there until 1907 when it was won by the Australian team, who retained it until 1912, when the British won it again only to relinquish the bowl to the custody of the Americans a year later.

Amateur Golf Championship. With the open contest decided, the amateur championship, American golfing blue ribbon, will attract the attention of every player of note in the country. This year the United States Golf association has selected the links of the Elkwood Country club, Manchester, Vt., from Aug. 31 to Sept. 5, for the twenty-two national amateur tournament. The present holder of the trophy, D. Travers of Upper Montclair, N. J., although the champion has not taken part in the present tournament since his return from his recent visit in quest of British honors on the other side of the Atlantic. Travers has been keeping in close touch with the game. The entries for the event will not close until a week from next Monday. Last year two foreign entrants were among those who participated for the national contests at Garden City, but this year the field will be entirely American in its make up.

GOLFERS MEET AROUND BOARD

Annual Banquet of Golf Association Is Social Feature.

The annual banquet of the state golf association, the real social event of the week's play, was held last evening at the Northland club house. More than 100 guests were gathered around the banquet board. The decorations of the large dining room were especially attractive and tasteful. The guests were seated at tables of six. At each table were baskets of nasturtiums. On the sides of the baskets were perched tiny figures of birds, while the walls of the large room were tastefully draped.

Judge Pace Morris, one of the veteran golfers of the association and also one of the most enthusiastic, acted as the toastmaster of the evening. Judge Morris complimented the officers of the association upon the success of the tournament and paid a rare tribute to the game.

Thomas F. Cole, retiring president of the Minnesota Golf association, was one of the speakers of the evening. Golf was the dominant subject of the remarks of the majority of the speakers, and Mr. Cole dwelt particularly on the success of the association in stimulating interest in a clean, healthful and sportsmanlike game, and told of the growing interest in golf in this part of the state.

Other speakers of the evening were Price Wickerson, the Town and Country club, E. H. White of Duluth, Dr. Sweeney of the Town and Country club, Walter W. Croze of the Northland club, and I. D. Fisher of the Minneapolis club.

DULUTH BOATS ARE AT WHITE BEAR

Boat Club Represented in Inland Lake Yacht Races.

The sailors of the Duluth boat club leave today for White Bear lake, where the races of the Inland Lake Yachting association will be sailed during the coming week. The Sphinx, class A, 38-footer; the Joyetta, class B, 32-footer; and the Hood, class C, 20-footer, are the boats that will represent the Duluth boat club at the regatta.

All of the Duluth boats have been entered in the contest for the championship of White Bear lake, which is being sailed today. Among the sailors

COMPANY C. RIFLE TEAM WILL MEET THE PICKED SHOTS OF FIRST AND SECOND REGIMENTS

RIFLE TEAM, COMPANY C, M. N. G.

Top Row, Left to Right—Corporal Sigurd Loraas, Sergt. E. N. Goselin, Sergt. A. W. Gasper, Quartermaster Sergt. Paul Schultz, Sergt. Ed C. Behning, Corporal Archie Adams. Center—Lieut. Roy K. Carpenter, Team Captain. Bottom Row—Private Martin Bugie, Mascot Harris.

The rifle team of Company C, Third Regiment, M. N. G., is the winner this year of the match at Lake City in which it defeated the team of Company M of Hibbing. The winners' score was 1,495 and the next high score was 1,493. This score is more than 100 points above the score of the match last year.

The team will compete with the picked teams of the First and Second Regiments, M. N. G., on Aug. 23 and 24.

The company team matches will be followed by a shoot between twelve of the best shots in each regiment who will represent their respective regiments in the regimental team match. After the regimental shoot has been decided, a team will be picked from the best shots representing the state as the state team.

Duluth has always been well represented on this team in the past and is sending some good shots this year to try for places. A shooting camp will be held at Lake City for ten days, Aug. 26 to 30. This will be the last one held under the new divisional system of shooting instead of the old national match. Five shoots by divisions will be held each year.

As some of the states in this division cannot afford to hold this shoot this year, each state will hold its own camp or rifle work.

There are a number of valuable trophy cups and medals to be competed for at Lake City, and a good attendance is expected. Capt. W. O. Flodin has been detailed as a range officer and some of the "shots" from Duluth are: Charles Helmer, Louis Berger, Paul Schultz, E. K. Carpenter, Ed Simpson, Ralph Loraas, E. L. Behning, A. A. Adams, John Stauss, John Harrison.

private secretary of Prince William, set out from Alessio with Chief Prent for the relief of the prince, then besieged in his capital. Prent had 5,000 men and one field gun. Armstrong commanded the gun, which was aimed and fired by the monocular Englishman. As they had never seen a monocular before, they thought it essential to aiming, or a kind of range finder. Armstrong did not dispel their illusion.

SPA WILL BE BARRED TO WEALTHY PEOPLE.

Berlin, Aug. 15.—One of Germany's famous medical spas, Sodenhal, near Aschaffenburg, Bavaria, will henceforth be barred to rich people. It has been bought and will be reserved for the workingmen. The purchase has been made by the imperial insurance department, from state funds and the spa will be reserved entirely for workingmen and women insured by the state and sent to Sodenhal for treatment by the official physicians' certificates. Hotels, baths and all other things connected with the resort are now the property of the state.

CABLE COMPANY TO FIGHT CENSORSHIP

"Form of Unreasonable Search," Declares an Official.

New York, Aug. 15.—The Commercial Cable company has officially announced that it would contest "as a form of unreasonable search" the placing of censors in its offices by the government. The company's statement is a very important way from wireless telegrams, which are not subject to censorship by the government, to the placing of censors in the offices of the company. The company's statement is a very important way from wireless telegrams, which are not subject to censorship by the government, to the placing of censors in the offices of the company.

The sending of cablegrams may be considered in the same light as traffic in supplies or munitions of war. Our citizens are not prohibited from furnishing belligerents with supplies. The subjects of neutral states may even supply belligerents with arms and ammunition without infringing the neutral status of the state itself.

A cablegram is in many respects similar to a letter, and it certainly is not the duty of any neutral government to censor letters to a belligerent country. The secrecy of telegrams is preserved in many states by statutes which make it a criminal offense to divulge their content.

While the United States exercised rigid censorship the nations who are now belligerents did not impose any restrictions on messages to or from the United States or to or from Spain. Commercial Cable company would feel obliged to contest the placing of censors in its offices as a form of unreasonable search.

LODGE'S FRANK USED; UNCLE SAM IS SUING

Demands $57,600 Postage on High Tariff Campaign Matter.

Washington, Aug. 15.—Suit has been ordered by Postmaster General Burleson to recover from the United States beet sugar industry $57,600, which it is alleged should have been paid in postage on a pamphlet circulated under Senator Lodge's frank while the Underwood tariff bill was before congress.

Information concerning this pamphlet, which the postal authorities allege was illegally franked, was brought out during the recent senate lobby investigation. The pamphlet was the work of Truman H. Palmer, secretary of the United States beet sugar industry. A statement issued by the department said:

Senator Lodge obtained, on July 27, 1912, an order of the senate to print certain charts displayed in the senate illustrating the beet sugar industry. The charts were furnished by Mr. Palmer. A proof of the charts was furnished to Mr. Palmer, who enlarged it beyond the scope of the senate order, and it was printed under an alleged order of a different date, of which the senate has no record.

Mr. Palmer had also printed by private concerns 235,000 copies of a President John Burmeister of the Northern league has just issued an official statement giving what he declares is a "correct standing of all the clubs of the league with the games of Aug. 12, inclusive."

According to that statement, Duluth leads the league today with Winnipeg second.

If the standing, as given by President

Burmeister, is correct then more games have been won in the league than have been lost. That, of course, is absurd. If it could be correct the law of gravity would be of no effect and other accepted things in the scientific and mathematical world would have the proper knocked out from under them.

The Herald would like to have Duluth leading the league. It can't be done at present, and Mr. Burmeister to the contrary notwithstanding, the league's standing as given in the Herald of today, shows Winnipeg still in the lead. It is the correct one and Mr. Burmeister is believed to be entitled to a few minutes more in which to figure the problem over again.

To prove this case required only a simple application of addition. In the so-called correct standing sent out, the only difference in the standings of Aug. 13, including the games of Aug. 12, between The Herald and Mr. Burmeister is in regard to Duluth. He gives Duluth 59 games won and 37 lost; The Herald gives Duluth 59 games won and 37 lost. In Mr. Burmeister's totals he has 389 games won in the league up to that time and 387 lost. The Herald's totals are 388 games won and 388 lost, which is correct.

STILL TALKS OF SEA-LEVEL CANAL

French Engineer Says It Will Ultimately Be Necessary.

Panama, Aug. 15.—After having spent the better part of a week in an extended examination of the Panama canal, Philip Bunau-Varilla, ex-chief engineer for the defunct New French Panama canal company, is still of the opinion that ultimately the isthmus of Panama will witness the construction of a sea-level canal. He declares that at the end of the twenty years of operation of the present lock canal it will be found necessary to reconstruct the waterway in order to take care of the increased traffic that will use it.

Bunau-Varilla is emphatic in his statement that within twenty years the present Panama canal will have reached the limit of its carrying capacity, 60,000,000 tons annually, and that then it will be found that only a sea-level canal will adequately care for the traffic. The former canal engineer makes it plain, however, that he does not mean to criticize the construction of the present lock canal, but maintains that this is merely the secondary period in the construction of a waterway across the isthmus.

Bunau-Varilla has spent most of his time since arrival on the isthmus in making voyages of inspection along the canal. In many of his trips he was the guest of Col. George W. Goethals, governor of the Panama canal, who explained the work to his distinguished visitor. He has made a number of motor boat trips through the Culebra cut and Gatun lake. Besides his examination of the Gatun dam and the spillway, and watching the work at Cucaracha slide. He was taken from dredge to dredge and chatted with many of the workmen. He was considerably impressed with the capacity for work shown by the huge 16-yard dipper dredges, both of which are actively engaged in pushing back the hitherto advancing toe of the slide.

DULUTH GIRL BRAVES WAR TO MAKE DEBUT IN OPERA

MISS MILLIE BAKER.

Miss Millie Baker of Duluth, who has been studying voice in Paris five years, will brave the disturbed conditions in Europe to fill her grand opera engagements in Italy and Spain this coming season. Many singers in France have been losing no time getting back to their own countries, but Miss Baker has written her mother, Mrs. A. Baker of 2208 Minnesota avenue, of her intention of carrying out her contracts. Her debut will be made in Spain, probably in an Italian opera. Her repertoire includes operas in Italian, Spanish, French and German.

Before going abroad, Miss Baker studied under Prof. Cooper in Chicago and Mme. Remard in New York. In Paris she has been a pupil of Tradedo and Engel. Since going to Europe five years ago Miss Baker has made one trip home, spending three weeks in Duluth last summer.

agreeable as the summer program sounds to those left behind in the city. Imperative in many instances, especially if the winter home is in the city, least and if it can be had for the entire summer, so much the better. With one exception only was there any demerit. The mother of two children, whose husband makes a long trip night and morning in order that he may be with his family, positively refuses to leave her husband for a single day. However, we think it pays. She imposes a great hardship upon him. Unlike her, however, he is willing to make a sacrifice for the sake of his children.

"It's the only reason I leave my husband a long summer through," said another woman, looking off to where her brood, brown-faced and barefooted, frolicked on the beach. "It would be a good deal less here than in the city. In addition, it is a healthier, safer place than any I know of nearer home. However, we think it pays. The children store up health and strength for the winter, and so do I."

I believe the sacrifice, on the whole, is worth while.

FORMER DULUTH WOMAN WILL BE AT THE KEY CENTENNIAL

MRS. E. A. SHORES.

Mrs. E. A. Shores of Seattle, Wash., who has been passing the summer with her daughter, Mrs. A. E. Walker of 2105 East First street, has been appointed by Governor Lister of Washington to represent that state at the Centennial commission in Baltimore.

The church bells were ringing in Baltimore, Sunday, Sept. 11 of that year when the cry, "The enemy is at our door," went through the streets. Three common loaves of bread were thrown upon the ground, and fifty British ships were seen off North Point, twelve miles from the city. Fortifications were thrown up around the town, batteries were planted at advantageous points and Fort Mifflin was garrisoned to protect Baltimore against the enemy's ships that were sure to attack it.

While the British fleet was still in the lower Chesapeake, Key, a lawyer, soldier and poet, with a flag of truce, had interceded for the release of the British ships that were sure to attack it. On Sept. 12 the British were defeated in a land battle. On the morning of Sept. 13 their bomb and rocket vessels began a bombardment of Fort Mifflin and other water defenses. In the rear of the British fleet was the British ship Montagu upon which were Key and his companions. From the decks they watched the bombardment of Baltimore and Key began to write on the back of a letter. The fury of the attack increased with each redoubt.

Firing from the fleet and the fort lasted until 7 o'clock in the morning. When dawn tinged the sky Key saw the stars and stripes floating triumphantly over the ramparts. He and his companions went ashore in a small boat. That night, completely exhausted, he lay down on a cot. The next morning he took to his bed. The next morning he took to his bed. Residence work was again the feature in the new construction taken in hand, though two permits, one issued to Darrett & Zimmerman to cover the new stable being built by the firm in West Duluth, and another taken out by I. Sher for a brick store and flat building on First street between Lake avenue and First avenue, accounted for $25,000 of the week's total.

ILLINOIS MAN WANTS THE UNITED STATES TO OPPOSE JAPAN'S PLAN

Congressman Britten Would Have Bryan Make Protest.

Offers Resolution to Interfere in Affairs in Far East.

Tokio's Ultimatum to Berlin Causes Stir at Washington.

Washington, Aug. 17.—A resolution directing Secretary of State Bryan to protest against the announced intention of Japan to take over the German leased territory of Kiau-Chau, China, was introduced in the house today by Representative Britten, Republican, of Illinois.

The resolution quotes the Japanese ultimatum to Germany demanding the withdrawal of all German armed forces from Chinese territorial waters and the surrender of Kiau-Chau to Japan and continues:

"Whereas, It is self-evident that the release of said territory to the Japanese government would be inimical to the interests of the United States and China whose territory should be preserved, therefore be it

"Resolved, That the secretary of state be, and he is hereby directed to communicate with the Japanese government that the United States views with concern the transfer by force of arms of any Chinese territory to Japan or any other foreign nation or any transfer of territory without the unconditional consent of the Chinese government."

"Warlike Step." Representative Britten said that the course of Japan appears to be a warlike step to gain a hold on Chinese territory. The resolution was introduced in an informal manner without special attention being directed to it and later was referred to a committee.

President Wilson made it clear that the United States would not be involved in any way in the Japanese ultimatum to Germany.

Several attempts have been made by the Germans to destroy this town by means of an attack with aeroplanes, within the last few days. Saturday a bomb dropped on the sidewalk of the bridge of Omla, injuring one man, but doing slight damage to the building. Several bombs dropped on other points in the town, but did no harm.

London, Aug. 17.—5:10 a. m.—A dispatch to the Times from Namur, Belgium, says:

"Several attempts have been made by the Germans to destroy this town by means of an attack with aeroplanes, within the last few days. Saturday a bomb dropped on the sidewalk of the bridge of Omla, injuring one man, but doing slight damage to the building. Several bombs dropped on other points in the town, but did no harm."

President Consults With Experts on International Law.

Washington, Aug. 17.—President Wilson expects within the next twenty-four hours to find an impartial plan for dealing with the question of censoring wireless and cable messages out of the United States to the nations involved in the European war. He is consulting with the department of justice and with international law experts on the subject.

Morgan Acceptance of Washington Decision Stops Negotiations.

New York, Aug. 17.—Abandonment by J. P. Morgan & Co. of a proposed loan to France because of the attitude of the administration at Washington, is expected to terminate negotiations recently under way here in behalf of other belligerents, including Austria.

It was understood in the financial district that the Austrian government had sounded American bankers, presumably through its ambassador at Washington, regarding the prospects of a $50,000,000 to $100,000,000 loan, chiefly for the purchase of foodstuffs in this country.

"Warlike Step." Representative Britten said that the course of Japan appears to be a warlike step to gain a hold on Chinese territory. The resolution was introduced in an informal manner without special attention being directed to it and later was referred to a committee.

President Wilson made it clear that the United States would not be involved in any way in the Japanese ultimatum to Germany.

New York, Aug. 17.—Abandonment by J. P. Morgan & Co. of a proposed loan to France because of the attitude of the administration at Washington, is expected to terminate negotiations recently under way here in behalf of other belligerents, including Austria.

It was understood in the financial district that the Austrian government had sounded American bankers, presumably through its ambassador at Washington, regarding the prospects of a $50,000,000 to $100,000,000 loan, chiefly for the purchase of foodstuffs in this country.

Washington, Aug. 17.—Germany's offer to place at the disposal of the United States passenger steamers which would sail under the American flag to bring refugees home from Europe was before members of the government board of relief today. Acceptance of the offer was assured, and there were indications that some of the other nations involved in the European war might divert liners for the relief of Americans stranded abroad. Minister Stovall at Bern reported there were about 10,000 Americans in Switzerland who seek transportation. Secretary Bryan, after the receipt of cablegrams last night from Ambassador Page at London, said:

"The transportation situation between this country and Great Britain is now such that every American may, in a few weeks, go home in the ordinary manner. The problem is therefore solved."

U. S. GOLD ON BRITISH SOIL

Tennessee Lands $415,000 and It Is Sent to London.

American Cruisers Are Cheered on Reaching Falmouth.

Falmouth, Eng., Aug. 17.—1 p. m.—The sum of $415,000 in American government gold was removed from the United States cruiser Tennessee and sent to London this morning. The gold was in small bags.

The operation was watched by a large number of residents of Falmouth. After the gold had been landed it was placed on a wagon by American sailors, and taken to the railroad station, where it was loaded on a special train. The gold train was expected to reach London this evening. Henry S. Breckinridge, assistant secretary of war of the United States, and Ambassador Walter Hines Page arranged for the transfer.

The cruiser North Carolina will proceed from Falmouth to Cherbourg. Maj. Charles A. Hokekin, who is in command, will take charge of the relief work in France.

North Carolina First.—The U. S. cruiser Tennessee and North Carolina dropped anchor in Falmouth harbor last evening. The North Carolina reached port at 7 o'clock, about half an hour before her sister ship. This is accounted for by the fact that the Tennessee has been longer in commission and is fouled.

Only Shot a Salute.—Assistant Secretary of War Henry S. Breckinridge, who is acting as direct representative of the government, said that the voyage was uneventful. Two war ships were sighted, one English and the other French. They steamed rapidly in the direction of the Tennessee, but when they observed the Stars and Stripes the admiral aboard the British ship fired a salute.

RUSSIAN STATEMENT ON BORDER FIGHTING

Defensive Operations Are Said to Have Brought Attacks.

St. Petersburg, via London, Aug. 17, 12:45 p. m.—The Russian war office today issued an official communication giving information as to the recent military movements on the frontier between Austria-Galicia and Russian Poland. It says:

"The defensive operations and the movements of reconnoitering detachments of the Russian army on the frontier of Galicia between Aug. 12 and 17 led to a series of attacks by cavalry supported by infantry and artillery."

"In the provinces of Piotrkoff and Kielce, the Austrian cavalry occupied a front of over fifty miles in length, extending along a line from Tchenstochow through Andriew. In the latter, the cavalry was supported by infantry and by artillery."

TURKISH TROOPS ON THE WAY TO GREECE?

Report Rouses Greeks to Threaten Retaliatory Measures.

London, Aug. 17, 3:10 p. m.—Official dispatches say Greece has received information that Turkish troops are crossing Bulgarian territory and marching in the direction of Greece. The Hellenic government, in consequence of these reports, has notified the British government that it has confirmed, corresponding military and naval measures will be taken immediately by Greece.

LEIPZIG ENTERS FRISCO HARBOR.

San Francisco, Cal., Aug. 17.—The German cruiser Leipzig, which, stripped for action, has been patrolling the coast off this harbor for the last week, entered San Francisco bay early today and anchored just inside the golden gate. The vessel sent word astore that it desired to communicate with the German consul.

SUMMARY OF NEWS IN THE EUROPEAN WAR

The censorship put into effect by the British authorities over the movement of the empire's armed forces, afloat and in Belgium, is effective to a remarkable degree. Not one word of news has come through for several days past concerning British military or naval activities. Censored dispatches from Brussels and Paris have frequently referred to the presence of British troops arrayed against the forces of Germany, but not one word has been allowed to come through from any source to indicate what the numerical strength of the British field army may be, or where the units may be located. Equal secrecy shrouds the movements of the British warships believed to be holding the German fleet in check in the North sea.

Not one word has come through of the position of any British or German battleship, cruiser or torpedo boat in these waters. So far as the general public is concerned, naval activities in European waters are a sealed book.

French official reports assert that the French armies continue their forward march in Alsace, where many guns are said to have been captured and the standard of an Alsatian infantry regiment, which is now on view at the French war office.

St. Petersburg reports successes by the Russian troops over the Austrians on the frontier, where an Austrian dragon regiment is said to have suffered severely in a saber engagement.

A German dreadnought is reported by the captain of a Dutch steamer as having been put out of action. He asserted on arriving in Holland today that she was lying in the harbor at Trondhjem, severely damaged. No confirmation has been received in official quarters.

A naval battle between French and Austrian warships off Budua, Dalmatia, is said to have resulted in the sinking of two Austrian ironclads, while one was set on fire and another fled.

Four British warships are reported to have chased two Austrian cruisers from Antivari, where they had established a blockade.

The standard of the famous Death's Head Hussars, the German crown prince's regiment, is said to have been captured by the Belgians.

Dispatches saying Greece had received information of the passage through Bulgarian territory of Turkish troops going toward Greece are published in Copenhagen. It is said Greece has threatened to take similar measures.

Germany has followed England's example and that of other countries in acknowledging receipt of President Wilson's offer of good offices. Russia has not yet replied.

J. P. Morgan & Co. have abandoned a proposed loan to France owing to Washington's attitude on the subject. This is expected to affect other similar financial transactions, which were under negotiation.

The Japanese press regards the ultimatum sent to Germany as containing reasonable demands.

Large numbers of American travelers arrived in New York today from Europe whence they had hurried after the outbreak of war. Many wealthy persons were glad to obtain accommodation even in the steerage, in order to get away from the scenes of their hardships and privations.

A large amount of bullion for the relief of Americans stranded in the British Isles was sent to London from the American cruiser Tennessee at Falmouth today.

The pope is reported to have recovered somewhat from his indisposition, said to have been induced by grief over the outbreak of war.

FRENCH SLAUGHTERED BY GERMAN ARTILLERY.

London, Aug. 17, 5:33 p. m.—A Brussels dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph company says the French casualties in the fighting between Namur and Dinant were heavy, as the Germans were strongly entrenched and their artillery was very effective.

Paris, Aug. 17, 11:05 a. m.—An official announcement today by the French war office says:

"The advance of the French armies continues to develop. Our troops have taken the heights to the north of the Alsatian frontier in German territory, and the French line now passes through Abrescheville, Lorquin, Azouange and Marsal."

"In the Donon or Rougemont region we have occupied Schirmeck and captured 15 German field guns, 8 machine guns and 12 gun carriages, with ammunition."

Cavalry at Lutzelhausen.—Our cavalry has penetrated as far as Lutzelhausen and Muhlbach, or Reichelshausen."

"Farther to the south we occupy Ville, east of Durbeis on the road to Schlestadt, and Saint Croix-Aux-Mines, and some heavy field artillery has been captured by the French troops."

"In Alsace we have a strongly supporting line from Thann through Gerney to Dannemarie."

Press Bureau Statement.—London, Aug. 17, 12:35 p. m.—The official press bureau of the war office and admiralty has issued a statement saying that French troops, in the course of a rapid advance, have taken the village of the Schirmeck, have taken a thousand prisoners.

HERALD TRIPS DRAW CROWDS

Excursions to Fond du Lac and Port Wing Popular.

Two Harbors Trip Tuesday-- Season Is Drawing to Close.

The Herald excursions are proving more and more popular and the boats carrying excursionists for the delightful occasions are doing capacity business. Both excursions today were largely attended.

The steamer Columbia, which departed for Fond du Lac at 9:30 o'clock this morning, carried a capacity list of passengers. The beautiful scenery along the south shore and the ideal weather proved a lure for hundreds. The extremely low cost of this trip and the splendid opportunity it offers for a restful day from business and the down town activity and noise make it one of great popularity.

The steamer Favorite, which left for Fond du Lac at 9 o'clock, also carried a large enthusiastic crowd of excursionists. This delightful trip on the river not only offers a day of fine sightseeing advantage, but also opportunities for stops and picnic lunches. This trip has attracted hundreds weekly.

The trip to Two Harbors on the American will be given tomorrow, and a large crowd is expected to go on this excursion.

While many take one or more of these trips weekly, others who cannot afford the time, will hurry to get in on these excursions now as the season will soon be over. But two more of these trips will be made by each boat this summer.

GIVE EVIDENCE FOR APPRAISERS

Opinions Differ as to Benefits of Proposed New Boulevard.

The appraisers who are determining benefits for property being acquired for the right-of-way of the $1,000,000 Congdon boulevard along the North shore are taking testimony in the council chambers at the city hall today. Several owners and real estate men gave evidence this morning.

Some said that the boulevard would be a material benefit to the property through which it will pass and others stated that it would be a damage, particularly in cases where the highway would separate contemplated summer homes from the lake shore.

The appraisers are J. L. Cromwell, J. E. Cooley and E. D. Field. When their report has been finished it will be submitted to the district court.

WILL STOP "SOONERS"

Campaign Started to Protect Game Before Season Opens.

Arrests Follow Killing of Deer —Much Game Already Killed.

Local game wardens are starting an active campaign to prevent "sooners" from killing birds and deer before the opening of the legal season.

Saturday, Wardens T. J. Storey and Archie Boyd arrested Carl Frykidal and Herman Eklund of Carlton county for killing deer out of season. They had made a salt lick in a convenient spot and when they wanted meat they sat down until a deer came within easy shooting distance. The deputies state that heads and hides showed that a number of deer had been killed about the lick. Both pleaded guilty when brought before Justice Wahl of Carlton. Eklund paid a fine of $50 and Frykidal paid a fine of $50 and costs. The wardens claim to have evidence that will lead to the arrest of a number of other violators for whom warrants have already been issued.

Last week they seized and destroyed two large gill nets in the bay. They were not placed as provided by law and notice was given to all fishermen who are using nets in the bay or lake near the canal to keep them at least a mile out. Deputy Storey states that the fish are now coming down the river and going into the lake to get into cold water.

The chicken and duck season will open Sept. 7, and sportsmen who wish to get their dogs into trim can now take them into the woods or fields to run them, but no firearms are permitted. This is permitted after Aug. 15. The season for partridge does not open until Oct. 1, and that for deer and moose starts Nov. 10. From present indications, both large and small game will be plentiful this season. The wardens say that sportsmen could do much to keep conditions good by reporting to them any violations of the game laws which come to their notice.

C. E. SOCIETIES PLAN FALL WORK

Will Organize Temperance Campaign on Tuesday Night.

The Christian Endeavorers of the city will meet tomorrow evening to discuss plans for fall work, and to arrange for the quarterly September rally, and the annual election of officers. Delegates from the Duluth young people's citizenship committee were present to discuss and organize a united movement for the consummation of the Christian Endeavor slogan, "A Saloonless Nation by 1920."

The plans of this committee include the use of all kinds of advertising, for the furtherance of the cause. Duluth is affiliated with the national organization, the United Society of Christian Endeavor, and will be one of many cities where this campaign is in full swing.

Thomas Johnson, president of the local Christian Endeavor union, will have charge of the meeting, which will be held at the First Presbyterian church.

SPECULATION IN FOOD IS AIMED AT

New York, Aug. 17.—Plans to stop speculation, which is said to have much to do with the increasing price of food, were to be perfected today at a meeting of the executive board of the mayor's committee of 132, appointed last week to aid Federal and county officials in their investigations of the cause of the upward trend of the cost of living.

Joseph Hartigan, city commissioner of weights and measures, who is working with the committee, planned to present to the board a scheme in operation among grocery and meat retailers by which they form associations and purchase quantities for themselves, thereby obtaining marked reductions from the usual middleman's prices. The committee has been endeavoring to get these associations to agree to sell at uniformly lower prices, but they have been unable to do so.

These associations or co-operative stock buying companies.

PRICES GO DOWN AS U. S. PROBE BEGINS

Reduction in Meat Charges Occurs in Chicago.

Chicago, Aug. 17.—Coincident with the local opening of the Federal investigation into the advance in prices on foodstuffs today, cut meats at the stock yards declined about 30 cents a hundred wholesale. This is said to be a retail decline of about 1 cent a pound.

After asserting his loyalty and devotion to Canada, the association, in its resolution, declared that it was not in favor of speculative conditions by unduly advancing the price of food.

CANADIAN BAKERS NOT TO RAISE PRICE

Winnipeg, Man., Aug. 17.—Government regulations of the sale and control of the price of wheat are advocated by the Bread and Cake Manufacturers' association of Canada in a resolution unanimously adopted here today. After asserting his loyalty and devotion to Canada, the association, in its resolution, declared that it was not in favor of speculative conditions by unduly advancing the price of food.

The association asserts its belief that there is absolutely no justification for the present inflated prices of wheat and flour. A committee was appointed to convey its resolution to the minister of finance.

ARTIFICIAL BOOSTS OF PRICES OF FOOD

Washington, Aug. 17.—Reports to the department of justice tell of the creation of artificial food prices all along the line. A district attorney in Texas reported that granulated sugar had been sold at $4.60 to $5.50 per hundred pounds, and that the price of wheat had been artificially raised. The district attorney suggested that smaller consumers are being given higher prices than hotels and restaurants.

ARE STUDYING FIRE HAZARD

Underwriters' Engineers Making Thorough Investigation in Duluth.

C. T. Bissell, engineer of the national board of fire underwriters, and several assistants, are in the city and will spend several weeks making a thorough examination of the fire hazard situation.

The last examination of the fire underwriters was made in September, 1907, and their findings were incorporated in the report published the following January. Part of their work will be the what improvements in fire protection facilities have been made since that time.

Local officials are confident that the engineers will find that Duluth has this line. The fire department is being motorized as rapidly as funds will permit, and the water system has been bettered.

MEMBER OF "FLYING SQUADRON" COMING.

Preliminary arrangements for a war on the liquor traffic in Duluth will be made here Aug. 30 when Harry W. Stewart of Illinois, former a member of the legislature of that state, will arrive in Duluth. He is a member of the "Flying Squadron of America" and it is intended to enlist the aid of the squadron to battle here next fall. The object of the squadron is to bring about the abolition of the liquor traffic and campaigns are going on in various cities of the country.

SAYS SMALL BOYS ARE HAULING BEER

Mandan Man Makes Serious Charges in Prohibition Town.

Mandan, N. D., Aug. 17.—(Special to The Herald.)—Alleging that the service for which they were drawn had been illegally performed, J. C. Clark demanded that the city commission defer payment on four warrants ordered issued by them. The commission declined to seriously consider his request and he threatened to secure a restraining order. He also asked that the city should prevent what he claims to be the practice of boys of tender years hauling beer through the streets in small wagons.

PRESIDENT HOPES FOR MORE VESSELS.

Washington, Aug. 17.—President Wilson is seeking a way to build up the American merchant marine on a permanent basis, he told callers today. He is not certain, he said, that legislation on the subject now pending in congress will accomplish this end, but declared he earnestly hoped such a result would be brought about.

The president said he had favored the ship registry bill originally introduced in the house, but had not fully considered the changes introduced in conference.

LITTLE BUSINESS ON COUNCIL SCHEDULE.

The council meeting this afternoon promises to be short, with only a few business items scheduled for consideration.

Feder Myhre, Knute Brevin and Adolph Tiltz will file notice of claims of $750 because of damages alleged to have been done their property by the fracturing of their left arm and sustaining severe bruises.

C. C. Florsved will ask that the council call a special meeting to consider the assessments for the improvement of Seventh street, which has been made by the city from Fourteenth avenue east to Fifth avenue west. He claims that the property owners should be given an opportunity to be heard on the costs which are being charged against them.

CHIPPWEAS CLASH.

Gus Beaulieu Starts Things With His Resolution.

Bemidji, Minn., Aug. 17.—Prolonged and stormy sessions Saturday night marked the close of the council of Minnesota Chippewas which has been on here since Tuesday.

The clash came when Gus Beaulieu, White Earth, editor of the Tomahawk, offered an amendment to the resolutions providing delegates might be sent to Washington to urge legislation from congress. The council had already authorized a legislative committee.

The younger and so-called progressive element took issue with Beaulieu and declared his amendment an effort would nullify the legislative committee. Charges and counter charges were made. The council was so impressed with Bemidji's hospitality, while the delegates were around the lake, that they voted to meet in this city again next year.

This brought Beaulieu to his feet with a defy for anyone to show whom he had ever been guilty of the charges made. He was accused of bringing the older delegates by promising them "a joy ride to Washington." Finally the amendment was worded satisfactorily to all factions.

John G. Morrison of Red Lake, leader of the younger element, was elected president of the council, succeeded Ed Rogers, also a progressive. A resolution was passed commending Senator Moses E. Clapp for the work he has done in congress for the Indians. The delegates were so impressed with Bemidji's hospitality, while the delegates were around the lake, that they voted to meet in this city again next year.

WOULD AVOID MISFITS.

Voss Advocates Radical Changes in the City Charter.

Finance Commissioner Fred J. Voss believes that the city charter should be amended so that candidates for council would run for election to a definite division. He thinks that better results would be secured than under the present system, which specifies that the members of the council shall determine which division each shall direct. He points out that if a man were a candidate for a certain position the people would be better able to judge of his ability, and misfits would not be so likely to occur.

REDUCE CITY EXPENSE.

Will Secure Motor Sprinkler and Flusher Next Year.

Commissioner Roderick Murchison, head of the works division, will include the cost of a new motor sprinkler and flusher in his estimate of expenses for next year. It is claimed that the machine will increase the street maintenance department's efficiency and reduce its expenses, as it will do the work of a number of teams and men.

LYCEUM—Baldwin Players in "What Happened to Mary."

AT THE LYCEUM.

Baldwin Players Present "What Happened to Mary."

Mary exposes her crafty uncle and her cousin, who try to take away her inheritance money and this story is a drama of the life of a young girl.

"What Happened to Mary" is a story told in an exceedingly interesting manner by the Baldwin Players at the Lyceum theater this week.

"What Happened to Mary" is a dramatization of the famous novel of that name and for many months recently was one of the most popular Broadway successes. It is being presented for the first time in Duluth and made an excellent impression with the two large audiences yesterday.

The play is partly serious drama and partly comedy. The story is a story of a young girl, who is being pursued by a man who is trying to take away her inheritance money.

CHICAGO POLICEMEN ARE SHOT BY NEGRO

Simon Hogan Kills One Officer—Fights Off Posse.

Chicago, Aug. 17.—One policeman was killed and another wounded early today as a result of the desperate resistance to arrest of Simon Hogan, colored, accused by another negro of robbery. Hogan was wounded in the hand and a stray bullet went through the helmet of a third policeman.

It was after midnight when Trumbull and two other officers started for Hogan's lodging place to investigate the complaint of robbery. At Twenty-sixth and State streets Trumbull entered Hogan's room and was shot by the occupant. He died at a hospital.

Hogan eluded the other policemen, but frame house at 380 South State street. He opened fire at once on the half dozen policemen then present and received exchange of shots was kept up until Hogan's ammunition gave out.

Then he surrendered and was taken to a hospital to have the wound in his hand dressed.

OBSERVATIONS

By PEGGY PEABODY

Beware of Some First Impressions.

What about first impressions? Do you believe that they are to be trusted unfailingly? Personally I should say that what he doesn't know about human nature would fill a large book.

Believing himself to be a very good judge of men and things, and not to be deceived by pulchritude alone, he selected a young man who was neat and trim, alert and smart. He was the best looking of all the number who applied for the position, but it took him less than a week to show how little he knew.

The place was finally filled by one who came from the ranks of those who had come in search of work and left name and address in case there should be a vacancy. This man who proved satisfactory in the end was not prepossessing, a poor talker, and short on personal charms.

CIVIL PENSIONS.

As always, the civilian employees of the Federal government are trying to interest congress in some form of pension for superannuated clerks.

So far, nothing has come of it. Sometime, perhaps, something will come of it.

It is not an easy problem. President Wilson is understood to be studying it now, with a view of recommending something definite for congress to consider when it meets again in December. He will find it many-sided and complex.

Pay in government employ as a rule is not large. For the steady employment offered, the government servant has to sacrifice something, and he sacrifices something from his salary.

And, on the whole, government pay is less elastic, less responsive to the demands of the increasing cost of living than wages in private employment.

Because of a peculiar local condition and peculiar local customs, it costs more to live in Washington than it should—probably twenty-five per cent more than in Baltimore, forty miles away. These customs are social. All Washington is divided into social strata, and the nine-hundred-dollar clerk is trying to live like the twelve-hundred-dollar clerk, the twelve-hundred-dollar clerk like the fifteen-hundred-dollar one, and so on up the line. This country-wide way of trying to live beyond one's means is probably more pronounced in Washington than it is anywhere else.

The prevailing habit of unthriftness is ministered to by an almost unlimited credit system. Storekeepers let government employees run amazing bills, and they run them.

The whole result of it is that with steady jobs and fair pay, the average government employee lives right up to the hilt and beyond, and when he gets too old to work effectively has nothing laid up. It is the same condition that exists all over the country, only "more so."

What is to be done with superannuated clerks who are no longer worth their wages, but have nothing but their jobs between them and the poor house? Many of them are kept on. The departments have many aged clerks, tottering about their work, hanging on determinedly to the only thing that keeps them from starvation—the payroll. Few department heads have the heart to discharge them.

There are thirty-one, of course, who live on less than their salaries and save money. But they are the exceptions.

Soldiers are pensioned; civil servants are not. And there are about as good arguments for civil pensions as for military pensions.

And when it is determined that there shall be civil pensions, the next question is whether the government shall pay them, whether they shall be paid out of funds created by contributions, or whether the government and its servants shall divide the expenses equally.

If there is to be a civil pension system—and we are inclined to hope that there will be one—the plan of having both the government and its servants contribute the funds seems fairest and best because it will help create a spirit of thrift that is now lacking.

There does not seem to be any inclination to shut out any nation from participation in the war.

THE FOLLY OF THE WAR

Editorial in Inverness, Scotland, Highland News.

What a smug satisfaction the "diplomatic service" must feel of their own importance! What a supreme contempt for the crowd. What a temptation it is for the dictator who can command machines. This hasty and abject surrender of the people to the ruling classes is sadly disappointing. It is so general that one despairs that democracy will ever come into its kingdom. But there are bright spots on the gloomy picture. It is refreshing to find that in almost every town of importance (especially in Germany) the Socialists are denouncing the war and the war spirit. True they are outnumbered, and in the end may be swept aside, but the fact that a body of organized opinion refuses to have its head turned by this mad hour has a most satisfactory feature of the whole business.

When will people learn that the time is long past (if it ever was) when war can possibly advantage a great nation. No country in Europe has anything material to gain by attacking another. War on a big scale would bring ruin on victors and vanquished. International trade is so interwoven that where one nation is hurt all others suffer. War on a great scale, if it is impossible, is certainly as futile as it is criminal until the nations are united with any nation which binds us to join in should war arise. If there is no open engagement, while the interests, neither direct nor indirect, are such as to warrant our plunging into war.

The fact is that the whole affair is a huge folly. It is the outcome of the rule of the rulers, whose sentiments and methods and habits of thought have quite outlived the age in which they live. Commercial life and the industrial type of society have made war on a great scale absolutely hopeless. It would shatter the whole structure of modern life. But the credit and trade. Much of it might indeed disappear without a tear on the people's part. But the credit and trade. Much of it might indeed disappear without a tear on the people's part. But the credit and trade. Much of it might indeed disappear without a tear on the people's part.

Col. Roosevelt is opposed to the ratification of the arbitration treaties. The colonel would rather "swing the big club" or fight than arbitrate.

DECISIONS AFFECTING LABOR.

One of the duties of the Federal bureau of labor statistics is the periodical presentation of the laws of the various states on the subject of labor. As a complement to this work it publishes an annual summary of judicial decisions and opinions as to the construction and application of such laws and the rules of the common law.

In a bulletin just issued by the bureau about 170 decisions by the Federal courts and the higher courts of the various states are considered, nearly three-fourths relating to statute law, the remainder being based on common law. Most notable are the decisions which relate to the new remedy of workmen's compensation for industrial accidents. The constitutionality of the laws of New Jersey and Washington on this subject was questioned in cases coming before the supreme courts of these states, the laws being upheld in both instances. Discussions that are especially important because of the new field into which they enter are had of various phrases and general provisions of the laws, as those relating to the dependence of the claimant on the injured workman, injuries arising out of and in course of employment, the measure of awards, etc. A case of special interest in this group is one which considers that provision of the law of Wisconsin which makes it the duty of the employer to provide medical treatment for the injured workman—a much discussed feature of such laws, and of prime importance, but capable of grave abuse. The court in this case rendered excellent service in pointing out some ways in which the possible abuses may be avoided. This bulletin probably presents the largest number of strictly American cases on this subject that can be found as yet in a single volume. It should be stated that since this bulletin was compiled the constitutionality of Minnesota's statute on workmen's compensation was upheld by the state supreme court.

Next in importance to the above are decisions construing the Federal statute relating to the liability of interstate railroads for injuries to their employees, the chief point involved being the scope of this law. Among the employees held to be within its provisions are a brakeman getting ice to cool hot boxes on his train, a truckman loading a detached car with interstate freight, a pumpman at a water station, a repair man working on an engine tender on a siding, a member of a switching crew placing an oil car to furnish oil for fuel for an interstate locomotive, a yard clerk taking the numbers of the cars in an interstate train, and a track repairer injured by an interstate train while at work on a bridge.

These decisions show that the courts are construing the laws in a manner very favorable toward labor, and that the claim that the courts lean to the side of capital is not sustained by the facts. Possibly the latter might have been true of many courts a few years ago, but the change may be ascribed to the trend of public opinion in the same direction.

Life

John Burroughs in Harper's Magazine.

Strip the earth of its thin pellicle of soil, thinner with reference to the mass than is the peel to the apple, and you have stripped it of its life. Or, rob it of its watery vapor and carbon dioxide in the air, both stages in the evolution, and you have a dead world. The huge globe swings through space only a mass of inanimate rock. So limited and evanescent is the world of living matter, so vast and enduring is the world of nonliving. Looked at in this way, the light of physical science, life seems like a mere passing phase of the cosmic evolution, a flitting and temporary condition of matter which it passes through in the procession of changes on the surface of a cooling planet. Between the fiery mist of the nebula, hot and frigid and convulsed globe there is a brief span, ranging over about 120 deg. of temperature, where life appears and organic evolution takes place. Compared with the whole scale of temperature, from absolute zero to the white heat of the nebula, about the frigid and convulsed globe there is a brief span, ranging over about 120 deg. of temperature, where life appears and organic evolution takes place. Compared with the whole scale of temperature, from absolute zero to the white heat of the nebula, about the frigid and convulsed globe there is a brief span, ranging over about 120 deg. of temperature, where life appears and organic evolution takes place.

Life processes cease, but chemical and mechanical processes go on forever. Life is fugitive and uncertain as the bow in the clouds, and like the bow in the clouds, it is confined to a limited range of conditions of matter which it passes through in the procession of changes on the surface of a cooling planet. ESTRANGED, MEET AT SCENE OF MURDER OF LOVED ONES

Deserted Husband Claims
Bodies of His Slain
Children.
Bereaved Lover Buries
Woman Without Bell,
Book or Candle.

Spring Green, Wis., Aug. 17.—Edwin H. Cheney and Frank Lloyd Wright, close friends and neighbors, estranged by Wright's infatuation for Cheney's wife, came together here Sunday to care for their dead.

Cheney, whose two children were the victims Saturday of a murderous negro, made arrangements for their burial in Chicago. Of his former wife, Mamah Borthwick Cheney, who since Cheney obtained his divorce in 1911 has lived here in Wright's bungalow, until her death Saturday, he said nothing.

"I have two children who were murdered here," Cheney told friends. He made no mention of his former wife.

Cheney and Wright both stopped at the home of Andrew T. Porter's home in separate automobiles, which had been ordered from Chicago.

Thomas Brunker, a laborer on the Wright estate who was reported to have died from his wounds, still is living, although physicians expect his death any minute, they said.

Murder Motive Unknown.
The motive which actuated Julien Carleton, the negro, in his murderous attack which caused five deaths and left four persons suffering severely, is still a mystery. A suspicion that he had been influenced by an outside source rested on a remark by Carleton immediately after his arrest and when he feared his death by poison was imminent.

"I'll tell you before I die," he told a deputy sheriff.

Later, when physicians told him he was in no danger from death by poison, the negro declined to explain his former statement. "I did it in self defense," he said.

Neither statement was given any credence by the authorities at Dodgeville, where Carleton was locked in jail.

Mrs. Borthwick, one of the five victims of the negro, was buried last night by Wright. He is a Chicago architect for whose sake she had parted from her husband, and to be with whom she had for three years braved the reproaches of relatives and friends.

Cheney, who came for the bodies of his little son and daughter, John and Martha, also returned with them to Chicago. He paid no attention to the tragedy of his former wife. Her body was left solely to Wright, who had come from Chicago on the same train with Cheney.

Buried Without Ceremony.
Submerged in a mass of flowers picked from the garden she had died, and attended only by Wright, his son and two of his relatives, the body was taken to a funeral home near the Wright lot at Unity cemetery, near his bungalow. She was buried without any religious ceremony.

By a coincidence the Rev. Jenkin Lloyd Jones, her former pastor in Chicago, was a guest at the funeral. It was Wright's wish that she be buried without ceremony.

The body of Emil Burdell, a draughtsman, was sent to Milwaukee for burial Tuesday.

Mrs. Julian Carleton, wife of the negro maniac and who was arrested an hour after the tragedy, was taken to Dodgeville, the county seat, where her husband is in jail.

Built "Love's Cottage."
Chicago, Aug. 17.—Frank Lloyd Wright, who is one of the best known architects in the central states and is credited with being among the first to design a bungalow in this country, was divorced from his wife several years ago after a scandal which linked his name with that of Mrs. Mamah Borthwick Cheney, the wife of a neighbor in Oak Park, a suburb. Later Mr. Cheney obtained a divorce and Mrs. Cheney and Wright made several trips together. Two years ago Wright built a bungalow at Spring Green, Wis., which was called "Love's Cottage" by neighbors and the architect and Mrs. Cheney were reported to have made frequent visits to the house in the woods.

Wright was in his office when he received a long distance telephone message informing him of the tragedy. He was prostrated by the news and declined to discuss it. Later he left for Spring Green.

NOTED MEN AT PEAT MEET

Speakers From All Parts of United States and Europe.

Big Peat Exhibit Will Be Shown at Commercial Club.

One of the most interesting convention programs ever given in Duluth is scheduled to take place here August 20, 21 and 22, when the American Peat Society meets here for its eighth annual meeting. The interest in this meeting is shown by the number and variety of papers to be read. Representatives from various European countries where peat is used have been interested in the meeting and had intended to be present, but the European war may prevent some of them from coming.

Peat Exhibits.
An exhibition of peat, peat products and anything pertaining to peat development has been arranged to be displayed at the commercial club under the auspices of the committee on arrangements. The committee follows: L. B. Arnold, chairman; J. E. H. House, G. G. Hartley, J. J. Hill, W. McGonagle, A. F. Woods, and director agricultural department; Prof. W. H. Emmons, state geologist; Prof. F. J. Stewart, department of botany; Prof. J. F. Stewart, department of engineering; Prof. F. J. Alway, department of soils.

Speakers from all parts of the country are on the program, and the address will cover every important phase of the subject. The program follows:

Thursday Session.
8-9 a. m.—Business meeting. Reading of papers and discussions.
9-10 a. m.—"The Peat Problem," Dr. F. C. Coville, United States bureau of plant industry. Problems to be solved in developing a peat industry for peat." G. Herbert Condit, Plainfield, N. Y.

"The Peat Problem," Dr. Joseph Hyde Pratt, state geologist of North Carolina.
"The Peat Problem," Dr. F. B. Haanel, Canada—department of mines, Ottawa, Canada.
"The Possibilities of Peat in the Beneficiation and Smelting of Iron Ores," Peter Christenson, University of Minnesota.

2 to 6 p. m.—(a) "Converting Peat Into Fuel," (b) "The Possibilities of Peat in the Beneficiation and Smelting of Iron Ores," Peter Christenson, University of Minnesota.
"The Use of Peat in the North-west Provinces of Russia," Engineer K. V. Lubkowski, Warsaw, Russia. "Peat Bricketing," Dr. J. McWilliam, London, Canada. "Brickettes from Peat and Petroleum," Robert Biel, Sacramento, Cal.

"Practical Demonstration of Herbel's Patent, by a Small Working Model of the Herbel Bricketting Machine," C. A. Sorensen, Cleveland, Ohio.
8 to 10 p. m.—"Experiments in Growing Greenhouse Crops on Muck or Humus Soils," illustrated by lantern slides, Prof. H. C. Thompson, United States bureau of plant industry. How to Prepare a Peat Bog for Fuel Making," Gustave Carlson, Farmham, Ont., Canada.

Saturday Session.
8 a. m.—Election of officers.
9 a. m. to 12 m.—Reading of Papers and Discussions.
"The Peat Situation in Minnesota," Max Toltz, St. Paul, Minn. "The Practical Production of Peat Moss Litter," C. L. Wood, Stockton-on-Trent, England. "Comparative Costs of Drying Peat Fertilizer with Fuel Oil and Coal," John Windner, St. Louis, Mo. "The Peat Industry of Russia," Gr. Lisitzin, Riga, Russia.

Various social events and sightseeing tours have been arranged for.

FEWER DEAD WILL BE UNIDENTIFIED

The plan of distributing cards of identification among transient men, which was originated some time ago by Miss Edna Meeker, secretary of the Associated Charities, is meeting with approval judging from the demand for the cards. The first lot of 500 cards has already been distributed by the Salvation Army, state employment bureau and the charities office.

The cards contain a blank space for the bearer's name, address, age, place of birth, special marks or identification, names, addresses and ages of nearest relatives and such other information as may be valuable as a means of revealing their identity should they be found dead. The cards are given out free to anyone asking for them.

TELL STORIES ABOUT GERMAN DISCONTENT.
Paris, Aug. 17.—An official dispatch issued Sunday said: "The French have succeeded in driving further back the Bavarian corps that had been re-treated, near Clancy. Germans taken prisoners after the battle at Margence and Bilton declared that the French had demoralized them. A number of Poles captured in the battle were sought to be taken. Some of the Germans declared the war absurd and said it had been opposed in numerous cities. All the prisoners complained of being badly fed."

OF INTEREST TO EVERYONE

The Minnesota State Fair
Caters to No Particular Industry.

Much of Profit to Dairyman
Outside the Dairy
Exhibits.

The dairyman who visits the Minnesota State fair, Sept. 7 to 12, will find much that is interesting outside of the special exhibits in his line. The Minnesota State fair is a great educational institution that caters to no particular industry or profession. Consequently a visitor to the fair will find a great deal that is interesting to him in other fields than the one in which he is engaged.

Special Forms of Power.
Since the economical use of power of various forms has become a big problem in the average farm, much attention is being paid by the modern dairyman to the many different engines using gasoline, kerosene and other energy-producing fuels. An excellent opportunity will be afforded at the fair of studying out the most economical a special form of power will prove to be when used for any particular purpose.

Farmer's Club Reunion.
The farmers club reunion will be attended by many dairymen in the Northwest. The fruit and vegetable show, the bee exhibit, the fish and game building, the agricultural college display and the great livestock show will give a keeper of much cow less about the value of other great industries allied to his own.

The wife will find the women's part of the fair far better than in any years previous. A special department called the department of public welfare has been created, to range for the comfort of women and children. The women's part of the fair is a committee of seven women, well trained in women's welfare work, has been appointed to take charge of this department.

The rest cottage, emergency hospital, nursery, kindergarten, play grounds, baby health contest, women's entertainment and women's building, will all be in charge of this committee.

An attempt has been made to make the entertainment features of the fair as clean and as simple as possible. The usual show on the Pike is to be superseded by a great educational festival. The fair will be a place where it will be shown a large model of the Panama canal in fireworks, and other big entertainment features will give a visitor whose sole reason for coming is to see a person in all the Northwest who is a great state fair and exposition.

IS OPPOSED TO TREATIES

Col. Roosevelt Against Ratification of the Arbitration Treaties.

Believes They Would Destroy Value of the Monroe Doctrine.

Hartford, Conn., Aug. 17.—Nearly half the political speech Col. Theodore Roosevelt delivered Saturday night before the Progressive state convention here was devoted to a discussion of "The Great Cataclysm Which Has Engulfed All Europe in War."

If the Monroe doctrine had not been steadfastly maintained, he said, United States, in all probability would have been drawn into the present struggle.

"Africa, south of the equator," he said, "is now being drawn into the fight, although without any interest in it. We would have been drawn in, in the same way, if it had not been for the observance of the great principle which the Monroe doctrine contains, the principle that this continent shall not be treated as a place for territorial aggrandizement by Old World powers."

Unimical to Our Interests.
"The peace of the Western hemisphere largely depends upon the preservation of this doctrine. It is for this reason I feel that the arbitration treaties now pending in the senate would, if adopted, be unimical to the interests of the United States and of peace, insofar as they would have any effect on this continent."

He said that he believed they would be executed, but that it was not a honorable thing for this nation to enter into treaties which either could not or ought not to be kept. Such action, he said, would be a much effect because in the event of their attempted execution against the interests of this people, I do not believe they would be executed. But it is not a honorable thing for this nation to enter into treaties which either could not or ought not to be kept. ESTRANGED, MEET AT SCENE OF MURDER OF LOVED ONES

Bodies of His Slain
Children.

Bereaved Lover Buries
Woman Without Bell,
Book or Candle.

Spring Green, Wis., Aug. 17.—Edwin H. Cheney and Frank Lloyd Wright, close friends and neighbors, estranged by Wright's infatuation for Cheney's wife, came together here Sunday to care for their dead.

Cheney, whose two children were the victims Saturday of a murderous negro, made arrangements for their burial in Chicago. Of his former wife, Mamah Borthwick Cheney, who since Cheney obtained the divorce in 1911 line here in Wright's bungalow, until her death Saturday, he said nothing.

"I have two children who were murdered here," Cheney told friends. He made no mention of his former wife.

Cheney and Wright both stopped at the home of Andrew T. Porter's home in separate automobiles, which each had ordered from Chicago.

Thomas Frankler, a laborer on the Wright estate who was reported to have died from his wounds, still is living, although physicians expect his death any minute, they said.

Murder Not Yet Known.
The motive which actuated Julien Carleton, the negro, in his murderous attack which caused five deaths and left four persons suffering severely, is still a mystery. A suspicion that had been influenced by an outside source rested on a remark by Carleton immediately after his arrest and when he feared his death by poison was imminent.

"I'll tell you before I die," he told a deputy sheriff.

Later, when physicians told him he was in no danger from death by poison, the negro declined to explain his former statement. "I did it in self defense," he said.

Neither statement was given any credence by the authorities at Dodgeville, where Carleton was locked in jail.

Mrs. Borthwick, one of the five victims of the negro, was buried last night by Wright. He is a Chicago architect for whose sake she had parted from her husband and to whom she had for three years braved the reproaches of relatives and friends.

Cheney, who came for the bodies of his little son and daughter, John and Martha, also returned with them to Chicago. He paid no attention to the tragedy of his former wife. Her body was left solely to Wright, who had come from Chicago on the same train with Cheney.

Buried Without Ceremony.
Submerged in a mass of flowers picked from the gardens she had tended, and attended only by Wright, his son and two of his relatives, the body was taken, just at sunset, to the Wright lot at Unity cemetery, near his bungalow. She was buried without any religious ceremony.

By a coincidence the Rev. Jenkin Lloyd Jones, her former pastor in Chicago, was a guest at the farm. It was Wright's wish that she be buried without ceremony.

The body of Emil Burdell, a draughtsman, was sent to Milwaukee for burial Tuesday.

Mrs. Julian Carleton, wife of the negro maniac and who was arrested an hour after the tragedy, was taken to Dodgeville, the county seat, where her husband is in jail.

Built "Love's Cottage."
Chicago, Aug. 17.—Frank Lloyd Wright, who is one of the best known architects in the United States and is credited with being among the first to design a bungalow in this country, was divorced from his wife several years ago after a scandal which linked his name with that of Mrs. Mamah Borthwick Cheney, the wife of a neighbor in Oak Park, a suburb. Later Mr. Cheney obtained a divorce and Mrs. Cheney and Wright made several trips together. Two years ago Wright built a bungalow at Spring Green, Wis., which was called "Love's Cottage" by neighbors and an architect and Mrs. Cheney were reported to have made frequent visits to the house in the woods.

Wright was in his office when he received a long distance telephone message informing him of the tragedy. He was prostrated by the news and declined to discuss it. Later he left for Spring Green.

OF INTEREST TO EVERYONE

The Minnesota State Fair
Caters to No Particular
Industry.

Much of Profit to Dairyman
Outside the Dairy
Exhibits.

The dairyman who visits the Minnesota State fair, Sept. 7 to 12, will find much that is interesting outside of the special exhibits in his line. The Minnesota State fair is a great educational institution that caters to no particular industry or profession. Consequently a visitor to the fair will find a great deal that is interesting to him in other fields than the one in which he is engaged in making a living.

Machinery, with its seventy acres of machinery, will prove very interesting to the dairyman. Here it is that the many kinds of machinery used on the average up-to-date dairy farm will be found, all taking part in the numerous demonstrations that are to be conducted by the implement firms this year. The use of silage on the dairy farm of the Northwest has become so essential that the many silos, silage machines and other machinery used in the production of corn will be shown.

Special Forms of Power.
Since the economical use of power of various forms has become a big problem in being paid by the modern dairyman to the many different engines using gasoline, kerosene and other energy-producing fuels. An excellent opportunity will be afforded at the fair of hearing out just how economical a special form of power will prove to be when used for any particular purpose.

The county exhibits will enable the successful dairyman to compare the different parts of the state as a place in which to live and work. By talking with those in charge of these exhibits and inspecting the products of the various counties, it will be possible to draw some valuable conclusions regarding the comparative value of land and agriculture in different sections of Minnesota.

Farmers' Club Reunion.
The Farmers' club reunion will be attended by many dairymen in the Northwest. The fruit and vegetable show, the bee exhibit, the fish and game building, the agricultural college display and the great million dollar live stock show will give a keeper of milk cows ideas about the value of their great industries allied to his own.

The fair will find the women's part of the fair far better taken care of than in any years previous. A special section devoted to the department of public welfare has been created, to arrange for the comfort of women and children attending the fair. To this end a committee of seven women, well trained in women's affairs, has been appointed to take charge of this department.

The rest cottage, emergency hospital, nursery, kindergarten, play grounds, baby health contest, women's entertainment and women's building, will all be in charge of this committee.

Clean Beretaines.
An attempt has been made to make the entertainment features of the fair as clean and high class as possible. The usual show on the Pike is to be superseded by the educational, festival called "The World at Home." It will be shown a large model of the world, and the great million dollar live stock show will give a keeper of milk cows ideas about the value of their great industries allied to his own.

Not a person in all the Northwest can afford to ignore the fair. It is the greatest state fair and exposition.

IS OPPOSED TO TREATIES

Col. Roosevelt Against Ratification of the Arbitration Treaties.

Believes They Would Destroy Value of the Monroe Doctrine.

Hartford, Conn., Aug. 17.—Nearly half the political speech Col. Theodore Roosevelt delivered Saturday night before the Progressive state convention here was devoted to a discussion of "The Great Catechism Which Has Enslaved All Europe in War."

"The Monroe doctrine had not been steadily maintained," he said, "United States, in all probability would have been drawn into the present struggle."

"Africa, south of the equator," he said, "is now being drawn into the same way, if it had not been for the observance of the great principle which the Monroe doctrine contains, the principle that this continent shall not be treated as a place for territorial aggrandizement by Old World powers."

Unlabeled to Our Interests.
"The peace of the Western hemisphere largely depends upon the preservation of this doctrine. It is for this reason that I feel that the arbitration treaties now pending in the senate would, if adopted, be inimical to the interests of the United States and of peace, insofar as they would have any effect, whatever. I doubt if they will have much effect because in the event of their attempted execution against the interests of this people, I do not believe they would be executed. But surely it is not an honorable thing for the United States to enter into treaties which either could not or ought not to be kept. Such action goes badly for our sincerity and good faith."

Under the proposed treaties, if, as a result of this war, Denmark, Holland should part with their islands in the West Indies, or if at some future time Mexico should voluntarily part with its northern territory, the United States would be solemnly bound to join in the creation of a commission which would investigate all the matters at hand before we could take any action, and this would be a very humiliating representation of outside powers.

Worthlessness of Treaties.
"Within a fortnight we have had fresh proof of the utter worthlessness

BEY SAYS TURKEY IS TO REMAIN NEUTRAL

Washington, Aug. 17.—The Turkish ambassador, A. Rustem Bey, last night issued the following statement: "The statement having been attributed to me in the press that Turkey is on the point of joining in the European conflict, I hasten to declare that, so far from this being the case, retain its new possessions, could make a new Gibraltar of one of our West Indian islands, or of Magdalena bay, or any other point of territory which it acquired, and it could then defy us to turn it into a base for the cost of war, which might be as dreadful as any now raging."

These proposed arbitration treaties would not be worth paper on which they were written if it became the interest of any great military power to violate them, and if it thought it could violate them with impunity. We would have bound ourselves in such cases as I have illustrated to wait a year or so while a joint commission pursued its weary course of investigation, and during that time an Old World military power, if it desired to

PRESIDENT WILSON APPROVES PLAN FOR FEDERAL WAR RISK

Discusses Proposed Bill With Senator Clarke of Arkansas.

He Is Convinced It Is Needed to Supplement Shipping Act.

O'Gorman Criticizes Senators for Passing House Measure.

Washington, Aug. 18.—The president took up the war risk bill today with Senator Clarke of Arkansas, chairman of the senate committee on commerce, and is convinced that the bill passed yesterday opening American registry to foreign built ships, and other plans to build up the American merchant marine and to transport the products of the United States abroad, will not succeed unless the government war insurance plan is adopted.

At the conference it was decided that the bill would be introduced in congress immediately and passed as quickly as possible. It is known to have the support of Senator Simmons and other Democratic leaders in the senate.

Persuaded of Necessity.
The president at first was reluctant to approve of the plan, but finally was persuaded that the passage of the proposed legislation was necessary.

President Wilson was expected to sign today the bill which congress passed yesterday. It authorizes the president to admit foreign built ships to American registry so that commercial fleets may sail the seas under the American flag.

BROTHER OF QUEEN MARY GOES TO WAR

Prince Alexander of Teck to Join Foreign Service.

London, Aug. 18, 1:40 p. m.—Prince Alexander of Teck, brother of Queen Mary and the future governor general of Canada, is going on foreign service.

MISTAKE ARABS FOR THEIR OWN SOLDIERS

Germans Discover Error Only When They Are Attacked.

Paris, Aug. 18.—A news dispatch from Marseilles says that wounded soldiers arriving there from Alsace relate that the Turks, native soldiers from the French possessions in Africa, who made their first appearance in the fighting around Muehlenhausen, are the only French in khaki, the color closely resembling that of the German uniform. The Germans mistook the Turks for their own troops until they were close up and fell upon the German entrenchment with a wild yell.

ASK U. S. TO STOP JAPAN

German-American Alliance Appeals to President and Congress.

Petition Says Tokio Should Go to The Hague.

Washington, Aug. 18.—An appeal that the government of the United States plead with Japan to refrain from carrying the European war into the Far East was received by President Wilson today from the National German-American alliance. The president was thanked for his offer of mediation to the warring nations of Europe.

"We now appeal to the president and to congress," said the petition, "to plead with the government of Japan through her ambassador at Washington, in the name of humanity, civilization and universal peace, to refrain from carrying the war into the Far East, by demanding that Germany abandon all her political and commercial interests in China."

"Leave It to The Hague."
Instead of throwing the torch of war into the Far East, Japan should be fair and submit any grievances she has against Germany or against any other nation to The Hague tribunal, where no doubt, other questions of the present conflict will be submitted."

The petition was signed by C. J. Hexamer, president of the National German-American alliance.

No Herd in China.
White House officials today characterized the "petition" as untrue in every particular. Published reports that Emperor William, through Ambassador Gerard, had complained to President Wilson that Germany was being maligned in the United States, and that her motives were being deliberately misrepresented in a campaign to foster anti-German sentiment.

PRESIDENT ASKS AMERICAN PEOPLE TO CURB FEELING

Warns Them Against Even the Appearance of Partisanship in the Great War.

Would Show America "A Nation Fit Beyond Others" in Self-Control and Judgment.

Washington, Aug. 18.—Addressing the American people, President Wilson today issued a statement in connection with the European war, warning citizens of the United States against "that deepest, most subtle, most essential breach of neutrality which may spring out of partisanship, out of passionately taking sides."

The President's Statement.
The president's statement says: "I suppose that every thoughtful man in America has asked himself, during the last troubled weeks, what influence the European war may exert upon the United States, and I take the liberty of addressing a few words to you in order to point out that it is entirely within our own choice what its effects upon us will be and to urge very earnestly upon you the sort of speech and conduct which will best safeguard the nation against distress and disaster."

"The effect of the war upon the United States will depend upon what American citizens say and do. Every man who really loves America will act and speak in the true spirit of neutrality which is the spirit of impartiality and fairness and friendliness to all concerned."

"The spirit of the nation in this critical matter will be determined largely by what individuals and society and those gathered in public meetings do and say; upon what newspapers and magazines contain; upon what ministers utter in their pulpits and men proclaim as their opinions on the streets."

Variety of Sympathy.
"The people of the United States are drawn from many nations, and chiefly from the nations now at war. It is natural and inevitable that there should be the utmost variety of sympathy with regard to the issues and circumstances of the conflict. Some will wish one nation, others another, to succeed in the momentous struggle. It will be easy to excite passion and difficult to allay it. Those responsible for exciting it will assume a heavy responsibility—responsibility for no less a thing than the people of the United States, whose love of

GERMANY CAVALRY NORTH OF ANTWERP

London, Aug. 18, 1:30 p. m.—German cavalry patrols have been signaled to the northward of Antwerp, according to the Antwerp correspondent of Reuters.

The military governor, the correspondent continues, has ordered the entire civil guard to Antwerp to be mobilized on a war footing, and to take their positions in the forts around Antwerp.

The official announcement giving this position of German cavalryman assures the citizens of Antwerp that they have no need to be frightened. Similar bands of Germans, Uhlans and Hussars have traversed other parts of the country without doing much damage.

WAR SITUATION AS TOLD IN THE DAY'S BULLETINS

Troops of Germany appear today to be continuing their activities in Belgium. German cavalry patrols have been seen north of Antwerp, and the entire civil guard of Antwerp has been called out to defend the city.

There is good reason to believe that a German engagement, in which the German advance is opposed by troops of Belgium and France, has been going on since Monday, south of Brussels. No definite news of the encounter, however, has been received.

An official statement made in Brussels is to the effect that the German incursion toward Brussels has been stopped. The Belgian position is described as excellent. Other reports from Brussels say that trenches are being thrown up in the environs of the city.

Other reports from St. Petersburg by way of London set forth that the Russian general staff at St. Petersburg says the Russian mobilization is now completed and that eleven members of the Russian imperial family are at the front.

OVER 100,000 REGULARS ON FRENCH SOIL

Monster Expeditionary Body Transferred Under Censor's Secrecy.

Belgian and French News Sources Tell of Success of Their Arms.

Kaiser's Army Is Said to Be "In a Muddle on the Meuse."

Two facts stand out boldly in the foreground of today's war dispatches—one that a force of British regulars, estimated at from 100,000 men up, has landed on French soil, and the other that the Germans who are confronting the Belgians have suddenly abandoned their efforts at advance, and are throwing up entrenchments of a defensive character.

What relationship there may be between these two facts is not even hinted in the cables. An easy inference is that the Germans, either through spies or by means of their aerial scouts, are thoroughly posted on the movements of the allies, and are preparing to take every advantage of position in the coming clash.

Other reports tell of fighting that has been going on in Belgium since Sunday or early Monday, but nothing definite as to its extent or character has been allowed to pass the censors.

Of the situation in Alsace, only the Paris official statement is available, with its declaration of German defeats and losses and an advance by the French.

Troops Have Landed.
London, Aug. 17 (midnight), delayed by censor—The most important revelation of the day has been that of the landing of a British expeditionary army on the shore of France. Everybody in England has known for two weeks that a large army was crossing the channel.

The troops had been assembled at different bases, one of the largest contingents embarking at Dublin, Ireland. Many other regiments sailed.

GERMAN HEIR BADLY HURT, SAYS RUMOR

Emperor William Is Said to Have Hastened to Him.

Paris, Aug. 18, 10:20 a. m.—An official announcement here says the rumor is persistent at The Hague that the German crown prince has been seriously wounded and is lying at Aix-La-Chapelle, whither Emperor William has hastened to his side.

Report Is Credited.
London, Aug. 18, 2 p. m.—An official communication made public in Paris, according to a Havas dispatch from the French capital, attaches credence to the report that the crown prince of Germany had been seriously wounded and that he is now at Aix La Chappelle.

Other reports from St. Petersburg by way of London set forth that the Russian general staff at St. Petersburg says the Russian mobilization is now completed and that eleven members of the Russian imperial family are at the front.

CAMPAIGN FOR PROHIBITION

"Flying Squadron" Will Visit 150 Large Cities in United States.

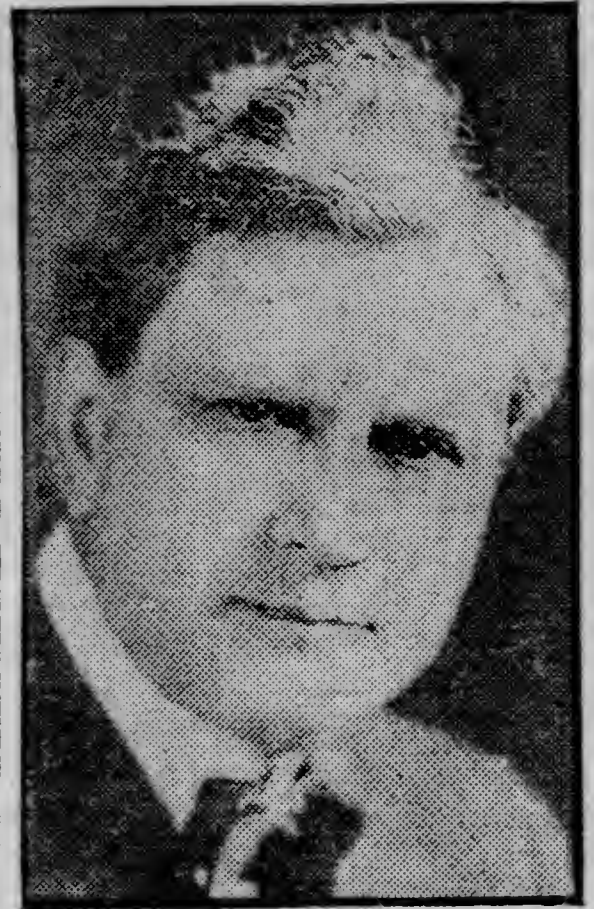

Oliver W. Stewart Will Open the Campaign Here Aug. 30.

With national prohibition as their aim, some of America's most prominent public speakers have organized the "flying squadron" and plan to visit the 150 largest cities of this country between Oct. 1 and May 1 next. The slogan of this nation-wide campaign is "If the state does not master the drink trade, the drink trade will master the state."

Preceding this trip, several advance speakers have started from Indianapolis, where this new organization has established its headquarters, to acquaint the public with the object and aims of these men and to prepare the public for the "flying squadron's" visit during the fall and winter.

SAYS ORDINANCE IS BEING VIOLATED

Architect Wants Council to Investigate Alterations to Theater.

The buildings at 114 and 116 West Superior street is being remodeled into a theater or moving picture house in violation of the building ordinance, according to J. R. de Waard, a local architect.

He states in a communication addressed to the city council that it promises to people the menace to the safety of the public and may cause the loss of life.

His letter is as follows: "I hereby call your attention to the alterations now in course of construction at 114 and 116 West Superior street. These premises are now being altered into a theater or moving picture house, contrary to the building ordinance covering such structures, and if allowed to be continued as at present contemplated this building will be a menace to the safety of the public and may cause the loss of life of a number of people. I put myself on record in calling the attention of your honorable body to this matter and propose that the present conditions of this building be thoroughly investigated, and by allowing the construction to be completed a bad precedent will be established and the city of Duluth may become involved at some future time in a very costly lawsuit."

HAYWARD HOTEL IS DESTROYED BY FIRE

Hayward, Wis., Aug. 18.—(Special to The Herald.)—The Drake hotel here, the Hayward hotel, was burned to the ground about midnight last night at a loss of about $10,000. The fire is supposed to have started from the kitchen chimney. Mr. Hanson will rebuild.

HAVE COUNTERCLAIM AGAINST PAINTER.

A. W. Jacobs and wife, Caroline Jacobs, in an answer filed in district court yesterday to an action brought by Clapham Tremblay, a painter who sued to recover for his services, alleges that the plaintiff not only failed to paint what he was told to paint, but he also converted to his own use white lead and linseed oil which had been furnished him for the purpose of painting the Jacobs house. SCENTS FOOD PRICE PLOTS

U. S. District Attorney at Chicago Subpoenas Packers.

Some Retailers Lower the Charges for Several Articles.

Chicago, Aug. 18.—Subpoenas were placed today in the hands of United States marshals requiring the presence of ten of the leaders in the Chicago packing industry before the Federal grand jury examining into the recent increases in meat prices. The subpoenas were to be served this afternoon.

District Attorney Wilkerson said that from evidence obtained it appeared to him that a conspiracy had been planned among packers and others, and that if it is substantiated by sufficient additional evidence, criminal prosecutions will be ordered.

Federal state and city officials today continued their inquiries into the cause of the recent increase in the price of food products, and prepared to prosecute dealers who have violated the law. There was practically no change in the wholesale price of cut meats compared with yesterday's figures, while the prices charged by the retailers were a shade lower on several items.

Report to Wilkerson.

United States District Attorney Wilkerson received reports from his investigators and questioned representatives of the big packers, cold storage men, and wholesale and retail dealers in provisions, in an effort to gain information in regard to the underlying cause of the recent advance in the price of all foodstuffs.

State Attorney Hoyle and his assistants were busy throughout the day gathering evidence against alleged offenders.

The advisability of establishing municipal markets for the sale of produce to consumers at cost was considered by city officials.

BELIEVE MURDERER FEIGNING ILLNESS

Still Hearing of Slayer of Five Is Continued Until Aug. 27.

Dodgeville, Wis., Aug. 18.—Julian Carleton, the negro held here for killing five persons Saturday at the bungalow of Frank Lloyd Wright, was weak yesterday to plead to the charge of first degree murder.

Carleton had admitted a grudge against Broderick and it was elected to charge him first with Broderick's murder.

Although physicians constantly attended the negro, deputy sheriff brought him here from Spring Green Saturday said he had talked intelligently to them and said they believed he was feigning illness.

Case Is Continued.

Mr. H. Arthur, justice of the peace, and James E. O'Reilly, district attorney, continued the case until Aug. 27. Mrs. Carleton, the accused's wife, is being held as a witness in default of $2,500 bail.

Thomas Brunker and David Lindbloom, the remaining seriously wounded victims, are still in a precarious condition.

Wright to Rebuild Bungalow.

Spring Green, Wis., Aug. 18.—The tragedy at his "love bungalow" last Friday, has not deterred Frank Lloyd Wright, the architect, as after announcing he would continue to live here, made arrangements for the reconstruction of the half-burned building.

"I will continue to live here despite what people may say and will have a prettier and better bungalow than the one which was destroyed," he said. Regarding the death of his "soul-mate" Wright would not say anything.

FIND INDIAN RELICS.

North Dakota Evidences of Places of Worship Are Unearthed.

Bismarck, N. D., Aug. 18.—(Special to The Herald.)—In an Indian mound, in the Cannonball district, south of Mandan, H. C. Fish and O. G. Libby of the North Dakota Historical society unearthed evidences of pre-historic Indian methods of religious worship.

In the heart of the mound, they found a great fire place, where tradition says offerings were made to the sun. A smaller fire place also was brought to light, and at this the Sioux made offerings for success in their campaign against the allied Mandan, Crow and Grosventre Indians.

North Dakotan Wounds Boy Killing Chickens and Is Fined.

Belfield, N. D., Aug. 18.—(Special to The Herald.)—When August Tiekter decides to violate the game laws again he will leave his son at home. Recently he started out to kill some prairie chickens and in firing at the birds, a part of the load hit his boy in the back. The youth was hurried to a doctor and some of the pellets were removed but others were buried in the lad's lungs. The publicity over the accident resulted in Game Warden Hartung waiting on Tiekter who appeared before a justice, pleaded guilty to "sooner" shooting and paying his fine.

Fair Crop Yield.

Dunn Center, N. D., Aug. 18.—(Special to The Herald.)—This county has a fair average crop. It promised to be a bumper early in the season, but the hot weather in July cut down the yield. The rust did little or no damage and the conditions are very favorable.

Dutch Steamer Repeatedly Stopped While Crossing Ocean.

Cologne Cathedral Has Been Fortified, Says Tourist.

New York, Aug. 18.—The Holland-American liner Nieuw Amsterdam, flying the Dutch flag and having on board many American refugees, arrived here last night after having been held up three times by warships on her trip across from Rotterdam.

Almost every one of the American passengers of the Nieuw Amsterdam had a story to tell of experiences in getting away from Germany, Austria, Russia, France or Belgium.

Matt Walter of Springfield, Mo., was arrested three times by the military of Germany, Belgium and Holland in making his way from Southern Germany to Brussels. He succeeded in proving his nationality.

At Aix La Chapelle Mrs. Robert Lamson, wife of the American consul, was arrested as a spy, through a blunder.

Mrs. Busch's Adventures. J. C. Harvey of St. Louis told an interesting story concerning Mrs. Anna Busch of St. Louis. She was at a village in Normandy when England declared war. She started for London with her daughter, three grandchildren and a nephew. In the party were three French maids, an Austrian chauffeur, his wife and three children, and a German valet.

The party got to Boulogne, taking a night boat for England. All slept on deck. When they arrived in London Mrs. Busch had but 6 shillings in her pocketbook. She called on Ambassador Page, who advised her to get in touch with the American relief committee. Mr. Harvey was the first person she met there and she requested that he cable her bankers in New York to send her $25,000 immediately.

After considerable cableing Mr. Harvey managed to have $5,000 deposited to her credit in a London banking institution. Pending the arrival of this money, Mrs. Busch accepted from Mr. Harvey a loan of $25 to meet her immediate wants.

Stopped By Shots.

On Aug. 8, five hours and a half out from European shores the Nieuw Amsterdam was stopped by a Dutch torpedo boat destroyer. Forty minutes later a shot passed across her bow, and three British warships surrounded her. Monday, when 276 miles east of Sandy Hook, the cruiser Essex came alongside after the Nieuw Amsterdam had slowed down in response to two shots from the British's guns.

Each time she was held up, the passenger liner satisfied the warship that she belonged to a neutral nation and was allowed to proceed.

The Nieuw Amsterdam brought to New York 2,039 passengers, most of them Americans. Coming across, Capt. Baron of the liner did not attempt to conceal his vessel's identity, and at night burned all lights as usual. Last Wednesday she sighted a liner with four stacks, painted grey, flying no flag, speeding toward England. Capt. Baron believed her to be the Cunard's Mauretania in attempted disguise.

Cologne Cathedral Fortified.

The passengers generally lauded the efforts of the American diplomatic and consular agents abroad to aid Americans in getting away from Germany and others confirmed the report that the cathedral at Cologne was fortified. Mr. Traut, editor of Midden, a Russian spies who were disguised as nuns.

U. S. IS HANDLING RUSSIAN AFFAIRS.

Washington, Aug. 18.—The United States is now caring for the diplomatic interests of Russia, as well as those of other belligerent powers of Europe, except Serbia and Montenegro. Topeka, Kan., Aug. 18.—An investigation into alleged violations of the Kansas anti-trust laws by millers and grain men began here yesterday. A son, attorney general, appointed A. M. Hays, a special assistant attorney general to investigate charges of price-fixing recently brought by farmers of ten counties.

PEOPLE LIVING IN BELGRADE CELLARS.

London, Aug. 18, 1:15 a. m.—A dispatch to the Reuters agency from Milan says the Corriere Della Sera has received an account of conditions in Belgrade in consequence of the bombardment of that city by the Austrians on the opposite bank of the Danube.

The streets are silent and deserted, says the article, and the people of the town are living in cellars. Three thousand shrapnel shells have fallen in the city during the last week. Little damage has been done to property, but shells falling near the center of the city cut half the town in darkness by striking the electric light plant. Fifteen others have been killed and many others have been injured.

Acid Stomachs Are Dangerous

Common Sense Advice By a Distinguished Physician.

"Acid" stomachs are dangerous because acid irritates and inflames the delicate lining of the stomach, thus hindering and preventing the proper action of the stomach, and leading to probably nine-tenths of the cases of stomach trouble for which people suffer. Ordinary medicines and medicinal treatments are useless in such cases, for they leave the source of the trouble, the acid in the stomach, as dangerous as ever. The acid must be neutralized, and its formation prevented, and the best thing for this purpose is a teaspoonful of blaugrated magnesia, a simple article, taken in a little warm or cold water after eating, which not only neutralizes the acid, but also prevents the fermentation from which acidity is developed. Foods which ordinarily cause distress may be eaten with impunity if the meal is followed with a little blaugrated magnesia which can be obtained from any druggist, and should always be kept handy.—Advertisement.

STEEL PLANT SUBURBS

WORK PROGRESSES ON "MODEL CITY"

Fifty New Families Expected; About 175 Houses Nearly Complete.

Contractors in charge of building operations at Morgan park are rapidly pushing the work of building homes and streets. It is expected that at least 160 of the 175 houses now under construction will be complete before Oct. 1.

Only the interior work of these homes has been completed. The houses are being finished in hardwood and are modern throughout. The sewer, water and gas mains are already laid in all of the streets and many of the thoroughfares are being paved. Third street has been completed and work is now being pushed on Fourth street. The latter will be the original business street of the park.

St. Louis clubhouses and the hospital have already been selected. An agreement between members of the school board and the directors of the steel company is expected to be made whereby the site for the new Morgan Park school will be decided. The construction of this latter building may not take place until next spring.

GRADERS PREPARE FOR PAVING WORK

D. H. Clough & Co., contractors, yesterday started a crew of men and a dozen teams grading Zimmarly and Commonwealth avenues preparatory to the laying of the concrete pavement.

Zimmarly avenue is to be paved with an eighteen-foot concrete paving from Ninety-third avenue to Northern avenue, and Commonwealth avenue will be paved with a similar material from Ninety-third avenue to the Spirit Lake transfer railway tracks.

Business men are not satisfied with this amount of work being done. They say that the city commission should have the paving of Grand avenue from Fifty-first to Ninety-third streets in order that a good highway be provided between the business section of the suburb and the city.

CATTLE SHOW TO BE THE LARGEST

Entries for State Fair Exhibit Exceed All Past Records.

St. Paul, Minn., Aug. 18.—(Special to The Herald.)—A comparison of the cattle entries for the Minnesota state fair, Sept. 7 to 12, with those of a year ago, forecasts the biggest cattle show ever held in the Northwest. The total number of entries exceeds those of a year ago by nearly twenty, 979 animals having been booked. The number of exhibitors has increased from sixty-six to seventy-two.

At the dairy show promises to set a mark that will last for some time. There are 129 animals entered, compared with an entry list of 144 a year ago. There are 137 Herefords, compared with 111 in 1913, some of which have been entered from as far south as Mississippi. There is a large gain in Red Polls, entries having increased from 142 a year ago. A noticeable thing about the Holstein show is the large number of local entries, among whom are several favorites for blue ribbon money and grand championships. There are nearly twice as many Ayrshires as a year ago. The Guernsey and Jersey shows will not reach the high mark of 1913 but they will not fall far short of it. The Brown Swiss show will be smaller than last year.

WAR MAY AFFECT THE OUTPUT OF GLOVES

Glove Makers at Gloversville Threaten to Go on Strike.

Gloversville, N. Y., Aug. 18.—Over 600 glove workers in this city today presented to their employers a demand for more wages, giving the manufacturers a choice of either a 10 per cent. increase or a 10 per cent. reduction in working hours. The demand follows a meeting last night at which time local glove leaders pointed out that the increased cost of living made higher wages imperative.

Manufacturers say that because of the European war they are unable to get any leather used in the making of the glove. They say that if the demand is applied in this country, it is said will last only a few months.

Abstract Official Says Company Has Not Made Big Profits.

Unfair Competition Is the Charge Made By J. L. Washburn.

J. L. Washburn, vice president of the Consolidated Abstract company, states in a communication addressed to the city commission, that he dislikes to have the public think that the company is reaping in profits derived from the city. He says that at best the business is not lucrative and that the city received full value for all charges ever made to it.

At a recent council meeting Finance Commissioner Voss represented that the city could make a material saving by having the city assessor's office determine the value of properties presented to the council instead of having the work done by an abstract company. He explained that the assessor keeps his records of ownership up-to-date and could do this efficiently. The city attorney said that there would be no legal objection and the council will to pursue that course in the future.

Mr. Washburn sets forth the position of the abstract company as follows: "I have noticed the published statement attributed to Commissioner Voss relative to the expense of securing lists of ownership from the abstract companies and to the saving to be effected by the city doing this work itself. The amount of money that the city has been paid to abstract companies would indicate that our company has been receiving but a small portion of the business. I beg to suggest that our company maintains a complete plant that enables it to furnish information of an accurate character. It has been in the past that the city has given us the difficult part of the work and the easier and more profitable to others. "It is not further to suggest that it is practically impossible without the ownership of a complete set of abstract books for the city or anybody else to acquire or furnish this information accurately. "This letter is intended to bring both the subject and the merits of our company before you for further consideration."

Might Misdemeanor Public. "Furthermore, the sum paid to the abstract company without some more explicit statement might mislead the public into the conclusion that such sum has been paid to us, whereas but a small fraction of such amount had in fact been incurred with this company during the time referred to. "It is not quite a fair competition to which this company is subjected, when equipment, working force and responsibility are considered. The business at best is not a lucrative one and we think full value has been rendered to the city for all of the charges we have ever made to it. We dislike to have the public made to think we are reaping in profits derived from the city."

BANK ROBBERS USE MINISTER'S MOTOR

No Statement of Amount Stolen at Homestead Is Made.

Pittsburg, Pa., Aug. 18.—(Special) county authorities have warned the police at all points within 100 miles radius to watch for an automobile containing two youths who held up the Homestead National bank yesterday. Officers of the bank will not name the amount of money stolen, but a package of $1,000, recovered by one of the bandits, was recovered.

The escape of the robbers was made possible by the fact that one of them carried an extra spark plug in an automobile which they took from in front of the home of a preacher. He was passing the bank as they were looking it, and left his car at the curb, removing a spark plug so it could not be started.

When the men emerged from the bank they had to place another spark plug on the engine. One of the bank clerks opened the fire. They later abandoned the preacher's car and entered a high-powered car, leaving this at a farm house. Shots

Stiff Wind Spoils Chances for Very Good Golf in Tourney.

Chicago, Aug. 18.—Playing in a stiff breeze under a scorching sun, sterling golf was not displayed today in the earlier part of the 36-hole qualifying rounds by the first half of the 132 entrants in the national open tournament at the Midlothian Golf club. Francis Quimet, holder of the title which he won last year at Brookline, started early with M. J. Brady of Waukegan, Quimet studying his score card on each green like a novice and fondling his three grass-soiled wooden clubs, drove straight and far. He approached well most of the time, but made several mistakes.

Quimet finished the first nine holes in 37 to Brady's 39. Brady was bunkered three times, in the rough twice and out of bounds once. His shots from bunkers brought cheers from the gallery, but his putting was poor, except for a long one on the first hole, where he made a beautiful three after driving into the rough.

Quimet finished the morning round in 74, running off the last nine holes as smoothly as the first. Brady caught up with his amateur partner, taking 35 coming in. Alex Ross of Braeburn topped the with 33. J. J. Smith took 36 for the first round, 43 each way. This was high score for the forenoon.

NO THREAT TO ENTER MEXICO

Report Is Officially Denied at the White House.

Carranza Once More Postpones Entrance Into Mexico City.

Washington, Aug. 18.—Published reports that President Wilson had threatened a week ago to send 100,000 American troops into Mexico unless Villa and Carranza came to an agreement and also gave the Carranza government guarantees and an amnesty, brought an official denial today from the White House.

What actually happened, according to officials, was this: President Wilson, a request came in an indirect way from the Carranza government inviting the United States to send troops from Vera Cruz to Mexico City to prevent the expected exodus of the Constitutionalists on reaching the Mexican capital.

Carranza Asked Troops. The request precipitated a long cabinet discussion. Some members favored accepting the request. President Wilson stood out firmly against it, feeling that American troops would surely be drawn into conflict with the approaching Constitutionalists. Paul Fuller, a New York lawyer, was summoned to Washington, and after a conference with the president and Secretary Bryan, started for Chihuahua to see Villa, and later Carranza. He reached Chihuahua today and is expected to co-operate in efforts to bring Villa and Carranza into harmony.

Carothers to See Villa. Camargo, Chihuahua, Aug. 18.—George C. Carothers, special agent for the United States state department, has arrived here to confer with Gen. Villa, northern leader. Carothers will deliver a note to Villa from the United States government. His text is a strong appeal to Villa against stirring up new trouble in Mexico now that the cause has triumphed.

Velasco Surrenders. Tlalampantla, Mexico, Aug. 18.—Gen. Velasco, commander of the Federal troops, surrendered to the Constitutionalists. Gen. Obregon in the capital yesterday according to reports received by Gen. Carranza, the new provisional president, and now awaits the orders of the Constitutional authorities. Gen. Carranza's entry into the city again has been postponed until Thursday. It was decided by a council of the chiefs of the Constitutionalists that it would be advisable for Carranza to wait until all the Federalists had been disarmed and disbanded.

Special Train Will Carry Crowd to Range on Sept. 5.

Plans for a record attendance of Duluth people at the St. Louis county fair at Hibbing, Duluth day, Saturday, Sept. 5, were laid by the trade extension committee of the Commercial club at a meeting at noon today.

A special train, leaving Duluth early on the morning of Sept. 5, stopping en route at Evelev, Virginia and Chisholm, and arriving in Hibbing shortly after noon is to be arranged for.

The Third Regiment band will accompany the party. Each traveler will be equipped with a cap, cane and pennant and they will carry a message of goodwill from Duluth to the range towns at Evelev, Virginia and Chisholm, and the time from early morning until late in the evening will be spent at Hibbing.

For several years special trains have been run from Duluth to Hibbing for the St. Louis county fair, and Duluth day has become one of the big days of the fair. This year the members of the Trade Extension committee are hopeful that an unusually large crowd can be obtained to make the trip.

OBSERVATIONS

Vacations Should Be Taken.

I know of an old man who boasts that he has not taken a vacation in nearly sixty years. Each day out of seven has exacted the same thing of him—the flagging of trains at a railroad crossing. Not very laborious work, but so monotonous that you would think a man might welcome a chance to have a look about him and stretch his legs a bit.

But not this old fellow. He sees no virtue in a vacation because he had to be content without one, and now with the habit well formed, he attempts to point out wherein the vacation is a positive hindrance to contentment and progress. While there is some truth in his utterances, the fact remains that the granting of a two weeks' respite from one's regular occupation is a splendid thing, else it would not be the rule with so many business concerns. Both employees and employers gain by it.

Few ever die from overwork. Most of us could endure harder work than we do. Yet if we all pursued our particular lines of work from year to year without cessation, we should become worn in mind as well as in body. A change now and then is a wholesome thing, no matter how it is accomplished.

You must have observed the unhappy looks and unhealthy pallor of men who bend over account books and of men and women employed indoors in a thousand different ways. Small wonder that they look ahead from year to year to the vacation period.

I don't believe that the average human being who has accustomed himself to regular hours of toil will agree that the work is more pleasant and satisfactory than the packaged idleness. But in the stress of business or professional life, a little time to play, or do something that appeals to one outside one's regular occupation, is very welcome, and some folks think it very necessary.

A vacation is a side issue and to be considered in that light, but it is a bright spot in the lives of countless toiling thousands and I trust its scope will broaden and never decrease.

Berlin, via Copenhagen and London, Aug. 18, 12:15 a. m.—The German government, in a note to the Belgian government, intimated that the Belgians had so brilliantly proved their honor in Brussels that the Germans, after taking account of the situation, would conclude any arrangement compatible with the conflict between Germany and France, and would evacuate Belgium as speedily as war conditions permitted. The Belgian government replied on Aug. 13, again refusing the German proposition.

Thin, nervous, undeveloped men and women everywhere are heard to say, "I can't understand why I do not get fat. I eat plenty of good nourishing food." The reason is just this: "You cannot get fat, no matter how much you eat, unless your digestive organs assimilate the fat-making elements of your food instead of passing them out through the body as waste."

The council of the city of Brainerd, at its meeting last night, unanimously

George Felt, president of the committee, returned from Brainerd this morning, and reported that in the absence of the company's attorney and the board of directors, no action was granted. As an inducement, Mr. Felt said that the company would complete that line in three miles of tracks in Brainerd by the first of August. The line was planned for three miles at that time and will be extended to five or six miles more one year later.

It is proposed to serve a luncheon for members at the Saint Paul and hold the business meeting in the afternoon. There are about 120 members of the committee, and nearly all will attend. Congressman Winfield S. Hammond, nominee for governor, will be the chief speaker.

NO WORD FROM DULUTHIANS IN EUROPEAN WAR ZONE

But Tourists in London and Sweden Are Able to Write Home.

Alice Sjoselius in Berlin—Jens Flaaten and Party in Norway.

Duluthians in London and the Scandinavian countries are getting letters or postal cards through to friends and relatives in this city but nothing has been heard from those in the active war zone, as nearly as can be ascertained.

Peter Sjoselius, father of Miss Alice Sjoselius, who is in Berlin studying music, said today that he had received no letter or card from her since last month. He expressed confidence that she is well and said that probably the only reason for receiving no news is that all communication has been shut off.

Mrs. C. S. Brown had a postal card from her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Dykeman, who are in Switzerland, July 25. Since then, however, she has had no word from them.

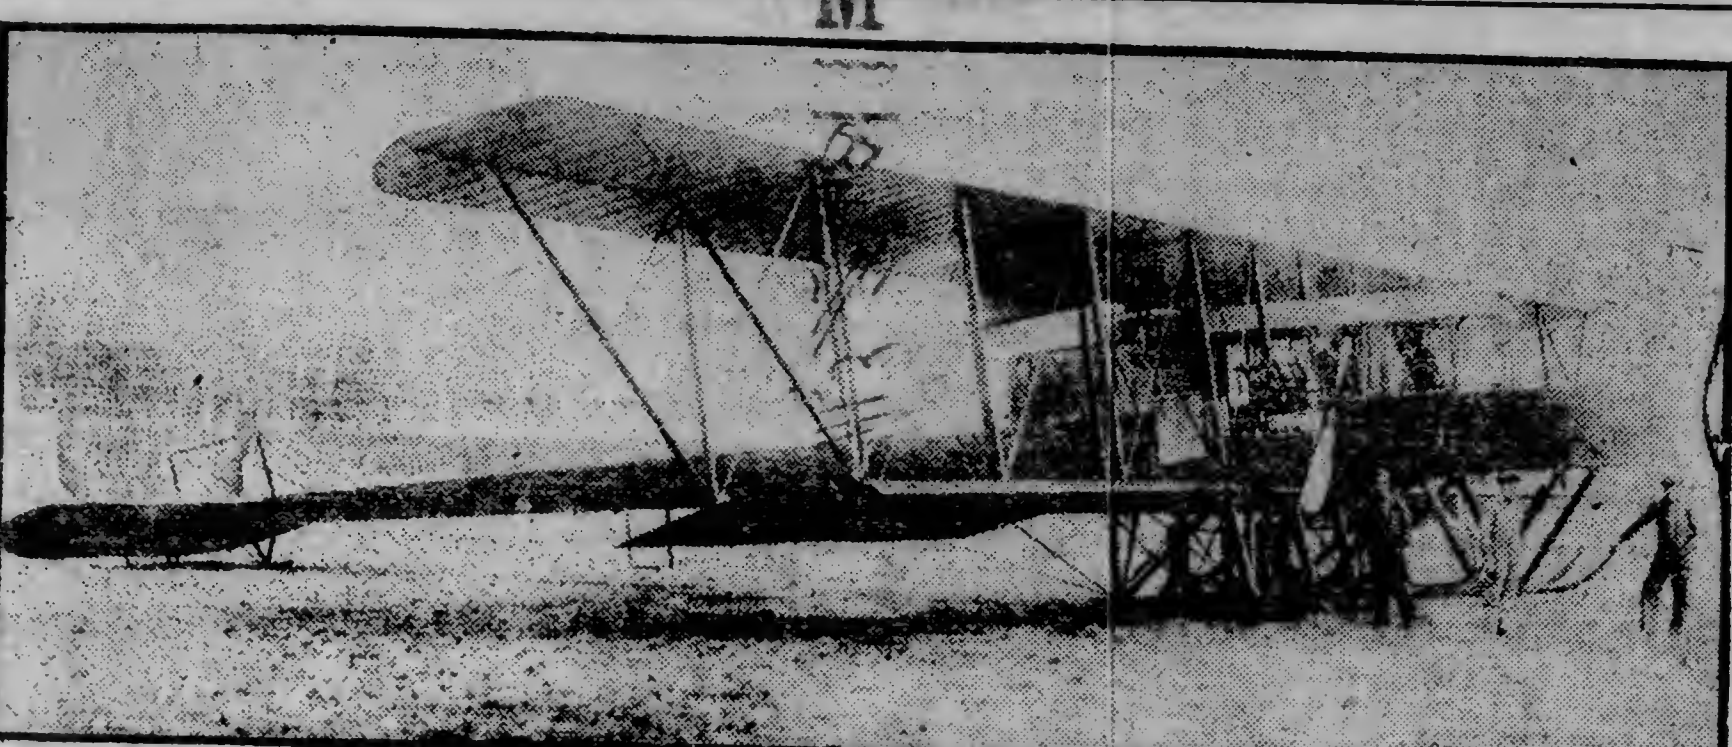

Mrs. Jens Flaaten received a postal card from her husband Saturday. He said that he and a number of other Duluth people who have been in Norway expected to sail Aug. 15 on the steamer Christiania Fjord. Mr. Arthur Ringstad, whose mother, Mrs. Anton Ringstad, and sister, Ruth, were in Paris when the liner broke out, received letters from them yesterday, stating that they were in London. They were members of the party under the direction of Prof. W. H. Schilling, and they spoke highly of the energy and ability which he displayed in securing their transportation to London. Mr. Ringstad is in Norway and in a letter received by his son Saturday he said that he would make every effort to join the other members of his family in London. Mrs. and Miss Ringstad had expected to go from Paris to Hamburg and thence to Southampton to meet Mr. Ringstad. But the war upset their plans and they had to leave their baggage at Hamburg, to which place they had already forwarded it.

Word was received in Duluth today that Miss Edna Cole, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Cole, arrived in Quebec this morning on the steamer Corbitt of the Allan line. She will proceed to Montreal and will be met there tomorrow by her mother, who will accompany her to their home in this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Justyn of 1721 Jefferson street, have returned from the war zone, and W. C. Agnew, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Agnew, 1721 Jefferson street, is expected home within a day or two.

It has a power plant of four engines and can fly with one or more and carry a load of several thousand pounds. In the recent tests of the Curtiss aeroplane, America, in which Lieut. Forté hoped to cross the ocean, the construction and accomplishments of the new machine have never been made public. The "Russian Knight" has carried twelve passengers on its flights.

TEACH BOYS TO BE CRUSOES.

New York Lads Learn About Primitive Tools at a Museum. New York World: Any public school boy who may be cast on a desert island, and similar institutions in other cities, will know how to take care of himself and get along comfortably in an emergency. This is the message of a new museum which has been started in the American Museum of Natural History and similar institutions in other cities. Thirty-five boys of 12 grade, age about 12 years, were chosen for the museum. All of them prepared for the lessons by reading "Robinson Crusoe." At their first visit to the museum they were taken to a small lecture hall, where the teacher had placed a collection of stone implements, wooden, shell and kauri utensils, baskets, pottery and weapons. As the boys handled and examined these articles with the construction and utility of these articles the teacher pointed out to them that these were the materials on which primitive man had to depend, and in handling which to his use he had to exercise his powers of invention. This was a lesson on the beginning of things, and it was thoroughly learned by the boys before they were taken to anything else.

DISADVANTAGES.

Chicago News: "If you love a girl," counseled Duffer, "you had better not want to talk about various escapes. It doesn't work out with favorable results at all." "There was Ashkins. I knew him well, and when I went to call on his sister, she said to me, 'Come to think of it, I had a similar experience. I seem to remember annexing a brother's apartment, and I used to talk sports with this brother of the young lady whom I went to see.' " "I suppose he did," he would say. "This is no fun." It used to make his sister mad, too. "I should think so," come to think of it, I had a similar experience. I seem to remember annexing a brother's apartment, and I used to talk sports with this brother of the young lady whom I went to see.

THE INSURGENT SEX.

Baily Millard in Woman's World: The going forth of lots of women to work and the advent of the new era has hastened the feminist revolution and quickened its spirit. After the first little vanguard of women had invaded the masculine stronghold, their sisters of the quiet prosaic home, always limited as to spending money, saw them many of them a sort of party with men and a determination to press on and capture the innermost citadel and secumant.

ANTS CARRY GERMS.

London Lancet: No suspicion until lately has arisen that the industrious ant might upon occasion act as the transmitting agent of infection to man. It was known that some species, such as the white ant, had very destructive tendencies in certain parts of the tropics, and that the bites of some of these insects caused a good deal of general disturbance, being attended with faintness and shivering and sometimes with temporary paralysis. It was also known that some savages used the dried bodies of ants beaten into a paste, as an arrow poison. The ant is commonly found in and around the dwellings of people residing in the tropics. It is, indeed, a matter of difficulty to keep this insect away from foodstuffs in such houses, and it is equally difficult to keep it away from human excreta, which it can and does not properly disposed of. So the ant is doubly dangerous, in that it has the opportunity of carrying from infected excreta the specific organisms of disease to the food stored in human dwellings.

SOBS THROWN IN.

London Public Opinion: Two English farmers met in the market town, and there was a calculating look in the eyes of both as they faced each other. "About that tree cow I was talking to you of the other day," began Farmer Dobbins, "will you take 12 pounds for her, George?" "No, no," he couldn't part with 'er for that—not by a long chalk." "But that other day you told me you might let 'er go for that?" "Something 'appened to the cow since then," "Mercy on us, George, what's the matter?" "Worse'n that," said George. "You see my old missus can't bear to part with the old cow. It 'ud break 'er heart. She'd sob 'erself into a fit at over 'er."

He had been bound over to the grand jury on a charge of forgery and made his getaway while being photographed in the Bertillon room. County Board Meets to Review Figures of Assessors. Issues Decree Thanking People for Show of Devotion.

Increase of $4,000,000 in Ely's Valuation Is Shown. German War Office Issues List of Dead Officers.

The county board of equalization which has met and adjourned from day to day owing to the fact that the assessment rolls were not in shape to be turned over by the county auditor's office, reconvened this afternoon to consider equalization matters. So far as can be learned, the most important matter to be considered by the equalization board will be the readjustment of assessments on some of the mining property. A number of the assessors in the mining districts have placed a nominal valuation on the mines and this will be raised by the board. The final adjustment will rest with the state tax commission. The returns of assessors, which are subject to revision by the equalization board and the state tax commission, show the following valuations of real estate in cities, villages and towns having an assessed valuation of more than $1,000,000.

The largest increase in real estate valuations is shown in the city of Ely. The valuation returned by the assessor, Mr. E. J. Ely, is $6,420,852, as compared with $1,936,815 a year ago. The increase may be investigated by the equalization board. As yet, no complaints have been filed with the equalization board. It is expected that the work of the board will be completed Friday.

TO STOP ALIENS KILLING GAME

North Dakotans Propose Law Requiring Licenses to Carry Guns.

Regan, N. D., Aug. 18.—(Special to The Herald.)—As a result of the arrest of a Greek railway laborer on the Northern Pacific here for a violation of the game laws, the sportsmen of this section have taken up the proposition to secure a law similar to that of Montana, Pennsylvania and other states requiring that all foreigners who carry guns should be licensed. This would have application for citizens, but would reach the army of road track gamblers in this state who are charged with the grossest violations of the game laws. They are all armed with cheap shotguns and shoot everything from song birds to crows, all of which go into stew.

EASY TO CONVINCE.

Were it more difficult to carry a gun, convictions would be easy. The rights of no citizen or any one planning to become a citizen would in no wise be limited by this action. It is the favorability to recommending the proposition to the next session of the legislature. It is proposed to make it an offense for any one not a citizen, having declared his intentions, to carry a gun without first having secured a license for that express purpose at a cost of $25 and filing a description of himself and giving his residence.

LAW VIOLATOR PUNISHED.

Stanley, N. D., Aug. 18.—(Special to The Herald.)—When Farmer Sande near here, violated the game law, a game warden of the state and game force was in the vicinity and reported the matter to the district warden, who arrested Sande. The latter pleaded guilty and paid his fine.

BOARD OF REGENTS VISITS CROOKSTON

Crookston, Minn., Aug. 18.—(Special to The Herald.)—The twelve members of the board of regents of the state university including President George E. Vincent, came here Saturday from Grand Rapids and accompanied by Supt. Selvig and other state officials, visited the school. They inspected the new boys' dormitory and informally discussed the need of a new dining hall. There is dire need of a new dining hall so that the first floor of Stephens Hall, now used for that purpose, can be utilized for dormitory purposes. It is necessary to take care of the enrollment, which is piling up now more rapidly than at any time in the history of the school with the opening more than a month away.

REGENT WILLIAMS PLEASED.

Regent Williams of Little Falls, who had not been here for two years said: "I am greatly gratified and pleased with the improvements and construction work done at the school. The school and farm have advanced wonderfully and reflect splendid work by Supt. Selvig and the faculty." All members of the board expressed the greatest satisfaction at the work

COPPER COUNTRY TO ISSUE BONDS FOR ROAD WORK.

Houghton, Mich., Aug. 18.—The plan advanced by Attorney W. J. Gatrath of Calumet that the county be bonded for $500,000 for road improvement so as to furnish employment to men who have been thrown out of work because of the European war is gaining wide approval among the taxpayers and residents in general of the northern portion of the county. In fact, people of Keweenaw county also discuss the advisability of some such plan being undertaken in their county.

TO EMPLOY IDLE ONES.

It has been suggested, moreover, that the road work be done by day labor, not by contract, so the fullest benefit of the money to be spent be secured by the laboring man in need of work, and that the county secure a competent general superintendent and competent foreman to direct the work under the direction of the county road commission.

By Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Cleveland, Ohio.—"My left side pained me so for several years that I expected to have to undergo an operation, but the first bottle I took of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound relieved me of the pains in my side and I continued its use until I became regular and free from pains. I had asked several doctors if there was anything I could take to help me and they said there was nothing that they knew of. WHITE SOX GRAB FIRST GAME FROM FLICKERTAILS

Cunningham Allows Four Hits and Our Side
Wins 10 to 0.

The Errors of the Visitors Turn the Game Into a Comedy.

BY BRUCE.

George Austin Cunningham had one bad round yesterday and eight good ones. Opposed to the one bad round of the handsomely paid pitcher, the other bad rounds for Kewin, the opposing mound man and the pennant contenders from the home precincts took the game by the count of 10 to 0.

For the first five rounds of the pastime the speed of Cunningham was dazzling and the Flickers gathered not the semblance of a hit. Large and florid Mister Peters cracked one in the sixth and before the din of battle had died away in this frame two more hits had been added to the quota. One more blow came in the eighth and the game degenerated into a merry fest of comical endeavor.

The visitors were prevented from scoring in the sixth by the blunders and some quick playing. Brickett heaved one home to head off Peters and the ball went wild, hitting the bleachers and coming to the arms of Collins, who threw to the plate in time to head off the catcher. McGraw was flustered at the plate in the same round.

Our first run came in the fourth when Collins walked and swiped second and third and counted on a wild pitch. After this round the errors of the visitors came so thick and frequent that the score was rolled into a huge total. Mixed in with the errors was the willing wallowing of our batters in the admixture of the top paths with White Sox runners.

The Fuzzy Attack.

Second baseman Elder was especially susceptible to the muffed balls and dropped throws and booted grounders at extremely inopportune times. The generally reliable Nifenecker made a costly boot and Michael Kramer, whose kindly countenance was seen in right field, let one go through his bowled legs that assisted in our cause. Scout Mahoney was on hand and gave several of the players a good scolding. Second baseman Elder was especially susceptible to the muffed balls and dropped throws and booted grounders at extremely inopportune times.

Two games will be played with the visitors tomorrow. Darby hopes to win the game of today and both of the contests scheduled for tomorrow. Thus it is hoped that we will pull up on the fast traveling White Sox and cut down the gap that at this late season of the year looks so alarming.

must go to Couture, who surely showed one of the most startling reversals of form ever exhibited by a boxer in two staris.

The bout was a thriller, a real battle, and it will be a long time before it is approached in thrilling finish.
Salvatore showed remarkable vigor in his go with Billings. Times innumerable the Billings one caught Johnny right across as he was coming in, and the blows seemed to have no more effect upon the hardy Teuton than the mild drizzle of early October upon the feathered back of a duck.

Billings is a corner, a clever two-handed fighter, and Salvatore is one of the toughest and most enduring mortals that the ring has thrown upon the hazy days of battling Nelson.

Can anyone hurt this boy? The answer is not as yet forthcoming.
Once Billings staggered the Dutchman with a semi-overhand right swing, and the expression in those green glinting eyes of Salvatore never even changed expression. What can you do with boys like that? It's a corker.

TILLMAN WILL FIGHT CROSS

Johnny Tillman and Leach Cross are to fight on the evening of Aug. 25 at the Hudson arena, according to the announcement made today by Frank Tyrrell, manager of the little Minneapolis boxer.

Tyrrell came to the Head of the Lakes to witness the encounter of last evening and it was while in the city today that he received the telegram announcing the date of the fight with the New York Giant.

The battle will be for ten rounds and will thus favor the chances of Tillman. The fight will attract a lot of interest because of the huge amount of advertising received in the California trip of Tyrrell and Tillman.

GILMORE MAKES PLAY.

Federal League President Releases Umpire for Non-Enforcement.

Chicago, Aug. 18.—Umpire Van Syckle was given ten days' notice of his release yesterday by President Gilmore of the Federal league because in the president's opinion the umpire did not properly enforce the rules in Sunday's Chicago-Salt Lake game.

During an argument over a technical point Van Syckle, it is said, several times called the time limit on Manager Tinker, telling the local leader to send up the labor bailor, but he would forfeit the game to the visitors, and his not doing so was displeasing to President Gilmore.

Columbia Jrs. Win Again.

The Columbia Juniors won the city amateur championship Sunday when they defeated the Little Juniors by the score of 15 to 2, but lost the second.

a few weeks ago.

ASK GOETHALS TO HELP IN PRICE WAR

Chicagoans Telegraph for Data on Canal Zone Methods.

Chicago, Aug. 18.—Col. George W.
Goethals, chairman of the Panama canal commission, has been called upon to help Chicago overcome the wartime prices in force here. The Chicago municipal markets commission, after a public session attended by representatives of civic societies, wonder's leagues and heads of all city departments, sent a telegram to Col.
Goethals asking information as to the methods of maintenance and operation employed by the subsistence department of the canal zone.

The subsistence department has furnished the necessities of life to citizens of the zone at cost, under the direction of the United States government.

Ask Canal Zone Prices.
The commission also asked Mr. Goethals to inform it by wire of the prices the government is now charging on all staples, meats and vegetables and milk.

The commission also telegraphed to President Wilson expressing gratitude for the promptness with which he attempted to bring relief from unwarranted food prices.

Resolutions were adopted ordering the establishment of at least five municipal markets in the most thickly populated sections, and recommending the passage of a special ordinance by which to punish peddlers, peddlers and trucks which have taken advantage of the war to raise prices.

IMMIGRATION IS CUT 50 PER CENT.

Washington, Aug. 18.—War's effect upon the tide of immigration into the United States is indicated by official figures showing a decrease of more than 50 per cent in the number of aliens coming in during the first half of August, compared with the same days last year. From Aug. 1 to 14, the immigration numbered 20,386, compared with 36,079 last year.

VACATE SITE OF COAL DOCK

City Clears Way for Northwestern Fuel Company's Improvement.

Will Purchase Runabout for Electrician—Other Routine Matters.

Routine business occupied the attention of the city council at its regular weekly meeting yesterday afternoon.

The vacation of Nelson avenue on Rice's point was ordered. The vacancy will form part of a site for a big coal dock which will be erected by the Northwestern Fuel company. It was formerly known as Cedar avenue and is under water, extending from the government dock line on the west side of the bay to the east line of Munger and Peck's re-arrangement.

File Damage Claims.
Peter Myhre, Knute Bryva and Adolph Tytz filed notices of claims of $200 each for alleged damage to their property by the raising of the water now being improved. Mrs. Caroline Poulson presented a claim of $2,500 from a sidewalk into a ditch at Sixty-fourth avenue west and Main street.
She sustained a broken arm and was severely bruised. The claims were referred to the legal department.

An ordinance appropriating $475 for the purchase of an automobile run-about for the city electrician was given its first reading. An ordinance designating parts of New Endion dis-vision and Harrison's division as a residence district was introduced.

City clerk Palmer informed the council that notice of the city's offer to purchase the plant of the Duluth-Ellison Electric company had been formally served upon the company Aug. 14.
The resolution gives the company twenty days in which to accept the city's proposal. The city's offer is $1,07,840.54, the value fixed by the engineers who recently made an appraisal of the property.

The communication of C. G. Firoved asking that the property owners be given an opportunity to be heard before the council approves the measures for the paving of Seventh street from Fourteenth avenue east to Fifth avenue west, was referred to Finance Commissioner Voss.

Protest Against Plank Walks.
A protest was made against the construction of plank walks on Ninth street between Eleventh and Twelfth avenues. The property owners claimed that the plank walks would only be temporary. This was referred to Commissioner Firoved.

W. M. Prindle & Co. presented a request for the construction of sanitary sewers in the vicinity of Thirty-sixth avenue east and Crescent View avenue.

SWITZERLAND IS EAGER TO BORROW.

Washington, Aug. 18.—Dr. Paul Ritter, the Swiss minister, again has made statements to the state department in behalf of his government's loan of gold from the United States.
Switzerland, in a financial straits, practically has entire male population in arms, is facing a serious question in regard to feeding its population.
The implication that this country might implicate the United States into a violation of neutrality by using the acquired money as a loan to belligerent nations, was declared repugnant by Mr. Ritter. He said that aside from Switzerland's domestic financial straits, it was such that she must have funds to restore normal conditions at home.

Oil inspectors. Ah, yes. That costs $40,000 a year and properly organized can be done for less. Everyone knows that. Better inspectors? Perhaps that is about $25,000 a year, money that does not come from the state and does not pass through the treasury.
The state has been spending around $2,000,000 a year for new buildings and betterments. Perhaps that cuts the total to an arbitrary limit of say $1,000,000.
Under the budget system it will be possible to figure out that where next?

Not in the courts. No legislature is going to reduce the number of judges or their pay. That's about $300,000 in grain inspection. It costs about $350,000 a year to run the state treasury, and is now being considered for more pay for the surplus.
Not in the auditor's office, nor the governor's office, nor the attorney general's office.

HEALTH TALKS

William Brady, M.D.
Fairy Tales Poison Children's Minds

CENSORSHIP of moving picture films is carried out particularly for the welfare of children. No matter what may be the influence of suggestive scenes upon the mature mind, restriction upon the immature suggestion upon the impressionable mind of the young child.

Fairy tales have always been considered a legitimate and elevating form of entertainment for children. Some of the stories written by Andersen, the Grimms and other noted authors are classics. Bluebeard, the Giant-Killer, Cinderella, Little Red Riding-Hood, Golden-Locks and the Three Bears, Beauty and the Beast—who would think that such ancient fairy tales could injure a child's mind?

Don't Be Bound By Tradition.
Because a thing is old and long established is no good reason for saying it isn't wrong. Our ancestors found fairy tales almost indispensable for want of books. Today we have plenty of truthful and interesting stories for young children. We need not draw on the sickly and distorted imaginations of our classic fairy tale writers. One will find that nothing amuses the children so much at storytelling time as a rehearsal of simple incidents from one's own childhood experience, or incidents which might happen to anybody in real life.

Prof. Freud, the famous medical psychologist, and other authorities in the field of nervous and mental diseases, have shown how impressions made upon the childish mind by fairy tales tend to stimulate abnormal thoughts. In many cases, these specialists find that erotic and neurotic symptoms are directly traceable to suggestions originating in fairy stories heard at the mother's knee.

Nourish the Child Mind With Good Stories.
Why should we feed the immature mind on yarns in which murder, imbecilities and cruelties of all kinds are practiced without regard for human life or for the consequences of criminality? What is the difference between a nasty film in a movie show or a "blood and thunder" dime novel and a paucering story from a popular magazine, encumbered by the suggestive mind by a Bluebeard recital or other portrayals of wickedness?

Consign the fairy stories to the furnace flames and nourish the children's minds with true nature stories or pictures of real life. They will have sweeter dreams—especially sweeter dreams and answers.

WHERE SAVING IS POSSIBLE

What Can Be Done By Acting on Efficiency Commission's Plan.

State Can Save and Get More for What It Spends.

St. Paul, Minn., Aug. 18.—(Special to The Herald.)—Five mills, the tax for all state funds including school, will yield about $9,000,000.

The railroads will pay about $4-500,000, other gross earnings about half a million more and the inheritance tax another half million. That accounts for $12,500,000 of state revenues and income of the state school fund. Earnings of the department and the income from trust funds, plus a few items of Federal aid, make the total of the receipts that will come to the treasury during the current year.
A total somewhere round fifteen millions.

Cutting Down Expenses.
Now about cutting down expenses.
There is one mill for roads—between $1,250,000 and $1,500,000. Cutting down expenses doesn't affect that. There is one mill for the state school fund, another item of more than a million.
That is not in the control of state officials. The legislature, it does not belong to the state as a corporate entity. There is the state cannot touch for its own purposes.

There is an item of $1,500,000, which will be $2,000,000 next year, given from the state's fund for state schools that carry manual training, agriculture, domestic science and so forth. The next item is the state's fund for the state school fund. The legislature, it does not belong to the state as a corporate entity. There is the state cannot touch
for its own purposes.

The care of the institutions is the biggest single item of the education.
That cannot be materially reduced. It will continually increase. The board of control, a conservative and money-saving body, has argued every session for more pay for the attendants. There will be no reductions and there may be increases.

Those items which cannot be reduced unless the legislature shuts its eyes and slashes appropriations regardless of the fact that more than half the total account for more than half the total raised by state taxation.

Of the $6,000,000 which is under control of the legislature, the opportunity for saving is inviting at first glance, more and more perplexing as one studies it further.

The state has been spending around $2,000,000 a year for new buildings and betterments. Perhaps that cuts the total to an arbitrary limit of say $1,000,000.

SAYS MOB MURDERED HUSBAND AND CHILD

French Woman Tells How Spouse Cheered for France.

London, Aug. 18, 12:20 a. m.—A Reuter dispatch from Rennes, France, says: "Madame Guillon, a wealthy resident of Combourg, a town a short distance southeast of Saint Malo, has arrived here and told how her husband and baby were killed by a mob in France."

"We were expected on Aug. 2 from Kolberg (a town of Prussia in Pomerania) and were to reach France through Switzerland, but we were turned back before we reached the German frontier and compelled to retrace our steps and go by way of Holland."

"On arriving in Hanover my husband and myself were arrested as spies and tossed by a mob, despite the protective efforts of the police. My husband, unfortunately, lost his self-control and cried, 'Long live France' and 'Long live England,' whereupon he was shot."

"My brother-in-law was thrown into prison at Denzheim. I escaped, and after various adventures, succeeded in reaching Holland."

ON THE IRON RANGES

DROWNED YOUTHS' BODIES RECOVERED

Are Taken From Basswood River Just Below Where Boys Perished.

Winton, Minn., Aug. 13.—(Special to The Herald.)—The bodies of Gerald McCormick and Arthur Kelly, the Duluth boys who were drowned in the Basswood river rapids, about eleven miles north of Winton, Sunday afternoon, have been found and will be taken to Duluth today by their fathers and others, who came here for that purpose. The bodies were found about 9:30 last evening lying in shallow water only about seven feet below the treacherous pool in which the boys perished.

Found Six Feet Apart.

The bodies were only about six feet apart. Deputy Game Warden J. J. James and Mr. Kelly, both of Duluth, found them. Neither body was lacerated by the action of the water and both were in a good state of preservation. The bodies were brought here this morning, first by motor boat and the balance by the automobile that runs on the lake. Kelly and McCormick, the boys' fathers, accompanied by J. N. Kelly and Mr. McCormick, who came from Duluth last evening, left here at 5 o'clock this morning for the scene of the double drowning, but before they arrived there were notified of the finding and turned back. The parents will probably leave on the noon train for Duluth with the bodies, in which event they will arrive in the Zenith city at 4 p. m. If their plans should be changed and they leave on the train departing at 10 p. m., Mr. Sherman O'Brien, who was with the boys when they perished, but who saved himself after a close call, has left for Duluth.

CHINESE SENDING LIGHT TO ORIENT

Range and Superior Celes-tials Give Home Town Harbor Light.

Hibbing, Minn., Aug. 13.—(Special to The Herald.)—A crate of lanterns and an acetylene light ordered of a local hardware company by twenty-five Chinese from the range and Superior were shipped today on the Great Northern to the Pacific coast. This is the first consignment of merchandise ordered from a Minnesota retail merchant for shipment to the Orient, as far as is known. The shipment was billed to Wing Hing Wo Kee, a Chinese merchant doing business in Hong Kong, who will re-bill it to the village of Sue Toon to which it will be presented as a gift.

Remember Home Town.

A kindly remembrance of their home town has resulted in that Him Lee, a local representative of that community and twenty-four other Chinese from that neighborhood, who are now living on the range and Superior, have decided to furnish a light for the harbor of the village of Sue Toon, providing that the village raise the necessary money to erect a tower on which to place the light. This has been done and Lee about two weeks ago ordered through the Hibbing Hardware company a Milburn acetylene, 2,000-candle power light.

The light will be placed on a high tower erected for the purpose and is to be regulated by clock movements so that it will swing round lighting up all parts of the harbor. The light weighs 100 pounds and although no duty is charged on it the cost to get it over to Hong Kong will be $30.

WHEAT TAKES BIG UPTURN

Market Soars With Buying on Betterment in Export Situation.

Flaxseed Bulges Sharply on Excited Bidding and Light Offerings.

Duluth Board of Trade, Aug. 18.—The market developed further strength at the close on good bidding. September wheat closed 4½c up and December 4½c up. September durum closed 5½c up. October 5½c up and December 7½c up.

At Minneapolis, October closed at 48½c, and December at 47½c. September wheat closed at 85½c, and calls at 84½c.

The wheat market turned strong today on the better foreign shipping outlook on the announcement of the government that it had agreed to a loan of $100,000,000 to the United States.

Prospects are now thought to be good for the resumption of shipments shortly on an extensive scale, and the relief of the congestion at Southwest points on ocean ports. The reduction of the London war risk insurance rate was taken as a favorable feature in the situation. There were also reports that five steamers are about to sail from Boston with grain for Liverpool, and four steamers were reported to be loading at Montreal. Advice came to hand of considerable business having been put through in oats for export, it being intimated at Chicago that stocks in that grain are being rapidly cleaned up.

Duluth grain men were in a more hopeful mood today regarding the prospects of handling the new spring wheat movement with a minimum of congestion. While it is realized that a heavy volume of fall wheat must be moved out first on existing foreign contracts, it is thought that the efforts of the committee of exporters and bankers in the East will assure the maintenance of a fair proportion of the American grain across the ocean during the next three months, and it should include a fair proportion of the Northwest crop.

Receipts at Duluth today were in better volume than inspections amounting to 71 cars. There were 105 cars of all grain on the tracks for the day. Stocks of wheat in the elevators here are now in small proportions, amounting to only 75,000 bu.

September wheat opened unchanged at 85½c and closed 4½c up. The final hour, December opened unchanged at 85½c, and gained 4½c. There was a better demand for wheat and the market in it kept pace with the upturn in spring wheat. September durum opened 4½c up and closed 5½c up. October opened 5½c up and closed 7½c up. December opened 7½c up and closed 7½c up.

Trading in the market was on the sky rocketing order at the outset. On the execution of orders for the day, quotations in all the options were advanced 1½c. There were no offerings in the market for the day, and traders excitedly bid up quotations with little seed coming in. After the exchanging orders had been filled, the market became stagnant and sagged substantially, but the final hour showed advances of 3½c to 4½c in the day. The close was fairly strong.

September flax opened 1½c up at $1.95 and after selling up 1½c more it closed 8½c up at $1.95. October opened 1½c up and closed 1½c up. November opened 1½c up and closed 1½c up. December opened 1½c up and closed 1½c up.

At Minneapolis, October flax closed 7½c up at $1.45, and November closed 7½c up at $1.45. December closed 7½c up at $1.45.

Paris, Aug. 19, 8:05 a. m.—Details of the fighting at Dinant between the French and German troops show that the carnage was terrible. The first French company, although decimated, held a position until another company came up with artillery, which destroyed a bridge. The French cavalry then advanced and pushed the German attackers back into the Meuse.

The Fight Near Dinant.

London, Aug. 19, 3:05 a. m.—The cording to the Belgian government's decision to allow no outside news-

"The great battle may be said to have begun on Saturday, when an attack was made on the French positions south of the River Meuse near Dinant. This battle started with the pushing forward of cavalry supported by infantry and artillery.

"This entire force, as soon as it came

EXHORTATION

Urges All the World to Begin Praying for Peace.

Would Turn Christendom's Thoughts Away From War.

Rome, via London, Aug. 19, 10:50 a. m.—The pope has addressed the following exhortation to the world:

"At this moment, when nearly the whole of Europe is being dragged into the vortex of a most terrible war, with its present dangers and miseries and the consequences to follow, the very thought of which must strike everyone with grief and horror, we whose care is the life and welfare of so many citizens and peoples cannot but be deeply moved and our hearts wringing with the bitterest sorrow.

"And in the midst of this universal confusion and peril, we feel that we know that both fatherly and apostolic ministry demand of us that we should with all earnestness turn the thoughts of Christendom thither, 'whence cometh help,' to Christ, the Prince of Peace and the most powerful mediator between God and man.

"We charge, therefore, the Catholics of the whole world to approach the throne of sacred mercy, each and all of them, and more especially the clergy, whose duty furthermore it will be to make in every parish, as their bishops shall direct, public supplication, so that the prayers of the people, which are the most powerful of all, may be offered with the most earnestness and speedily remove the evil causes of war, giving to them who rule to think the thoughts of peace and not of affliction.

second day of August, 1914.

Washington, Aug. 19.—President Wilson today approved a plan to have the government buy a number of ships to be used in taking American foodstuffs abroad. It was tentatively agreed that an appropriation of $25-000,000 would be asked of congress for the purchase of the ships.

The president conferred with senate and house leaders on the question of developing and safeguarding the American merchant marine and the purchase of ships and passage of a bill under which the government will undertake the insurance of war risks where agreed upon. Bills carrying out the plans will be introduced in both houses immediately.

The question of how many ships will be bought by the government is expected to be left open until it is

How to provide the $25,000,000 for the purchase of ships has not been fully determined. The decision to buy lions of unissued Panama canal bonds are available.

ceived the last communion. The pope last night had a sudden relapse. A bulletin issued by Dr. Marchisiani leaves no doubt that the patient's life fore the miraculous image of St. Joseph, and remain prostrate in prayer.

RUSSIAN REFUGEES
FLEE TO STOCKHOLM

Rich Women in Furs Beside Rag-Clad, Half-Naked Sufferers.

Stockholm, Sweden, via London, Aug.
19, 1:05 p. m.—Fully 15,000 Russian refugees from Germany, most of them exhausted, famished and sick, have arrived here today. They are being housed in the city of Stockholm since the beginning of the war. From 1,500 to 2,000 have arrived daily. Hotels, barracks and schools have been used for their housing and are filled to capacity every night.

These unfortunates are heterogeneous gathering from all classes. There are wealthy women in furs and diamonds and poor women in ragged clothes with half-naked children in their arms. Priests in cassocks, workmen in smocks and wealthy professional and business men.
Some of the refugees had been without food for three or four days before reaching Sweden.

Intrastate Rate Rejected
as Basis for Interstate Charge.

Commerce Commission Decides Southwestern Railway Dispute.

Washington, Aug. 19.—The interstate railroad passenger fare of 3 cents a mile through Arkansas, Missouri and Oklahoma was upheld by the interstate commerce commission today, according to a ruling from the supreme court on complaints of the public service commissions of those states, which sought to have the 2-cent intrastate rate made the basis of through traffic charges.

Not Voluntary Act.
The commission held that the defendant railroads did not voluntarily establish and do not voluntarily maintain the intrastate passenger fare of 2 cents a mile, and that basing interstate passenger fares in those three states on the 3-cent rate was not unreasonable.

Recalls Other Cases.
Six states—Arkansas, Kansas, Minnesota, Nebraska, Missouri and Oklahoma—established 2-cent intrastate rates in 1907, and resulting litigation brought a ruling from the supreme court that nothing confiscatory could be found to justify the railroad's complaint.

In appealing to the interstate commerce commission the state commissions sought to show that a reduction of the intrastate rate would stimulate travel, filling exhibits tending to support the contention that the 2-cent interstate rates had meant increased revenues for the carriers. The commission thought other conclusions might be drawn from other tables, and sustained the 3-cent rate. The decision, however, asserts the ruling does not mean that "there may not be force in the theory that a reduction of rate tend to increase travel."

States.

Frederick C. Howe of New York to

The nominations were presented to the senate immediately after it convened and were formally referred to committees. There are some indications of opposition to Mr. McReynolds' confirmation by three or four senators. Administration leaders, however, have no doubt of his confirmation.

New York, Aug. 19.—Homing Americans, baggageless for the most part, but glad to be out of Europe, lined the rails of the Red Star line steamer Finland as she steamed into New York harbor today, after a voyage from Antwerp and Dover. All told, the liner brought 1,082 persons—22 in the first cabin, 215 in the second cabin and 615 steerage.

First hand tales of the fighting at Liege and grim narratives of the war were brought by the refugees. Many of the Americans aboard were without here late yesterday. Another party of the same number is due late today.

These refugees will sail on the Rynd-

The Americans asserted that they war would not last more than two or three months.

He said, in the downfall of Germany, Russia's mobilization had been carried out slowly but surely, and her army was certain to vanquish Germany

Holland on its mission of relief for stranded Americans in Europe, did not ments promising safe escort for my

Forts at Liege Are Said to Have Been

Paris, Aug. 19, 1:09 p. m.—Careful study of the military situation on the northern frontier leads French military observers to the conclusion that the events transpiring in Belgium today are the beginning of operations on an immense scale.

Germany, it is declared, is making a fresh and mightier effort to break into France through the comparatively open Belgium country.

Government opinion in Paris, however, is confident that the allies will be able to meet this shock successfully and reply to it crushingly.

BATTLE REALLY BEGUN.
London, Aug. 19, 2:30 p. m.—The curt announcement in a telegram from Brussels, dated last night, of fierce fighting between Belgian and German troop along an extended front, is generally accepted in London today as indicating the real beginning of the first great battle in the war.

The German attack today again is reported made on the direct orders of Emperor William himself to his generals in the field.

LOCATION UNCERTAIN.
The extent of the line of fighting has not yet been revealed, but presumably it stretches in a north and south line. Beyond this its definite location is virtually guesswork.

Refugees from Diest, Tirlemont and other towns in that section of Belgium, who fled as the Germans appeared, are coming into Brussels in great numbers.
They declare that since the inhabitants vacated Tirlemont, German shells have been dropping in the town, and that subsequently the Belgians broke the German advance there at the point of the bayonet.

Returning to Antwerp.
Paris, Aug. 19, 10:50 a. m.—An official announcement this morning says the retirement of Belgian troops to Antwerp is rumored, but not confirmed.

It is explained officially that even though a number of their vessels will be put under the American flag under the Federal emergency shipping bill which was signed last night.

Register as American.
New York, Aug. 19.—W. R. Grace & Co., who have twelve freight steamships on the Atlantic and Pacific, announced that a number of their vessels will be put under the American flag under the Federal emergency shipping bill which was signed last night.

Save for the brief official announcement from Paris saying "the retirement of Belgian troops toward Antwerp is rumored but not confirmed," little news came today from the war front. Complete silence is maintained as to fortunes of war in the big fight underway in Belgium, and somewhere along a line extending through Belgium and Luxembourg. Dispatches give evidence of the presence of the masses of German troops pushing their way to the front behind an impenetrable screen of cavalry, whose dashes in search of information as to the whereabouts of the allied troops have resulted in sharp clashes and heavy casualties.

The commanders of the allied forces of French, British and Belgians, will not permit anything about their positions to become public, and since the official note made known the presence of a large British expeditionary force on the continent, its movements have been hidden from the outside world.

At Brussels it is said there has been no change since yesterday in the position then reported to be excellent for the allies.

The fate of the Liege forts is not definitely known. German reports describe them as in the hands of the German army since the arrival of heavy artillery, while Belgian military authorities assert that they are still intact and holding out bravely.

In Alsace-Lorraine, the French turning movement through Southern Alsace appears, from French reports, to be progressing favorably for the French, and this seems to receive confirmation in a dispatch sent out by the Wolff bureau, the German official news agency, saying two batteries of guns fired their march forward.

These reports, however, refer to the bodies of troops leading up to the great battle which may already have begun. Even leading Frenchmen have hesitated to point out to their countrymen that the decisive conflict is yet to come and that too much reliance must not be placed on reports of demonstration among the German troops.

It is reported that a naval encounter has occurred in the North Sea, but this is without official confirmation.

On the Russo-German-Austrian frontier, fights of small importance are recorded. German troops today occupied Germania, in Russian Poland, close to the Russian frontier, and Russian reports of a repulse with heavy casualties of Austrian troops, who attacked Vladimir, in the Russian province of Volhynia.

A strong force of German troops is said to have attacked Eydikhanes, a German town on the Russian frontier, which was occupied by the Russians soon after the outbreak of hostilities.

A French official note confirms reports of a Serbian victory at Shabatz, where an Austrian force of 50,000 men.
The Austrians are said to have lost
5,000 killed and 5,000 wounded.

A Montenegrin army is reported within two hours' march of the fortified Austrian seaport of Ragusa, in Talmatia. The Montenegrins had already captured a number of towns in the vicinity.

Two large Austrian steamers were captured today by the French.

Washington, Aug. 19.—President Wilson today approved a plan to have the government buy a number of ships to be used in taking American foodstuffs abroad. It was tentatively agreed that an appropriation of $25,000,000 would be asked of congress for the purchase of the ships.

The question of how many ships will be bought by the government is expected to be left open until it is known how many ships now under foreign flags take advantage of the new law extending registry.

Intrastate Rate Rejected as Basis for Interstate Charge.

Commerce Commission Decides Southwestern Railway Dispute.

Washington, Aug. 19.—The interstate railroad passenger fare of 3 cents a mile through Arkansas, Missouri and Oklahoma was upheld by the interstate commerce commission today, acting on complaints of the public service commissions of those states, which sought to have the 2-cent intrastate rate made the basis of through traffic charges.

Not Voluntary Act.
The commission held that the defendant railroad did not voluntarily establish and does not voluntarily maintain the interstate passenger fare of 2 cents a mile and that basing interstate passenger fares on those three states is not a voluntary act.

The commission's ruling is important, as the reduction would have had a wide influence on passenger traffic rates generally.

It is reported that the defendant railroad sought to show that a reduction of the interstate rate would stimulate travel, filling exhibits tending to support the contention that the 2-cent passenger fares in those three states were brought about by a ruling from the supreme court that nothing confiscatory could be found to justify the railroad's complaint.

CRUISER TENNESSEE NOT PROMISED SAFE CONDUCT

U. S. Relief Boat Is Detained at Falmouth, England.

Condition of Americans in Europe Is Much Better.

Falmouth, Eng., Aug. 19, via London, Aug. 19, 11:16 a. m.—The United States cruiser Tennessee, which should have sailed at dawn today for the Hook of Holland on its mission of relief for stranded Americans in Europe, did not depart.

Henry S. Breckenridge, United States assistant secretary of war, in explanation of the delay, said:

"I had expected to receive information from all the European governments promising safe escort for my representatives in conveying treasure to the different capitals. I also expected more definite information from the continent of Europe as to the exact number of Americans stranded in the various countries. As this has not arrived, I must stay on until it does, so that I can instruct my representatives exactly what to do."

The cruiser North Carolina, which anchored in the channel all night, left Falmouth today, and the American flag will be put under the Federal emergency shipping bill which was signed last night.

RUSSIAN WARSHIP SUNK IN BLACK SEA?
Report Also Says That Odessa Docks Are Afire.

London, Aug. 19, 3:35 p. m.—An unsubstantiated report has been received here from St. Petersburg to the effect that a Russian warship foundered in the Black sea after striking a mine, and that the Odessa docks are on fire.

AMERICANS TREATED WELL BY GERMANS
Refugees From Germany Arriving at Rotterdam.

Rotterdam, Aug. 19, via London, 4:20 a. m.—About 300 Americans arrived here late yesterday. Another party of the same number is due late today. These refugees will sail on the Ryndam, Saturday.

The Americans asserted that they suffered no ill-treatment of any sort from the Germans. Englishmen, however, were singled out for harsh treatment by irresponsible parties. Owing to mutual helplessness, the arrivals have suffered no real hardship.

The British ambassador returned to The Hague from London last night.

WITTE SAYS GERMAN DISASTER IS NEAR.
Paris, Aug. 19, 2:25 a. m.—A news dispatch from Tardes quotes Count Sergius Witte, the Russian statesman, who is on his way from Biarritz to Russia, as declaring that the European war would not last more than two or three months.

It was bound to end, he said, in the downfall of Germany. Russia's mobilization had been carried out slowly but surely, and her army was certain to vanquish Germany whatever might happen.

KAISER HIMSELF IS SAID TO HAVE GIVEN THE ORDER

Belgians Are Reported to Be Falling Back on Antwerp, Their Last Stronghold.

Forts at Liege Are Said to Have Been Dynamited and Abandoned By the Defenders.

Paris, Aug. 19, 1:09 p. m.—Careful study of the military situation on the northern frontier leads French military observers to the conclusion that the events transpiring in Belgium today are the beginning of operations on an immense scale.

Germany, it is declared, is making a fresh and mightier effort to break into France through the comparatively open Belgium country.

Government opinion in Paris, however, is confident that the allies will be able to meet this shock successfully and reply to it crushingly.

BATTLE REALLY BEGUN.
London, Aug. 19, 2:30 p. m.—The curt announcement in a telegram from Brussels, dated last night, of fierce fighting between Belgian and German troops along an extended front, is generally accepted in London today as indicating the real beginning of the first great battle in the war.

The German attack today again is reported made on the direct orders of Emperor William himself to his generals in the field.

LOCATION UNCERTAIN.
The extent of the line of fighting has not yet been revealed, but presumably it stretches in a north and south line. Beyond this its definite location is virtually guesswork.

Refugees from Diest, Tirlemont and other towns in that section of Belgium, who fled as the Germans appeared, are coming into Brussels in great numbers. They declare that since the inhabitants vacated Tirlemont, German shells have been dropping in the town, and that subsequently the Belgians broke the German advance there at the point of the bayonet.

Retaking to Antwerp.
Paris, Aug. 19, 10:10 a. m.—An official announcement this morning says the retirement of Belgian troops to Antwerp is rumored, but not confirmed.

It is explained officially that even were this report true, it would be neither a grave symptom nor unexpected. The defensive organization of Belgium, conceived by Gen. Brihl, in a dispatch sent out by the Wolff bureau, the German, official news agency, saying two batteries of guns were taken by the French, who continued their march forward.

These reports, however, refer to the preliminary meetings of opposing bodies of troops leading up to the great battle which may already have begun. Even leading Frenchmen have been to point out to their countrymen that the decisive conflict is yet to come and that too much reliance must not be placed on reports of demoralization among the German troops.

It is reported that a naval encounter has occurred in the North sea, but this is without official confirmation.

On the Russo-German-Austrian frontier, fights of small importance are recorded. German troops today occupied Miavva, in Russian Poland, close to the German frontier, and Russian reports relate a repulse with heavy casualties on the Russian side, who attacked Vladimir, in the Russian province of Volhynia.

A strong force of German troops is said to have attacked Bydzhitsa, a town on the Russian frontier, which was occupied by the Russians soon after the outbreak of hostilities.

A French official note confirms reports of a Serbian victory at Shabatz, over an Austrian force of 80,000 men. The Austrians are said to have lost 5,000 killed and 5,000 wounded.

A Montenegrin army is reported within two hours' march of the fortified Austrian report of Rakana, in Fainatia. The Montenegrins had already captured a number of towns in the vicinity.

Two large Austrian steamers were captured today by the French.

Minister of public instruction—Dr. Miguel Silva. Minister of communications—Ygnacio Bonillas. Minister of finance—Peligros Villareal. Minister of war—Eduardo Hay.

Nacoz, Sonora, Mex., Aug. 18.—Armed men representing Governor Jose M. Maytorena, who had been without bloodshed yesterday, but missed what they came for—the public funds, which the governor recently demanded of Constitutional officials friendly to Col. Calles and the Carranza regime. M. M. Martinez, the Mexican collector of customs, fled with the money to the American side.

The Maytorena men then went back to Cananea after having disarmed the Calles men who remained in the city.

FUR FACTORY ENLARGED

In order to take care of the increasing business that the Beckman Fur company is enjoying, a new downtown street was formerly used as the site of the rooms. The present location of the concern, which is 16 East Superior street, was formerly used as a warehouse and factory, but Mr. Beckman has rented the location at 17 East Michigan street to be used entirely for factory purposes. This change means that their present location will be used exclusively for salesrooms, which will give them twice as much display space as formerly. In speaking of the fur business yesterday, Mr. Beckman stated that the styles this season are entirely different than they were last season and especially in the line of the fur coats. The Beckman Fur company is now showing its complete line of furs for the 1914-15 season and cordially invites the women of Duluth to call and see its beautiful line of fur garments.

GERMANS' BULLETS NOT USUALLY FATAL

London, Aug. 19, 2:40 a. m.—The Daily Express today prints a dispatch from a newspaper man at Ostend, who has been close to the front. The correspondent says he has learned that the German soldiers' equipment is much superior to that of the Belgians, but that the Germans' shirts, linen and stockings are mostly of an inferior quality.

SAYS GERMANS HAD ONLY SMALL FORCE
Berlin, via Copenhagen and London, Aug. 19.—A series of statements on the Liege enigma is published from the headquarters of Gen. Stein, according to which French officers, and perhaps also French soldiers, were sent to Liege before the war to instruct the Belgian troops in the defense of the fortifications.

WAR UNPOPULAR AMONG AUSTRIANS.

London, Aug. 19.—It is officially stated in Paris that the mobilization of the Austrian army was accompanied by much disorder, and even open mutiny in many places, owing to the unpopularity of the war among many classes of people. This information is conveyed in a Paris dispatch to the Daily Telegraph, which continues:

"In many parts of Austria enthusiasm for the war has completely lacking, and the people complain bitterly against spending blood and money in a useless cause."

QUITS BRITISH ARMY TO JOIN AUSTRIANS

London, Aug. 19, 1 a. m.—A dispatch to the Reuters agency from Berlin by way of Amsterdam, says:

"Statin Pasha, British inspector general in the Sudan and an honorary member of the British army, has resigned his Sudan post in consequence of Great Britain's declaration of war against Austria, in which country he was born in 1857, and in which he was created a baron in 1905. He has returned to Vienna and will place himself at the disposal of the war minister."

Steel Plant Suburbs Will

Paved Road.

Subway Will Be Built Over Dangerous Smithville Crossing.

Only Two Districts in County Have $1,000,000 Valuation.

Duluth and Chisholm in Lead; Virginia Report
Not Returned.

The prospects that New Duluth and the steel plant suburbs will come into their own are now brighter than since the construction of the mammoth plant was started.

From all indications next year will see the street car extensions to the western suburbs, a subway over the dangerous grade crossing at Smithville and an ice foot concrete roadway as far as New Duluth.

At the meeting held with Mayor Prince and Commissioner Murchison yesterday afternoon Herbert Warren, manager of the street railway company, and the company's engineers expressed their approval of the city's plans for improving the street car tracks without interfering with the paving. The company's officials said that the work could not have been better arranged. Mayor Prince stated that he has been informed by the company that the tracks will be laid next year.

Before this is done the city will widen part of the roadway and particularly the hills, which are now too narrow for safety, after street car tracks have been put down. Other improvements will also be made to the road. Supt. Strachan of the Northern Pacific told Mayor Prince after the meeting with Mayor Warren that he is daily expecting to receive authority from the officials at St. Paul to proceed with the construction of the subway at Smithville. He believes that the work can be done in thirty or forty days. The company will either handle the job itself or let a contract. The city will assume the damages to the property because of the long cut which will be necessary for the approach.

The contract for paving two miles of the roadway has been let to D. H. Clough & Co. and will be started early in the spring. When the road is in shape the street car company will lose no time in putting down its rails.

The mayor said this morning that the Northern Pacific as well as the citizens of Duluth, will be glad to see the street car in operation. He asserted that they have told him the present train service is a losing proposition and is the cause of worry as well as much inconvenience.

SAVED BY PLEA OF IGNORANCE

Witness Did Not Know the Meaning of Word
"Felony."

Because Charles H. Wingrove did not know the meaning of the word "felony," he was saved from a probable jail sentence in police court yesterday afternoon, when he was examined by Judge Cutting on a charge of perjury.

Last week, while testifying as a witness in the case against Teresa Marotta, who was accused of having sold liquor without a license, Wingrove was asked by City Prosecutor Gurnee if he had ever been found guilty of a felony, and if he was not at the time out on parole. Wingrove answered in the negative, and immediately after Harry Palmer, Whitey, third assistant county attorney, testified that Wingrove pleaded guilty in district court to the charge of non-support and that he was paroled on Oct. 1 last.

After Mr. White testified, Wingrove was placed under arrest on a charge of perjury, and upon being arraigned the following day he asked for an examination, which was set for yesterday afternoon.

When placed on the stand yesterday, Wingrove testified that he did not know what the word "felony" really meant, having always understood it to apply only to criminal offenses, such as murder, assault or robbery. After giving this explanation to Judge Cutting, the latter dismissed the charges, and Wingrove was given his freedom. If Wingrove had been bound over to the grand jury, he would have faced a jail sentence or a fine.

Steamer Prince Albert on Rocks in the Pacific.

Vancouver, B. C., Aug. 19.—Beating her way through a dense fog, the Brown's passage on her way from Masset to Prince Rupert, the Grand Trunk Pacific steamer Prince Albert, near South Dundas Island last night, and according to early morning wireless reports, was breaking up rapidly.

Distress signals from the Prince Albert were first picked up by the wireless operator on Disby Island, which is separated by a narrow strait from Kaien Island. He at once sent out wireless calls to any ships that might be in the vicinity. The first vessel to reply to the hurry call for help was the Prince Albert's sister ship, the Prince John.

So far as could be learned there were not many passengers on the Prince Albert.

FRENCH CROSS FOR HEROIC OFFICIAL.

Paris, Aug. 19.—(12:15 a. m.)—President Poincaré has signed the nomination of Joseph Benoit, mayor of Badonville, of Meurthe-et-Moselle, for the cross of the Legion of Honor, in recognition of his exhibition of energy and magnanimity.

According to the official records, Benoit's wife was killed by German soldiers who burned their home. Benoit later saved the life of one of the Germans who had been arrested and was threatened by the enraged townspeople. Despite his grief, Benoit continued unflinchingly the conduct of his office as mayor.

West End WILL DISPLAY GARDEN TRUCK

About 500 Children Are Expected to Be in Contest.

Suburb Youngsters Will Also Have Exhibits at Curling Rink.

An exposition of garden produce raised by the children of the West end will be a week-end feature in one of the business blocks of this end of the city during the latter part of September. The date and place will be selected soon.

Only produce raised in the West end by children entered in the garden contest of the West End Commercial club will be judged for prizes, according to the members of the committee. That the display will be large is the opinion of the committee, owing to the large number of contestants.

Nearly 1,000 Entered.

Nearly 1,000 children under 15 years of age, all of whom attend school at the English, Lincoln, Adams or Munroe schools, entered the contest last spring. Nearly half that number will be inspected for the general contest. Prizes are to be awarded for the best appearing garden, for the best quality of vegetables, for flower gardens and strawberry patches. Special prizes will be given to the schools in whose districts the children make the best showing.

An exhibit of the garden stuff raised by the children of this end of the city will be picked for display at the curling rink at the Duluth exposition. This is expected to be considerably larger than that made last year.

James Mahan, chairman of the garden committee for the West End Commercial club, will make reports to the committee's activities and also outline the plans for reviewing the gardens as well as the proposed exposition, at the meeting of the club tomorrow evening. Assistance of additional club members may be asked to make the arrangements for the display in the West end as well as conducting the judging of awards.

MILKMAIDS AND BREAD MAKERS

Will Compete for Prizes at Hermantown Picnic Sunday.

A woman's ability to coax a cow to give milk rapidly will probably be one of the features of a picnic to be held Sunday at Hermantown. The picnic will be held under the auspices of the Farmers and Producers' club and will take place at the Rahnke's grove, adjoining the Woodmen hall.

The milking contest will probably prove the feature of the day. Such a contest has not been held at a picnic in many years. The contest was suggested because of rumors that women were forgetting to milk their cows in recent years. The contest will be open to all women who have a cow.

The women will also have an opportunity to show their ability at bread making. A contest in this line has been arranged by the committee, including a baseball game between members of the club and a nearby farmers' organization.

The committee in charge consists of Charles Wittich, chairman; C. V. Gray, Albert Velander, Carl Witte, Gust Leuck, Theodore Missall and F. W. Lubinski.

Miss Paulson has been in the service of the Women's Baptist Foreign Missionary society and is now making her headquarters in St. Paul.

On Friday evening the Young Ladies' society of the church will hold its monthly meeting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Persson, 4615 McCullough street.

FARMERS QUITTING CONDENSED MILK

Stutsman County, N. D., Soil Tillers Going Into Dairying.

Janestown, N. D., Aug. 19.—(Special to The Herald.)—There were many farmers in Stutsman county who three years ago were users of condensed milk, who now own from two to fifteen cows, and are getting their milk in the old fashioned way, according to a bulletin covering the topic, issued by the Northern Farming association.

The bulletin, which is the latest in a series of bulletins issued by the association, has been passed by, and in its stead has come a good grade of dairy.

Alfalfa was grown on only thirty acres in Stutsman county in 1911, while this year there are 1,372 acres in crop. The corn acreage has increased about the same proportion in the same period.

Then another effect of corn and alfalfa has been the big increase in pork production, many farmers now having about 100 heads of porkers.

MAY STUDY USES OF PEAT

Duluthians Have Chance to Learn Value of Minnesota Bogs.

Duluthians will have a good opportunity to study peat and peat fuel production from every angle at the eighth annual convention of the American Peat society, which will begin a three-day session at the Commercial club tomorrow morning. One of the most instructive features of the convention will be the exhibit at the Commercial club lobby, a part of which are already on display.

The collection of peat products brought by Carl G. Kleinstock of Kalmar, Mich., vice president of the society, which he brought with him, is now on display. This is one of the best collections that will be brought to the convention and includes products from nearly every important peat bog in the world. It also includes various peat products with explanations as to their use and value.

Mr. Kleinstock has traveled extensively in his study of peat, and also is a manufacturer of peat products. In his collection are peat products from Germany, Sweden, Ontario, and from many states in this country including New York, Florida, Carolina, Virginia, the Rocky mountains, and Minnesota. There are various uses for peat products as fuel for use. Peat mulch is used quite extensively as a stock food and in Paris peat carpets are manufactured. Peat paper is quite common, and is made from peat and wood pulp. Peat moss is imported from Germany and is used in large quantities for stable bedding. It makes an excellent fuel for stock and is said to be inexpensive.

TERRIBLE CARNAGE IN FIGHTING ABOUT DINANT REPORTED

miles east of Tiletment. The fighting was tremendous, great execution being done on the British second line. The French came up and heavy firing was heard all along the line all day yesterday at Wavre.

Used Smaller Troops.
The German advance did not follow any of the main highways. They cut across them, using the smaller roads. The Germans were unable to operate their heavier field artillery.

The outstanding fact in the developments of the present week is the dramatic about-face of the Belgians, which was a heroic act of self-denial by the Belgians. The Belgian state leaders almost broke down and wept in the council chamber when they decided that, for the good of Europe, Belgium must allow the Germans to enter Brussels.

Brussels is being held out to Germany as a bait. Germany may destroy Brussels, but the deeper she strikes, the more surely her head enters the lion's mouth. In front and on all sides Germany will find hostile armies.

"History is about to repeat itself. A second emperor is to meet his Waterloo."

German Held Citadel.
London, Aug. 19, 1:15 a. m.—Reuter's Brussels correspondent sends a graphic account printed in the Derniere Heure of the fight Saturday at Dinant for possession of the ancient citadel dominating the town.

The citadel, the newspaper says, "was captured by the Germans, who hoisted their flag at 1:30 o'clock in the afternoon. All afternoon the Germans were retreating. Only the citadel continued to shower lead on the advancing French. The citadel is on a hill south of the town, which rises to a height of 200 feet. It is an ancient work and now of no military value, but it is difficult to take by assault."

"The French, when the bugle sound of the charge, fixed their bayonets and began to swarm up the numerous steep and rocky paths leading to the summit under a deadly hail from the machine gun and rifles above, keeping their eyes on the German flag floating from the citadel."

"They climbed steadily, disregarding their losses, and a well-placed French shell silenced the machine gun a few minutes later. The French soldiers tore down the enemy's flag while the scaling party fired down on the fleeing Germans."

French Officer's Account.
London, Aug. 19, 1:55 a. m.—The Brussels correspondent of the Reuter agency sends a report published by a minister of war from a French officer, describing the attack on Dinant, where he was engaged.

"I was in the vanguard with my company, 200 men, and only one-third of the men to the right and left of the citadel. I was commanding the left section, numbering 100 men."

"At 7:30 I was threatened by a German column coming to dislodge us with artillery. I was ordered to retreat to Dinant, but at that moment a bullet grazed my head and stunned me and I fell into the quarry and fractured my leg."

Told Men to Leave Him.
The Germans were then pursuing us at a distance of fifty meters. My men picked me up and carried me as far as a ridge of rock overlooking the monastery of Feres Premontrés. The enemy were pouring such a murderous fire into us that I told them to leave me, and I rolled down below a little copse until I was beyond the ridge, where they were within 200 meters of me. When I was at the bottom of the wood, I saw some houses with people at the windows, and called out to them: 'Belgians, come help me, I am a French officer, and I have a message for you.'

"Several people ran out and it took them ten minutes under a rain of bullets to carry me into the monastery, where I stayed until noon Sunday, admirably attended by the monks. I was looked after by everyone as if I had been a child of Belgium."

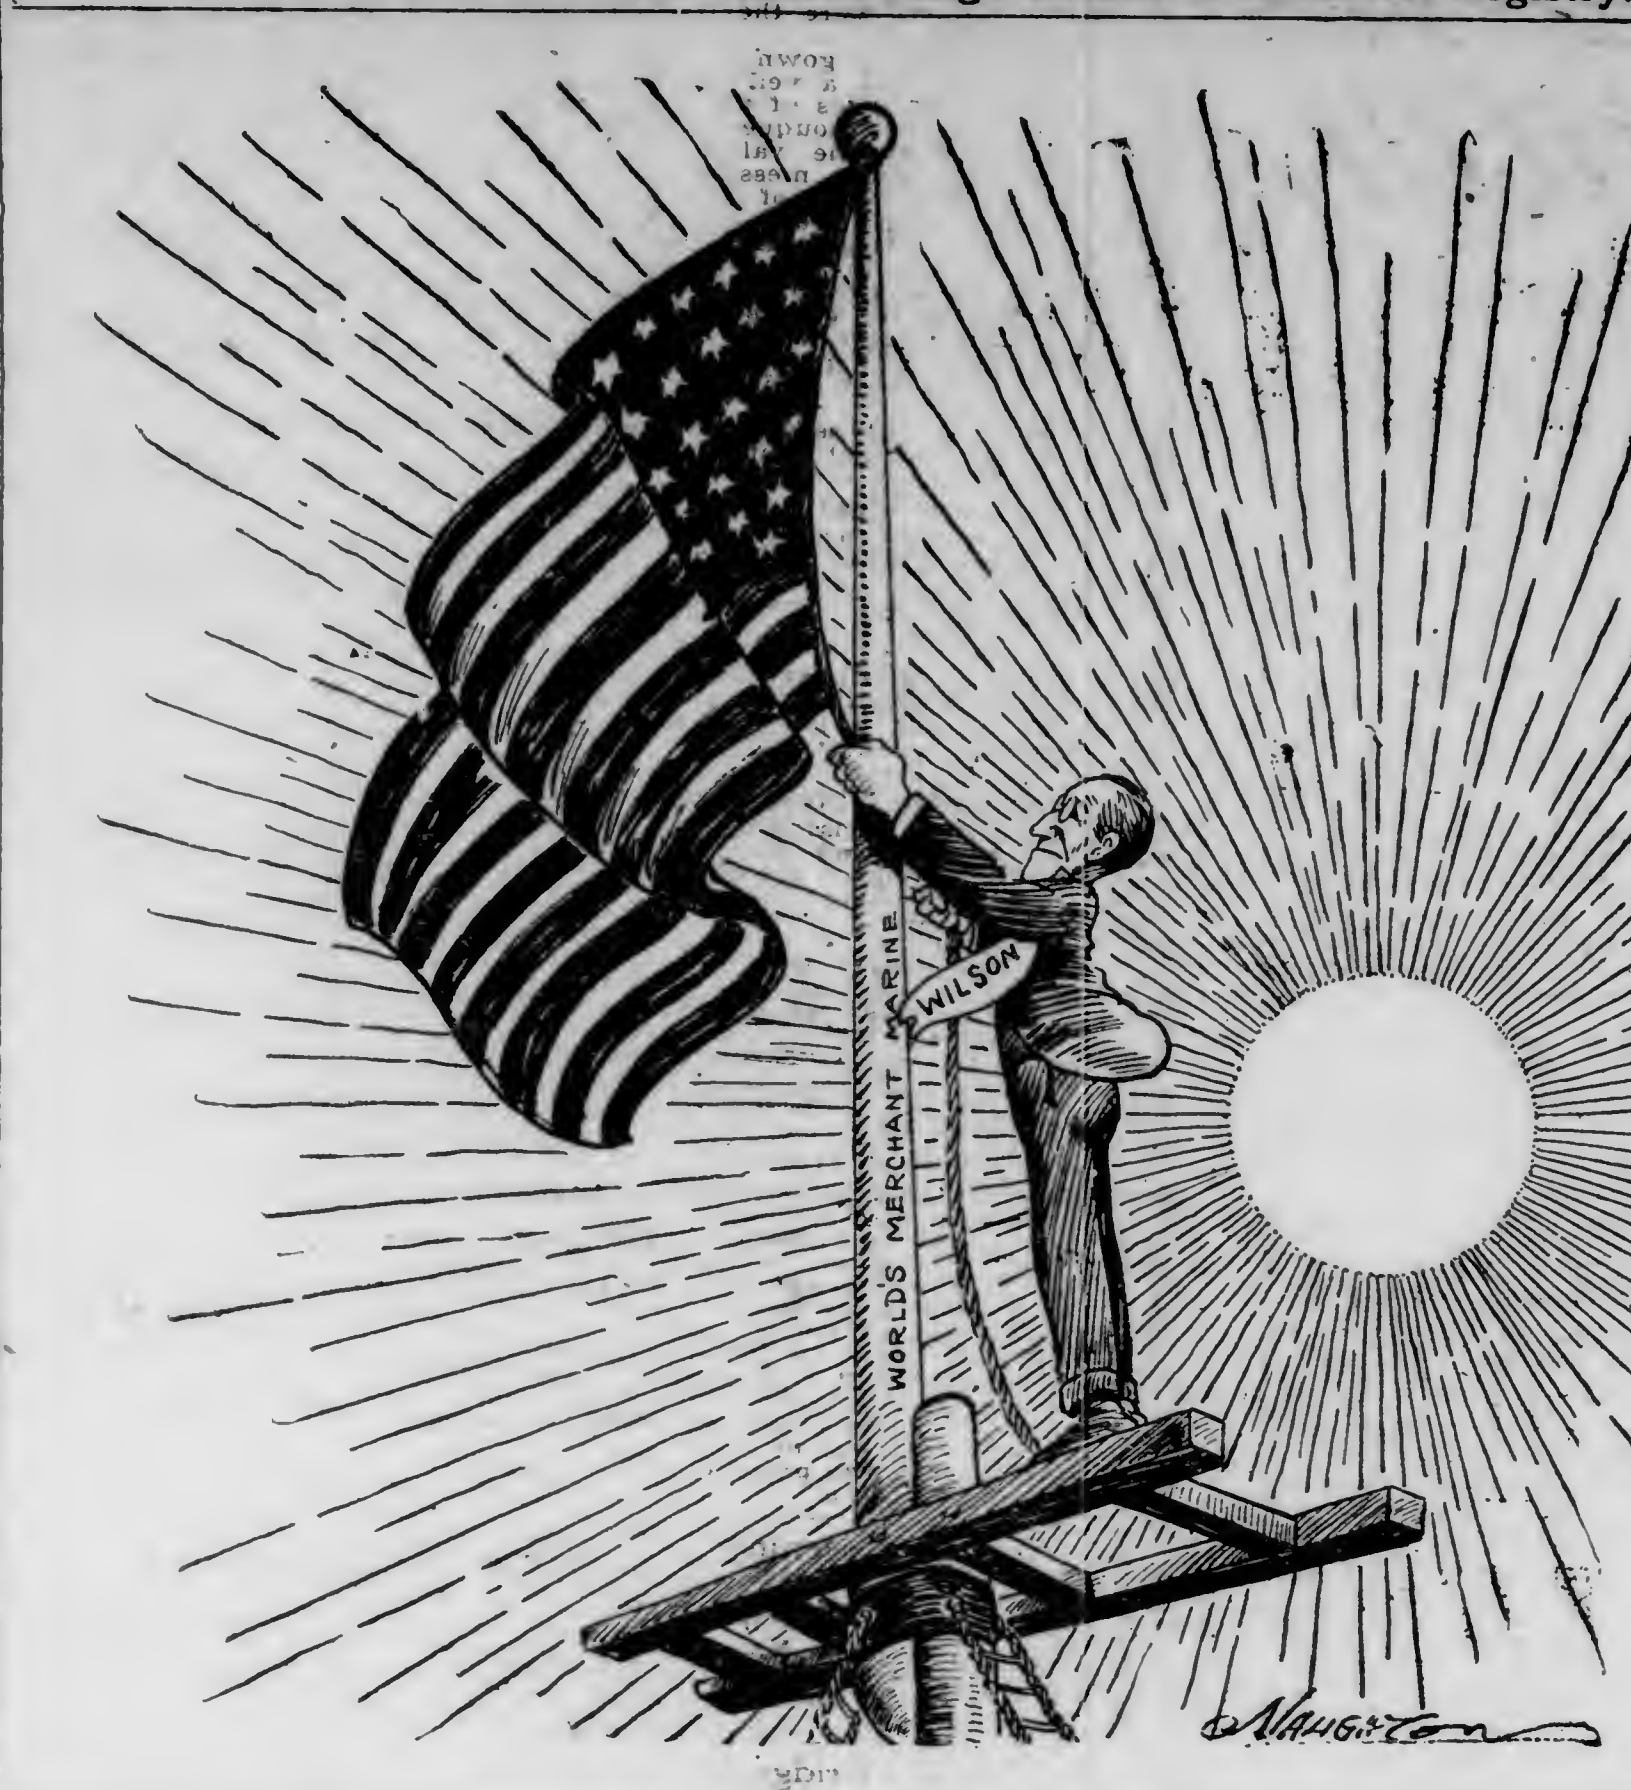

"I owe my life to these Belgians, who at the risk of their own lives, saved me from the Germans."

at dawn for Cherbourg. The Tennessee will communicate with her by cable.

Garrison Will Not Explain.
Washington, Aug. 19.—Secretary Garrison admitted today that the cruiser Tennessee, held at sea, was on her mission to relieve American stranded abroad, was awaiting his orders, but refused to discuss the matter. The secretary said negotiations with the Germans were proceeding, but would not say how far they had proceeded. It was said that arrangements have not been completed for piloting the American ship through possible mine fields and to insure her safe arrival at ports of powers involved in the war.

Conditions Much Better.
Decided improvement in the financial situation of Americans abroad, especially in Germany and Austria, was reported to the state department today from the embassies at Berlin and Vienna.

In both capitals American credit paper is being honored. Ambassador Bonfield at Vienna, stated that the Wiener Bankverein, the Austrian National bank, and any of their branches were cashing letters of credit, express checks and cable transfers.

Of the 22,000 Americans estimated to be in Austria at present, 500 of them, according to Ambassador Penfield, are persons of means, and only one-third of the entire number care to leave the country. Daily trains, the ambassador states, are carrying passengers into Italy.

Messages from Ambassador Geraud mention a similar improvement in the financial situation in Germany.

AMERICANS TELL OF WAR
perious passage through the mine-strewn waters there were no buoys to guide him. Time after time the ship was stopped by the enemy's fire. She flew the American flag.

James A. Patton of Chicago and Mrs. Patton, passengers, said they were in Carlsbad when war was declared between Germany and Russia. They left for Nuremberg in an automobile, and arriving there were taken to the guardhouse and rigidly cross-examined before they were allowed to continue.

"I owe my life to these Belgians, who at the risk of their own lives, saved me from the Germans."

One Slice of Bread Apele.
There they found themselves in a vortex of mobilizing troops and marching citizens which choked the streets. After long delay they managed to get about another train for the border, but got no farther than the little town of Herbsal, near the frontier, which they reached at 10 o'clock at night.

We managed to make our way into a little cafe, Mr. Patton said. Next day we got one slice of bread a piece, our first meal for three days. Next day I hired a horse and cart to take us over the Belgian frontier to Verriers.

"On the road we passed the pitiful procession of German refugees fleeing from Belgium. Some were in vehicles, but the majority were trudging in the dust, pushing or pulling their baggage in carts. Women with babies at the breast were walking in the noonday sun."

Took the Advice.
"From Verriers we proceeded by another cart toward Liege. We had not progressed three miles when we came upon a party of Belgian engineers mining the road. They had great piles of dynamite stacked there, ready to plant."

"They advised we had better go to Liege by another road; we hastened to do so."

"Two hours later another party of Americans was halted at that very spot by a skirmish between the Belgians and the Germans. They were forced to lie in a ditch while the Belgians fired over them. Next day 3,000 Germans were killed by the mines we had seen the engineers planting."

The Patton party finally reached Liege on the afternoon of Aug. 4, and got a train for Brussels two hours later.

Heard the Cannon.
"We arrived at Liege at 1 o'clock on the afternoon of Aug. 4," Mr. Patton said, "and managed to get a train for Brussels two hours later. But we did not leave before we heard the thunder of the fort's cannon repulsing the first onslaught of the Germans. The town was cold with fear."

Other passengers on board the Patton party said they had great piles of dynamite stacked there, ready to plant."

land said that Mr. Patton had bought steamship tickets for nine stranded Americans.

Mr. Patton was able to obtain only stateroom accommodations when he boarded the vessel at Antwerp. On the way, however, he was able to exchange his accommodations for berris in the cabin.

Shouts in Carlsbad.
He said that among the Americans left in Carlsbad were Theodore P. Shonts, president of the Interborough Rapid Transit company, and Alexander R. Revelle.

Mr. Patton said that he would have surrendered half his fortune rather than remain abroad a few weeks longer.

Brussels Heard Firing.
Paris, Aug. 19, 12:25 p. m.—A dispatch to the Paris Midl from Brussels dated today, says cannonading was distinctly heard in Brussels at 5 o'clock this morning.

The correspondent adds it is understood that a German army is marching upon Brussels by way of Huy and Jodeligne.

Pierce Battle On.
London, Aug. 19, 10:20 a. m.—A dispatch to Reuter's Telegram company from Brussels, dated today, says that a fierce battle is in progress between the Belgians and Germans along an extended front. Large numbers of refugees arriving from Tiletment.

Blown Up and Abandoned.
Rotterdam, Aug. 19, via London, 4:18 a. m.—It is asserted that the forts of Liege were dynamited by the Belgians after the German evacuation. The action of the Belgians being due to the arrival of Germany's heavy motor batteries.

Appears to Be False.
London, Aug. 19, 3:55 a. m.—The Belgian minister for the Daily Mail announces that the report of the fall of Liege forts "appears to be false; no such thing has been heard of it by the ministry."

Surrounded Monday.
London, Aug. 19, 3:52 a. m.—A Brussels dispatch to the Mail says, it is learned on the highest authority that on Monday the Liege forts were still holding out. They were cut off from the Franco-Belgian field forces and surrounded by German, but continued their heroic resistance.

WAR RISK BILL LAID BEFORE THE EXPERTS

Measure Will Be Offered in Both Houses of Congress.

Washington, Aug. 19.—A draft of the bill to provide for government insurance of American hulls engaged in foreign trade and their cargoes, was laid today before the committee of experts appointed last week by the conference of banking, insurance and shipping men called by Secretary McAdoo.

The committee resumed its session, prepared to pass upon the measure which will be presented in both houses of congress when approved, and efforts made to rush it through.

Subcommittees were ready with their reports when the conference committee met. These included the three general heads into which the conference divided the work allotted to the committee, which is to remain in Washington until congress has enacted emergency legislation covering them.

They are foreign exchange restoration, ocean transportation and the war insurance of ships and cargoes. General discussion on all these points occupied the committee today.

CZAR TAKES PART IN HISTORIC CEREMONY

"Strengthens Forces of His Soul in Sanctuaries of Moscow."

London, Aug. 19, 2:40 a. m.—Reuter's Moscow correspondent says: In the hall of St. George, in the great palace of the Kremlin, today Emperor Nicholas and the Empress Alexandra fulfilled the ancient ceremony of the eve of war. They received deputations of the nobility and Zemstvos and merchants, who presented loyal addresses.

Those present at the ceremony included the members of the Imperial household and all cabinet ministers, headed by Premier Goremykin.

Emperor Nicholas, replying to the addresses, said:

"At this stormy warlike hour, which suddenly and against my wishes has fallen upon my peaceful people, I seek, according to the custom of my ancestors, to strengthen the forces of my soul in the sanctuaries of Moscow. Within the walls of the old Kremlin I greet you, the inhabitants of Moscow, my beloved ancestral hall."

"My people everywhere, in the villages of their birth, in the duma and in the council of empire, have unanimously replied to my appeal, and risen with vigor throughout the country, forgetting all private differences, to defend the land of their birth and the Slav race. In a powerful, common impulse, all nationalities and all tribes of our vast empire have united."

"Russia, like myself, will never forget these historic days. This union of thought and sentiment in all my people affords me deep consolation and calm assurance for the future. May God be with them."

TONIGHT'S ATTRACTIONS

LYCEUM—Baldwin Players in "What Happened to Mary."

ALL READY FOR THE FIRST SHOW

New Grand Will Be Opened at 1 o'clock Thursday.

Everything is in readiness for the opening of the New Grand theater at 1 o'clock tomorrow afternoon.

The box office of the theater will be open all morning tomorrow and the doors will be thrown open for the first time to the public at 1 o'clock when the first performance which includes vaudeville and motion pictures, will begin. In accordance with the policy of the theater, it will continue until 11 o'clock in the evening. After tomorrow the shows will commence at noon.

The new playhouse is a really beautiful. Today workmen are putting the finishing touches on the interior. Nothing will be overlooked to make the first performance go through without a hitch when the doors are thrown open tomorrow. Duluthians will see one of the most attractive theaters in the West. They will be able to hold and see well from any corner of the auditorium, while the air will constantly be kept cool by a complete ventilating system. The acoustic properties are excellent and there is no lost note in the auditorium.

Ed R. Salter, manager of the new theater, has announced that there will never be a change in prices, not even on Sundays or holidays. Seats for the first performance will be 25 cents, while in the second the parquet seats will be 20 cents and those in the dress circle, 10 cents. Loges will cost 25 cents.

With the opening of the theater tomorrow afternoon, the nursery for babies and the children's playroom will also be opened. The maids will be in charge of their rooms and mothers will be able to leave their babies under their care, while they themselves watch the performance.

Amusement Notes.

Walter G. Baldwin, manager of the Baldwin Players, is still in the East arranging for the tour of his sister-in-law, Rose Melville, in a revival of "Sis Hopkins" and securing plays for the winter engagement of his company here.

The Duluth Orpheum will begin its fifth season in Duluth Sunday afternoon with Joseph Jefferson in a one-act play as the headliner.

Reports from San Francisco are to the effect that Willard Mack and Marjorie Rameau have come to the parting of the way and that divorce proceedings will be instituted. Mr. Mack is well known in Duluth for his engagements in stock at the Lyceum theater.

Maybelle Meeker, known in vaudeville as "Dainty Marie," was married in Los Angeles last week to Clarence Foy, a picture producer of New York.

The bride was scheduled to open at the Winter Garden, Berlin, Sept. 1, and was to have sailed Monday, but the war prevented and she opened at the Palace, New York, instead.

Richard Hanch, who has been stage manager of the Duluth Orpheum since it opened, has been appointed stage manager of the St. Paul Orpheum.

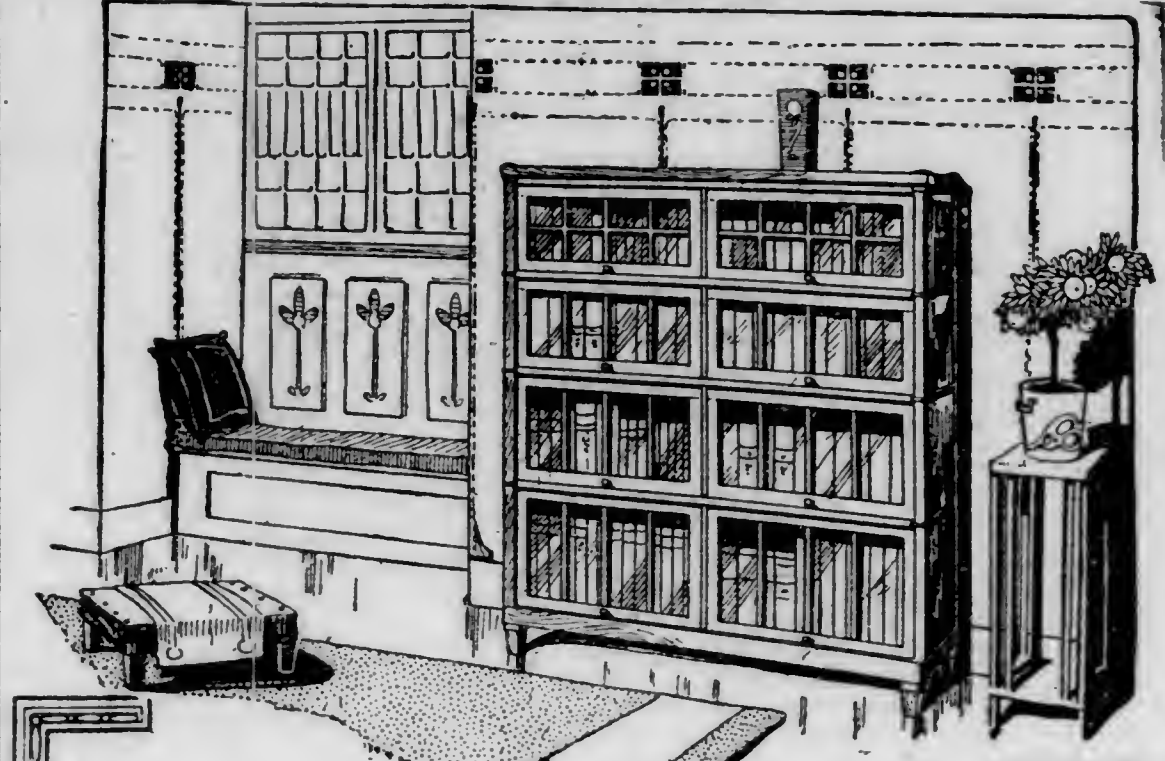

"What Happened to Mary" is being presented in an excellent manner by the Baldwin Players at the Lyceum theater. This week and the large attendance shows that the play is no less popular than the book which contains it. Next week the Baldwin Players will be among the "best sellers."

"What Happened to Mary" is different from the usual run of plays and its freshness and quaint philosophy make it a most delightful comedy drama. Preparations are now under way for its presentation in London.

Next week the Baldwin Players will be seen in an elaborate production of "Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch."

Paris Autumn Fashions

With the last arrival of the S. S. Vaterland and Olympic, we received large importations of newest Paris Fashions.

Just previous to the European crisis our representatives were in Paris gathering ideas and purchasing models in Millinery, Gowns, Tailleur Suits, Coats, Manteaux, Paletots, Blouses and Furs.

The exact reproductions of them are now on exhibition in the Gidding Salons—and we would particularly impress upon our patrons the great advantage of making early selections, before the exclusive models and fabrics, already scarce, will be unobtainable.

OBSERVATIONS

Bathing Girls' Attire of Questionable Modesty.

The summer bathing girl has always been a more or less noticeable figure and has been prominently in the limelight this summer as in summers past because of the nature of her bathing costume. It is no less daring. Skirts are just as abbreviated as the whole scheme of attire is of questionable modesty. There are many conservative people who think that the girl with the abbreviated bathing costume has made herself altogether too conspicuous and that such a garment has done service as a promenade gown long enough. Many of these promoters not only loiter about in scant attire on the beaches, but frequent board walks, refreshment houses and congregate on the hotel piazzas. It is rather to be wondered at that women and girls are willing to remain in their bathing suits any longer than necessity requires. Once a bathing suit is wet and one's hair becomes disheveled, because of contact with the salt water, a woman is not the most attractive creature in the world, but many do not seem to realize this fact.

I cannot understand how it is that young women have reached the point where it does not affect their sense of decency. Perhaps it is that the habit countenanced by some mothers of letting their small sons and daughters slip into a bathing suit after breakfast and remain in it all day, has resulted in a class of girls, none grown up, who have lost their sense of modesty and propriety.

It would be wiser to insist that the younger children pay more attention to the proper clothing of the body, so that they may not have grown lax in these things when they arrive at an age when it is not only becoming but essential to their moral welfare.

It is not only the girls who should be instructed in so far as the bathing costume goes. The boys need it quite as much, for they are not modest or pleasing objects to gaze upon, especially when they wear the very much abbreviated "one-piece" bathing suits.

THE OPEN COURT

(Readers of The Herald are invited to make free use of this column to express their views about the topics of general interest, but discussions of sectarian religious differences are barred. Letters should not exceed 200 words—the shorter the better. They must be written on one side of the paper only, and they must be accompanied in every case by the name and address of the writer though these need not be published. A signed letter is always more effective, however.)

THE REAL HERO OF THE EUROPEAN WAR.

To the Editor of The Herald:

To my mind the real hero of this war is not the aviator who gave his life to destroy an airship belonging to his country's enemy. It is not the private soldier who marches bravely up to the guns of the enemy. It is not the general planning the battle. The real hero is that Socialist who submitted to being shot rather than go to war and shoot down his fellowmen. He had both moral and physical courage. His moral courage consisted of standing against the blind patriotism that sweeps a nation in war time. It takes no mean courage to refuse to join your country's army in time of need. The sneers of your fellowmen, the jeers of your enemies, the distrust of even your friends are hard to bear. He braved that for his belief, and he proved his mere physical courage by standing up before a rifle rather than submit to the orders of a despotic ruler. He died a noble death. May his tribe increase, and may the time come when a man will be ostracized from society for suggesting war or talking of a war, just as a man now is when he refuses to go to war. Some day, I hope, we will look upon the Jingos as a criminal, or at least as a person not fit to associate with sane people.

Duluth, Aug. 17.

WAR NOT UNLIKE EVERYDAY LIFE

To the Editor of The Herald:

What is this war, of which we hear, that stirs the blood and makes us fear, and makes all people anxious to learn how things are moving in the blood-stained zone?

It seems an awful thing when you stop and think. But why should it stir you so? It's a battle merely, man against man, the same thing which is going on all the time.

Man fighting against his fellowman, trying to get what he has. Not thinking of loss or death, just joins in, in the great big strife.

This war is practically the same, only instead of individual man fighting for himself, he is united with millions more as one and he fights against just as many millions more as one and these are banded together as one man by the strong and mighty emperor's hand.

ROOSEVELT OPENS MAINE CAMPAIGN.

Lewistown, Me., Aug. 12.—The Progressive party's campaign preceding the state election in September was opened yesterday by Francis W. Roosevelt in an address delivered at a meeting of Progressives from many sections of the state.

"We stand for prosperity," said Col. Roosevelt, "and yet we stand for a proper division of prosperity, for passing prosperity around. Of the two old machines, one by its action would destroy all prosperity and the other, if prosperity were obtained, would divert it with enormous disproportion to a few favored and private people."

Are Grandmothers Passing?

THE Smithsonian institute needs didn't just make a bluff, she knew she knew she knew and the doctor knew she knew, too.

It is too bad we haven't more of the real old-fashioned grandmothers in our homes today. They would save a lot of unnecessary suffering.

Questions and Answers.

W. J. L. asks: How should the dose of a medicine be figured for children?

REPLY: Give dose according to body weight—making the child's weight the numerator and the average adult weight (150 lbs.), the denominator. Thus a 30-pound child should have one-fifth of the average dose.

Mrs. H. M. C. asks: Is chloride of lime a good disinfectant to put in cellars?

REPLY: Only if you apply it to the surface to be disinfected. It is useless to let it stand in open dishes.

F. M. inquires: "Please explain what is meant by 'ptosis' and whether chiropactic adjusting or ataxia will cure it."

REPLY: Ptosis means drooping. It refers to some abdominal organ which has slipped its moorings. Chiropactic adjustments do not cure it.

H. E. B. writes: "Our rooms are so situated that we never get direct sunlight. Two of our children are pale and delicate with frequent coughs. Would a change of residence be beneficial?"

REPLY: By all means find a home where you may have all the sunlight the law allows.

Mrs. R. L. asks: "What are the unmistakable symptoms of locomotor ataxia?"

REPLY: There are no such symptoms. Physicians diagnose the disease rather by physical signs elicited by examination of the nervous system. Prominent symptoms are loss of muscle sense or ability to tell position of limb with eyes closed; staggering or ataxic gait; delayed or lost sensation in areas of the skin; loss of pupil reflex; loss of control of bladder; lightning pains or "crises" in abdomen or elsewhere.

F. M. A. inquires: "Is there any danger of acquiring a habit if one takes alcohol rubs daily for a long period?"

REPLY: So long as you confine yourself to the use of alcohol externally you are perfectly safe.

We are indebted to grandma for many of our most useful wrinkles in sickroom practice. She never suggested a remedy that could do harm, and in this respect, we fear, she differed from her modern successor. The modern grandmother is too fond of running to the almanac or the drug store for her remedies, the original granny relied upon her own recipe book and her own cookstove for every curial.

Grandma Militant.

The genuine granny was Militant, from a sickroom standpoint. The modern type is Grandma Meek. Grandma Meek is easily pushed back in a corner of the hearth. Grandma Militant did things when things needed doing. She was a woman of few words and quick action.

For instance, when a counter-irritant was required did Grandma Militant of the old school send little Willie with a quarter to the drug store for a box of hot stuff? She did not. She kept the two shillings in her stockings and mixed up a good stiff mustard paste which did all the good hot stuff could possibly do in any event. And if the sore place seemed to need "drawing" did this resourceful woman purchase a pot of medicated mud at six shillings and use as directed? No, thank fortune. She cooked up a flax-seed meal poultice, which retained its heat and moisture (the sole virtues of a poultice), longer than any canned imitation known to commercial pharmacy.

Safety First.

Your old time granny knew exactly what to do for "coughs and colds and bronchial trouble." Nary a drop of nerve-killing dope did she put in her "seerup," yet it did the business a shade better than the modern "cough cure" with its inevitable narcotic ingredients. Grandma Militant didn't believe in knocking out babies with opium-laden soothing syrups, nor did she deem it good practice to choke off headache with heart-depressing coultar poisons. Her remedies were compounded on the "safety first" principle. She gleaned her knowledge from experience, not from the almanac. She returning to Duluth next Saturday afternoon, according to their schedule. The Gopher, with about 150 members of the Minnesota naval reserve, under the command of Captain Guy Eaton, sailed from the local port on Saturday, Aug. 8. There were the two Duluth companies and Company C of Pine City. The Gopher was here from the Yantic was met and where plans were made for the second division's part in the mimic battle, that had been planned by the navy department.

In compliance with the orders the Gopher and the Yantic left on Tuesday noon, Aug. 11, to carry out the first division of the mimic battle. The first division, led by the Gopher, Hawk, Dorothea and Wolverine, which were outside the harbor, while the Yantic was inside. man No. 3, McKinley and Early Ohio; premiums of $3, $2 and $1 on any other late variety and similar premiums on any other early variety.

Several of the railroads entering Duluth are again expected to offer cash premiums for potatoes grown along their lines and there will be keen competition for them.

The greatest competition in the potato division of the show, however, will come from the Dr. Wallace cash premium for potatoes, announcement of which was made by the agricultural committee yesterday. Dr. C. J. Wallace of Duluth has offered $50 for competition on potatoes. It has been made a sweepstakes on potatoes and has been divided into three premiums of $25, $15 and $10, which will be offered as first, second and third prizes for the best bushel of potatoes of any variety placed on exhibition at the show.

The rules of competition, suggested by Dr. Wallace and adopted by the agricultural committee, are liberal and will give every grower of potatoes within a wide radius of Duluth an opportunity to compete. The rules are:

1. There must be a full bushel (sixty pounds) in each exhibit. Potatoes must be neatly displayed, with the name of the variety plainly marked.
2. Potatoes must be exhibited by the person who grew them.
3. Exhibits must be delivered at the place of exhibition, all charges prepaid.
4. Each exhibit must be accompanied by a letter or statement showing the name and address of the grower, together with a legal description of the soil in which they were grown.
5. Potatoes must be called for and taken away by the owner after the exhibition; if not called for, they shall be disposed of by the exhibition committee.
6. The judges shall be selected by the agricultural committee of the Duluth Commercial club.
7. Any of the following counties may enter the contest: Carlton, Aitkin, Itasca, St. Louis, Lake and Cook, Minnesota; Douglas and Bayfield, Wisconsin.

AMERICAN CORPS IN PARIS FILLING

Has 120 Members, and 100 May Be Accepted.

Paris, Aug. 19.—The American volunteer corps has up to date a total of 120 names on its rolls.

These American volunteers purpose to fight for France and thus in small measure repay the service Lafayette rendered the United States. It is believed that one hundred of them will be accepted and equipped by the French war department. Andre Le-sourd, a French officer of the reserve, is conducting the drills. The corps will be commanded entirely by French officers. Americans gathered daily around the corps recruiting office, over the entrance of which hangs a large American flag.

EXCITING SCENES AT BERLIN EMBASSY

Ambassador Gerard Has Hands Full With Americans.

Berlin, Aug. 19.—(via Copenhagen to London, 3:10 a. m.)—Exciting scenes continue before the American embassy here, enacted by Americans anxious to leave the country. Both Monday and Tuesday hundreds of them were always at the doors waiting for tickets for the special train which will leave Wednesday for Holland. Four hundred seats on board this train were quickly disposed of by Ambassador James W. Gerard, who is negotiating for seats in train for leave later.

Many poor Americans left Wednesday under the protection of an attaché of the embassy, who will assist them during the journey and get rooms for them at Rotterdam, pending their departure for the United States.

From Munich and Nuremberg, 1822 Americans will depart on three trains this week and four trains next week for Holland. Ambassador Gerard also has arranged for an Italian from Lorraine for Holland, as Americans in Switzerland do not desire to depart by way of Italy.

AMERICAN SURGEONS' OFFER IS REJECTED.

Ottawa, Ont., Aug. 19.—An offer of eight American surgeons for service with the Canadian contingent abroad has been received by Col. Samuel Hughes, minister of militia. The offer came through L. Kendall of New York, secretary of the University of Edinburgh Club of North America, and was made on behalf of the club.

The minister regretfully had to refuse the proffered aid, as offers of services from Canadian surgeons have furnished more than the necessary quota.

London, Aug. 19, 10:20 a. m.—An official message received in Rome from Vienna says the Austrian cruiser Zenta was sunk in a naval battle off Antivary last Sunday, according to a dispatch to the Exchange agency.

The Kind You Have Always Bought Bears the Signature of Wm. D. Gifford

London, Aug. 19, 5:50 a. m.—The Daily Telegraph, in its leading editorial today protests against the action of the English and Belgian authorities in expelling newspaper men from the field of action.

"The restrictions placed upon the work of war correspondents go further," says the Telegraph, "than is justified by the attitude of the press, which is consistent with public interest. If it is not the authorities intend, there will not be any uniformity of action. Nobody who is a soldier will see anything, and the soldiers will have something else to do than record their observations and impressions. The newspapers do not ask unreasonable things. They do not desire to publish a line thought undesirable. What they ask is only that the greatest war of modern times should not be fought in the total absence of independent and expert narrators.

"The government's action would be starving the nations interested in the great anxiety they have and would be depriving the future historian of his materials."

AVIATOR DROPS HIS BOMBS 4,500 FEET.

Paris, Aug. 19.—A German monoplane yesterday dropped three bombs on Lunenburg, sixteen miles east of Nancy, from a height of 4,500 feet, according to an official announcement. The missiles exploded in a public garden. No one was hurt and only slight damage was done to property.

AMERICAN AIR MEN VOLUNTEER IN PARIS.

Paris, Aug. 19.—Four American aviators, William Thaw of Pittsburgh, Stephen McGordon of New York, Weston Hall of Galveston, and James Beach of New York, have offered their aeroplanes, which have been accepted by the war department. Doubt has arisen as to whether the French government ought to use the aeroplanes of neutrals, owing to possible international complications.

If Your Little Baby Could Talk

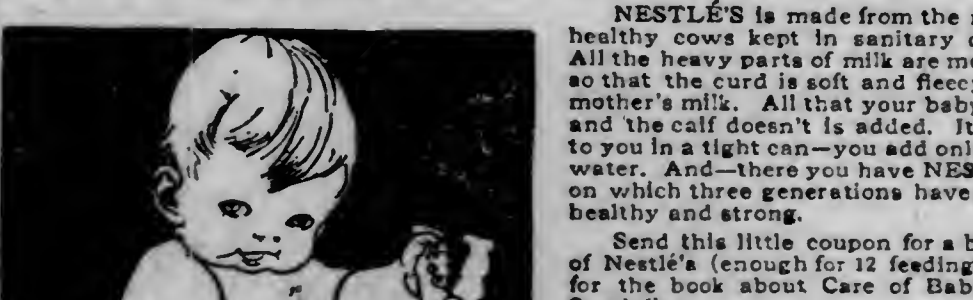

It would tell you that it does not want cow's milk that settles into lumps in its little stomach—that makes the long, hot, close days of summer feel like a leaden weight on its little hot head—it would tell you that the still, sultry nights would be easy for it and for you, if it had the food its small stomach could digest.

It would tell you that it likes your breast milk best—it tells you now—as best its little voice can—that at about four months that breast milk is not enough for its growing bones and body—that it wants something more—as nearly like that breast milk as it can get.

And your mothers and grandmothers knew that what their babies needed was the nearest food to mother's milk. Begin at the fourth month with one feeding a day—then slowly make it two, then three feedings—until at last your baby will be weaned—and neither you or the baby will know the difference.

NESTLÉ'S is made from the milk of healthy cows kept in sanitary dairies. All the heavy parts of milk are modified, so that the curd is soft and fleecy as in mother's milk. All that your baby needs and the calf doesn't is added. It comes to you in a tight can—you add only fresh water. And—there you have NESTLÉ'S on which three generations have grown healthy and strong.

Send this little coupon for a big can of Nestlé's (enough for 12 feedings) and for the book about Care of Babies by Specialists.

NEW GRAND THEATER WHICH WILL OPEN ITS DOORS THURSDAY AT 1 P. M. WAS "MADE IN DULUTH"

THE NEW GRAND THEATER, which opens its doors tomorrow noon, comes as near being a Duluth institution as possible. Not only was it cleverly designed by eminent local architects but the capital to an extent of $100,000 was provided by a local company to erect it. Duluth artisans and supply and material houses of all kinds were given the preference when at all possible. There is a broad and deep impression that this latest word in a popular playhouse will prove a permanent success and a favorite pleasure place for the public. Considering size and class, there is nothing on the American continent to excel it and very few theater buildings to equal it.

The new Grand follows a modern French renaissance style of architecture. The front is constructed of tapestry brick in Flemish band, trimmed and ornamented in semi-glazed terra cotta. There is a slate tile roof, three huge art glass windows, classic columns, a graceful canopy of steel and glass, arched doorways of mahogany, bound in brass and with glass panels, and an electric sign above and over all that can be seen for many blocks.

Prominent interior features are perfect ventilation, as near fire proof construction as ingenuity can contrive, highly artistic decorations and mural paintings, seating capacity for 1,200 people, with every single chair presenting a perfect view of the stage and not a single post obstructing the view. Then there is a nursery for infants and children under 4 years of age, a playroom for older children, as well as a lounging room for ladies. There are wash rooms and toilets for men and women, a sanitary drinking fountain, and facilities for entering and leaving that are both ample and easy. The orchestra pit and stage are large and the curtain is a work of art far beyond that of the average theater.

You leave the street through mahogany, brass bound doors that open outward at the lightest touch and are impossible to lock on the inside. The entrance vestibule has high, carved panels of beautiful marble, mosaic tile floor, mahogany wood work, a hand-some stucco ceiling tinted in old ivory and brilliantly lighted by the indirect system with massive and modern fixtures.

The vestibule offers three entrances to the parquet and access to the dress circle by stairway only twenty-three steps on each side. Both parquet and dress circle are tinted in old ivory, richly ornamented in stucco and high lighted in gold bronze. The walls have panels painted in burnt orange with silk effect finish. The massive electric light fixtures hang high above the floors and along the walls are electric candles.

The aisles are broader, the seats wider and the rows farther apart than the opera chairs or seats of any other theater in Duluth. The aisles are covered with dark green battleship linoleum. The opera chairs are mahogany finish with dark brown leather upholstery, a guarantee against dust and disease germs.

As stated, there is not one single, solitary seat that possesses an imperfect or obstructed view of the stage. The acoustic qualities also are perfect.

The management of the New Grand declares that it has the largest orchestra pit of any theater in Duluth. It will seat forty musicians. There is a heavy, handsome, polished brass orchestra rail. Another feature of the orchestra pit is a $1,000 Knabe parlor grand piano.

The stage is forty feet wide and thirty feet deep. It is well equipped with all the latest features. There are seven distinct sets of scenery and four extra drops. The asbestos curtain runs in metal grooves that make it impossible for smoke or flames to burst onto the audience. This curtain weighs 1,500 pounds and is operated by hydraulic power. It has the word "Asbestos" on it and, also, the following quotation from the immortal Shakespeare:

"There is nothing, either good or bad, but thinking makes it so."

The regular curtain was painted by a St. Louis firm and bears a reproduction of Corot's master painting, "Dance of the Nymphs."

The proscenium arch shows what local talent can do. A mural painting by H. B. D. Holmboe represents Apollo, the god of pleasure and music, seated in Pegasus, the winged horse, and mounting the high heavens.

In addition to the regular opera chairs in the dress circle, there are special chairs in seventeen loges that encircle the front and sides of that floor.

Then there are beautifully draped loges at the side of the stage with cupid panels at their top. The loges and recesses are draped in royal blue.

Under the stage are seven dressing rooms, with hot and cold water, toilets and other conveniences.

All radiators either are concealed in the walls or so situated as to take up minimum space, avoid collections of dust and not offend the eye by obtrusiveness. The heating plant is in the basement, under the auditorium.

The mezzanine floor has the operating booth for the Powers No. 6, class A, moving picture machine, the very latest thing in that respect. At the right of the operating room is a storeroom and, at the right, a ten-horse-power electric motor which operates the ventilating fans. The ventilation embraces the Hackney system and is as near perfect as can be. It brings in fresh air and brings out bad air at the same time. It has a capacity of 125,000 cubic feet of air per hour. Sitting in the theater and breathing the fresh air on Isle Royale or at the seashore.

Facing the operating room and on the very front of that floor, is the nursery for babies with cradles, toys and nurses, together with wash rooms, dressing rooms, with toilets and mirrors.

On the dress circle floor is a sanitary fountain, in a cavernlike, arched recess and, in front of that is a playroom for larger children, equipped with bump-the-bumps, a miniature merry-go-round and toys, all in charge of a competent attendant. This large, well lighted, handsome room also can be used as a lounging place for ladies. On the west side of this play room is the private office of J. S. Cook, president of the M. S. Cook company, owners and builders of the structure. On the east side is the private office of Ed F. Salter, manager of the New Grand.

Tomorrow noon, this new, beautiful play house, will be open to the public, with its popular prices and clean, high grade bill of amusements.

Those who had a hand in giving Duluth this new feature in architecture and play house are entitled to have their names recorded on the roll of honor in letters large enough to last. As stated, the M. S. Cook company secured a ninety-nine year lease on the site and erected the modern structure at a cost of $100,000.

Vangenstein & Gillison did the architectural work and saw to it that their plans were carried out successfully.

Messrs. Fawcett & Bergstrom, painter and decorator, H. B. D. Holmboe did the construction at the Head of the Lake, signed up the contract Dec. 24, 1913, and performed their part with ability and care.

The well known Burgess Electric company did the electric wiring and supplied the electrical fixtures.

The terra cotta, tiling and marble was supplied by the Dunlop-Moore company.

Messrs. Holmboe & Gilboe did the painting and decorating. H. B. D. Holmboe worked out the illumination of the ornamental work, the panel decorations and the mural paintings, as well as designed the big art glass windows in the front. In this firm, Duluth has artists and artisans equal to any in the Northwest.

The Kelley Hardware company supplied all the building hardware.

The parlor grand piano for the orchestra pit was furnished by the Raudenbush & Sons Piano company, S. E. Gillison, manager, 232 West First street. This firm also furnished one of the pianos made by this firm itself.

R. J. Baker supplied the 750 candle power globes for the outside lighting. The attractive electric sign was furnished by Peter Johnson.

The Erla Art Shop, Fourth avenue east, supplied the display frames for paintings and pictures.

The Duluth Linen Supply company supplied everything in the linen line.

The sheet metal and roofing came from the old, reliable firm of Desiz & Co.

The Minnesota Radiator company had the contract for all the heating fixtures.

The plumbing, heating, etc., was installed by E. S. Farrell company, 24 West First street.

The Edison Electric company installed over 2,000 Mazda lamps that will make the theater as light as day.

The Enterprise Brick company, with offices at 23 East Michigan street, furnished the brick that was used in the construction of the New Grand theater.

Thompson-Williams company had the contract for the terra cotta decorating that adorns the front entrance to the new playhouse.

The Zenith Telephone company has installed two telephones in the new theater that will be used for the accommodation of the patrons at all times.

The asbestos curtain installed in the Grand theater by the Krieger-Jamar company of Duluth represents one of the finest installations of its kind in the United States. The cloth of which the curtain is composed is made of pure asbestos spun around fine brass wires in such a way that the asbestos encloses every wire. This curtain is fastened at each side by heavy iron uprights weighing about 250 pounds each and these uprights are entirely enclosed in heavy steel channels, each channel weighing about 2,000 pounds. The curtain and its frame weighs about 1,000 pounds, but so cleverly is it balanced and so easily running is its equipment that it requires but a slight pull with the hand to raise the curtain.

WHERE THE FIRST BLOW OF THE WAR FELL

BELGRADE.
The Capital of Serbia, Which Was Shelled By the Austrians—Meanwhile the Government Had Been Moved From This Border City to Nish, a Former Capital.

COSTS MORE TO BE A BLONDE

Price of Peroxide Rises—Carbolic Acid Is Also More Expensive.

Photographic Supplies Shut Off By War—Perfumes Soaring.

Talk about the high cost of living—it has nothing on the high cost of sulcide, the high cost of beauty, and the high cost of change of type. Prices, not only in cables, but in chemicals and everything pertaining to the drug business, are after an altitude record. The articles purchased at drug stores and used in everyday life are "sky-high" just as industriously as anything else, and as a result of the war there will be many of them unobtainable as they will be off the market.

The situation in the photographic line is at a serious stage, so serious in fact, that should the war last six months or more, no photographs can be taken unless substitutes for the printing paper used in the process and there is none in sight.

But as to the drugs, etc., Peroxide blondes will have to pay more for the privilege of changing the color of their hair, for peroxide has already jumped in price fully 75 per cent, and has not reached the top yet. It is explained that peroxide is made of barium dioxide and phosphoric acid. The latter is obtainable in this country, but the former comes from England and Germany, and with the war shutting off the supplies, the price has jumped.

Perfumes Doubled.
Perfumes have about doubled in price. This war and the recent Balkan war combine to cause it. Most of the perfumes are made from French and Bulgarian pomades and oil of rose is used in the manufacture of the most of the cause of the shortage is obvious. The crop was shortened by the Balkan war, and now this war interferes still more.

Those who contemplate suicide will have to seek some route for the carbolic acid. Carbolic acid is not off the market, and what little there is obtainable from storage has increased over 100 per cent. Carbolic acid is 300 per cent higher in price because of the war and also because of front end prices of the shortage anyway.

Menthol is up 100 per cent, salicylic acid, which comes from Chili, and is controlled by English companies, has advanced 100 per cent. Salicylic acid, which the doctors "palm" one, is up an equal amount.

Rosin, which is obtained from the resin of pine trees, is up 100 per cent. Rosin is used in the manufacture of the most of the cause of the shortage is obvious. The crop was shortened by the Balkan war, and now this war interferes still more.

Everything Affected.
"Don't be surprised at the prices of anything in drug stores," advised Fred Larson, buyer for the Luthend Drug company. The upward trend is just starting, and I cannot think of anything in drug and chemicals that is not affected. Not only the things commonly used, but other articles are on the jump.

As to photography, the photographers and camera firms are "at a loss" all along the line. Hypo, which is used in printing photographs, cost, before the war's outbreak, 6 cents a pound; it is now 36 cents. Metol, another chemical used in photography, has advanced from 6 to 10 cents a pound. Hydrochinon, with which plates and paper are developed, is completely off the market, and cheaper and less efficient substitutes must be utilized.

The trouble with our materials, said J. R. Zweifel this morning, is that almost everything we use comes from Germany, for there they seem to have arrived at a greater degree of excellence in the manufacture of what we must have. There is in this country a supply of paper which we used for photos that will last about six months, and that is all we must have more paper at that time or quit making photographs, for the raw materials come from Germany and no satisfactory substitute has been found. I believe, however, that the result of the war will be the importing of skilled working men in these lines to manufacture these things on this side of the water and not be any longer dependent on Europe for supplies.

The glass that the photographic plates are made on is from Belgium and only enough for about six months in the United States. Card mounts

John Cosgrove started suit against the city of Duluth for $500 damages yesterday, alleging that through the municipality's negligence in failing to keep the bridge over Amity creek on the Colbyville road, in repair, he was injured. Lakeside residents sent a petition to the city council this morning asking that the sidewalk ordered laid on Forty-third avenue east be constructed as originally directed and not transferred to Forty-fourth avenue east. WAR RISK BILL IS GIVEN TO CONGRESS

Washington, Aug. 19.—The administration bill to create a government bureau of war risk insurance in the treasury department for American ships was introduced in the house today by Representative Alexander of Missouri, chairman of the house merchant marine committee. This bill would authorize the insurance of American cargoes or vessels whenever the owners are unable to secure adequate protection equal to the insurance granted foreign ships by countries dealing in war insurance.

The measure appropriates $5,000,000 to pay insurance losses and $100,000 for administrative expenses. The emergency bill was introduced in the senate by Senator Clarke and referred to the committee on commerce, which he is chairman.

Portuguese Trains Canceled.
London, Aug. 19, 4 a. m.—The Lisbon correspondent of the Morning Post says that on account of the shortage of running short of coal only half the usual number of trains are being run throughout Portugal.

The only topic of conversation in Portugal, at the attitude of the Portuguese government, says the correspondent, party politicians were at each other's throats, now hostilities have been laid aside and only attacks on the government are on the ground that it is acting too weakly in support of its ally, England.

Steamers Leave Port.

CHIEF CAUSES OF DEATH.
New York Sun: Dr. Jacques Berillon, the well-known statistician for the department of the Seine, Paris, has prepared tables relative to the rate of mortality and causes of death in different occupations.

The principal causes of death noted are intemperance, diseases of the chest, heart, liver and nerves, diabetes, suicide and accidents.

The most healthy occupations are naturally those followed in the open air, but there must be movement, otherwise the constant exposure is bad for health. Thus gamekeepers and park and forest-keepers live long, while drivers, who are exposed to the air without movement, are not long-lived.

M. Bertillon claims that engine drivers, men employed in wood-cutting and in mowing, school teachers, lawyers and clergymen live the longest.

The mortality among doctors, chemists, architects, lawyers, clerks, employees of the postoffice, commercial travelers, grocers, rulers, batters and some other trades, such as watch-making and tanning, is low. Domestic servants and coachmen employed in private families also represent a low death rate.

The mortality surpasses the average among functionaries, tramway and gas workers, itinerant fish and poultry sellers, drapers, saddlers, bakers, mill-visiting the poor are not included in books on etiquette, but they are suggested by Mrs. Abigail Fellows Bacon, writing in The Survey. She points out the benefits to the visitors.

"Over and above the results to the patient, the effect upon our own life was worth the effort. A broadened outlook, deepened sympathy, the whole some effect even upon physical health that comes from forgetting one's own ailments, was of great value. But of even greater value was the effect upon the spiritual health, that came from this good exercise."

"And, in that connection, I wondered why friendly visiting wouldn't solve the problem of the unemployed church member. But, on second thought, I realized that not all church members, even, have tact and I felt it would be a sin to exploit the poor to save the souls of the well-to-do. They have Moses and the prophets, as well as gospels. And they have bath tubs! Let them learn the way to the hearts of the rich, who are lonely and in trouble, by practicing on each other."

"Yet why should not every one be able to visit the poor, as neighbors, without doing more harm than good? sense, and politeness. If one behaves among them exactly as in the best drawing rooms, wears the same pious look, exerts the same effort to be agreeable, and shows the same lack of curiosity, with the same degree of politeness, that's all there is to it. One will meet with exactly the same response."

"One reason, I believe, why some really earnest people back in their approach to the poor, is because they try to put themselves in their place. The poor resent this, as we would, and resent our giving them our own speech, or conversation, or sermons. If we can't see the usefulness of these things, they can, as plainly as if we tried to wear their old clothes. Our best success came when we put those we visited on our plane, taking it for granted that they lived loved and acted just as we did. And they responded, as we do, to those who waken our better selves."

Boy or Girl?
Great Question!

This brings to many minds an old and tried family remedy—an external application known as "Mother's Friend."

During the period of expectancy it is applied to the abdominal muscles and is designed to soothe the nerves involved.

In this manner it has such a splendid influence as to justify its use in all cases of coming motherhood. It has been generally recommended for years and years and those who have used it speak in highest praise of the immense relief it affords. Particularly those knowing mothers speak of the absence of morning sickness and freedom from strain on the ligaments and freedom from those many other distresses usually looked forward to with such concern.

There is no question but what "Mother's Friend" has a marked tendency to relieve the mind and tire of itself in addition to the physical relief has given it a very wide popularity among women.

You can obtain "Mother's Friend" at almost any drug store. It has helped a host of mothers to a complete recovery.

It is prepared only by Brindfield Regulator Co., 301 Lamar Bldg., Atlanta, Ga.

LIKES MINNESOTA METHODS.

Grand Forks Man Finds Gopher Farmers Are Up to Date.

on the whole, used their methods, this state would attain the position of prosperity that now is enjoyed by those two counties.

Mr. Goodman, who is former president of the Commercial club, has returned from a ten-day automobile trip, much of which was spent in the two Minnesota counties. He made a loud in his praises of them.

"On most of the farms one finds from 70 to 100 hogs; cattle are specialized on others, and all are making good profits. North Dakota, employing the same methods, would soon become immensely wealthy."

The matter of securing a statute of Gen. Custer for the local park has been temporarily deferred. It will require $4,000 or $5,000 to erect the memorial and the committee has some other matters on hand now to finance and thought the delay would make it easier to handle the matter.

CROPS ARE GOOD
AROUND FLOODWOOD.

Floodwood, Minn., Aug. 19.—(Special to The Herald.)—Local merchants report that they sold over $5,000 worth of farm machinery this year, which includes two reaping machines, a dozen binders, many mowers, rakes, harrows, etc. The hay crop was excellent. Clover averaged better than three and one-half tons to an acre. The rye is already harvested. Barley and wheat are being cut. There is a surplus of grain in the country. Owing to excess of rains early in the spring the small grain is not as good as it was last year. Potatoes on high ground are promising good yield.

Itching a Severe Form of Eczema

How to Stop This Awful Nagging Disorder

If You Feel Like a Pin Cushion

If you will get it firmly fixed in your mind that all forms of skin disease are a combination of nerve disorder and faulty nutrition you will then understand why S. S. S. the famous blood purifier overcomes such troubles.

Just as soon as S. S. S. enters the blood it rushes into an average of three minutes. And it is an outlet for the greater portion of impurities in the blood, the action of S. S. S. is such that these impurities are converted into a substance that is readily expelled. Thus instead of gathering on the surface to cause itching, eczema, salt rheum, tetter and other skin diseases, they pass off as vapor or perspiration, the pores are left free, the nerves regain control and it is impossible for the disease to either gain or retain a foothold.

These facts are brought out in a most interesting book "What the Mirror Tells," a copy of which is mailed free by The Swift Specific Co., 105 Swift Bldg., Atlanta, Ga. Get a bottle of S. S. S. today. Insist upon S. S. S., avoid substitutes.

Ezell Inevitable in All But One Round—Wins 5 to 2.

Rube Peters Busts in and Bats in Two Runs.

BY BRUCE.

One of the best games of the season was played yesterday. The game was played from the standpoint of being well played, from the fact that we won, and doubly enjoyable since it drew us up one full game nearer the galloping Peggys. Duluth, 5; Grand Forks, 2.

Henry Brackett gave a cultured and finished exhibition of fly-chasing in deep center. At one juncture of the game he ran nearly to Proctor and pulled down a fly from the hat of Donnelly. BOSTON MANAGER IS PROVING HIS WORTH

For several seasons George Stallings has had the reputation among the big league managers as being one of the shrewdest pilots in the majors. His record with the Yankees was a brilliant one and last season he had the Boston Braves playing real baseball. In the National League by his clever handling of the Boston team, should Stallings take his place with the great managers of the game.

St. Louis, Mo., Aug. 19.—St. Louis pounded Alexander hard in the fourth and fifth innings yesterday afternoon and won from Philadelphia again. Peritt kept the visitors hit well scattered except in the sixth and ninth. Singles by Doyle and Burns, a triple by Beck in the fourth counted three for the home club. Score: St. Louis, 5; Philadelphia, 3.

Philadelphia, Pa., Aug. 19.—The double-header here yesterday resulted in an even break, Detroit winning the first game and Philadelphia the second. The southpaw got the better of the two pitchers, Cleveland winning the first game and Philadelphia the second.

Chicago at Boston (2 games). Detroit at Philadelphia. Cleveland at New York. St. Louis at Washington.

Indianapolis, Aug. 19.—How 116 Chinese, many of whom were full beards, were brought to Duluth from the United States in the last three years under the guise of students, only to disappear soon after their arrival, and fourteen others were carried across the line from Vancouver in the tender of a freight engine, was developed by the Federal industrial relations commission here in hearings which closed last night.

Trout fishermen here but two more Sundays this year in which to seek the speckled beauties, for the season will close with the ending of the present month.

The fishing year has been up to the average and some nice catches have been made. The wise disciples of Isaac Walton are now playing the lower reaches of their favorite streams. At the mouths of those emptying into Lake Superior they are looking for the big fellows, the kind you read about in the outdoor magazines as awing prizes as well as time, patience and skill to land successfully. For at this time of the year the "whoppers" are coming in from the lake depths and it is said that the dusk of day, when the sun is sinking over the western horizon in all its glory, is the best time to all to secure them.

But the all-around outdoor man is not losing any sleep because the trout season is nearly over. He has enjoyed it and has taken advantage of the opportunities afforded him. Now, however, he is turning his thoughts toward the future. The first which he claims his attention will be the quest of the prairie chicken, which is being found in increasing numbers in this part of the country. Those who have shot birds behind a well-trained dog declare that there is nothing like it for sport and excitement. Though the game is chiefly interested in the work hard and trying to assert that the pleasure of following a dog that knows its business is a joy without parallel. Be that as it may, the man who is chiefly interested in the work hard and trying to assert that the pleasure of following a dog that knows its business is a joy without parallel.

NEWS AND GOSSIP FROM THE REALM OF FISTIANA

leaves honestly and sincerely in the ability of Tillman or else is a consummate actor. It was a contest well worth discussing.

We are glad to state that both boys have their followers. Some hold that the garish finish of Doyle entitled him to a draw. Differences of opinion promote fights and other kindred sports. Therefore encourage them and permit them to thrive.

The encounter of Monday evening was one of the greatest ever seen in this part; one of the greatest, in fact, that could be staged in the limit of ten rounds.

Any time this little Doyle starts you are going to see a fight. He is one of the real fighters ever seen in these verdant parts. The boy can fight, knows how to fight and will fight. Some of the enemies of the boy—enemies for small reasons—have declared that he is not game. The exhibition put up by Doyle in the battle with the Klondike winners was a declaration of war. He gave the stern and silencing lie to all these accusations. Doyle takes that comes and is always in there for more. He is always fighting and always ready to take the next round.

The Future of Gibbons. After polishing off Brodsky, Hicks in workmanlike manner and making a holy show of Billy Walter, Mike Gibbons came back in his native town once more. Gibbons can beat all the Hicks and Walters that they can collect. In the boxing sense, Gibbons is the class of the workmen. He is a real fighter and the imitators of Gibbons are but feeble and futile imitators after all. It is time that we were getting Gibbons up here. He is the boxing model and during the course of the future it would seem that the fans hereabouts would appreciate the appearance of a boy who is one of the few really great boxers of the day.

SMUGGLING CHINESE. The Federal Industrial Commission learns of methods at Seattle. Seattle, Wash., Aug. 19.—How 116 Chinese, many of whom were full beards, were brought to Duluth from the United States in the last three years under the guise of students, only to disappear soon after their arrival, and fourteen others were carried across the line from Vancouver in the tender of a freight engine, was developed by the Federal industrial relations commission here in hearings which closed last night.

AMERICAN SENT TO FRENCH PRISON. Paris, Aug. 19.—An American, named Imre Oehlischer, of New York, has been sentenced by court martial to imprisonment for four years, having been found guilty of obtaining the sum of $80 from a German woman on false pretenses. The woman gave Oehlischer notes to change; he did not return them. The case was called to the attention of the American embassy, at whose instance Oehlischer was arrested. The court, before imposing sentence, allowed Oehlischer twenty-four hours to return the money.

KILL TWO CUB BEARS. Old Bear, Although Wounded, Makes Escape. Marquette, Mich., Aug. 19.—As Fred Stack of Yalmor, son of John Stack, was returning from a berry-picking trip about dusk, he came on a large bear and four well-grown cubs not far from the mouth of the St. Ignace river. Stack and his son, who were armed with shotguns, fired at the bears. The cubs were killed, but the mother bear escaped. The bears were found in a field of tall grass. HORSE EXHIBIT AT STATE FAIR

Expected to Exceed Anything Ever Shown at Hamline.

St. Paul, Minn., Aug. 19.—(Special to The Herald).—Taken as a unit, the exhibit of horses at the Minnesota state fair, Sept. 7 to 12, will exceed anything ever shown at Hamline. The entries indicate that there is a greater interest in the draft and light horse show than at any time in the history of the fair.

The light horse show will be a wonderfully good one. Some excellent individuals, well known in the light horse world, have been entered in the show horse and saddle horse classes. More saddle horses will appear than last year. The $1,000 saddle horse stake, which is to be shown before the grandstand, Friday, Sept. 11, is well filled. Some famous hunters and jumpers have also entered, to compete in the first class of hunters and jumpers ever shown at Hamline.

The draft horse show will be fully as good as the one last year, which was a record breaker. There is a much larger entry list of Belgians and Clydesdales than last year. There is a smaller number of Percherons and Shires than in 1913, but the loss is more than made up by the gains in other draft breeds. The increase of $2,000 in premiums for horses will act as a powerful incentive to show.

The Welsh and Shetland pony shows will be lighter than last year. It is said, however, that the stable of Charles E. Dunn of Florida, Ill., entered at the fair, contains some of the best individuals in America.

MISSOURIAN HANGS HIMSELF IN LONDON

CONGRESS IN NO RUSH NOW

War Has Spoiled Plans for an Early Adjournment.

No Hurry Will Be Attempted in Special Legislation.

Washington, Aug. 19.—The war in Europe has materially altered the congressional situation.

Not many weeks ago administration leaders were expressing the hope that the minority would restrain any filibuster against legislation, particularly the anti-trust program, so that congress might adjourn in ample time for participation in the fall campaign. The Republicans, many of them also eager to get home for the political fray, promptly agreed that there should be no filibuster, and that time alone can pull together for early adjournment.

Today, however, the adjournment prospect is eclipsed by multifarious issues, and the Democrats themselves are putting the brakes on legislation. Administration leaders when asked about adjournment simply throw up their hands and say "time alone can answer; we cannot adjourn while half the world is holding its breath."

Mark-Time Schedule. The legislative pace has been changed from double-quick to almost a mark-time schedule. Consideration of the Clayton anti-trust bill is not being hastened.

Further assurance that the session will be more prolonged than had been expected came when Senator Kern, the majority leader, announced his intention to dispose of a rivers and harbors appropriation bill. This measure had been before the senate for weeks, and was laid aside for trust legislation following a filibuster conducted by Senator Burton of Ohio. Then the word was passed around that the rivers and harbors bill would be left in the lurch by adjournment when trust legislation should be enacted. Reconsideration of this bill is certain to hold attention of congress two or three weeks at least.

In the house, conservation legislation is now being prepared and it is probable that it will receive attention of the senate when it reaches there.

Cause of Change. The necessity of emergency revenue legislation and preparation of eventuality that may be precipitated by the European war, is the underlying reason for a slowing up congress. There is going to be no rush more, a stamp tax or increase internal revenues on commodities. Although it is certain that additional revenue must be provided because of the curtailment of customs, the leaders want to hear from all parts of the country before a law is passed. They also want to consider carefully just how to spread the tax to the best advantage.

Attack Clayton Bill. An attack by Senators Pomeroy and Foraker on the provisions of the Clayton anti-trust bill exempting labor from the operation of the law, marked the consideration of the bill by the senate. The senate agreed to the judiciary committee's amendment, which is a compromise between the government decrees gained by the government against the prima facie evidence in subsequent suits by private parties for damages. The house bill made such decrees "conclusive" evidence.

CIRCULATORS LIKED VISIT AT DULUTH

President Contributes Commentary Article to Official Organ.

The Official Bulletin, a monthly magazine published as the organ of the International Circulators Managers' association, contains an article contributed by A. E. MacKinnon, president of the association, in which he comments upon the visit of the president of the United States to Duluth in June in connection with their annual convention tour of the Great Lakes. Mr. MacKinnon says in his article:

"Duluth's entertainment on Tuesday afternoon (June 16) was as great a success as any that preceded it and the fact that the program was delayed on account of our late arrival only served to make it more enjoyable. To Ed Armstrong, who had planned and worked with our good friend, O'Connor, and the other participants of their hospitality not a single word of complaint was uttered. The limited time allowed in the city certainly did not prevent us from being able to linger a little longer at the luncheon provided at the Spaulding, where Mayor Frisvold and the other dignitaries did so much to make us feel that time had been well and profitably spent in including Duluth in the itinerary."

"NO FLOUR COMBINE," SAYS INVESTIGATOR

Federal Official Accepts Statement of Millers as to Rise.

Minneapolis, Minn., Aug. 19.—The recent advance in the price of flour here, was not due to any arbitrary action of the Minneapolis millers, according to C. W. Sterling, special agent of the department of justice after an investigation of the local flour market.

The explanation of the millers that the price of flour is controlled largely by the price of wheat seems very reasonable, said Mr. Sterling. "The rise in wheat was due to the war. The problem for us is to ascertain if there has been any disproportion between the rise in flour prices and the advance in wheat quotations. Evidence of any arbitrary action or agreement by the local millers and shall so report to the district attorney."

"LOVE BUNGALOW" DEAD NOW SEVEN

Only Two Occupants of Ill-Fated Cottage Escaped Murderer.

Spring Green, Wis., Aug. 19.—Of the nine occupants of the "love bungalow" of Frank Lloyd Wright, the Chicago architect last Saturday when Julian Carlton, the Cuban chef, ran amuck and attacked them, only two survive as two died yesterday, making seven victims in all.

Thomas Brunker, the sixth victim died during Tuesday, never having recovered consciousness, and David Lindbloom, Wright's gardener, died a few hours later. William Weston and Herbert Fritz, employees of Wright, were less seriously hurt than the others. Sheriff T. J. Williams at Dodgeville, Wis., said that the negro might cheat the Wisconsin law which forbids capital punishment. "Carlton was yet alive of strangulation," said the sheriff, "or he may starve to death in jail. The doctors say his throat is so burned with acid that when it begins to scale, he may neither be able to breathe or to swallow."

WHEAT UP ON EXPORT CALL

Market Advances Further on Resumption of Shipments at Seaboard.

After Showing Early Strength Flaxseed Breaks at the Close.

Duluth Board of Trade, Aug. 18.—The market was strong at the close. September wheat closed 2½¢ up, and December 2½¢ up. September durum closed 3½¢ up, October 3½¢ up, and December 3½¢ up.

Ons closed ¾¢ up at 4½¢ for 77c. Barley closed 1¢ up at 53c to 65c.

At Winnipeg, October on is up at 49½¢ bid, and December ½¢ up at 48½¢ asked.

Puts on Minneapolis September wheat closed at $1.01½ bid, and calls at $1.00½.

With prospects for the resumption of export business upon an extensive scale, there was a rush of buying in the wheat market at the opening this morning, and advances extending up to 2½¢ were recorded. Advances were at hand of shipments for British ports from Galveston, and one steamer was loaded at Baltimore. A Chicago banker handled the exchange on it, and that example was said to have been followed by Eastern bankers who have begun to buy cereal bills on British contracts.

There was gossip on the board to the effect that many exporters at the seaboard have discovered that they had been automatically canceled owing to the outbreak of the war, by reason of the imposition of a blockade. They now find that in so far as British and French ports are concerned, their contracts will hold good. It was also noted that exporters who had put out hedges on wheat that had not been shipped, are now taking them up at the view of the better outlook for export grain being sent to this has been attributed to the strength in the market during the last two days. Better buying by millers was also noted as contributing to a substantial stiffening up in the cash premiums being paid.

Grain men generally are feeling more hopeful regarding the outlook for taking care of the new season's grain movement in the Northwest, which it is considered should develop in some volume next year.

Liverpool registered a large proportion of its previously declining value as a result of better demand, and a realization of the fact that the necessity for American wheat is going to be more marked this season in view of the cutting off of supplies from other quarters.

September wheat opened ¾¢ up at $1.00½ and it gained ½¢ more up to the closing hour. December opened ¾¢ up at $1.00½ and advanced ½¢ more. Offerings of durum were light and the market in it was especially strong. September opened 3½¢ up at 97c, and gained 2½¢ more. October opened 1½¢ up at 99c, and advanced 1¢ more. December opened 1½¢ up at 98c, and gained 3¢ more.

There was fair crush inquiry in the market for flaxseed and it was strong at the start. Holders were firm in their values and it was noted that Eastern crushers are now showing anxiety to pick up supplies in the west. Near the close a sharp reaction manifested in the market, leading to a decline of 2½¢ at 11c in the day.

September flax opened 1½¢ up at $1.08, and closed 2½¢ off at $1.05½ bid. October flax opened 1½¢ up at $1.08, and closed 2½¢ off at $1.05½ bid. November flax opened 1½¢ up at $1.08, and closed 2½¢ off at $1.05½ bid. December flax opened 1½¢ up at $1.08, and closed 2½¢ off at $1.05½ bid.

At Winnipeg, October flax closed $1.04 and at $1.03½. November closed at $1.04 and at $1.03½. December closed at $1.04 and at $1.03½.

WAR RISK BILL GETS FAVORABLE REPORTS IN BOTH HOUSES

Only Brief Hearings Are Held By the Committees.

Underwood Predicts Operation "Will Not Cost a Dollar."

Some 300 Ships Are Ready to Register in America.

Washington, Aug. 20.—The administration bill for war risks was favorably reported for action to both house and senate today after brief hearings in committees.

The bill provides $5,000,000 war risk insurance by the government for ships of American registry during the European war. Hearings on the bill began today in both the house and senate committees.

Before the house commerce committee, Majority Leader Underwood declared that while the government ought not to engage in the marine insurance business as a permanent venture, the present bill was urgently necessary as an emergency measure.

May Cost Nothing. "There is no cost," he said, "to perpetuate this war risk insurance bill. It is purely an emergency measure. I do not believe it will cost the government a dollar, the premiums more than meeting the charges for losses."

Before the senate committee bankers, shipping men and others, after a conference with Secretary McAdoo, gave expert opinion on the bill, and conditions resulting from the European war.

Both Low of New York headed the business conference. They explained that approximately 300 foreign built ships were ready to apply for American registry if they could get government war risk insurance.

5,000 AMERICANS IN NORWAY AND SWEDEN

Charges to Get Out Are Exorbitant, and No News Gets in.

London, Aug. 20, 1:26 p. m.—J. N. Vaughan of Richmond, Va., arrived in London today from Stockholm. Speaking of the situation in Scandinavia Mr. Vaughan said:

"There are 5,000 Americans marooned on the Scandinavian peninsula and only one regular daily sailing for England. This is by steamers with a capacity of seventy-five passengers. The charges for this passage are exorbitant. Americans are in a desperate state of mind. They are unable to get news of the war or to communicate with their friends in England or America."

AMERICANS CARED FOR

Only About 700 Are Left Stranded in Germany.

Relief Committee in London Has Finished Its Work.

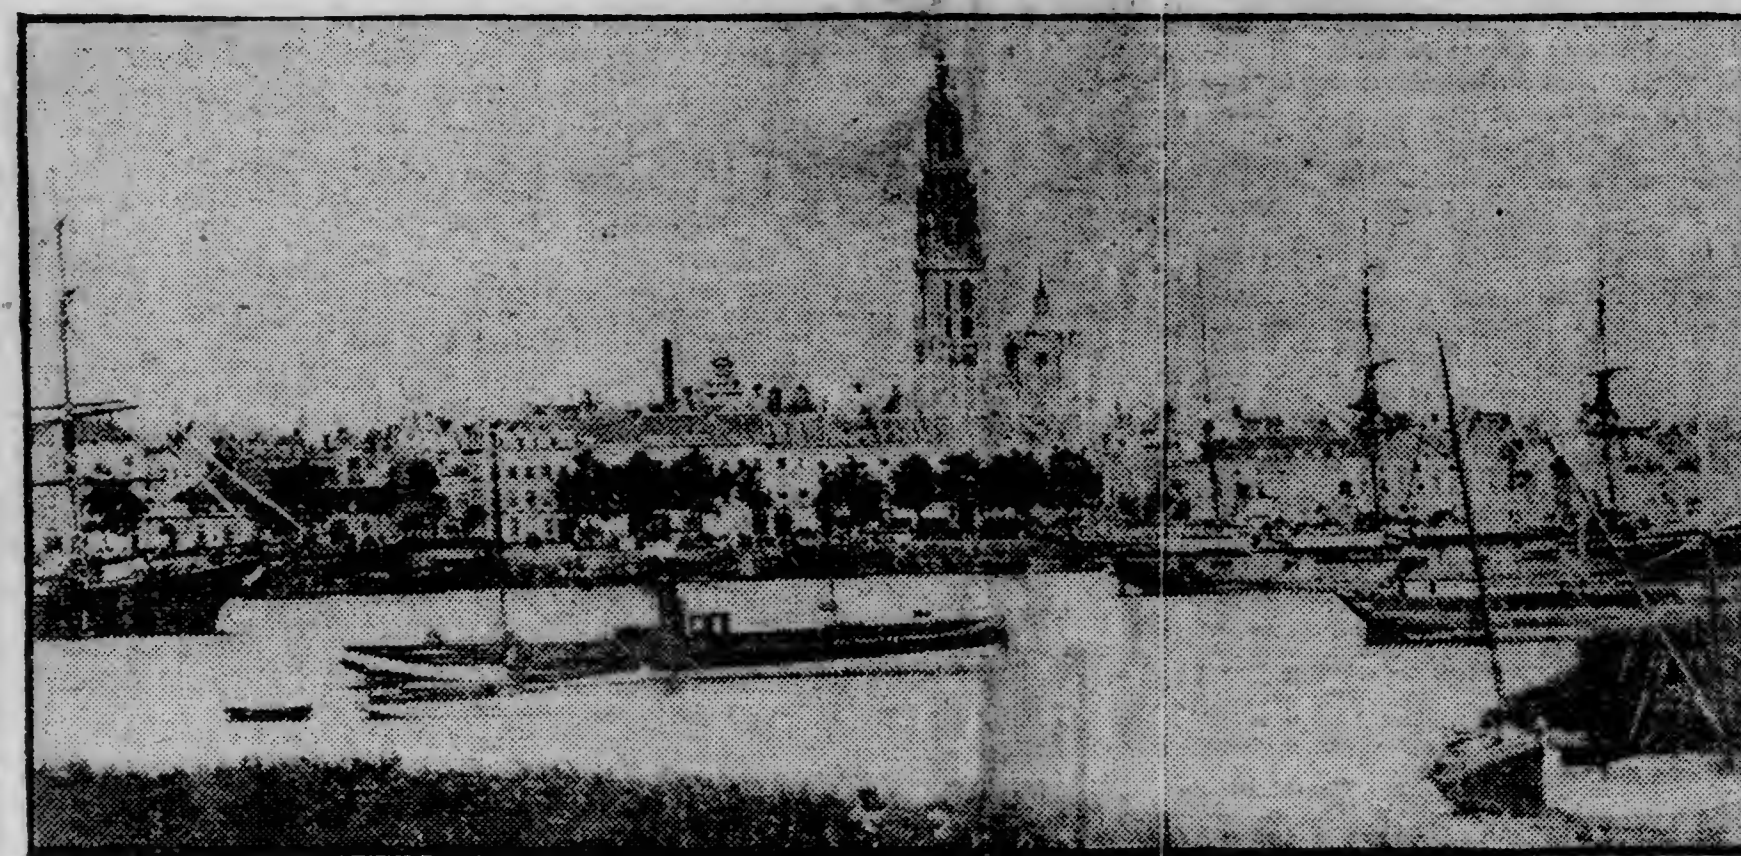

Rotterdam, Aug. 20, via London, Aug. 20, 1:45 a. m.—Further arrivals of Americans from Germany are expected here today. They will be welcomed by Soren Listoe, the American consul general, who will extend all facilities at his command.

The total number of Americans stranded and without money in Germany is about 700. Most of them are in Berlin, Munich, and Frankfurt-on-the-Main. Their condition is due to the present unsatisfactory financial situation. None of them are distressed as the hotels are giving them credit.

Praise the Germans. Concerning the reported abuse of Americans in Germany, Consul Listoe today made the following statement: "Americans now arriving here speak highly of the treatment accorded them by the Germans. Those who had trouble were mistaken for Englishmen. There has been no willful abuse, and any instance of hardship were due to the state of war and the precautions thought necessary. The German government, ten days ago, notified burgomasters that they would be held personally responsible for any injury done to Americans and other foreigners."

Secretary Bryan, at President's Request, Sends Message to Rome.

Mgr. Bonzano at Washington Notified of Death of Pius X.

Washington, Aug. 20.—At the request of President Wilson, Secretary Bryan today sent the following telegram to the Vatican:

"The president desires me to express his sense of the great loss which the Christian world has sustained in the death of his holiness, Pius X. By his pure and gentle nature, his unaffected piety, and his broad and thoughtful sympathy with his fellow men, he adorned his exalted station and attracted to himself the affectionate regard of all who felt his world-wide influence."

The official announcement of the death of Pius X. was received by the apostolic delegate, Mgr. Bonzano, at 7:30 this morning. At the moment he was celebrating mass in the chapel of the delegation. It came from Cardinal Merry del Val, papal secretary of state, who was at Rome at 4:44 this morning, and said:

"Holy Father, Pius X. died this morning. To this, at 1 o'clock this morning, Mgr. Bonzano received a dispatch from Cardinal del Val, dated at Rome at 10:18 last night, telling of the death of the pontiff."

SAYS STRONG ARE IN GRACE

Huerta Gives His Opinion of War While in London.

Lives Unrecognized at Middle Class Hotel There.

London, Aug. 20, 11:10 a. m.—Victoriano Huerta, erstwhile dictator of Mexico, was asked today what he thought of the European war. He called for pen and paper and wrote:

"On the present war in Europe I should not speak. All that can be said is what I have already said in the book of a lady, which is as follows: 'God is always with the strongest—that is to say, the strongest is always in the grace of God. It is for this that one is the strongest, the French and the Mexican situation. Gen. Huerta closed his lips tightly and made the sign of the cross as if putting the seal on it. He said in English:

"Excuse me, nothing."

Identity Not Suspected. Few people at the respectable but unostentatious hotel frequented by middle class provincial merchants where Huerta is staying, suspect that the little, dark man with the Spanish-looking family was a few weeks ago president of a great American republic.

The general seems a trifle dazed and bewildered by the vastness and the three daughters of Gen. Huerta, who he has just visited. The Mexican legation, and he has had few callers. If he has wealth, neither the dress nor the scale of living of his party indicates it.

MUELHAUSEN RETAKEN BY THE FRENCH ARMY

Bayonet Fighting in Suburb Is Feature of Severe Battle for Possession.

Paris Officially Says Situation in the Vosges Mountains Is Unchanged.

Paris, Aug. 20, 3 p. m.—The recapture of Muelhausen, Alsace, by French troops, is announced officially here today.

The recapture of Muelhausen was preceded by a very severe battle, during which the French troops took one of the suburbs at the point of the bayonet. They also took, as the result of their victory, six German cannon and six ammunition wagons. The official note says the situation in the Vosges mountains is unchanged. In Upper Alsace the French have occupied Guebwiller, fourteen miles southwest of Colmar.

In Lorraine, it is stated, the French lines extend from the north of Saarburg, passing by Morhange to Delme. The situation in the duchy of Luxembourg and in Belgium is unchanged.

War Situation Is Taking On More Definite Form

An entire change in the plan of campaign may be brought about by the finding of an opening to the north by the German army in Belgium. This was admitted in an official communication from Brussels today, which said the Germans "had gained ground on both banks of the Meuse, and are in contact with the allies."

It adds that the "Belgians having done all that could be expected by holding the line for nearly a fortnight, their strategy will now be merged into the general plan of the allied armies."

It concludes with the significant sentence, that "the retrograde movement does not mean defeat," implying that the Belgians have been operating hitherto by themselves in checking the German advance while the French and British were making preparations to meet the advancing German forces.

Rumors that Brussels has fallen into German hands were persistently current in Paris, but no confirmation could be obtained. The Belgian capital was known certainly to be threatened by daring German cavalry that had reached the Forest of Solmes, flanking the city. All the approaching roads had been barricaded and entrenched. Four of the Brussels hospitals are filled with wounded soldiers.

Antwerp apparently is the temporary goal of the German troops in Belgium. They are reported moving slowly but steadily in the direction of the great fortified port on the River Scheldt. The German soldiers have occupied the town of Tienen, and their masses, pushing in from the frontier, are believed to have come into contact with the allies' front.

Reports in Brussels asserted a battle had occurred near Charleroi, in which the Germans were supposed to have suffered a loss of 6,000 killed. This was not confirmed by any official source.

Reports were current in many European quarters today that Germany had decided not to comply with Japan's ultimatum calling for the German evacuation of Kiaochow and the abandonment of the eastern seas by German war vessels. Holland is said to feel uneasiness in regard to her East Indian colonies, in view of Japan's attitude.

Gumbinnen, a German town, twenty miles from the Russian frontier, has been occupied by the Russians, who, according to Russian official advice, are advancing toward the city. (Continued on page 10, second column.)

BLIND BISHOP SHOT AS SUSPECTED SPY

Was Accused of Having Plans of German Fort.

Paris, Aug. 20.—La Croix, the Catholic newspaper, declares that the blind bishop, Monsignor Kannengieser, alleged to have been shot by the Germans at Istein, in Baden, was an Alsatian and anti-German.

He was accused by the Germans of having in his possession plans of the fortress of Istein-Goltz, where a large German force is awaiting the advance of the French army now marching through Upper Alsace.

Istein-Goltz is regarded as almost impregnable and is the center of the ring of German fortifications in that region.

Paris, Aug. 20, 12:40 a. m.—An official communication received here from Brussels says:

"The Germans have gained ground on both banks of the river Meuse and are in contact with the armies of the allies."

"The enemy, finding the routes to the southward strongly held by French and Belgians, discovered an opening to the north. This may entirely change the strategy on both sides."

"The Belgians, having held the invaders in check for fifteen days, have done all that could be expected. Belgian strategy will now be merged into the general plan of the allied armies."

"The retrograde movement does not mean defeat."

Belgians Retiring. Paris, Aug. 20, 10:16 a. m.—A portion of the Belgian army has begun to retreat in the direction of Antwerp, according to an official announcement this morning concerning the situation in Belgium.

East of Namur the Germans have attained the line between Dinant and Neufchateau.

LONDON CABLES SUMMARY OF SITUATION TO AMERICA

Only Casualty at Sea Is Loss of the Amphion—Forts at Liege Are Intact.

French Force Is Advancing on Long Line Into Alsace and Lorraine.

Washington, Aug. 20.—The British embassy here today received from its foreign office a summary of the naval and military situation to date. Colville Barclay, the charge, sent a copy to Secretary Bryan. It follows:

"Since the declaration of war, the fleet has been responsible for the safety of the expeditionary force which completed its disembarkation in France on Aug. 18, which was effected in perfect order and without a casualty."

"The work of the navy in the Atlantic and elsewhere in safeguarding the trade routes is best exemplified by the fact that at Lloyd's yesterday the war risk rate fell to 40 shillings per cent for almost any voyages of British vessels, whereas the rate to insure freight of corn, paid by steamers from the United States to a British port, is 30 shillings per cent."

GERMAN FLEET BOTTLED UP.

"The German fleet outside the Baltic is confined to harbors. English commerce is almost normal. German seaborne commerce is paralyzed."

"The only casualty is the loss of the light cruiser Amphion, blown up by a mine after having sunk the German mine layer Koenigin Luise. One German submarine has been sunk in North Sea."

MILITARY POSITION.

"The military position is as follows: 'The German forces at present extend from north of the neighborhood of Basel through Liege to a point in Belgium to the east of Antwerp and near the Dutch frontier.'

"The outstanding feature of the operations up to present has been the delay caused to the contemplated German offensive across the Meuse by the defense of Liege, where the forts still are intact. It has permitted the orderly mobilization and concentration of French army and British expeditionary force. German troops have now crossed the Meuse both above and below Liege, and are gaining some ground slowly westward, but their advance cavalry has been continually checked by the Belgians."

IN THE SOUTH.

"In the south, where the German armies are apparently on the defensive, the French are advancing on a long line into Alsace and Lorraine, a great extent of which they now occupy after driving back, in several engagements, the troops opposed to them."

WANTS U.S. TO TAKE CHINESE TERRITORY

China Makes Inquiry Supposedly Inspired By Berlin.

Peking, China, Aug. 20.—China today inquired of the United States what its attitude would be toward the cession by Germany to the United States of the territory of Kiaochow, for immediate cession thereafter back to China. The inquiry of the Chinese government was made to the American charge d'affaires, and it was understood to be based on intimations from Germany that such a course might solve the problem.

Dijon, France, via Paris, Aug. 20.—French gendarmes today stopped a young girl who, disguised as a man, had left with a group of Beau aviators for the war. She was wearing a military aviator's uniform and had cut her hair short.

It was found that she was an English girl, aged 26. She will be sent back to her parents.

PEAT EXPERTS OF AMERICA ARE IN SESSION IN DULUTH

Annual Convention of American Society Is Being Held.

Federal Government Compiling Statistics on Little Known Industry.

Peat experts numbering about seventy-five from all parts of the United States and Canada gathered at the Duluth Commercial club today and the three-day session of the eighth annual convention of the American Peat society was begun.

The society is holding its meeting in Duluth this year because of the great peat bogs in Northern Minnesota and the possibilities for great development in the peat industry here were reflected in the addresses made this morning. Nearly all of them had a practical application to Duluth and the northern part of the state.

The fact that the Westinghouse manufacturing company is making a great effort to get peat coke and peat for use in manufacturing steel and that this great corporation is willing to pay good prices for such fuel was one of the important matters brought out in the morning session. No fuel, it is said, will temper steel as well as peat coke, and the fact that the iron mines of Minnesota and the peat bogs are in close proximity.

Investigations already conducted have proved, he says, that there are great possibilities in the peat industry and that the subject will be one of great importance in the future. Prof. Davis will give an address this afternoon in which he will discuss "Conventional Peat Possibilities."

Information applying directly to the iron industry of Northern Minnesota was given by Prof. Peter Christensen of the University of Minnesota who spoke on "The Peat Industry of the United States."

He pointed out that the peat industry is a new one, but that it has great possibilities. He said that the peat industry is a new one, but that it has great possibilities.

Svenska Amerikanska Posten and Other Strong Republican Papers Desert.

Defection in G. O. P. Ranks Reaches Critical Stage Early in Campaign.

That defection in the Republican ranks of this state, especially in regard to the governorship, is spreading, has been palpable for some time, but now it has reached the point where, like crystal, it is striking in and most likely prove fatal.

Heretofore, while the party leaders—those of the party leaders who have not jumped—have realized that there has been some wavering in the ranks, they have not been willing to admit it. They have been hoping that the wavering would stop.

But the defection has now become a fact. The Svenska Amerikanska Posten, the Svenska Amerikanska Tidningen, and the Svenska Amerikanska Posten have all deserted the Republican ranks. They have all become independent papers.

WOMEN EXECUTED AS SPIES IN THE WAR

Three Belgians Have Gone Insane From Excitement.

Brussels, Aug. 20, via Paris.—Four German girls were arrested here yesterday on the charge of spying. Three of them, a woman, apprehended at Louvain, have been shot.

Countess Says She Was Badly Treated. Copenhagen, via London, Aug. 20, 3:50 p. m.—The countess, wife of the duke of a Danish nobleman and wife of a Russian spy, attacked her treatment received at the hands of German soldiers in an important Russian city. She said she had been to visit the countess.

She told the soldiers her husband was a German officer, but they took her to the barracks for further questioning. There, she asserted, she was treated with the most brutal and cruel treatment. She was released, and arrived here suffering from her wounds.

CONSIDER YOUR CHILDREN'S EYES

If a child's sight is imperfect correct glasses should be obtained immediately. If this is done the child usually grows out of the trouble, otherwise the defect increases until glasses are inevitable and a cure impossible.

Our tests will be the same whether you pay $2.00, $3.50 or $5.00 for your glasses.

WATERING FOR PEAT.

The method of burning peat into a powdered form has recently been perfected. It is being used in Sweden for firing locomotive boilers and is easily adapted to the firing of the cylindrical furnace used for drying, roasting or calcining.

Another method of using peat for heating purposes is that of making it into a peat brick. The peat is made into a brick by the use of a special machine. The brick is then used for heating purposes.

ROME QUIET AS POPE DIES

For First Time No Special Precautions Are Observed.

Rome, Aug. 20.—For the first time since the fall of the temporal power, a pope has died without its being necessary for the Italian authorities to take any special precautions.

When both Pius IX. and Pope Leo passed away, the government found it advisable to occupy St. Peter's square and the principal thoroughfares leading to the Vatican with troops, ready to intervene should occasion arise. In case of the death of Pope Pius X.

however, on account of the hour of his death, such precautions were not necessary.

Premier Salandra has sent notifications of the death of the pope to the authorities throughout the kingdom, instructing them at the same time to take part in the funeral ceremonies if invited.

"Black Pope" Is Dead.
Father Francis Xavier Wernz, general of the Society of Jesus, also died in Rome this morning. Father Wernz was called "the Black Pope," a nickname used to indicate his power behind the throne. The late pontiff was generally known as "the White Pope."

The body of the late pope reposed today on a little iron bed with damask coverings. Beside the bed was a small image of the Virgin.

Dr. Amiel carried out the operation of embalming the body after it had been taken in charge by Monsignor Martucci, the chamberlain.

BIG INCREASE IN COUNTY VALUATION

Estimated That Over $5,000,000 Will Be Added to Real Estate.

St. Louis county will show an increase of between $5,000,000 and $6,000,000 on the assessed valuation of real estate compared with a year ago, if the guess of L. A. Marvin, deputy county auditor, in charge of tax matters, is correct.

Accurate figures of the county's assessed real estate valuation will not be available until after the equalization board has adjusted a number of the minutes in Chisholm and the valuation of real estate at Buick, the district in the county auditor's office shows up real estate assessed at $24,868,066.

The assessor at Chisholm only placed a nominal valuation on the mines. The county equalization board is expected to add at least $14,000,000, which would be putting the Chisholm valuation on the same basis as last year. The Buick real estate valuation last year was $301,368,066 as compared with $255,000,000 a year ago.

It is possible, however, that some reduction may be made in the valuations placed on the mines at Ely, where an increase in the county value of $5,000,000 is noted over last year's figures. The county equalization board will be held tomorrow.

HOKE SMITH WINS BY BIG MAJORITY

Atlanta, Ga., Aug. 20.—Senator Hoke Smith was re-elected by a large majority over Former Governor Joseph M. Brown for the long term in the United States senate, according to practically complete returns from yesterday's state wide Democratic primary.

With four counties missing, Representative J. W. Harris, of 100 convention votes, leading Governor John M. Smith, of 100, and Senator John M. Smith, of 100, in the race for the nomination to fill the unexpired term of the late Senator A. C. Bacon. No Democratic opposition to the nomination of Mr. Smidley to the supreme court is looked for in the senate, although the nomination is predicted early confirmation.

The judiciary committee to which the nomination was referred will meet Monday.

W. Gregory's appointment as attorney general also will be passed upon by the judiciary committee.

Opposition to Mr. McKinnon is expected from the Progressive Republicans.

PARIS HAS 600,000 PEOPLE OUT OF WORK

Paris, Aug. 20, 11:50 a. m.—A warning issued by the French government today says that while one great struggle is in progress on the frontiers, another fight must be fought in the interior of the country against the misery which follows the disorder in its economic life.

The prefect of police in Paris estimates that there are 600,000 out of work in the French capital and its suburbs, or nearly one-sixth of the total population of the Department of the Seine.

Those who have savings find difficulty in getting hold of them, as they could draw only 5 per cent during the first two weeks of the war, but beginning today they may draw 10 per cent and it is likely the government will

A GOOD MAN'S DEATH.

Pius X was the supreme pontiff of the Roman Catholic church, and so he had the love and veneration of millions of Catholics the world around.

But Giuseppe Melchiorre Sarto, the humble postman's son who rose by his goodness and eloquence to be pope, was a good old man whose heart bled for the sorrows of the world; and so his death strikes a chord of sympathy in the hearts of all men and women, whether Catholic or not.

It was a fitting climax to the blameless life of this good old man that his last official act should have been the utterance of an exhortation to the world, calling for prayers for peace. This is an appeal that should not and will not reach Catholics alone, but that should reach and stir the hearts of all who believe in the wickedness of war, the blessedness of peace and the power of prayer.

The pathetic deathbed of the pope was made restless and miserable by the thought of the world conflict now in progress, of the world of woe and misery and suffering it entails, and of the impotency of the pope to stop it.

"In ancient times," the dying pontiff sighed, "the pope by a word might have stayed the slaughter, but now he is impotent."

And the world knows that if it were so today, here was a pope who would have uttered that word with a heart full of thanksgiving that it was his privilege to say it.

The American consul at Liege is certainly earning his salary.

A "TIPPING TRUST."

When we saw that heading over an editorial in an exchange, a thrill of hope made itself felt.

We thought maybe one of the trusts had taken to tipping.

Not that old type of tipping, by which public servants were induced to betray the public interest by rolls of bills stealthily handed to them.

Maybe, we thought, some trust has taken this means of dividing its exorbitant profits with the public by some general distribution of tips.

Not that there would be anything especially new about that. Mr. Carnegie's libraries and Mr. Rockefeller's school contributions were tips—trust tips to the public to appease public sentiment.

But then there might be, you know, really general public tips by such means as a reduction of prices, by which everybody would benefit.

But it seems that our exchange wasn't talking about anything like that at all. It didn't mean a "tipping trust," but a "tippee trust"—it referred to the syndicates that have men and women in pocketless clothes taking tips for taking care of hats and the like. The money all goes to the tippee trust, and the bellboy and the hat-woman get mere wages.

To be sure, this is a peculiarly flagrant and disgusting development of the tipping evil. If anything can kill the practice of tipping, surely this will.

But this is one of the few things on which we have turned pessimist. We used to write indignant pieces for the paper about tipping, perhaps even with some vague idea that the practice could be reformed by denunciation. But we've quit it. It's of no use. People can be shamed neither out of giving nor taking tips. We did have some faint hope that the real beneficiaries of the tipping custom—the sleeping car companies and hotel proprietors who save wages by it—might be shamed into paying wages that would permit their servants to refuse tips; but they can't be. Shame is a sensation that is beyond them.

And though ninety-nine out of a hundred tip under protest and with poor grace and get no thanks for it, even if they grew brave enough to quit it there would always be those who would tip in order to get the best of their fellow-patrons—to get served first or best.

And the ninety-and-nine, forced to wait or to put up with poor cuts, would have to begin tipping again.

We are all rash enough, in all conscience, in attempting to reform the world and to cure its evils with advice. But we at least have grown too wise to attempt further to cure the tipping evil that way. We shall have to admit that that task, at least, is beyond us.

The republic of Switzerland was 828 years old last Sunday. This is certainly proof that a republic can last.

MAKING WAY FOR PROSPERITY.

Europe, insensibly occupied in the stupid business of war, lacks time to grow and gather crops and to conduct the industries on which depends the comfort of her people.

So Europe needs the grain and goods that we have to sell.

All that is necessary for this country to reap a heavy profit at the expense of afflicted Europe is means of transportation.

Europe needs our goods. We need to sell them, else the opportunity for a profitable business is wastefully turned into business prostration.

President Wilson has bent the searchlight of his mind upon this situation, and the first fruit is the bill to admit foreign ships to American registry, which is now a law.

The second is his proposal, now being put into legislative form, that the government appropriate twenty-five million dollars to buy ocean-going ships to carry on the foreign trade of this country. With this proposal goes the sound and timely plan of government insurance of cargoes where private insurance fails.

The opportunity that now lies open to establish trade relations with South America, long sought in vain, must have been obvious to everybody. Germany and England have established themselves in these markets, and all the pranks of dollar diplomacy so far have failed to dislodge them. Now, with these nations engaged in war and their shipping paralyzed, South America must buy from us—if we can find the ships to carry the goods.

Whether this newly opened market is temporary or permanent depends on this country. If its dealers can convince South American buyers that their prejudice against us and our goods was unfounded, and that it will pay them to keep on patronizing us, business relations will be created that will persist after the war.

Plainly, there is much business to be done if transportation can be provided; and the president has risen splendidly to the occasion, which offered him a rare opportunity to be of high service to his country.

There is a suspicion that Baron Munchausen is writing some of the war bulletins.

THE FARMER'S INCOME.

Some very shallow comments are being made upon disclosures recently furnished by a government survey of 257 typical farms in Illinois, Iowa and Indiana.

These disclosures show the average net income of the farmer, as a reward for his labor, to be $408. This, it is pointed out, is somewhat less than the average laborer's pay; therefore the idea that people are better off on the land is declared to be a myth.

These commentators forget, of course, that the farmer also feeds and houses himself and family; and that if the average laborer had $408 left above his expense for food and lodging this would indeed be a land flowing in milk and honey. Comparing a farmer's net receipts with a laborer's gross earnings is clearly misleading.

At that, the figures have much interest. The average capital investment in these farms is $39,566. The average receipts for the year are $3,076; the average expense is $1,138; the average income $1,938. This is reduced to $408 by subtracting interest on capital investment. The government expert's deduction is that farmers are living on the earnings of their investment, not on the real profits of the farm.

Few farmers count interest on the investment as an item of cost. Yet all should do so. One of the magazines a year or two ago had a story of a young man who bought an Iowa farm, and on figuring in interest at the end of his year he found that though he had apparently done better than his neighbors, his balance showed a loss. Yet his neighbors were prosperous and in the automobile class. He accounted for it by the fact that these neighbors got their land free from the government or by inheritance, and so took no account of interest.

The point of the story was this: If living costs are high now, what will they be when every farmer, as every farmer must, begins charging up interest on the farm investment?

Not all the load will fall upon the consumer. The farm that at present prices does not earn good interest on the investment, in addition to good wages for the farmer, probably is being operated by the methods of the last generation. When the farmer realizes that his soil must yield him not only a living and wages but interest on his capital investment, he will have to make that soil yield more to cause the books to balance properly. And this can be done—is being done today.

The Springfield Republican observes that some very prosperous Americans are "coming over" as modestly as their grandfathers did.

WASTED INSTRUCTION.

The Western Electric News tells how to say "I should worry" in several languages:

German—Ich sollte mich sorgen.
Danish—Jag skulde sørge.
Italian—Vorrei tormentar mi.
Spanish—Seria atormentado.
Swedish—Jag skulle oroa mig.
(spoken like crossing a rutty road).
Danish—(alleged)—Ich ca bibble.
Bohemian—Man se starat.
Polish—Ja się troska.
Norwegian—Jag skulle sørge.
Finnish—Minkä surin.
Japanese—Haya Moya.
Norwegian—Jag skulle sørge.

But since even as slang it is senseless and raw and stupid, perhaps it will be as well to say it in no language at all.

The real losers in the great war will be the people of Europe. They will suffer and foot the bills.

"And Women Must Weep"

Indianapolis Star: In the streets of Paris and Berlin, of St. Petersburg, along with the throngs of men filled with what they fancied to be the spirit of patriotism and shouting wildly, were crowds of weeping women and children. War had been declared and war, to women, does not mean glory.

To them it means starting from husbands and sons, from brothers and lovers, possibly forever. It means heavy fear and dread; it means heartache and misery; it means the taking away of the bread winners; it means for uncounted thousands the loss of the family income; it means the waiting, fearful wives their warriors are brought home dead, or are left, unknown, on the battle field; whether they come maimed and mangled or whether they return, alive, living the life of a beggar, it is a disaster to the women who love him.

These pictures and more bitter sufferings than any ruler has a right to inflict upon them save for a most trifling cause, and no such cause exists in Europe today. When such a cause arises, as in our Civil war, women are ready to make supreme sacrifices and to give up their nearest and dearest for their country. But more and more they are coming to realize the wrong that is done them in wars for which there is no excuse but political ambition.

The Boer war was a feeling toward the Boers in England. Women of humble and high degree alike cried out against giving up to the sword the lives of their loved ones, and against seeing them thrown down by the guns of the enemy.

The revolt is likely to be more bitter and of greater scope in this needless conflict that is now convulsing Europe. Women have been helpless hitherto, they are helpless now; but their voices raised in solemn protest will be heard. The time will come when governments cannot go to war at their pleasure at the cost of women's bleeding hearts.

The Plumber Got His Reward.

Washington Post: The story is just getting around about a dinner given in exclusive Washington society, at which the most talked person was undoubtedly a plumber in overalls.

It was an elaborate dinner, the central feature of the table decorations being a fountain. But just before the dinner was served the fountain refused to play.

A plumber was hastily called. He crawled under the table and soon had the fountain sending a delicate spray into the air. He was busy tightening the couplings of the temporary pipes under the table when the head broken, his mind relieved of a load of care, he saw the fountain playing, announced in the drawing room: "Dinner is served."

Before the plumber knew what was happening the guests had entered the dining room. He looked carefully around and he suddenly found himself hemmed in by a wall in which trousers alternated with skirts.

It was a big round table, so he was safe from discovery from any shifting foot. He scratched his head and wondered. He looked carefully around. Neither to the right nor to the left sufficient space for him to get out through. The only way to get out would be to tap on some knee and—"Pardon me," he said.

"He didn't know much about the etiquette of formal dinner parties, but he had a hunch that that wouldn't make a hit. He decided that there was just one thing to do: stay where he was until the trousers-and-skirt wall departed. So there he sat, while coffee, cigarettes and cigars smoked, nothing to entertain him but a ground floor view of high society.

When the dinner was at last over and the guests had returned to the drawing room the plumber crawled forth.

The hostess had tarried for a moment to give a few directions to the waiter. She gasped with astonishment.

"Sir," said she, "you are a gentleman. Then to the head butler: 'James, give this man $10 for his trouble.' Then to the plumber: 'And please say nothing.'"

Can You Do This?

Illustrated Zeitung, Berlin: A man was brought before the court upon the complaint of his wife. While the prisoner was testifying the judge made clear that he intended to be harsh with him; so that his wife became frightened, and when the judge stood ready to give testimony, he refused to do so. The judge then asked her to retract all her accusations.

"So, your husband didn't strike you then?" said the judge. "Where did you get that black eye?"

"I struck it accidentally on the mantelpiece."

"So! And that piece bitten out of your ear—he didn't do that, either?"

"No, no, your honor. I did that myself."

Writing the Thrillers

One of the writers most valued by the publishers of marvellous fiction has been James H. Hopkins, formerly of the Hearst newspapers.

Hopkins got into that line through an old impulse. He was working as one of the editors of a paper down in Tennessee at the time Edward W. Carr was shot and killed in the Tennessee. Any editor who took risk of having some radical member of the opposite faction come in and bring up the office with editorial blood. So Hopkins reasoned it out like this:

"Why engage in such risky and dangerous occupation as newspaper work? Henceforth I shall do all my work on paper. I'll retire to a comfortable flat and write of killings and intrigues, but that is as near to actual excitement as I myself shall venture in the future."

He resigned his place on the paper that day before the impulse should have him to New York and began writing what he called "thrillers."

His first story was called "The Adventure Series." The 50,000 words each Hopkins has been producing almost weekly. He is about four days until his weekly task is done, and then has the rest of the week on his hands with nothing to do but eat, play and make up his sleep.

Hopkins' works are more pretentious looking than the "Old Sleuth" or "Carters" series. They come in regular installments and sell for 15 cents. Many of his stories are based on personal experience. One is founded on facts about Chinese gangs that he learned while in New York, was suing a Chinese publisher for libel. Hopkins did some traveling about among the Chinese for the publisher and heard a new world facts about a Chinese villain who made a business of killing folks for anybody who wanted a given price out of the way and was willing to pay for the service. This villain, a man in a white shirt and a black tie, is the central figure of one of Hopkins' stories.

Certain well defined rules govern the writing of nickel thrillers. In the first place, every story must point a moral. The detective must solve the mystery in the end and the villain must face speedy retribution. Then each chapter must start with a thrill and end with a cliffhanger. It is an ordinary novel writer might start off with the statement that:

"It was a very dark and gloomy night, a fleecy cloud muffled the whole of Kansas as it lay in the dark."

But the producer of the 5-cent thriller must begin his chapter something like this:

"My God," she cried, as she arose from her couch and stared at the man who stood before her. "There was no one save me?"

The same chapter might end in this fashion:

"And who are you?" demanded the real murderer, starting back in amazement at the sight of the public detective, replied over his head, in a calm, even tone. And the man sank back with a gasp of despair.

"I am known as Old Sleuth, the detective," replied over his head, in a calm, even tone. And the man sank back with a gasp of despair.

The chapters must be short, too, in order to keep up a constant process of suspense throughout the narrative. Most of the writers of the thriller school have their type—machine guns, airplanes, a little device such as a telephone, a motor car, which records the exact number of words. Then whenever the writer finds that he has written 600 words or more of a chapter, he knows that it is time to speed up and to take a grade.

This word indicator also serves to notify the writer when the story itself must be brought to a close. The manuscripts must not vary more than 200 or 300 words, as the publishers arrange for the same number of pages each week. Hence when the writer finds himself within a few words of his limit, he knows well that it is high time to round up every outlying villain not already brought to heel, and work up to the culminating thrill of the whole adventure.

At the additional mechanical aid of some noted writer kept a card index of thrills. Let us suppose the writer thinks of using the appearance of a hand holding a telephone as a closing sensation of chapter XII. He looks at this card index and finds that he has not used it for a long time. He uses it in a story he wrote up six weeks previous. So he runs through the cards and finds a thrill that he has not used, but which has never been used—the discovery of a dying man in the roadway with the missing papers in his inside coat pocket. He decides also another thrill or two that he hasn't used for more than a year, and finally selects the one that seems to dovetail most neatly into his immediate needs.

The most difficult thing, the writers say, is the selection of a title—the sort of a title that will make people stop at the newsstands with a keen desire to know further particulars. Not infrequently the title will be the last thing supplied to the story.

In order to produce 30,000 or 50,000 words a week the author cannot take time for revision of manuscript. Yet the original typewritten manuscript of a blood and thunder narrative, just as the writer ground it out page by page, is usually as good copy as a printer could desire. Probably not more than a word to the page has been changed.

And for the demonstration of genius and physical endurance necessary to produce from 20,000 to 50,000 words of excitement a week the writers receive from $125 to $150 for each story.

"What man?" asked the clerk.

Northern Minnesota, Land of Opportunity

Chorus of Minnesota Boosters.

A Sign of Progress.

Virginia Enterprise: Editor Hitchcock of the Hibbing Tribune has successfully made the automobile trip from Hibbing to Bemidji. It took him four hours and he only encountered four miles of bad road and that will be fixed up this summer. Truly Northern Minnesota is growing. Five years ago an Indian couldn't have gotten from Hibbing to Bemidji on foot to say nothing of an automobile negotiating the trip.

A Tribute From the South.

Cambridge Independent Press: The visit of the Northern Minnesota Editorial association at International Falls, Spooner, Houghton and Warroad was a revelation to the editors and members of their respective families who took the trip. Not only were all happy over the fine welcome accorded on every hand, but the wealth and prosperity found in the extreme north of our state was good to behold.

Though but a few years old the towns above mentioned have grown to be among the best in the state and will be long before the central and southern cities and villages can hope to doff their hats to their northern sisters.

Returns Quick and Big.

Deerwood Times: It was only a short time ago that Minnesota newspapers were announcing the first season of the season. Now they are using space to tell about the "first harvesting of the fall crop." Time surely flies in Northern Minnesota—swiftly to the man who makes his home on the Northern Minnesota farm. The seasons are short and the crops are big—and a good many Northern Minnesota farmers are now carrying two money bags, where a few years ago—when they lived in Indiana, Illinois or Iowa—they carried only one, and a small one at that.

Local Garden of Eden.

Carlton Vidette: A man was "taken up" in the northern part of the state a few days ago because he claimed to have discovered the Garden of Eden in Duluth. He may be crazy but he has the right idea, and maybe he is right. Lots of us who are not at Duluth think that Adam would have had no trouble in bringing Eve to Northern Minnesota.

Surprised the Editors.

Browns Valley Tribune: That was evidently a fine trip recently taken by the Northern Minnesota editors. They had as guests many of the quill pushers from the south half of the state, and what those Southern Minnesota boys saw up north was a revelation.

What State Should Do.

Northern Record: E. W. Backus made a speech before the Minnesota legislature at Spooner in which he emphasized the needs of Northern Minnesota in having at least two model agricultural farms established by the state in this section for the benefit and encouragement of the kind of farming necessary in a wooded country. He also said that it was not right or proper for the state of Minnesota to have a large tract of land free from taxation while the actual settler who does all the hard work and makes the state land more valuable as a result of his labor, is compelled to pay a very high tax to maintain the improvements. We believe he is right on both propositions.

The Charm of Old Houses

Indianapolis News: Old houses are to be revered, and the person who demolishes one commits a kind of sacrilege which the pressure of necessity or old house such as a telephone, a motor car, which records the exact number of words. LAST TRIBUTE TO POPE PIUS Catholics of Duluth Will Hold Special Memorial Services.

Bishop McGolrick Tells of Visit to Vatican—Choosing Successor.

Catholics the world over will deeply mourn the loss of Pope Pius X, whose death occurred at the Vatican in Rome early today.

According to the Rt. Rev. James McGolrick, bishop of the diocese of Duluth, arrangements for special memorial services for the pope will be announced within a short time. The order will come from St. Paul and will be observed in every parish throughout the archdiocese.

Today Catholic priests throughout the world are conducting private services and are offering up holy sacrifices. Bishop McGolrick was deeply moved by the death of Pope Pius X. He said: "I have a very happy remembrance of my visits to the Vatican when I was in Rome five years ago. It was a great satisfaction to me to have an opportunity to visit the great, good and holy man. I remember him well. He seemed particularly affectionate and attached to those bishops who had traveled so far to see him, to those who had crossed the ocean. While in Rome I visited him frequently."

Tried to Stop War. Bishop McGolrick said that he had no doubt but that his grief over the European war hastened his death. "He was most anxious for peace," said the bishop, "and from the very beginning he did everything he could to stop the powers from fighting. He exerted his influence in an effort to prevent Austria and Serbia from going to war but when Germany declared war he felt unable to do anything which might avert the slaughter."

Choosing Successor. The bishop stated that as soon after the burial of the pope as possible cardinals from all parts of the world would be summoned to Rome for a conclave and that one of their number would be chosen to succeed to the papal throne. Just where the pontiff will be buried the bishop was unable to state. In past years, he said, it has been customary for the pope to select his final resting place. One of them have been buried in the Vatican and others in some of the Catholic churches of Rome.

Exhortation for Peace. One of the last official acts of Pope Pius X was to issue an exhortation for peace. It was issued from Rome Aug. 2, but was not received in Duluth until yesterday. The bishop has notified the churches of his parish to conduct special prayer for peace among the nations of Europe. They will be added to the prayers of the masses in the services of all churches in the diocese.

GERMAN FLEET ALL BOTTLED UP

cross the river Meuse between Liège and Namur. German outposts have occupied Dyle. The retirement of the French frontier by the German movement described above. There is a persistent rumor here that the Germans have occupied Brussels, but it cannot be confirmed.

Crossed the Meuse. London, Aug. 20.—An official communication, issued at Paris this morning, states that very large German forces are crossing the Meuse between Liège and Namur. The statement continues:

"The French army is making a stand on the left bank of the river at the end of the day, have reached Delme on one side of the river and Morhange on the other." A dispatch to the Times from Paris states that the first point at which the French crossed the French frontier was at Ciry-sur-Vesouise. Since then there has been continued fighting in that region until a day or two ago when it ended by the victorious entrance of the French forces who inflicted a decisive defeat on the enemy and drove them across the frontier east of Lunéville.

Desperate Struggle. The correspondent says that the heroic reports of the French minister of war give little idea of the desperate struggle that occurred around the handful of villages scattered along the French frontier.

Point after point was taken and retaken. At one stage the other. He gives the following story of the fighting at the village of Badonville, which was the scene of the fiercest fighting. "The village was occupied by a battalion of chasseurs as a covering force and was prepared for defense by numerous trenches. The battle began on Aug. 16. The French forces who held the village, compelling the chasseurs to evacuate it. The latter retired on Gelles and afterward took up a position on Donan ridge.

After midnight the Germans increased the bombardment and the inhabitants sought refuge in cellars as a continuous rain of shells kept crashing the houses and setting them afire. It was a terrible sight. Women fell on their knees and prayed, while children cried piteously.

"The chasseurs retired, defending every house foot by foot, and making the Germans feel their fire. The sun rose on a village in ruins. It had been under bombardment fifteen hours. When the Germans entered they fired first on all the windows and down loop-holes into the cellars. No corner was spared."

captured twelve German field guns and took many prisoners.

News of military developments issued by the official bureau becomes more brief as the great masses of German and Austrian troops approach the opposing forces of the Belgians, French and British, and indications of the positions occupied are entirely suppressed. This morning's note sent out by the French war office just mentions the important events are occurring in Belgium, and adds that there is nothing new along the front in Alsace-Lorraine.

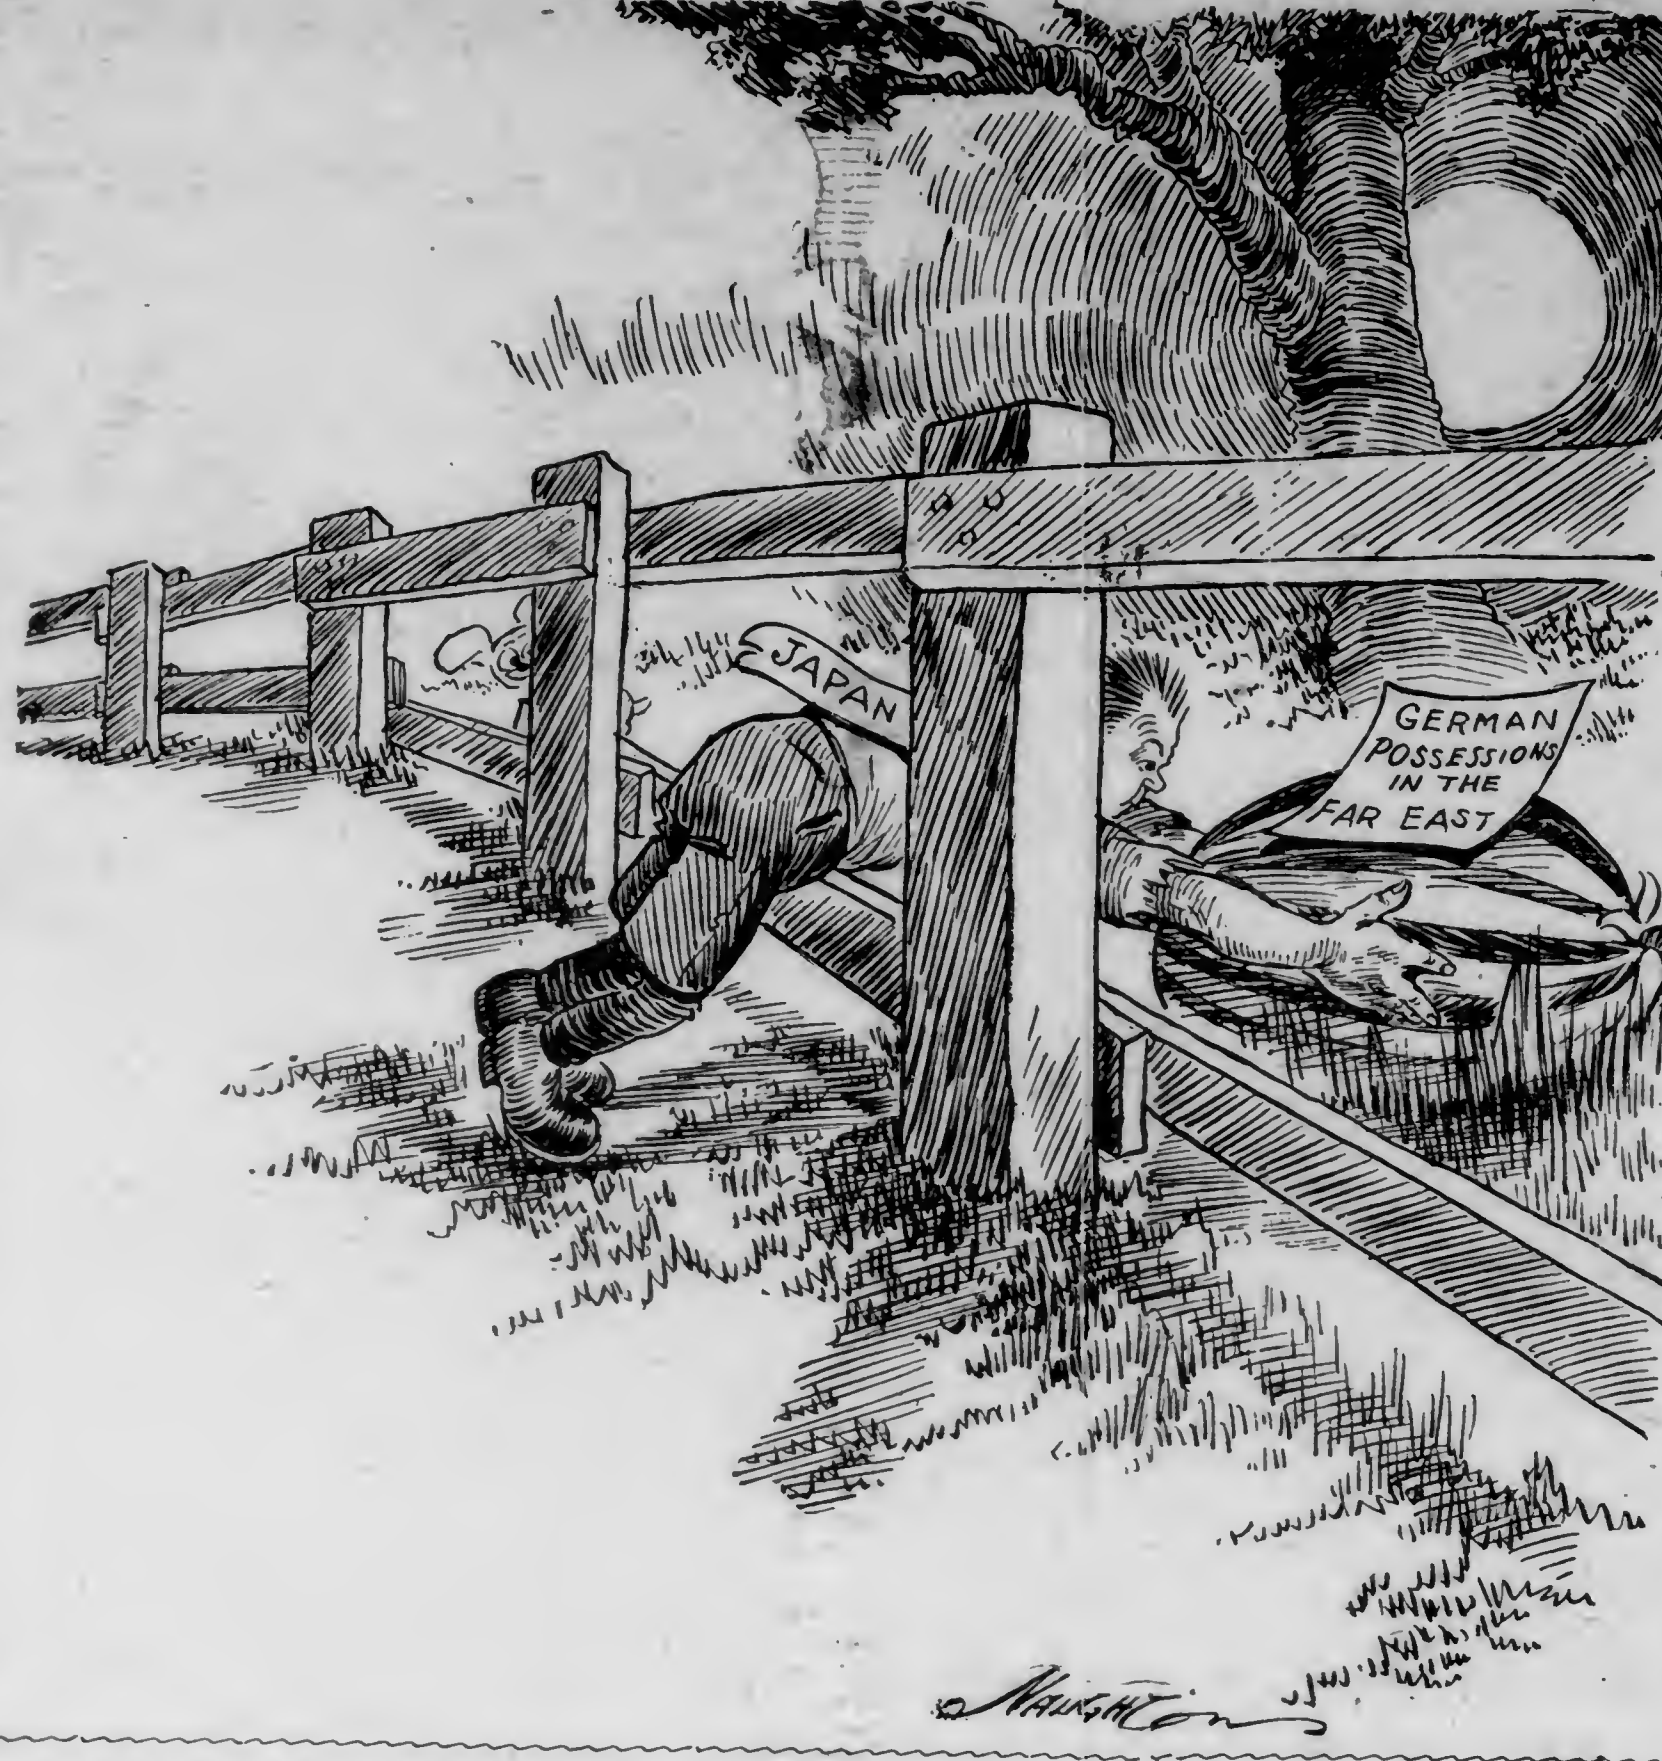

French official advice announce the rapid progress of the French column invading Lorraine in the direction of Metz.

Two sons of Emperor William, Prince, Prince Friedrich and August Wilhelm, are said to have passed through Liège on the way to the frontier.

where they have incorporated an army corps in the Serbian army.

The small German and British forces stationed in the African colonies are carrying out raids in each other's territory. The Germans in East Africa today invaded the British protectorate.

The question of providing work for those thrown out of employment by the war occupied the cabinet council, which decided to start work shops and labor yards.

AMERICANS CARED FOR

Douglas, Ariz., who has just come from Germany, said:

"Americans in Germany have no cause for complaint. Their treatment could not be better. The Hotel Bristol in Berlin placed 130 rooms at the disposal of Americans who were financially embarrassed owing to difficulties in cashing checks. Many private families opened their houses to Americans."

Americans in London. London, Aug. 20.—Thousands of Americans gather daily at the Savoy hotel, where the greatest hotel in the world is a scene of activity. A score of tea rooms and private dining rooms have been given over to the American citizens and American residents who are providing for the wants of residents of the United States stranded in Europe.

Every morning, when the doors of the hotel are thrown open at 10 o'clock, an army of American tourists rushes to the various information booths in search of information concerning the probable sailings of steamers to the United States.

Ten bankers and their clerks are kept constantly busy providing money for travelers with travelers' checks. Committees of representatives of the various professions and industries of persons who have exhausted their funds, hold tickets on the steamship lines which have discontinued sailings.

A large postoffice force handles the mail for the stranded Americans. All letters and cablegrams sent in care of the American embassy are now being turned over to the relief committees.

Leveled by the War. Men and women of all ages, milliners, humble workmen, school teachers and society ladies dressed in elaborate evening gowns are now being shouldered in the crowd seeking assistance from the relief workers.

The war has put all foreigners on one level. Americans struggle into London from all parts of the world. Men of all ages, all equally helpless. Most of them are provided with travelers' checks, but few have money. They are of little use to them in Berlin, Geneva and London.

ters that the conclave for the election of a new pope may be adjourned. The reason is that under the present circumstances it might be distasteful to the British, French and Belgian cardinals to meet with their Austrian and German colleagues.

"First of All, Catholics." At Westminster cathedral, however, it was thought that a postponement of the conclave was most unlikely. Cardinal Bourne's secretary said: "We are, first of all, Catholics, rather than nationalists. The presence of a pope is now more than ever necessary. Cardinal Bourne is starting next Saturday to attend the conclave."

Statement by Mooney. New York, Aug. 20.—Upon learning of the death of the new Right Rev. Monsignor Joseph F. Mooney, administrator of the archdiocese of New York, issued a statement in part as follows: "Pope Pius concluded a few days ago the eleventh year of his pontificate, succeeding the highly intellectual and scholarly Leo XIII. In these respects he was not his predecessor. For that matter, there were not many in the list of the papacy who could be deemed superior to Pope XIII. In mental ability, questions connected with the intellectual life, as to speak, and the international policy of the church, attracted naturally and engaged the activity of Leo XIII, and their treatment characterized his career as sovereign pontiff."

The Monsignor said the sixty-six cardinals would start for Rome from their various countries as soon as they learned of the pope's death.

Died at 1:20 A. M. Paris, Aug. 20.—The correspondent at Rome of the Havas News Agency in a dispatch received here this morning says:

"The moment the pope's heart ceased to beat was 1:20 o'clock Thursday morning."

It is believed that the body of Pope Pius will be placed in a casket this afternoon, and that the lying-in-state will be in the same throne room where so many thousands people already were admitted to the presence of the late pontiff.

The celebrating of masses for the repose of the soul of Pope Pius began at 11 o'clock.

These were the only official communications received.

Was Profound Shock. The announcement came as a profound shock to the delegate and members of his staff, and while not entirely unexpected, in view of the warning of Cardinal del Val, yet the trying circumstances surrounding the death of the venerable pontiff made a deep impression. Mgr. Bonzano, the delegate in strict seclusion and asked to be excused from making any comment beyond the expression of his deep grief. There will be a period of official mourning and probably a memorial ceremony at a later date, at which the apostolic delegate will officiate.

SOME INDICTMENTS ARE EXPECTED FROM FOOD PRICE INQUIRY

Attorney General Has Reported Progress to President.

Cities Where True Bills Are Looked for Are Not Told.

Wilkinson in Chicago Has Disappeared for a Time.

Washington, Aug. 21.—Attorney General McKendall expects several indictments to be returned within the next few days as the result of the investigation ordered by President Wilson of the increase in food prices since the outbreak of war in Europe. Government officials would not say today in what cities the indictments would be sought, but it was declared no effort would be made to localize the prosecutions in any particular part of the country.

Mr. McKendall has been in frequent communication with the White House since the investigation was started, and expects to make his formal report soon. The president has directed that prosecutions be pressed vigorously.

No Word in Chicago. Chicago, Aug. 21.—Whether any of the indictments expected as a result of the government's investigation of wartime prices will be returned here could not be ascertained today. James H. Wilkinson, United States district attorney, was not at his office and his assistants, who continued to

WAR RISK BILL IS PASSED BY SENATE

Only Two Hours Spent in Debating Emergency Measure.

Washington, Aug. 21.—The senate passed today, after two hours debate, the emergency war risk insurance bill, carrying an appropriation of $5,000,000 for the purpose of insuring American vessels and cargoes against the hazards of war.

The bill was amended by unanimous consent before passage, the provision that rates of insurance be fixed on an equality with those imposed by belligerent nations which employ government insurance being stricken out.

President Wilson discussed the war risk insurance bill today with Senators Shreve, Salisbury and Burton, and with several members of the house. He expressed a desire that the proposed legislation be enacted as soon as possible.

The president is not committed to any detailed plan as to the proposal that the government should move American crops to Europe. Senator Clark of Arkansas worked on a bill last night and hoped to have it ready for introduction tonight.

NO WEEK-END CRUISE FOR THE PRESIDENT

Washington, Aug. 21.—President Wilson decided definitely today not to take a week-end trip on the Mayflower, feeling it necessary to remain in Washington over Sunday, because of the many pressing questions growing out of the European war.

White House officials, believing the president in need of a rest, had been urging him to take the trip.

BRINGS NIECE FROM MUNICH

Dr. Franklin Martin of Chicago Tells of European Trip.

Finds Americans as Safe in Germany as in Chicago.

London, Aug. 21, 1:20 p. m.—Dr. Franklin Martin of Chicago, who left here a week ago for Munich to bring out his niece, Miss Stone, also of Chicago, returned to London this morning.

His trip was successful, for Miss Stone is with him. Dr. Martin tells a story full of interesting experiences on the continent. He attempted first to make his way to Munich, by way of Paris and Bern, Switzerland, but was not successful. He was unable to proceed beyond Paris.

Stories related to him of the hardships endured by Americans marooned in Germany, but he found that the second attempt, and in company with John Moran of New York, whose wife was last heard from in Munich, he started again through Holland.

RELIEF FUNDS ORDERED PAID

Washington Directs Disbursement By Consular Officers.

Complaints Made in England Puzzle U. S. Authorities.

Washington, Aug. 21.—There will be no further delay in disbursing to Americans in Europe the fund deposited by relatives and friends with the treasury departments and forwarded to the consular offices in Europe. Orders have gone forward from the treasury department today, directing treasury disbursing officers and consular officers abroad to begin payment in accordance with lists furnished by depositors.

For Americans in Berlin.

London, Aug. 21, 1:15 p. m.—Henry S. Breckinridge, American assistant secretary of war, is expected to arrive at the Hague today. He left Portsmouth last night on the American cruiser Tennessee for Rotterdam, and will go immediately to The Hague to make arrangements for getting money to Berlin for the relief of Americans stranded there.

The American embassy here still is without authority to turn over to Americans the money deposited for them in Washington. Hundreds of Americans here expressed volubly their feelings of exasperation at not being able to obtain money yesterday which friends have deposited for them with the treasury department at Washington.

No Money Ready.

They called at the American embassy by appointment at 1 o'clock yesterday at The Hague today, but to the embassy officials that the money would be available then. Reaching the embassy, however, they were informed that no instructions had been received.

MAKE SWITZERLAND EUROPE'S HOSPITAL

Berne Government's Proposal Has Not Yet Been Accepted.

New York, Aug. 21.—Dr. Ritter, the Swiss minister, who came to New York from Washington at the outbreak of the war, announced that a meeting would be held in the Swiss home here today to arrange an appeal to Swiss-born residents of the United States, numbering about 150,000, to contribute to the general Red Cross fund of Switzerland.

The Swiss government practically has offered to turn the country into one great hospital to care for the wounded of Europe, regardless of their nationality.

As yet no notice of the attitude of the European governments toward the proposal has been received here. In case the warring nations refuse to take advantage of Switzerland's offer, which is doubtful, Dr. Ritter said, the money raised will be used to purchase food in this country for shipment to Europe.

PARIS CONSIDERS WAR IS GOING WELL.

Paris, Aug. 21, 3:10 p. m.—The official news bulletin issued by the French war office today says: "Up to the twentieth day of the French mobilization, despite the assurances of German writers, even those of the German general staff, the German navy, obtained any of the decisive advantages they counted upon. Moreover, the enemy has not been able to carry the war on to our territory. This advantage has at least a moral value which is worth noting."

ROME'S INTEREST CENTERS IN COMING CARDINALS' MEETING

Possibility of Division Due to War Is Considered.

Late Pope's Physician Tells of Pontiff's Illness.

Rome, Aug. 21.—Rome mourned deeply today the death of Pope Pius X, but the sorrow did not prevent the active furtherance of preparations for the holding of a conclave of the sacred college of cardinals for the election of a new head of the church. There was much speculation as to the probable outcome of the election, but the view appeared to prevail that owing to the divided state of Europe just now it was almost certain that an Italian would be chosen, as the Italian cardinals form the strongest section of the sacred college.

Officials Obey Custom. As a preliminary to the meeting of the cardinals, the papal secretary of state, Cardinal Merry del Val, gave up his office in accordance with custom and all the other high officials of the Vatican did likewise.

Cardinal Merry del Val delivered into the hands of Cardinal Della Volpe the whole machinery of the Catholic church, giving him at the same time a detailed report of all business.

With Cardinal Merry del Val retire all the other high officials and heads of departments at the holy see, whom the late pope may reappoint if he so desires.

The late pope's physician, Dr. Marchisani, declares in an interview that his patient suffered much physically.

Recommends Pensions for Sisters and Valet—Ignores Niece.

Rome, Aug. 20, 11:25 p. m., via Paris, Aug. 21, 8:50 a. m.—Nothing is officially known about the late pope's will, but the Giornale d'Italia says it is drawn in humble pious language. It slanders a pension of $60 monthly each, but does not mention his niece, Cilla Parolin. It also expresses the desire that a pension of $12 monthly be granted to his valet.

The will contains a recommendation that the burial be a simple one in the crypt of St. Peter's. It concludes by invoking God's forgiveness for the sins which the testator may have committed, especially as pontiff.

LIEBKNECHT'S DEATH DENIED BY GERARD

Chicago, Aug. 21.—Walter Lanfersiek, national secretary of the Socialist party, has received a telegram from William J. Bryan, secretary of state, saying that the United States has no truth in the rumor that Dr. Carl Liebknecht, the German Socialist, had been executed.

WHERE FRENCH AND GERMAN FORCES HAVE ALTERNATED.

PUBLIC SQUARE AND CITY HALL AT MUELHAUSEN.

NEWS OF THE WAR, TOLD IN ABBREVIATED FORM

"The most formidable shock in history," will occur on Belgian soil, according to French military experts, when the great armies of Germany and Austria on the one side and the allied troops of Belgium, France and Britain on the other, come into close contact.

No definite information as to the place where the decisive encounter is to occur is permitted to pass the censor, but the general view of the French army declares itself confident of fighting under the best auspices for its own forces.

Not a shot was fired by the Belgians when they entered Brussels was made yesterday by an advance guard of German cavalry. This advance guard, it was reported, was to be followed today by a strong column of German troops encamped in the vicinity.

After the departure of the Belgian troops from the capital communication was cut off between that city and other parts of Belgium and abroad. The temporary capital of the country, Antwerp, whether the Belgians have retired, is understood to be strongly fortified, and military correspondents declare the preparations for the defense extend over an enormous area, while it has been provisioned for a long time.

British and French warships bombarded and greatly damaged Cattaro, an Austrian seaport, on Wednesday.

Liban, the Russian Baltic seaport, was badly damaged during its two-hour bombardment by a German fleet, according to the captain of a Swedish steamer. The inhabitants were panic-stricken.

German warships are reported to have destroyed the harbor works at Pango, Finland.

Japan is making active preparations in view of the approaching expiration on Sunday of the time limit of her ultimatum to Germany. It is expected she will at once move on Kiao-Chow, the German protectorate in China.

A final call to arms, affecting all able-bodied men from 20 to 42 years old, has been issued by the Austrian government.

An Anglo-American Rough Riders' corps has been formed in Paris and its services have been accepted by the French ministry of war.

AMERICANS THANK FRANCE FOR HELP.

Paris, Aug. 21, 1:12 p. m.—The French foreign office has received through Myron T. Herrick, the American ambassador, a letter of thanks from Mortimer L. Schiff of New York for the facilities afforded a large party of Americans, including himself, so that they might leave Aix-les-Bains.

The letter says: "We were all very much impressed by the great courtesy and attention shown to us by every French government official with whom we came into contact."

PARIS SAYS INVADERS ARE IN BAD FIX

Antwerp Is Regarded as Doubly Valuable to the Allies.

Anglo-Belgian Wires, Except to Antwerp, Are Stilled.

Liege Forts Are Declared By French to Be Holding Out.

Paris, Aug. 21, 2:55 p. m.—Official news made public in Paris today says that the German forces continued to pass the Meuse in the vicinity of Huy, and that an important concentration is being carried out in Belgium this (Friday) morning.

No French territory is occupied by the enemy, except a piece of enclosed land at Audun-le-Ronan, in the department of Meurthe and Moselle.

London, Aug. 21, 3:20 p. m.—Yesterday was about the date when, according to the forecasts of their own and other military writers of Europe, the German troops were due to appear before the walls of Paris.

According to French official advice, the German intention to pass Brussels road. The Germans themselves are naturally silent, but there is no doubt that they are quite as well aware of the difficulties of this route as are their opponents.

The German forces have yet been attacked, or rather had not been at the time of the latest advice.

On the German left, where three Austrian army corps are said to have reinforced them, the battle is said to be developing a front of nearly forty miles, and according to French reports, nothing is heard from the German side.

An impenetrable curtain has been drawn over the operations in the center of the battle line, where the main French army is co-operating in the fighting.

The Russian advance in East Prussia apparently stretches over a front of sixty miles between Stulupen and Lyck, but the Russian invaders have not yet gained much German ground.

Little is heard of the Austrian operations at present, but it is known that Austrian convoys are moving along the Rhine to meet the French advancing in Alsace.

Dirigible Throws Bombs.

Paris, Aug. 21, 3:12 p. m.—A French dirigible last night threw a number of projectiles upon two German camps in Belgium, causing great excitement. Despite the fire of the enemy the aircraft returned safely to the French lines.

An official statement says: "In conformity with a prearranged plan, the Belgian field army retreated from the entrenched camp at Antwerp, after brilliantly fulfilling its duty as decided by the strategic situation, and delaying for a fortnight the German passage of the Meuse."

Antwerp's Double Role.

Antwerp has a double role. It is a formidable, entrenched camp, fortified on most modern lines, and is the base from which the Belgian army can threaten the German flank and co-operate effectively with the allies.

The Antwerp defenses consist of three fortifications, whose power of resistance can be heightened by flooding a large area around the camp. Antwerp is fully equipped with the most perfect appliances. To besiege the fortress the Germans would have to detach imposing forces and a large force of heavy guns.

STORY OF DEATH OF POPE'S SISTER FALSE

Report Is Laid to Error in Telegraphic Dispatch.

London, Aug. 21.—An erroneous statement was made public in London late last night and telegraphed to New York that Anna Sarto, sister of the late Pope Pius X, had died in Rome shortly after the passing away of her brother. Shock, caused by the pontiff's death, was given as the cause. It appears today that this report was the result of a telegraphic error, which occurred in the transmission of a dispatch from Rome. The pope's sister is alive, although suffering from shock. She was already indisposed when the pontiff was taken ill and yesterday she was obliged to take to her bed. She is under the care of Dr. Amici.

SOME INDICTMENTS ARE EXPECTED FROM FOOD PRICE INQUIRY

Attorney General Has Reported Progress to President.

Mr. McKeen has been in frequent communication with the White House since the investigation was started, and expects to make his final report soon. The recent has directed that prosecutions be pressed vigorously.

No Word in Chicago.

WAR RISK BILL IS PASSED BY SENATE

Only Two Hours Spent in Debating Emergency Measure.

Washington, Aug. 21.—The senate passed today, after two hours debate, the emergency war risk insurance bill, carrying an appropriation of $5,000,000 for the purpose of insuring American vessels and cargoes against the hazards of war.

The bill was amended by unanimous consent before passage, the provision that rates of insurance be fixed on an equality with those imposed by belligerent nations which employ government insurance being stricken out.

President Wilson discussed the war risk insurance bill today with Senators Shively, Saulsbury and Burton, and with several members of the house. He expressed a desire that to begin legislation be enacted as soon as possible.

The president is not committed to any detailed plan as to the proposal that the government purchase wheat to move American crops to Europe. Senator Clark of Arkansas worked on a bill but failed to have it ready for introduction tonight.

NO WEEK-END CRUISE FOR THE PRESIDENT

Washington, Aug. 21.—President Wilson decided definitely today not to take a week-end trip on the Mayflower, feeling it necessary to remain in Washington over Sunday, because of the many pressing questions growing out of the European war.

White House officials, believing the president is in need of a rest, have been urging him to take the trip.

ADVICE TO MERCHANTS

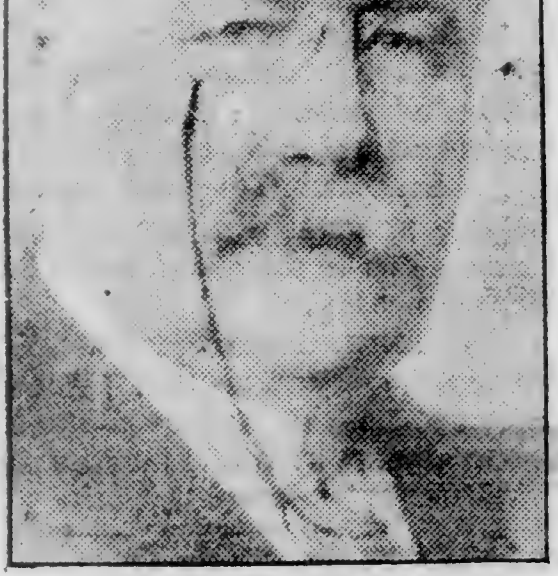

Cover Needs Promptly and Don't Speculate, Is F. A. Patrick's Warning.

Administration's Course Compels Admiration and Confidence, He Says.

The effect of the European war situation on the retail dry goods trade has been the subject of much conjecture on the part of retail merchants in all parts of Duluth's trade territory. F. A. Patrick, president of F. A. Patrick & Co., Duluth's large wholesale dry goods and woolen manufacturing concern, has been receiving so many inquiries as to the probable trend of the market that he has sent out to all Northwestern dry goods stores a letter of merchandising counsel.

This letter is headed: "What Should the Prudent Merchant Do?" Mr. Patrick brings to bear on the much discussed question an experience and wide knowledge of manufacturing and merchandising that gives his trade letter the prestige of authority and makes it of unusual interest to merchants and consumers alike.

"So many, within the past few days, have asked for my ideas," writes Mr. Patrick, "with regard to the probable course of the markets in dry goods lines that I feel that a general letter to you upon the subject may be of interest, possibly of value to you."

F. A. PATRICK.

"This country finds itself in a situation unprecedented. No past experience is available for our guidance. We can only guess at the course of future events and their effects."

"We now realize to some extent how dependent the countries of the world have been upon each other as we did not a short three weeks ago."

"We have prided ourselves upon the independent position occupied by our United States only to find that many of our important industries will have to close down soon unless some way can be found to furnish them with the supplies and materials they have been receiving from foreign sources."

"The dry goods business is certainly very seriously affected. New York city is the great center of supply and buyers in its markets were never so numerous in all its history."

"Wholesalers, generally, are endeavoring to replenish their stocks from nearer sources, while manufacturers in turn are vainly endeavoring to secure the foreign materials required by them. Of course, under such conditions, advances in prices have been numerous."

"It is reported that about 90 per cent of the dye stuffs used in this country are imported from Germany and that the supplies at the cotton, woolen and silk mills of this country making colored goods cannot, on the average, last over sixty to ninety days. A little study of your dry goods stock will show you that the greater part of it is affected by this condition.

"Of course, linens, gloves, hosiery, toys, many notions and other goods of foreign manufacture are in tremendous demand at advanced prices, and stocks in the hands of importers are rapidly becoming depleted."

"There is one class of goods which, in my opinion, may remain at present prices or go even lower. I refer to sheetings, ducks and other uncolored cotton goods. The demand for raw cotton from foreign countries is cut off and prices are lower, and such goods should naturally be lower in price, unless the United States finds sufficient demand from South America and Asia and other countries not at war, for this class of goods, to offset the decline in price of raw cotton."

"Then, too, England may acquire such control of the seas that she and France may be able to resume to some extent the purchase of cotton from us."

"In my opinion, the prudent merchant will lose no time in covering his needs for the fall season as rapidly as possible, buying what he feels he can use and pay for."

"Many of you have already received, or are about to receive, the goods purchased earlier for fall delivery, and to such I would say, check carefully through your stock and where you find any weak spots send in your orders to cover your probable needs."

"Those who have not yet bought I would say, see our salesmen or get to Duluth as soon as possible. If neither is convenient, use the new catalogue and send in your orders. Our stocks are still in good shape and we are losing no opportunities to reinforce them."

"As to prices, I would say that on a very large proportion of our stocks I am sure you will find a price which will give you a profit on your present stocks."

"There is, however, another considerable proportion of all wholesale stocks which wholesalers are accustomed to fill in on from month to month, just as you do in your stocks, and it is on these lines that you must anticipate advances as we have to pay them."

"You, in turn, should secure corresponding advances from your customers. Feel confident that most of them will realize and appreciate conditions, especially if you make careful explanation to them. Those in the agricultural sections, who are receiving largely advanced prices for their grain and livestock, should need little in the way of explanation."

"What I have said I mean to apply only to business for this fall. The contingencies and the possibilities for fall are too numerous and momentous to warrant advice or predictions. Our manufacturers are resourceful and energetic and ways may be found to meet these new conditions. Our administration is capable of meeting the situations that are arising in a way that compels our admiration and our confidence. The merchant who speculates on the future may make some very serious mistakes."

Europe, Africa and Asia in Shadow; Partially Dark in United States.

Washington, Aug. 21.—A total eclipse of the sun, which cast complete darkness over a strip eighty-five miles wide through Russia, Scandinavia, Asia Minor, Persia and India, was only partly visible in the United States, but was observed by astronomers at the naval observatory here.

All Europe, a portion of Africa and Asia, however, fell within its shadow. It was not visible in this country farther south than Washington north of North Dakota. The shadow fell upon the earth first in Hudson's bay and disappeared on the east coast of Africa, just north of the equator.

The eclipse in Duluth was so slight that it was not noticeable.

KANSAS GAS COMPANY RECEIVERSHIP OVER.

St. Louis, Mo., Aug. 21.—The Federal receivership of the Kansas Natural Gas company, which was created in 1912, was dissolved by the terms of an order filed in the circuit court here yesterday by Circuit Judge Hughes Hook and Smith.

Ensign Graham, who has been in charge of the Salvation Army work here for several years, left Wednesday night for St. Paul, where he will have a similar position with the St. Paul corps.

Mr. Graham will be succeeded by Adjutant T. W. Parkhouse of Grand Forks.

MORTGAGE IS FORECLOSED

Property of New York Steel Company Will Be Sold.

Failed to Pay Interest on Bond Issue of $3,350,000.

Federal Judge Morris early yesterday afternoon entered orders for foreclosure against the New York Steel company et al, directing that the property of the defendant company, which has defaulted in the terms of its mining leases on the Mesabi range and failed to pay interest on its bond issue of Oct. 1, 1912, for $3,350,000, be sold at public auction and the money received be paid the Commonwealth Trust company of New York, which took over the bonds of the company and the mortgages on the properties.

H. A. Carmichael, formerly city attorney, was appointed special master to have charge of the sale.

The decree of the federal court is similar to the one entered by the Federal Judge in Buffalo, declaring the steel company bankrupt and as having defaulted in all its mining leases, mortgages, leases and bond interest. Receivers were appointed at the time by the court and the property in New York state was sold for $770,000 and the money paid all taxes and partly returned to the bondholders, three of whom started the original suit on April 2, 1912.

In Minnesota the steel company owns several properties near Virginia and Aurora in the past two years it has defaulted in its leases on the Roberts, Larkin, Kellogg and Knox mines, all in St. Louis.

Washburn, Bailey & Mitchell of this city, attorneys for the Commonwealth Trust company, brought suit last spring against the New York Steel company, the receivers appointed by the New York court, the E. J. Du Pont de Nemours Powder company, the M. A. Hanna company, the McKay, John Aro, Isaac Lamppa and Cyrille Fortier, Ernest Porter, Alfred Becker and Theodore J. Wickwire, Jr., were the receivers of the defendant steel company's property in New York state. The case was later set for the July term, at which time the Trust company dismissed its complaint against the Powder company and Cyrille Fortier and Isaac Lamppa.

Mortgage in Valid. In his decree Judge Morris states that the mortgage of the property taken over by the trust company is valid and constitutes a first lien. As the action taken in the Minnesota courts is ancillary to the one in New York state, the court practically makes the same finding. The steel company was foreclosed in New York and the receivers were subsequently appointed to take charge of the property, sell the same and turn the money over to the holders of bonds that were issued in 1912. The New York properties were sold for $770,000.

The court yesterday ruled that the defendant company defaulted in the terms of every mining lease, mortgage, lease, but merely the property owned by the steel company. There is still due $96,550 interest on the 1912 bond issue and taxes to the authorities in Buffalo and St. Louis.

Judge Morris instructs Special Master Carmichael to sell lots 8, 9, 10 of block 98, First Vinton addition, and lot 22, block 8, Second Aurora addition, also all the machinery and equipment owned by the steel company. The plaintiff must pay the costs of the suit from the proceeds of the sale. In addition to all other disbursements brought on by the hearing in the local court.

Courtney & Courtney, Francis W. Sullivan, John Samuelson and W. W. Sanford represented the various defendants.

FESLER TO SPEAK BEFORE STATE BAR

On Toast List of Annual Banquet at St. Paul Hotel.

Judge Bert Fesler of district court will be one of the speakers at the annual banquet of the Minnesota State Bar association this evening at the Saint Paul hotel, St. Paul.

Duluthians are prominently identified with the work of the convention. Yesterday John G. Williams, of this city, former president of the association, was appointed a member of the nominations committee.

Hugh V. Mercer, president of the association, in an address yesterday, urged the creation of a state license tax, which owners of automobiles, horses and "other dangerous instrumentalities" should pay. Mercer also criticized the practice of some attorneys in soliciting personal injury suits and recommended the passage of a law prohibiting such practices.

FIRST PART OF DUPLICATE LAID

City Installing Dual Water Supply System From Lakewood Station.

The laying of 1,600 feet of the duplicate force main has been completed and is now being connected with the original main. The connection at one end has been made and the other will be put in early next week. Each connection is supplied with a big valve to control the flow.

While the connections are being made the pumps at Lakewood are shut down and the city gets its water from the big reservoirs. The cost of the work being done this year is about $20,000.

A section of the duplicate main will be laid each year until the city has two big pipes leading from Lakewood to the city. The first is a forty-inch main, which has begun to show deterioration. The duplicate will be a thirty-six-inch cast iron main, which is said to have a longer life than the other.

ADVICE TO MERCHANTS

Cover Needs Promptly and Don't Speculate, Is F. A. Patrick's Warning.

Administration's Course Compels Admiration and Confidence, He Says.

The effect of the European war situation on the retail dry goods trade has been the subject of much conjecture on the part of retail merchants in all parts of Duluth's trade territory. F. A. Patrick, president of F. A. Patrick & Co., Duluth's large wholesale dry goods and woolen manufacturing concern, has been receiving so many inquiries as to the probable trend of the market that he has sent out to all Northwestern dry goods stores a letter of merchandising counsel.

This letter is headed: "What Should the Prudent Merchant Do?"

Mr. Patrick brings to bear on the much discussed situation an experience and wide knowledge of manufacturing and merchandising that gives his trade letter the prestige of authority and makes it of unusual interest to merchants and consumers alike.

"So many, within the past few days, have asked for my ideas," writes Mr. Patrick, "with regard to the probable course of the markets in dry goods lines that I feel that a general letter to you upon the subject may be of interest, possibly of value to you."

"This country finds itself in a situation of your dry goods stock will show you that the greater part of it is stocked by this condition."

"Of course, linens, gloves, hosiery, toys, many notions and other goods of foreign manufacture are in tremendous demand at advanced prices, and rapidly becoming depleted."

"There is one class of goods which, in my opinion, may remain at present prices or go even lower. I refer to sheetings, ducks and other uncolored cotton goods. The demand for raw cotton from foreign countries is cut off and prices are lower, and such goods should naturally be lower in price, unless the United States finds sufficient demand from South America and Asia and other countries not at war, for this class of goods, to offset the decline in price of raw cotton. Then, too, England may acquire such control of the seas that she and France may be able to resume to some extent the purchase of cotton from us."

"In my opinion, the prudent merchant will lose no time in covering his needs for the fall season as rapidly as possible, buying what he feels he can use and pay for."

"Many of you have already received, or are about to receive, the goods purchased earlier for fall delivery, and to such I would say, check carefully through your stock and where you find any weak spots send in your orders to cover your probable needs."

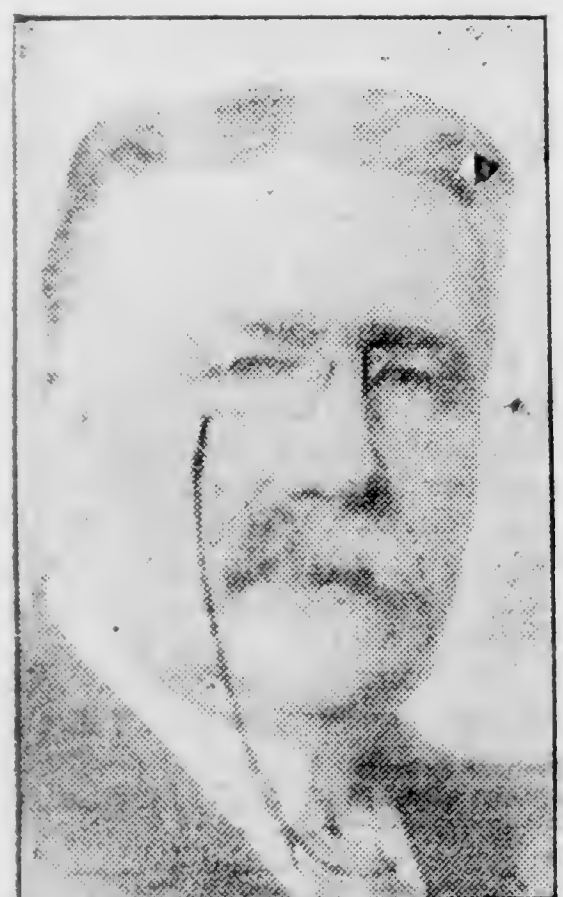

"To those who have not yet bought, I would say, see our salesmen or get to Duluth as soon as possible. If neither is convenient, use the new catalogue and send in your orders. Our stocks are still in good shape and we are losing no opportunities to reinforce them."

"As to prices, I would say that on a very large proportion of our stocks there is no change in price while our present stocks last."

"There is, however, another considerable proportion of all wholesale stocks which wholesalers are accustomed to fill in on from month to month, just as you do in your stocks, and it is on these lines that we must anticipate advances as we have to pay them."

"In turn, should secure corresponding advances from your customers. I feel confident that most of them will realize and appreciate conditions, especially if you make careful explanation to them. Those in the agricultural sections, who are receiving largely advanced prices for their grain and livestock, should need little in the way of explanation."

"What I have said I mean to apply only to business for this fall. The contingencies and the possibilities for 1915 are too numerous and momentous to warrant advice or predictions. Our manufacturers are resourceful and energetic and ways may be found to meet these new conditions. Our administration and our legislators are meeting the situations that are arising in a way that compels our admiration and our confidence. The merchant who speculates on the future may make some very serious mistakes."

tion unprecedented. No past experience is available for our guidance. We can only guess at the course of future events and their effects.

"We now realize to some extent how dependent the countries of the world have been upon each other, as we did not a short time ago."

"We have piled ourselves upon our United States only to find that many of our imports and materials will have to close down soon unless some way can be found to furnish them with the supplies and materials they have been receiving from foreign sources."

"The dry goods business is certainly very seriously affected. New York city is the great center of supply and buyers in its markets were never so numerous in all its history."

"Wholesalers are endeavoring to replenish their stocks from meager stock in the hands of importers and manufacturers, while manufacturers in turn are vainly endeavoring to secure the foreign materials required by them. Of course, under such conditions, advances in prices have been numerous."

"It is reported that about 50 per cent of the dry goods used in this country are imported from Germany and that the supplies at the cotton, woolen and silk mills of this country making colored goods cannot, on the average, last over sixty to ninety days. A little study of your dry goods stock will show you that the greater part of it is stocked by this condition."

MORTGAGE IS FORECLOSED

Property of New York Steel Company Will Be Sold.

Failed to Pay Interest on Bond Issue of $3,350,000.

Federal Judge Morris early yesterday afternoon entered a decree of foreclosure against the New York Steel company et al., directing that the property of the defendant company, which has defaulted in the terms of its mining leases on the Mesaba range and failed to pay interest on its bond issue of Oct. 1, 1912, for $3,350,000, be sold at public auction and the money received be paid the Commonwealth Trust company of New York, which took over the bonds of the company and the mortgage on the properties. H. A. Carmichael, formerly city attorney, was appointed special master to have charge of the sale.

"The decision of the local court is similar to the one entered by the Federal judge in Buffalo, declaring the steel company bankrupt and as having defaulted in all its mining leases, mortgages, taxes and bond interest. Receivers were appointed at the time by the court and the property in New York state was sold for $770,000 and the money paid all taxes and partly returned to the bondholders, three of whom started the original suit on April 2, 1912."

In Minnesota the steel company owns several properties near Virginia and Aurora. In the past two years it has defaulted in its leases on the Roberts, Leikin, Kellogg and Knox mines, all in St. Louis county.

Washburn, Bailey & Mitchell of this city attorneys for the Commonwealth Trust company, brought suit last spring against the New York Steel company, the receivers appointed by the New York court, the E. J. Du Pont de Nemours Powder company, the H. Hanna company, John Maki, John Aro, Isaac Lamppa and Cyrille Fortier. F. Ernest Porter, Alexander Becker and Theodore F. Wickwire, Jr., were the receivers of the defendant steel company's property in New York state. The case was later set for the July term, at which time the Trust company dismissed its complaint against the Powder company and Cyrille Fortier and Isaac Lamppa.

Mortgage Is Valid.

In his decree Judge Morris states that the mortgage of the property taken over by the trust company is valid and constitutes a first lien. As the action taken by the Minnesota courts is ancillary to the one in New York state, the latter practically makes the same findings. The trust deed was foreclosed in New York and receivers were appointed to take charge of the property, sell the same and turn the money over to the holders of bonds that were issued in 1912. The New York properties were sold for $770,000.

The court yesterday ruled that the defendant company defaulted in the terms of every mining lease. As in this state, as a result of which the leases have been canceled. The decree, therefore, does not cover these leases, but merely the property owned by the steel company. There is still $262,500 interest on the 1912 bond issue and taxes to the authorities in Buffalo and St. Louis.

Judge Morris instructs Special Master Carmichael to sell lots 8, 9, 10 of block 98, First York addition, and lot 22, block 8, Second Aurora addition, also all the machinery and equipment owned by the steel company. The plaintiff must pay the costs of the suit from the proceeds of the sale. In addition to all other disbursements brought on by the hearing in the local court.

NO INCREASE IN CLOTHES

Merchants See No Reason to Advance Prices on Apparel.

Holiday Goods and "Notions" Will Be Higher,
However.

Although prices of food may break
some altitude records this coming fall, Duluth men and women will find that the present European conflict is having but a slight effect on wearables.

Investigation this morning at the various department stores and clothing shops show that dry goods and wearing apparel are not reflecting the high prices noted in food lines, because the various houses have made their purchases early, their stocks are on hand, and there is no present reason for a price advance.

While the staple articles and dress goods will remain at the normal levels, many classes of novelties, perfumes and toilet waters, ivory trinkets and toys are already showing, or will soon show, an advance in prices. The holiday season will cost more because of the effect the war will have on a wide range of articles known as holiday goods.

However, it was the consensus of opinion of the various store managers this morning that Duluthians need not worry about any immediate advance in prices generally. This will be true until the holidays, at least, they say, and will undoubtedly change immediately upon the arrival of the "wring goods" after the new year. All of these articles will show an increase, they expect. Any re-orders between now and Christmas may also bring an increase in price, they say.

Next Day at Home.
According to the store managers,
Americans will be compelled to turn entirely to American manufacturers as a result of the war. An example of this may be shown in gloves. Kid gloves will advance and this will probably result in an enormous sale of silk gloves manufactured in this country, even though it be in winter and kid gloves are preferred.

Merchants in Duluth, dealing with the problem of notions and the war, are adjusting their lines to meet the people's wants. This is one way the war contingency will be met. While the fighting abroad puts a prohibitive price on some notion or article, some other line will be substituted to meet the demands and the established price.
"We do not want to increase any prices," is the attitude taken by all the merchants, "and we will not until our wholesale prices are raised. One thing is certain, there will be but a few slight increases from now on until Christmas, as we have our stocks all ordered. There will be exceptions, however, especially when we re-order certain lines. However, we would suggest that people who foreign made articles now and also stock up on notions and novelties before our stocks run out, as they are paying larger prices in the future."

Stock of Toys.
"We have about two-thirds of our Christmas toys," said Mr. Freimuth, of the Columbia clothing company, "and complete stock by the time the Christmas season starts. We expect to experience little trouble in coping with the situation and the public need not alarm themselves. Our American manufacturers will supply all demands. Foreign novelties, however, will be affected, but we will have a large supply on hand. We will make no change in price, until our present stocks run out."

Bernard Silberstein of Silberstein & Bondy said this morning his store will make no change between now and the holidays. There will possibly be a few changes on re-orders, but that a large supply of goods for the season is on hand, until our present stocks run out.

Duluth people have nothing to fear, said Mr. Silberstein. "We have our fall and winter goods practically all in or on the way. This country is no infant and we can easily cope with a situation like this. We have enough on hand to last us for six months, with advance in prices. Certain articles that are bound to go up, such as gloves, will be increased in price. But then, women can wear silk gloves or a cheaper grade, and we have in stock and thus avoid paying excessive prices."

Max Albenberg of Miller-Albenberg company said that his store will make no increase whatever on account of the war, from now on until the holidays. After that, he said he is unable to say, although increases are expected. Re-orders, he said, might result in a larger cost.

Stock All Here.
Joseph Gidding, manager of the J.
M. Gidding store, said that his concern will not increase the price on a single article in any of its stores. "Our stock is all here and we are ready for the fall and winter trade. We even have the goods for the European situation. We even have the goods for the European situation. We even have the goods for the European situation. We even have the goods for the European situation."

"It is true that some lines of imported goods have advanced 10 to 20 per cent. A great deal of imported stuff will not come over at all this fall, because the shipping of Germany, Austria and France practically is at a standstill. Any kid gloves that were before Aug. 1 will not get out of the country. Domestic manufacturers of gloves are taxed to the limit of their capacity and their prices have advanced because of the difficulty of obtaining the skins which are imported.
Others can find as good or a better substitute for the German dyes there will be a great scarcity of dyed merchandise for next spring. The present supply of European dyes in first hands in this country is not more than enough to last three or four months. Already the American wash goods and dress goods manufacturers have withdrawn on account of the scarcity of German indigo dye."

"The lines of imported goods most affected by the war include gloves, perfumes and toilet articles from France, French handbags and embroidered underwear, models in ready to wear millinery and lace, linens, jewelry and fancy leather goods from France, Germany and Austria, merschau and amber goods from Austria, optical goods from Germany, silk and velvet from Lyons, dress goods from Aix-la-Chapelle, Gera, Glachau and Rohna, fine laces from Brussels and linens from Scotland and Ireland."

"It also has affected hute and carpet woolsens, while the price of raw China and Japan silk have advanced 20 per cent already."

SAYS GERMAN FORCE IS OVERWHELMING

An English Correspondent Sends Report to London
From Ghent.

London, Aug. 21, 3:10 a. m.—"Brussels is filled with refugees from surrounding towns, despite the large numbers who left the city of Ghent and Ostend during the last few days," says the Daily Chronicle's Ghent correspondent.

"The plight of most of the refugees is pitiable," the correspondent adds.

"Many are camped in the public squares whose houses in the suburbs have been destroyed by the Prussians. The roads leading into Brussels have been crowded all day with all manner of conveyances, many drawn by dogs and others by girls, women and aged men."

"Most of these people have lost everything. Few of them have any money. The peasant, is considered lucky who succeeded in saving a single horse or a cow. Most of them tell of German barbarities, but it is evident that a majority of these tales are somewhat exaggerated."

German Force Overwhelming.
"Military men characterize the German force which is moving across Belgium as overwhelming, saying it consists of at least two or three army corps. The advance of this huge force is covered over the entire thirty-mile front by a screen of cavalry. The Germans had no difficulty in taking Louvain, which was virtually undefended.
In the high, wooded country between Louvain and Brussels the Germans found an excellent defensive position. Having occupied Louvain, the Germans pushed forward with great celerity, the cavalry opening out in fan-shaped formation, spreading across country.

"At one point they ran into a strong force of Belgian artillery which stron-gely defeated them severely. Later in the day a Belgian scouting force reached Louvain and found it unoccupied, but received imperative orders to fall back because of the danger of being outflanked and annihilated."

FRENCH CLAIM NEW SUCCESS IN ALSACE.

Paris, Aug. 21.—The official statement last night said:

"Our troops have met with brilliant successes in Alsace, especially between Muelhausen and Altkirch. The Germans, retreating on the Rhine, left in our hands many prisoners and twenty-four guns, six of which were captured by our infantry after a sharp struggle.
"In the morning the day was less fortunate for us. Our advanced troops found themselves faced by exceptionally strong positions. They were forced by a counter-attack to fall back in a body, which is solidly established on the Sille and along the canal from the Marne to the Rhine."

ACCUSE GERMANS OF KILLING WOUNDED

France Addresses Note on Subject to the Powers.

London, Aug. 21, 3:40 a. m.—Telegraphing from Paris, Reuter's correspondent sends the following:
"The French government is addressing a note to the powers signatory to The Hague convention of October, 1907, pointing out that the German military authorities have violated the articles of the convention in that, on Aug. 10,

this year, according to a communication from the general in command of the Eastern forces, German troops dispatched a number of wounded by firing shots in their faces, and that the wounds of other injured people were deliberately made worse by being torn open."

"Burning Villages."

London, Aug. 21, 5:05 a. m.—A dispatch to the Central News from Brussels says that a long line of burning villages marked the German advance.

CHESAPEAKE & OHIO DIVIDEND DEFERRED.

New York, Aug. 20.—Directors of the Chesapeake & Ohio railway, meeting here, decided to defer the regular quarterly dividend of 1 per cent usually declared at this time.

BOY DIES OF POWDER BURNS

Charles Brown Suffers Fatal Relapse After Brave Struggle.

Was Injured While Playing With Lark o' the Lake Fireworks.

Charles Brown, 14 years old, early yesterday afternoon succumbed to the burns caused by the fireworks, which he found at Twelfth avenue east on the morning of Aug. 4, and which exploded while he was playing with them that same evening. He died at St. Mary's hospital, where he was taken immediately after the accident.

Although Charles improved rapidly at first, he suffered a relapse twice during the last week and early yesterday afternoon finally succumbed to the severe burns, which covered his entire body from his knees to his neck. It was at first thought that the boy would not survive but improved so rapidly that Dr. C. W. Taylor, who attended to him, soon had hopes of his recovery. However, with the relapses that followed this week, the boy's death was almost momentarily expected since late Wednesday evening.

Young Brown and several other children went down to the Twelfth avenue park Tuesday morning, Aug. 4, and picked up some fireworks that had been left there by the men who had the contract to provide the second Lark-o-the-Lake celebration the previous evening. These children took home, playing with them during the day.

Powder Explodes in Pocket. In the evening Charles attempted to light one of the skyrockets and while doing so, several of the sparks went into a pocket of his overalls. He had other pieces of fireworks stored away, including also some powder he had taken out of a few old rockets. These ignited in an instant and the boy was enveloped in flames. Before neighbors reached him the fire had burned off all his clothes. He was rushed to St. Mary's hospital, where it was found that his entire body, from his knees to his neck, had been burned.

Funeral Arrangements. Charles was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Brown, 617 Eighth avenue east. The boy also leaves two sisters, Elsie and Pauline, and a brother, Morris. He was the youngest member of the family and had entered his sixth year in the grade schools last July.

The funeral will be held at 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon from the First Presbyterian church, Third avenue east and Second street. Rev. Robert East will officiate and interment will be in the Forest Hill cemetery.

LONDON EXPLAINS BELGIAN RETREAT

Says Field Army Is Menace to German Advance.

Washington, Aug. 21.—An official explanation of the Belgian field army's backward movement toward Antwerp, was given last night in a foreign cablegram from London, made public by the British embassy.

"The Belgian army, based on Antwerp, has fallen back in that direction in order to cover its communication with the fortresses in anticipation that this might become necessary, the fact of government had already been transferred from Brussels to Antwerp.

"As Brussels is an undefended city, and no longer the seat of government, the fact that the Germans may have occupied it is not of great importance. Moreover, the present position of the Belgian army is a menace to the right flank of any further German advance westward."

DISCREDITS WORK OF GERMAN ARMY

Russian Paper Publishes Account of Border Fighting.

London, Aug. 21, 5:15 a. m.—A St. Petersburg dispatch to the Daily Mail says the Novoe Vremya published an account of the fighting at Bydtkuhnen, East Prussia, by an eye-witness, who says:

"The fighting here seemed to prove that the German army's military qualities did not justify its reputation. The men in the skirmish lines huddled together, making excellent targets for our fire. The German cavalry avoided ours, retreating when the Russians advanced for the charge. The German infantry likewise retired before our bayonet charges."

GERMANS TELL OF 1,000 MEN FALLEN.

London, Aug. 21, 4:10 a. m.—Telegraphing from Copenhagen the correspondent of the Daily Mail says that the third list of German casualties, aggregating about 1,000 men killed or wounded, mainly infantrymen, has been published in Berlin.

SOMEBODY IS UNTRUTHFUL

Meat Dealer Flatly Denies Statement of Chicago Packers.

Advances Here More Than Three-Quarters of Cent Alleged.

The statement made yesterday by packers in Chicago that meat prices have advanced but 3/4 of a cent since the beginning of the European war was flatly denied by a big Duluth meat buyer today. Packers are now charging about 3 cents more a pound for pork loins than they were before the war and good advances have been made in other kinds of meats.

"I am willing to make a sworn statement," said a Duluth meat man today, "that the statement issued by the packers is not true. I buy all my meats from the packers, and the prices I have paid are all paying now will substantiate my statements. Uncle Sam has started the packers by starting an investigation, and the packers will put down the prices of meats for a few days, but just watch them go up again when the excitement is all over and interest in the investigation lags." In support of his statement the dealer gave quotations on meats as paid to packers before and since the war. Practically every kind of meat had advanced in price. Before the war the different grades of pork loins cost 14, 15 and 16 cents a pound. Now the same grades are costing 17, 18 and 20 cents a pound. The biggest advances have been made in pork. Mutton, he said, had advanced 2 1/2 to 3 cents a pound, and veal 1 1/2 to 2 cents a pound. Pork shoulders that cost 18 cents a pound but a short time

ARE EAGER FOR CAR EXTENSION

Suburbanites Pleased By Prospect of Getting Service.

The announcement made in The Herald recently that the street railway lines would be laid to New Duluth next spring has pleased residents of New Duluth and Gary.

"We have heard statements like that before," said a member of the New Duluth Commercial club yesterday, "but we were to have the line extended two years ago and again last year, but each time something arose that prevented the improvement. The bridges were unsafe, and no roadbed was provided, but now it looks as if the city were going to do its part all right."

"We are sadly in need of the extension of the car line and will be glad to have it. At present the residents are paying heavy toll every day in going to and from the city, and I am sure that if for no other reason, the majority will be pleased to have it."

Following an inspection of the route by city officials and the statement of officials of the Northern Pacific railway that the viaduct over the railway tracks at Smithville will be started soon and everything will be in readiness for the extension of the car line early in the spring.

MANY EMPLOYED AT STREET WORK
Paving, Concreting and Water Main Jobs Offer Employment.

Street improvements are now giving employment to a number of men in the suburbs. D. H. Clough & Co., who have the contract for laying the pavement on North Commonwealth avenue and Zimmerman avenue, have added a number of hands to the crew of the suburb. It is expected that at least 100 men will be working on the job.

A large crew is employed in the laying of four blocks of concrete sidewalk on Commonwealth avenue between New Duluth and Gary. This work is being laid out by the city and is to be completed early in September. John Stoker has the contract.

The laying of water mains in Gary is rapidly progressing. The crew in the employ of the Pastoret company expects to have pipes laid in virtually every street in this suburb before the winter.

BERRY CROP HANGS ON.

Large Quantities of Fruit Being Picked in Suburbs.

The berry season in New Duluth has not ceased according to residents of the suburb. Berries in large quantities are still to be found.

On the hillside north of the suburb and in the vicinity of Smithville, opening and other areas on the hillside as well as near Fond du Lac the fruit is still to be found. During the last week hundreds of quarts have been picked in this neighborhood by the residents of the suburb.

BACHELOR CLUB WILL GIVE DANCE.

The Bachelor club of New Duluth has arranged to entertain tomorrow evening at another of its series of dancing parties. The affair will be held at the Maccabee hall. Invitations to the dancing party have already been issued. Special arrangements have been made with the bus line to convey guests from West Duluth, leaving the bus at 9 o'clock and returning at the close of the party.

TRAIN CREW FINED FOR RAPID MOVE.

Moose Lake, Minn., Aug. 21.—(Special to The Herald.)—The practice indulged in by Great Northern freight crews of running through this village at a break-neck pace to the peril of life and property resulted in a whole train being arrested Wednesday, taken before a local justice of the peace and fined $10 each. Sentences were suspended providing the company will order a reduced schedule.

BLOODY BATTLES AT MUELHAUSEN.

London, Aug. 21, 6 a. m.—A dispatch to the Havas agency from Belfort by way of Paris, says:

"The battles around Muelhausen have been particularly bloody, for the Germans, who, knowing the French would spare as much as possible the Alsace and their property, hid themselves in houses protected by the Red Cross, whence they fired on the French."

"The French directed a violent rifle and artillery fire on their assailants, causing veritable carnage. Even German leaving these houses was shot down."

"A battery of six guns with their caissons filled with ammunition, was captured from the Germans. The guns were taken today to Belfort, where crowds of curious townspeople gathered to see them. Eighteen other guns captured today are expected to reach Belfort tomorrow together with 800 prisoners."

LOST! ONE ASSESSOR

Auditor Sends Man to Buyck to Look Up Official.

Chisholm Figures Raised $15,585,749; Other Changes Made.

Until the assessment rolls come in from Buick township, the county auditor's office will be unable to complete an abstract which will show the total assessed valuation of all taxable property, both real and personal, in the county. The delay of the Buick assessor in sending in his books has not been accounted for today. County Auditor Halden sent a man from his office to Buick to inquire into the matter.

Referred to Tax Commissioner. The county equalization board at its meeting today decided to "pass the buck" to the state tax commission so far as making any reduction or increase in the assessment of certain mineral property is concerned. The western improvement company and the Great Northern Ore properties with reference to the assessment of certain mineral property is concerned.

In view of the fact that the Chisholm assessor failed to list the mines in his district on the assessment rolls and assessed only the surface values, the equalization board adjusted the matter this morning by raising the assessor's figures $15,585,749. The equalization board assessed the Chisholm mines at $15,585,749, while the assessor had them listed at $2,145.

Changes in Personal Tax. The board also passed a resolution making a number of changes in the assessment of personal property in the number of towns and villages of the county. With but three exceptions, where changes were made, the assessor's figure was increased. The largest increase was made in the town of Pike, where the assessment on pianos was raised 300 per cent. The assessed value of pianos and his figures were reduced 50 per cent.

The only other reductions were made in the figures returned from the Balkan and Hiwabik townships, where assessors overestimated the valuation on houses more than 3 years old. The assessor's figures were cut down 30 per cent and the Hiwabik assessment under this classification was reduced 55 per cent.

LONG WAY ROUND TO SETTLE CASE

Affirmed Judgment Returns to Source After Three Years.

This morning, nearly three years from the time Judge Windom entered a judgment in municipal court for damages and costs against the La Rue Mining company and which he subsequently vacated because of alleged fraud in the proceedings, he received an order from the Minnesota supreme court affirming the decision of the district court, which in turn had affirmed Judge Windom's action, both decisions having been appealed by the defendant company.

The case is now free to be opened again and it is probable it will be taken up in district court this fall. On Sept. 25, 1911, V. D. Nickolich, guardian for Novo Daisch, who had been declared insane on Aug. 7, previous, filed suit for $500 against the La Rue Mining company for alleged damages received in an accident to Daisch, who was a former employee in the La Rue mine near Nashauk. As a result of this accident Daisch lost his reason a settlement for $100 was effected and shortly after Judge Windom entered a judgment for $100 and costs against the company.

A few months later the guardian suddenly disappeared with the judgment money and $241 addition, which the insane man had in a bank at Nashauk. William Getty was appointed later, in an affidavit, declared that there was fraud in the case and that the judgment should be set aside. Judge Windom acquiesced but the company appealed to the district court.

ESTIMATES ON TWO PAVING JOBS

The city engineering department has completed its estimates of the cost of paving Central avenue from Cody street to Columbia street and of improving the street between Central and Sixth streets.

The estimates include several kinds of paving for both jobs, both of which will be ordered by the city council at its meeting Monday afternoon. Central avenue will be ordered without petition while a sufficient petition has been presented for Sixth street.

The Central avenue estimates are as follows: Brick, $42,277.42; concrete, $45,499.85; bituminous concrete, $26,256.25; and plain concrete, $32,620.51. The avenue will be improved to a width of thirty feet between Cody and Sixth streets and to a width of twenty-four feet the rest of the distance.

The Sixth street estimates include: gravel, $19,281.30; macadam, $20,174.61; concrete, $20,006.29; asphalt, $21,711.66; and crosote blocks, $23,602.

The improvement has been considered for many years.

HOUGHTON COUNTY MURDER NOT CLEARED.

Calumet, Mich., Aug. 21.—Although a number of arrests have been made, the county officers are confident they have not yet apprehended any of the four men wanted in connection with the murder at Superior Tuesday morning of Albert Ruelle of Houghton. Examination of Ruelle's body showed he was shot through the back, although the head was caused by a blow from the head with a revolver. Two suspects succeeded in escaping from the officers after being taken to the county jail.

THE OPEN COURT

Readers of The Herald are invited to make free use of this column to express their ideas about the latest of general interest, but discussions of sectarian religious differences are barred. Letters must not exceed 300 words—the shorter the better. They must be written on one side of the paper only, and they must be accompanied in every case by the name and address of the writer though they need not be published. A signed letter is always more effective, however.

THE GREAT WAR.

To the Editor of The Herald:

Well that cloud over across the Atlantic seems to give rich promise of attaining large proportions. In my latest copy of the Independent, Aug. 17, it says: "Some wars name themselves—the Crimean war, the Civil war, the Franco-Prussian war, the Thirty Years' war, the Revolutionary war and many others. This is the Great war. It names itself."

One of my friends thinks this will be the last great war in history. I don't agree with him. While talking with a certain noted D.D. lately regarding prophecy to be found in St. Mark xiii and St. Luke xxi, he said that "many of those prophecies have already been fulfilled, but there remain yet a few more to come to pass," and I believe he is right.

Speaking of prophecy, I remember reading in Collier's Weekly about six or seven years ago an article on war. This Weekly I speak of was about fourteen years old; it was printed shortly after the Spanish-American war. The paper, on account of its fine pictures, mainly, had been saved by a friend of ours all that time, who in turn gave it to us. The article in question struck me so forcibly that I kept it in memory. I'd like to say on this great conflict, but "space is short and time is fleeting," and I have taken up too much valuable space the teeth and Germany's bugles are ready to blow. When it comes geography may get a twist, that will last till kingdom come. It may be the closing war of the century, and whatever the results, may some of us through the kindness of fate be left to see it," etc. This war had reasons for coming, just as sure as cause and effect, but the nations, or their rulers, also, had excuses ready for starting it. All hands seem to point the accusing finger at the Kaiser of Germany for being the prime mover. Most all the sheets from the American press seem to agree on where to fix the blame.

Now I say now that if I were the president of France, the king of England or the czar of Russia and could prove that the emperor of Germany was to blame for it, I would simply hammer away with my soldiers and allies till the other fellow sued for peace, then I'd say: "You land hog, or bulldozer (or some other fancy name), when we wanted peace you wanted war, now you want peace, but I want war, and I'll give you your stomach full of it before I get through with you."

All my friends (and other experts up here) agree that there will be a great change in Europe after this is over; changes in government, morals, ideas and religions, even if the archangel does not sound his trumpet at its close. I believe there will be many things come to light that are unknown now and among other things I believe that Franz Joseph I of Austria will be known as a man who has suffered some things that the outside world knows nothing of now, and that he will be regarded (if he lives) as one of the finest men in Europe, with King Victor Emmanuel of Italy a close second.

There are other things I'd like to say on this great conflict, but "space is short and time is fleeting," and I have taken up too much valuable space already. So I will close and refer you to Mark xiii, 23-32, and also St. Luke xxi, 20-22. Then again at verse 25, same chapter, and read (the end of verse 28). Yours truly,

GEORGE W. McKAY.
Kelsey, Minn., Aug. 19.

THE "MOVIES" ARE AFFECTED

Cost of Necessary Carbons and Chemicals Is Greatly Increased.

Many Foreign Producers Put Out of Business By War.

America's pet amusement is menaced in several ways by the European war.

Unless hostilities in Europe cease or problems which the war has developed are solved in some other way, motion picture theaters throughout America will be seriously affected.

In the first place American manufacturers have been unable to produce their own country with foreigners. Investigations in the East, according to a Duluth theater manager, show that the cost of the necessary chemicals, while not in imminent danger of becoming exhausted, is being depleted rapidly. The cost to the consumer has already been advanced over 100 per cent. Dealing is also limiting the number to be sold to each customer.

Equally important supplies affected by the war, which are causing motion picture producers considerable uneasiness, are the chemicals required to develop the negatives. Potassium dichromate, potassium carbonate, iodine, potassium cyanide, and other chemicals required in perfecting negatives are largely manufactured by the Germans, Belgians and French. In most cases these products have already advanced from 300 to 600 per cent, while in some instances the supply has become exhausted, with no immediate hope of the stock being replenished.

Among the producers here and abroad, the war has also been felt. The Famous Film Players company has abandoned the production of its new film, "The Silver King," with Guy Standing in the leading role. Mr. Standing is an officer in the English army and he has already left to join his regiment. Many actors and officials of companies here and abroad, especially the foreigners in America, were reservists and a large number have already left for the front. Most of the Pathe company employees are French, while a large number of the actors in France have been requisitioned by the French government as a barracks for the soldiers.

The foreign studios of the Vitaphone, Eclair and Gaumont companies are also reported closed, most of the men under 45 years of age having joined the army. The American film industry has also been reported as demoralized by the war. Italy is the only film-producing country in Europe that is not at war and although films may be manufactured there, it is probable that they will be delayed in shipping or possibly never reach American shores.

This will mean that American film producers will be called upon to supply the countless motion picture theaters in this country with virtually all of their pictures.

Italian Train Dynamited.

Paris, Aug. 20.—A dispatch to the Havas agency from Naples says that a bomb thrown at the first-class compartment of a train bound for Rome exploded and injured a number of travelers.

MEDIATION OR ANNIHILATION

That Is Alternative Germany Faces, Says Eugene Van Cleef.

Normal School Instructor Returns From Ten Months' Study Abroad.

Eugene Van Cleef, an instructor in the Duluth normal school, who has been studying economical and geographical conditions in Germany for the last ten months, declared today that in his opinion there was no chance whatever for Germany to win the war she is engaged in, and that the end would either be mediation or the annihilation of Germany.

Mr. Van Cleef returned yesterday. While in Germany he made a special study of harbors as well as general conditions in its broadest sense. He studied at the University of Leipzig and during the course of his practical investigations traveled over the greater part of Germany and also visited Austria.

"The trouble between Austria-Hungary and Serbia was merely the pretext for the present war," declared Mr. Van Cleef. "War was inevitable. It was discussed in the papers of Germany, every phase and detail of it. All of the countries have gone into the war with their eyes open to its meaning. The only reason why war did not come before was because of the fear that just what has happened would happen—that practically all of the great powers would be drawn into it."

"The hatred for France is greater in Germany than most of the realities. There are many people in Germany who welcome the opportunity to fight France, against the other countries the feeling is not particularly antagonistic."

Commercial Supremacy.

"One reason for the war is the growing commercial supremacy of Germany. The rise of Germany has commercial standing in the world, and this is one of the reasons why there is not only a desire but a determination on the part of England toward Germany. The same fear is held by Russia. It is the jealousy that humans might feel for a great leader."

"France is much better prepared for this war than some people imagine. During the last four years France has nearly doubled the size of her army and has entirely reorganized its army. The belief that France has deteriorated and is something of a wasteland is grossly erroneous."

"The overcrowded condition of Germany, its desire for more territory and its vaunting ambition to create colonies establish an over the top commercial supremacy, together with the uncertain boundary lines upon all sides of Germany, have led to armed readiness on the part of the French and the British, and have increased the friction and led gradually up to the war—a war that has been in the making for some years."

No Chance to Win.

"Personally, from observations that I have been able to make, I don't think Germany has a chance to win. From the standpoint alone the situation is a grave one. Germany may have food in some of the forts sufficiently to last the army for some time, but feeding the army for a period of a year or two and feeding 65,000,000 inhabitants is a different matter. The economic position is a different matter. The situation that makes the position now and then and dismissed all thoughts of the race from her mind, ought to come in strong a winner. In modern business, the tortoise is the winner. What they need is an injection of Hare serum."

Mrs. M. E. C. inquires: In a recent issue of a magazine I read a very interesting article on 'twilight sleep' as used in the great maternity hospitals of Europe. Is this method in use in America as yet?

REPLY.

It originated in America. We have tried it out here and found its limitations and its dangers. Vivid is the word for the magazine article; vivid as such articles usually are when contributed by non-medical writers.

L. D. P. asks: What are the characteristic symptoms of locomotor ataxia?

REPLY.

There are none. Physicians diagnose the disease on the physical signs elicited by examination of the nervous system. Frequent symptoms complained of are: Inability to get about in the dark readily. Inability to do fine work with the fingers or hands. Staggering or ataxic gait. Bladder trouble. Lightning pains or crises in abdomen or elsewhere. Numbness or loss of sensation in certain areas of the limbs.

R. H. C. writes: Some bumps have appeared on my arms during the past three years. There are seven of them, one the size of a bird's egg. They are painless, soft, move easily under the skin, and look ugly.

REPLY.

You fail to say whether you mean a humming bird's egg or an ostrich's egg. I guess—only I guess—they are either sebaceous cysts (oil glands distended from plugged ducts), or else simple fatty tumors. In either case your doctor can strip a hypodermic of cocaine underneath the bumps, peel them out through a neat little incision without pain or disability, and put you back in the perfect class.

N. M. says: As I have before me some headache tablets which were guaranteed to contain nothing harmful in any way. The label states: Each tablet contains Acetanilide 3½ grains. Is Acetanilide harmful?

REPLY.

If the label is true the guarantee was false. Acetanilide is the dangerous heart poison in most headache, "cold" and grip tablets and powders.

HEALTH TALKS
William Brady, M.D.
How Is Your Blood-Pressure?

MAN may be "the picture of health" in the eyes of his friends, if not in the critical eyes of his doctor, and accepting for a trifle of breathlessness on exertion, which he attributes to his "picture of health," he may imagine himself as sound as a dollar. Why not? Doesn't he eat like a horse, and hasn't he steepest the doctor these many years?

But one day a persistent agent talks him into having that physical examination for an insurance policy which he has been postponing from month to month, he has felt so well. And then the applicant has the surprise of his life: he is rejected by the over-critical medical examiner. For why? Oh, nothing much, just an excessively high blood-pressure, as indicated by the sphygmomanometer, or blood-pressure measuring machine. In the application blank the doctor has written "Four risks." And there's the disgusted applicant, uninsurable, yet pink and fat and strong as a horse and eats like one!

The Easy Going Physician.

He dislikes to believe the insurance doctor knows his business. So he makes up his mind he'll show "em a thing or two. He'll go and see what his own doctor has to say about it. Sometimes, sad to relate, his own doctor is one of those good natured practitioners who look at the tongue, feel the pulse, inquire about the appetite and the state of the bowels, and then determine by second sight, or telepathy what ails the patient, without bothering to make a physical examination. If this is the case the insurance doctor is obviously "in bad," though by no means as much so as the patient.

Most of us are born with a good set of arteries, no matter how big we are, apoplexy or Bright's disease has marred the family tree. One can inherit neither soft corns nor fragile arteries. Aortic sclerosis is a disease we bring on ourselves by self-abuse. It is an insidious, gradual process, at first almost imperceptible, but as it is a high blood-pressure, it isn't hard work that hardens the arteries; the unrelenting grind is the strain that does it.

In the light of modern physiology we should revise the fable of the Tortoise and the Hare. By rights the Tortoise, having plugged along without ever relaxing for an instant throughout the race, ought to drop dead some six inches short of the goal. The Hare, having taken a vacation tion of Germany one that cannot endure.

"I should say that Germany is the best prepared of all the powers for war. France, as I stated, is in splendid military fighting trim and the army of France is nearly as large as the German army. England is always more or less prepared, but Germany is really in a greater state of preparedness than the others."

"Germany chose the easiest and least defended route to the French frontier, but it does not seem to be that the German authorities expected the Belgians to make the fight they are. This is a very great surprise to the Germans."

Progress Overrated.

Mr. Van Cleef declared that in the progress of many arts and crafts he believed the Germans to be somewhat over-rated. For instance, he declared that in many of the great industries of Germany the machines were of American manufacture. He also declared that the Germans were adept at taking the invention of another country and changing it around and adopting it as a German invention.

"We have heard much of the German technical schools," he continued. "There is not a manual training school in Germany the equal to the manual training school of Duluth. The idea that the technical schools of Germany greatly excel the schools of this country is a belief that is untrue and an injustice to the school system of this country."

While in Germany, Mr. Van Cleef visited all of the principal harbors and contrasted the commercial methods of handling products with the crude methods of this country. Aside from the fact that ore and coal are handled in an efficient manner here, Mr. Van Cleef declared that some of the methods employed in the American harbors are crude in the extreme when compared with the methods in use at all of the principal German harbors.

German authorities expected the Belgians to make the fight they are. This is a very great surprise to the Germans."

This has been placed everywhere, even being piled in the staterooms and on deck.

It is also stated that enough provisions have been taken on board to feed the crew for a year.

AMERICANS IN THE MUELHAUSEN FIGHT

Two Dentists and Their Wives Write of Narrow Escape.

Berlin, via Copenhagen and London, Aug. 21, 4:25 p. m.—Four Americans, two men and two women, have just made known their remarkable escape from death at Muelhausen, where they were during the fighting.

They are Edward Walker, a dentist of Mason, Minn., and his wife and a Mr. and Mrs. Gade, whose home address cannot be ascertained. Mr. Gade also is a dentist.

They were caught at Muelhausen at the beginning of the fighting and had to remain several days amid a hail of projectiles. They are now safe at Glatt, a town in the Black Forest, whither they walked from Muelhausen.

A letter from one of them which had been brought to Berlin says the uninterrupted fighting and fire of the artillery never will be forgotten.

"Projectiles struck the house and we were in while others were in the garden," says the letter. "We waited death momentarily, but were saved by a miracle."

WHERE BLOOD MAY YET FLOW IN THE BIG EUROPEAN WAR

SCENE IN STRASSBURG.

DUTCHMEN SHOOT AT ZEPPELIN AIRSHIP

German Aerial Craft Are Becoming More Active.

Amsterdam, via London, Aug. 21, 3:45 p. m.—Notable activity is evident among the German air craft, which fly frequently over Holland.

A Zeppelin, following the course of the Rhine, passed over Zenevaar today. Dutch soldiers shot at it and the dirigible disappeared over the German frontier.

Another Zeppelin flew over Maestricht last night and followed the road to Meeren, afterward disappearing.

German aeroplanes also have been seen in several directions scouting over Holland.

A HOLD-UP IN TURKEY.

Comfortable folks at home are inclined to believe that the men and women who go to mission countries on errands of teaching and healing are no longer obliged to face hardship and danger such as was encountered a generation ago. This is by no means true. Physical dangers—flooded streams, even from lawless and hostile inhabitants are a part of the hardships of the mission.

Dr. W. N. Chambers, a representative of the American board in Turkey in Asia, has just had an unpleasant encounter with robbers on his way across the mountains near Hadjin. He was on his way to Antab to the annual meeting of the Central Turkey mission. He tells the story as follows:

"The distressing and tragical part of the story was the shooting of the soldier detailed to act as guard to the party. He was beside me, and seeking cover for resistance was shot through the breast and dropped dead in his tracks. This was within a minute after we were halted and found ourselves in the hands and at the mercy of six or eight brigands. They searched the others of the party—three Americans from Hadjin—and would take nothing from me, though I offered money to induce them to deal mercifully with one of the party. They offered me to move on, which I did not do. One of the band was intent on the life of my companion, Mr. Gertmanian of Hadjin, and after considerable parley, and after his companions had taken his rifle from him, the brigand declared that he would grant Mr. Gertmanian's life for the sake of his son, who was a brave fellow."

"There was little money in the party, for which the brigands were disappointed. They forbade us to return to Hadjin on pain of shooting. They would not allow us to do anything to the dead and ordered us to resume our journey without further delay. We were in a narrow, rocky place at the brow of a deep, narrow gorge. We pushed on till 5 o'clock that evening. Next morning we reached Constantinople and found that our journey was necessary in order to avoid the territory infested by Zetoun brigands."

Boston's school curriculum is to be simplified, according to a newspaper (the school authorities and their hired experts) are eliminating all nonessentials and retaining only those studies which educational experts have ruled are essential."

TOO MUCH TANGO CAUSES NEURALGIA

Violent neuralgia of the head generally attacks overworked women who lack sufficient sleep, fresh air and red blood.

With the prevalent craze for dancing at all times and places it is becoming noticeable that women whose blood is thin—anaemic—become subject to neuralgic pains when they dance too much and rob themselves of sleep and energy.

The woman who makes great demands on her strength, either by overworking or overdancing, must keep her blood in condition or suffer. The pain of neuralgia is simply a sign adopted by nature to show that the nervous system is being starved because the blood no longer brings it what it needs. The one great cause of neuralgia is debility with anaemia or bloodlessness.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are a tonic for the blood and nerves. They begin at once to enrich the blood and enable it to furnish the nerves with the elements they need to restore them to health. A booklet on the home treatment of nervous disorders that will enable you to help yourself will be sent free on request by the Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y. Your own druggist can supply you with Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

WHITE SOX TAKE FIRST GAME FROM THE UNGLAUBS

The Enemy Are Beaten By
5 to 3 Score in Wozy Game.

Col. Bob Unglaub Reads of German Victory During Game.

BY BRUCE.

While Col. Bob Unglaub was somewhat pained at the 5 to 3 our advancing athletes registered against the defenders of the baseball path, the fact that the Germans have entered the field of the German patriots and caused a sense of German patriotism to surge through his system, thus counteracting the germs that breed despair and discouragement.

Col. Bob is on the German reserve list. All men between the ages of 21 and 60 may be called before the war is over. This broad and sweeping area boundary will call the gallant colonel into action should the call be heeded to the uttermost bounds of the earth.

Between innings yesterday the colonel read bulletins of the war, which were kindly arranged for by Secretary Jackson of the Fargo club. While the baseball battle was going against Col. Bob, formerly of the Fifth German Hussars, his grim countenance lighted with the gleam of victory as he eagerly scanned the bulletins that were handed through the fence to him.

The interested followers of the game in the Northern league hope that Col. Bob will not be called back to Germany before the expiration of the season. It is said that as soon as the season is over Col. Bob is going to spend his evenings with the girls in teaching the music to sit up and curl like the Kaiser's.

Col. Bob can't down the Germans—their patriotism is too great.

Duluth Goes Another.

While Winnipeg was non-progressive on our side was winning a sanguinary engagement and advancing toward the Winnipeg frontier. James Hismark Withers, the brave and patriotic soldier of fortune who recklessly risked the Kaiser at Winnipeg and narrowly escaped with his life, was on the ground for the Sox.

The enemy killed the delivery of James for a foul ball and received a bunt hit in but one round. Maupin, who received a trial with the Sox, pitched the ball and received a bunt hit in but one round.

During the afternoon the visitors registered five hits against the Sox, but the Sox were able to score only one run. The Sox were able to score only one run.

A GREAT LEADER IS MAKING HARD FIGHT

JOHN J. MCGRAW.

All of the resources, all of the cunning and all of the great qualities of leadership of John J. McGraw are being called upon these close and deciding days of the pennant race in the National league. McGraw desires deeply to win the fourth straight pennant and thus equal a record that has stood unapproached through three decades of baseball striving. It is generally admitted that McGraw has made the Giants at this time his greatest asset as a leader in greater need than at any time since he has assumed charge of the New York aggregation.

Conditions Bad for Day's Card of Grand Circuit at Pittsburg.

Pittsburg, Pa., Aug. 21.—There was a possibility early today that the last day's program of the Bruno's circuit meet on the grand circuit, either would be postponed until tomorrow or abandoned because of inclement weather.

The early morning workouts were made between the two teams, and the heavy downpours threatened to make a heavy track. The day's events were the 224 yard, the 212 yard and the 3-year-old pacers class, all for $1,000 purses.

Small fields and dull and uninteresting racing marked yesterday's program. Only three horses faced the starter for the Iron City, valued at $2,000 and the free-for-all race valued at $1,000.

The feature event of the day's card, the Iron City at 2:30 pace, valued at $3,000, was captured by Peter Stevens in four heats after King Cuccinelli had taken the first heat. Lennie McGregor had no trouble winning the Iron City, a 2:13 trot and Frank Bogash, Jr., took the free-for-all. May Mack had no difficulty in making the 2:09 trot, valued at $1,000 in straight heats.

ELGIN ROAD RACE IS ON

Twenty-Three Autos and Many Veteran Drivers Are Entered.

Elgin, Ill., Aug. 21.—Twenty-three drivers, the stars of the automobile racing world, with their machines in perfect mechanical trim, were ready to be sent away today in the 305-mile grind of the fifth Elgin national road race.

The $4,000 mile course, hardened by a heavy rain, was like concrete and a record-breaking contest was expected.

Bob Burman was forced to withdraw his entry owing to an accident in practice yesterday. He broke a cylinder and was unable to make repairs in time to start.

Ralph De Palma, a former winner of the event, driving a foreign car from its record-breaking conquest in the grand prix at Lyons, France, and De Palma expected to average 63.5 miles per hour, which is equal to 75 miles an hour.

Owing to the large number of entries, the cars were to be started two at a time, an innovation for the Elgin event. Today's race will be the last of the season.

De Palma was among the starters. He is Ralph Mulford, Gil Anderson and De Palma. The race will be the last of the season.

ATTENDANCE RECORD IN NORTHERN SHOWS GAIN

President Burmeister Estimates an Increase of 40 Per Cent Over Last Season—Duluth Will Show Big Gain—Ezell to Stay—
Darby Day Date Set.

BY BRUCE.

This season the attendance records of the Northern league will break all previous turnstile marks of that organization.

John Burmeister roughly estimates that the paid admission figure at the close of the season will be 40 per cent greater than the attendance record of last season. This record, in the face of conditions that are worst in years, is amazing.

Secretary Farrell of the National Association of Baseball Clubs is authorized by the statement that the Northern is the only league in the United States this season that has shown an attendance gain over the figures of last season.

The upward leap in gate receipts is one of the reasons for the desire of President Burmeister of the league and President Blume of the Duluth Baseball association to elevate the league into a class B affair next season.

War is hurting the gate at Port William and Winnipeg, and yet despite the ill effects of the war, the attendance of the Canadian league will show a substantial gain over the turnstile song of last year.

Duluth Shows Big Gain.
Last season the attendance figures here were 43,000 for the season. So far this season the attendance at Athletic park has been over 42,000 and it is expected that the record will reach the 50,000 mark before the close of the season.

The last fifteen games before the last road trip showed an average daily attendance of 1,138. Since the return of the team, for some unaccountable reason, the gate has been dropping off. Right now the fans are not showing the keenness for the game that was their previous home stand.

It is expected that the attendance mark at Winnipeg will reach 150,000. Last year the attendance at the Peg was 140,000.

Before the declaration of war the average daily attendance of the league was 1,138. This is greatly in excess of the attendance figures of all other cities in the Western league and probably all of the cities of the American association.

Last year Grand Forks had a total attendance record of 35,000. It is expected that the attendance at Grand Forks will be 40,000.

Kiao-Chow Affair Does Not Concern U. S., Says
Diplomat.

London, Aug. 21, 3:25 p. m.—Oscar S. Straus, member of the permanent court of arbitration at The Hague and chairman of the diplomatic committee of the American Citizens Relief committee, said today:

"It has been my privilege to meet many prominent British officials, and so far as I know there is no opposition in England to the plan of the United States to have Americans buy the German liners now in American ports. In fact, I think the idea has been well received, as the British feel that the restoration of such liners to the service would make it possible to bring larger quantities of wheat and other foodstuffs to England."

Mr. Straus was recently a guest at a luncheon attended by Sir Edward Grey, the British foreign secretary, and his long diplomatic service has given him an acquaintance with high officials which makes it possible for him to learn the government's view.

As to the Kiao-Chow Affair, Mr. Straus said: "Some Americans seem unduly excited about Japan's action concerning Kiao-Chow. I do not think the United States has anything to be apprehensive about. Japan has no designs on the Philippines."

As a member of Col. Roosevelt's cabinet I conducted the negotiations for the Japanese immigration treaty, and became convinced that Japan had no designs on the islands, and would not have them. They are not suited to her use. The climate is too hot for the Japanese."

Must Stay Out of It.
"The United States must not become embroiled in any way in this war. One great nation must remain neutral and be ready to extend a helping hand when the fury of war has been exhausted and mediation is necessary in the interest of humanity."

Fraud Charged Against Twin Ports Steel Land Company.

Fraud and misrepresentation are charged against the Twin Ports Steel Land company, a real estate firm operating in Douglas county, Wis., townships, in an action instituted today in district court by Fred Burrows, a customer, who is seeking to recover what he paid for a lot he purchased in Twin Ports, a townsite on the Wisconsin side of the St. Louis river from the Minnesota Steel company's plant.

Mr. Burrows was a resident of Saginaw, Mich., when he purchased the lot from the defendant company for $200. The deal was closed on Oct. 13, 1913, when he paid over the money and later received a deed for the property in accordance with a previous contract.

Mr. Burrows alleges that the agent of the company who sold the lot to him represented among other things that the land he was buying was located on the same site as the steel plant, now under construction, and was an ideal location for a home for a laboring man employed at the plant.

Some time after he had purchased the lot and for the first time discovered it was across the river from the steel plant and from three to four miles away. Mr. Burrows alleges that the lot which he purchased is "practically worthless" and "absolutely useless" as a residence.

He asks the court for judgment

"The boom was great while it lasted. Since the discovery of the Dinosaur, there has been little other evidence of petroleum in the vicinity of Calgary, but according to reports over 400 companies, with a total authorized capital of anywhere from $400,000,000 to $500,000,000 were formed. Authorities have been notified not to give aid to the enemy, even under threat of bombardment of the city."

Seattle, Wash., Aug. 21.—No information has been received by shipping men here to support the fear expressed by Canadian Minister of Marine, Hazen, that a German warship was approaching Prince Rupert, B. C., to obtain coal. As far as known, no German man of war is in the North Pacific. The German raider Loebnitz, which sailed at San Francisco Monday, was last reported twenty miles southwest of the Golden Gate, steaming in a westerly direction.

Paris, Aug. 21, 1:30 p. m.—The great square fronting the Invalides in Paris presented a striking spectacle today when 18,000 foreign volunteers assembled in orderly formation under the flag of the French republic.

There were 4,500 Jews from all countries who desired to serve as separate companies, there were also 3,000 Belgians, 4,500 Italians, 2,500 Russians, 2,000 Swedes, 1,000 Spaniards, 600 Roumanians, 330 Luxemburgians and 125 Americans.

For several years prior to his death, Paupore was a resident of Paupore's siding, where he conducted a small store and lumber business. After his death it developed that he had been leading a double life and that he had a wife and family residing in New York whom he had deserted years ago and another wife and family in this country. Both widows claimed the estate, but the court decided in favor of the New York woman and her children.

HE HAS RAISED FUND FOR THE WAR SUFFERERS

An appeal has been filed with the district court from orders which Judge Gilpin of the probate court made last April with reference to the settlement of the affairs of the estate of Antoine Paupore. The proceeding recalls the interesting story which centers around the life-history of Paupore, who was a well-known character about Clouet for a number of years and whose death occurred in September, 1909.

Courtney & Courtney, attorneys for certain of the creditors of the estate, today filed notice of an appeal from the order of Judge Gilpin directing O. E. Kniesly, administrator of the estate, to turn over $913 to certain creditors. The attorneys for the creditors, however, object to the allowance of the final account of the estate claiming that attorneys' expenses in connection with litigation with which the estate has been involved have been improperly charged to the estate. J. H. Whitely is attorney for the estate.

PAUPORE ESTATE
AGAIN IN COURT

For several years prior to his death, Paupore was a resident of Paupore's siding, where he conducted a small store and lumber business. After his death it developed that he had been leading a double life and that he had a wife and family residing in New York whom he had deserted years ago and another wife and family in this country. Both widows claimed the estate, but the court decided in favor of the New York woman and her children.

BRITISH COLUMBIA TOWN FEARS ATTACK.

Vancouver, B. C., Aug. 21.—The following dispatch was received from Prince Rupert, B. C., late yesterday: "All banks have been notified by Hon. J. D. Hazen, Canadian minister of marine, of the near approach of a German warship stated to be coming to obtain coal. Authorities have been notified not to give aid to the enemy, even under threat of bombardment of the city."

Is News at Seattle.
Seattle, Wash., Aug. 21.—No information has been received by shipping men here to support the fear expressed by Canadian Minister of Marine, Hazen, that a German warship was approaching Prince Rupert, B. C., to obtain coal. As far as known, no German man of war is in the North Pacific. The German raider Loebnitz, which sailed at San Francisco Monday, was last reported twenty miles southwest of the Golden Gate, steaming in a westerly direction.

Prince Rupert, the Pacific terminus of the Grand Trunk Pacific and the most northerly Pacific coast city in Canada, has a population of 5,000 and is unfortified.

Nick J. Smith of Two Harbors also filed a petition in bankruptcy this morning. He gives his liabilities as $1,047.74, and assets as $156.68, of which he claims all but $21.68 is exempt.

There were 4,500 Jews from all countries who desired to serve as separate companies, there were also 3,000 Belgians, 4,500 Italians, 2,500 Russians, 2,000 Swedes, 1,000 Spaniards, 600 Roumanians, 330 Luxemburgians and 125 Americans.

CARRANZA IS CHEERED AS HE ASSUMES PRESIDENCY

More Than 150,000 Welcome Him to Mexico City.

Villa's Plans for His Army of 40,000 Cause Uneasiness.

Mexico City, Aug. 21.—Gen. Carranza, supreme chief of the Mexican revolution and now provisional president of the republic entered the capital at noon yesterday. He was given an enthusiastic reception. It is estimated that more than 150,000 persons crowded the line of march of the new president and his followers, which extended from the village of Atzacotal to the national palace, a distance of six miles. There was not the slightest disorder as Gen. Carranza and his staff passed through the cheering crowds, which showered them with flowers and confetti and from which came cries of "Long live Carranza! long live the Constitutionalists' government!"

Met by the Mayor. It was noon when Gen. Carranza, mounted on a superb horse and accompanied by his staff and the general of the northwest, the central and northeast divisions of the Constitutional army, left Atzacotal, escorted by a squadron of cavalry and the Fourth Sonora battalion of infantry, which acted as the guard of honor. On reaching the city limits, the column was met by the mayor and the city council of the capital, who delivered to Gen. Carranza the keys of the city. After this ceremony, the cavalcade proceeded to the historic Chapultepec castle, where two batteries of artillery fired a salute in honor of the new chief executive.

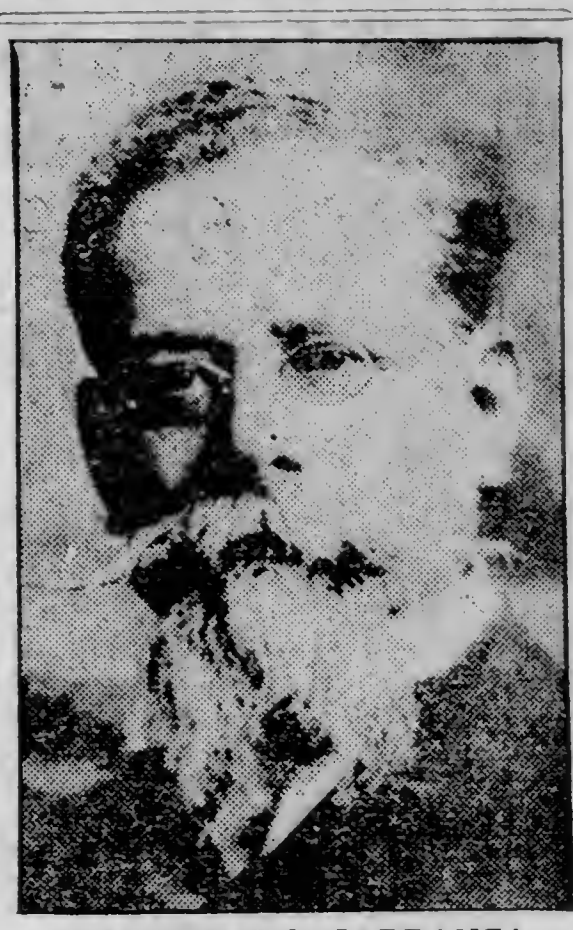

Addressed the Crowd. An immense throng cheered Gen. Carranza vociferously as he passed through the main entrance of the palace. A few moments after he entered, the president appeared on the balcony under the liberty bell and addressed the crowd, promising the new era of real constitutional government.

Villa to Meet Obregon. Douglas, Ariz., Aug. 21.—A telegram from Gen. Francisco Villa passed through Agua Prieta yesterday, informing Col. L. Elias Calles, who is near Magdalena, that Villa and Gen. Alvaro Obregon, the Constitutional commander now at Mexico City, would come to Sonora personally to investigate conditions arising out of the strife between Calles and Governor Maytorena and to settle their differences.

Villa Has 40,000 Men. Washington, Aug. 21.—Official reports to the Washington government estimate the number of troops under command of Gen. Villa in Northern Mexico at no less than 40,000 men. This is a much larger number than had been supposed, and is the result of several weeks of recruiting during the fall which followed Huerta's abdication.

Administration officials are uncertain about Villa's intentions. They have various assurances that he does not intend to begin a counter revolution, but his preparations, it is admitted, have a sinister aspect.

Brainerd vs. Pine River. Brainerd, Minn., Aug. 21.—(Special to The Herald.)—Brainerd has a game scheduled with Pine River for Sunday and the Northern Minnesota town has deposited $100 as a bet that Pine River wins. Brainerd also wants a game with Brainerd.

VENUSTIANO CARRANZA, Provisional President of Mexico.

ODD FELLOWS' HOME MATTER UNDECIDED.

Fargo, N. D., Aug. 21.—(Special to The Herald.)—Whether the Odd Fellows of North Dakota shall erect a state orphanage is still undecided. For some years a fund has been accumulating for that purpose until there is now $35,000 available. This would be sufficient for the buildings required as there are several towns in the state which would furnish sites in order to secure the location of the home. But after the buildings are erected, some of the members of the order contend the annual fund for the purpose would be insufficient to pay for the superintendence and maintenance of the home for a few years until the number of orphans is larger and the fund has been increased.

MASON, WIS., TRAGEDY.

Boy Burned to Death and Mother May Die From Burns.

Mason, Wis., Aug. 21.—The home of Mrs. Mary Berkquist, a widow near here, was destroyed by fire yesterday, presumed to have been started by an exploding lamp, and John Berkquist, her 13-year-old son, was burned to death. Mrs. Berkquist was badly burned and may die. Mrs. John Ellstrom and her two children escaped by jumping through a window, although Mrs. Berkquist and Mrs. Ellstrom were taken to an Ashland hospital. Before the fire was discovered, Mrs. Berkquist gave the alarm that aroused Mrs. Ellstrom, her daughter, the latter ran to a rear window and with her children securely tucked under each arm leaped to the ground, breaking her leg in the fall. Both of the women were badly burned, but the children escaped injury.

Is Killed for $1. Aberdeen, S. D., Aug. 21.—Guy Farish, a prominent farmer five miles east of Turton, Spink county, was shot and instantly killed by a harvest hand following a dispute over the difference of $1 in wages.

The accused murderer is said to have stolen a horse near Turton on which he has so far made his escape. Several possees are searching for him.

NABBED AFTER LONG CHASE

Port Huron Farmer Eludes Police for Six Weeks.

Recaptured at Malta, Mont.—Attempts Suicide When Caught.

After a chase across the country that lasted for nearly six weeks, Frank Geister, 39 years old, who is wanted in Port Huron, Mich., on a charge of criminal assault, was finally located early this week at Malta, a small town in Northern Montana, from where he had written to a married sister at Port Huron. The arrest was made by Patrolman T. G. Ernst of Port Huron. Geister was arrested on his farm at Port Huron on June 30 and three days later he escaped from the jail, by breaking through the flooring. He disappeared almost immediately and no trace of the fugitive could be found.

Relatives Are Quicker. All the relatives of the fugitive were watched by the sheriff at Port Huron and his brothers and sisters, who learned two weeks ago that Geister had written to one of the sisters for money. In this way the fugitive's address was learned by the authorities in the Michigan city.

Patrolman Ernst came to Duluth about three weeks ago in his search for Geister and while here received the information from Port Huron that Geister had written from Malta. He started for the Montana city at once, but did not effect his capture until last Sunday in a corn field about 150 miles north of the city. The officer made the trip from Malta by horseback and automobile, and last Sunday morning saw Geister in a field, just as he had finished talking to the owner of the ranch.

Attempted Suicide. Geister attempted to commit suicide on the way back to Malta by drinking a heavy dose of medicine, but the officer, unable to locate a doctor and without any restoratives, compelled his prisoner to drink a large quantity of water. Yesterday Patrolman Ernst and Geister arrived in Duluth, and in the evening they left for the Michigan city, where Geister will be brought to trial.

Geister is a farmer and lives out side of Port Huron. He is married and has two daughters. Geister denies the claims of the girl that she was attacked when she came to his home to visit his daughters.

West End POLES WARY OF RUSSIA

Will Discuss Russia's Promises of Liberty at Sunday Meeting.

Duluthians Remember Former Broken Pledges of Similar Nature.

For the purpose of considering the promises of the Russian government made to Poland recently the Polish people of this city will hold a mass meeting Sunday evening at 7:30 o'clock at St. Peter's and St. Paul's church.

Twenty-four avenue street at a fifth street. The offer was to the effect that Poland would be given freedom in the matter of religion and language, and would be granted political liberty if the Polish people would accept the present struggle with Germany and Austria-Hungary.

There are probably 2,000 Polish people in Duluth and vicinity to whom the offer has been made. The purpose of the meeting is to weigh the offer on all sides in order that if possible the residents of this vicinity may be able to advise their countrymen in Europe as to what step to take.

Many people of the nationality are loath to believe that the offer is made in the city. Several prominent speakers will address the gathering in the Polish language. Among these will be some of the Polish clergy.

MAKES A HIT WITH THE BOYS

Street Railway's Playground in West End Is Proving Popular.

The new playground on lots owned by the Duluth Street Railway company at Twenty-fourth avenue west and Superior street is gaining in popularity among the boys of this part of the city. A large number visit it daily for baseball and other games.

The ground was originally fixed up by the street railway company's employees could play ball during recreation hours. During a part of the day, an hour or two in the middle of the forenoon and about the same amount of time in the afternoon, some of the baseball enthusiasts take the time to practice.

Tomorrow afternoon the employees of the office and the car employees will clash on the diamond at Thirty-second avenue. A game that was stopped by rain last Saturday will be replayed. On last Saturday the office men had scored nine runs by the end of the third inning when the downpour came and saved it for the tomorrow.

WASTING LIGHT MONEY.

West End Commercial Club Wants Arc Lights Discontinued.

George M. Jensen, secretary of the West End Commercial club, was instructed last evening by the club and out why the arc lights on Nineteenth, Twentieth and Twenty-first avenues and Superior street had not been discontinued. It is claimed that these lights are now useless to the street railway company's employees owing to the recent opening of the "white way" system.

The club will ask to have the city discontinue these lights, and in paying the cost of them to the electric company. The money now being paid for the arc lights is claimed to be a waste, to pay the part of the cost of lighting the new system.

Annual Picnic. The annual picnic of the Sunday school and congregation of the Paul's English Lutheran church, Twentieth avenue west and Third street, will be held at the city grounds at Twenty-fifth avenue and Eighth street.

It will begin with short services on the grounds at 11 a. m. Picnic lunch will be served at 12 o'clock. The program is being arranged by a committee headed by the pastor, Rev. E. Walberg.

PROFITS IN CRANBERRIES

New Jersey Man Tells of Opportunities in Northern Minnesota. Cool Climate and Plenty of Water Two Chief Requirements.

Northern Minnesota as a cranberry producing district has great possibilities and may eventually produce as much of the state as equal footing with the cranberry marshes of New Jersey, Massachusetts and Wisconsin, according to Dr. C. L. Shear of New Jersey, who spoke last night on "The Culture of Cranberries" before the delegates of the eighth annual convention of the American Peat Society at the Commercial club here.

Dr. Shear is one of the best authorities on cranberry culture in the United States and knows where all the best producing marshes are situated and how much they produce. In his lecture last night he illustrated his talk with a large collection of lantern slides showing different methods employed in the industry and the newest machinery in use.

When seen at the Spaulding hotel last night Dr. Shear pointed out the possibilities of cranberry culture in Minnesota and compared this state with others as to climate and soil.

"There are two things cranberries need," said Dr. Shear. "Frost in the northern marshes is likely to occur at an early date in the fall, and the crop unless a supply of water is handy to flood the marshes and prevent frost. Usually a cool snap doesn't last more than a day or so, and the plants can stand flooding for that length of time."

Is Very Profitable. "Cranberry culture is very profitable and the marshes are almost perpetual when once established. I have seen marshes seventy-five years old that produced as well as they ever did. One marsh of 600 acres in New Jersey netted $100 an acre profit. An acre of cranberries will produce anywhere from 25 to 250 barrels of fruit varying with conditions of soil and the methods used in production. Good cranberries bring from $5 to $8 a barrel. This is a big income from an acre of ground, but of course the cost of production and marketing cut down the profits."

Wisconsin is now third in cranberry production among the states of the Union, and in soil, climate and general conditions the Evjerg state is similar to Minnesota. I can see no reason why Northern Minnesota should not be one of the greatest cranberry producing sections in the country when properly developed.

"I was interested to hear that there will be a cranberry exhibit at the Minnesota state fair this fall. It is a good subject to bring before the people of the state, and may do a good deal to stir up more interest in the possibilities of Northern Minnesota as a cranberry producing country."

DROPS DEAD WHILE

Suddenly to Former Injury.

Edward Olson, 50 years old, of 1307 Seventeenth street, Superior, dropped dead while walking with Mrs. Olson at Second avenue west and Second street, about 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

The body was carried into the Crawford undertaking rooms, which are across the street from where Mr. Olson died. This morning it was taken to Superior by Oscar T. Oyas, Superior undertaker, and arrangements for the funeral will be made today.

According to Mrs. Olson, her husband was struck by a box of books thrown out of a locomotive cab at a railroad crossing about six weeks ago. Mr. Olson was waiting for the train to pass and the books struck him on the chest. He had complained of pains there ever since the accident, Mrs. Olson said.

Benidji, Minn., Aug. 21.—(Special to The Herald.)—Clad in filthy overalls torn off at the knees, an old blue shirt with sleeves torn out, without shoes or socks, and without having had a shave, a hair cut or a bath for more than a year and having subsisted on dog food and berries, Robert Molitor, a bachelor, 24 years old, was brought to Benidji and taken before Probate Judge M. A. Clark yesterday for an examination as to his sanity. He was adjudged incurably insane and taken to the detention hospital at Perkasie, Pa., by Deputy Sheriff O. M. Skivvick. Molitor was born at Sauk Center, Minn., and owns a farm near that city. He has been living on a homestead near Warroad in the extreme northern part of Beltrami county and was with some difficulty that Sheriff Andrew Johnson got him from his home.

Is Led With Chains.

He was obliged to lead him with a chain for a distance of nearly a mile before arriving at a village where the man was given new pair of overalls, and other wearing apparel. When ordered to wash his face, probably for the first time in many months, he obeyed. He had the delusion that everybody wanted to kill him for his money and avoided seeing people. A letter from a sister at Sauk Center told of taking a horse from the crop gage which would not indicate that he had any great wealth. The letter was taken from the postoffice by the sheriff. The demented man not having called for mail for a month his hair reached his shoulders and his beard was long.

MORE THAN 7,000 DULUTHIANS ATTEND NEW GRAND THEATER ON OPENING DAY

Opening performances at the new Grand theater yesterday afternoon and evening attracted more than 7,200 people into Duluth's newest amusement place—the latest word in the theater line.

The new playhouse opened its doors for the first time yesterday afternoon, and needless to say the matinee and evening performances were played to capacity houses. And what is more, the "first nighters," some of whom doubtless came out of idle curiosity, did not go away disappointed. Probably more people saw the new theater on the opening day than ever attended any local playhouse in the same length of time.

The big electric sign on the new theater and bright lights in front of the entrance served as an excellent reminder to the public last evening that the new playhouse was now "light." The theater front was an attraction in itself. It is constructed of tapestry brick in Flemish band, trimmed in brick in terra cotta, and yesterday was decked out with a wealth of flowers. Other attractive features of the entrance are the arched mahogany doorways, art glass windows and a big canopy of steel and glass.

The average "first nighter" who was jostled around for a while in the crowded aisles to get inside, on gaining admission to the theater was probably first attracted by its excellent ventilation and its comfortable seats. The interior at the same time conforms with the latest ideas of fireproof construction.

CHICAGORAILROADS OPPOSE
INCREASE IN TAXES.

Bismarck, N. D., Aug. 21.—(Special to The Herald.)—Railroad tax officials are appearing before the state board of equalization this week in an effort to head off the proposed gigantic increase in the state assessment, recommended by the state tax commission. The railroad officials maintain that the proposed increase in the assessment is out of proportion with the assessments on other properties.

Today the board will also consider bank assessments, and the question is one that will take up considerable time because of the large difference in the tax returns from the several counties.

POLICE GET THEIR

The West Duluth police station will finally get its car. A Ford five-passenger car has arrived in the city and is being given tryouts at headquarters. The car made its first appearance in West Duluth this morning. It was brought to the station for a few minutes by Chief Trover, who accompanied by Lieut. Wilcox, drove from the station on its way to the police station. It will probably be used for permanent use after tomorrow. This promise is said to have cheered several of the cops who recently have been compelled to carry or drag men under the influence of liquor who either refused or were unable to walk to the station.

MERGER PLAN
MEETS DELAY*Asbury and Merritt Churches
Will Not Amalgamate Now.

The attempt to merge the two English Methodist congregations of West Duluth this year has been abandoned until next spring, according to a member of the committee which was considering the matter. It will probably be brought to the attention of the Northern Minnesota conference at the next annual meeting, which is held this coming fall, when it is likely a definite program of procedure will be outlined.

It had been planned to join the congregations of the Asbury and Merritt churches and discontinue their present properties for property more centrally located for both. Plans for moving the Merritt church and estimates on the cost of the work had been made. This work was estimated to cost about $12,000.

One of the main reasons for wishing the merger of the two churches was that at present each was having a hard time to support its property. The two churches, the united congregation would have little trouble financially to support its property. It would be easier to attract new members to a large church than to a small struggling congregation.

The Merritt church is one of the oldest congregations in Duluth. It was organized fifty-four years ago and at that time called the Onosota church. Its present edifice was erected about fifteen years ago. The Asbury congregation was organized twenty-five years ago and during the summer the church was built at Sixth avenue west and Raleigh street.

During a quarrel on Raleigh street yesterday, Peter Ruccey is alleged to have hit a companion several times over the head with a brick. Ruccey was arrested and will be arraigned this afternoon on a warrant charging him with assault.

Mrs. M. J. Doyle, 222 North Central avenue, and sister, Miss Julia Enright, and brother, James Enright, of Eveleth left yesterday on a two-week lake trip.

Misses Margaret and Mollie Doyle, 29 North Fifty-third avenue west, are spending a month visiting relatives at Marquette, Mich.

INCREASE IN TAXES.

Bismarck, N. D., Aug. 21.—(Special to The Herald.)—Railroad tax officials are appearing before the state board of equalization this week in an effort to head off the proposed gigantic increase in the state assessment, recommended by the state tax commission. The railroad officials maintain that the proposed increase in the assessment is out of proportion with the assessments on other properties.

Today the board will also consider bank assessments, and the question is one that will take up considerable time because of the large difference in the tax returns from the several counties.

POLICE GET THEIR CAR AT LAST*Will Not Have to Carry Prisoners After Saturday.

The West Duluth police station will finally get its car. A Ford five-passenger car has arrived in the city and is being given tryouts at headquarters. The car made its first appearance in West Duluth this morning. It was brought to the station for a few minutes by Chief Trover, who accompanied by Lieut. Wilcox, drove from the station on its way to the police station. It will probably be used for permanent use after tomorrow. This promise is said to have cheered several of the cops who recently have been compelled to carry or drag men under the influence of liquor who either refused or were unable to walk to the station.

MERGER PLAN
MEETS DELAY*Asbury and Merritt Churches
Will Not Amalgamate Now.

The attempt to merge the two English Methodist congregations of West Duluth this year has been abandoned until next spring, according to a member of the committee which was considering the matter. It will probably be brought to the attention of the Northern Minnesota conference at the next annual meeting, which is held this coming fall, when it is likely a definite program of procedure will be outlined.

It had been planned to join the congregations of the Asbury and Merritt churches and discontinue their present properties for property more centrally located for both. Plans for moving the Merritt church and estimates on the cost of the work had been made. This work was estimated to cost about $12,000.

One of the main reasons for wishing the merger of the two churches was that at present each was having a hard time to support its property. The two churches, the united congregation would have little trouble financially to support its property. It would be easier to attract new members to a large church than to a small struggling congregation.

The Merritt church is one of the oldest congregations in Duluth. It was organized fifty-four years ago and at that time called the Onosota church. Its present edifice was erected about fifteen years ago. The Asbury congregation was organized twenty-five years ago and during the summer the church was built at Sixth avenue west and Raleigh street.

During a quarrel on Raleigh street yesterday, Peter Ruccey is alleged to have hit a companion several times over the head with a brick. Ruccey was arrested and will be arraigned this afternoon on a warrant charging him with assault.

The other arrest this morning was made by Patrolman Barber, who brought Apolonia Apostolova, a woman charged with violating the state factory laws.

SEEK MAN WITH RED WHISKERS*Is Accused of Leaving Wife on Farm Without Funds.

Peter Matheson, 50 years old, with red whiskers, has been missing since Aug. 8 and the police of Duluth are out in search for him.

All officers are watching men with red whiskers and they hope in this way to find their man. It may be that the procedure will result in several innocent citizens being watched or followed but in the long run, Matheson may be found. "Anyway," said one detective, "it's a crime to wear red whiskers."

E. J. Bunker reported to Capt. Fiskett this morning that Matheson disappeared from his farm in Rice Lake township, on the Howard Green road, about twelve miles from Duluth, a week ago Saturday and that he has not been seen since. He left his wife alone on the farm and she has no food or means, with which to come to the city and is practically helpless, according to Mr. Bunker's story to the police.

Capt. Fiskett notified Humane Officer McKelcher of Mrs. Matheson's plight and the latter is now investigating. In the meantime all men with red whiskers are being watched.

WANTS $1,000 FOR A BROKEN RIB.

The Duluth Street Railway company is defendant in two separate actions filed today in district court by Mrs. Alice Coon and her husband, Fred W. Coon, who are seeking damages for injuries alleged to have been sustained in an accident on a street car on April 1, 1914. Mrs. Coon, who claims to have been injured in seeking $1,000 damages, and her husband is suing for $120 alleged to have been expended for medical treatment.

Mrs. Coon declares that while she was in the street car on Third avenue west, but before she had an opportunity to alight the car was suddenly backed with a lurch that threw her over a seat and fractured a rib.

KENYON WOULD MAKE DIRECTORS DIRECT*Offers Clayton Bill Amend-*ment—No Adjournment*in Sight.

Washington, Aug. 21.—A proposal to make railroad directors criminally liable for negligently suffering a corporation's funds to be misapplied was urged by Senator Kenyon yesterday as an amendment to the Clayton anti-trust bill. The bill, as re-drafted by the judiciary committee, would make directors criminally liable only when they willfully misapply funds.

"The New Haven railroad experience has taught us," declared Mr. Kenyon, "that directors who go off to Europe yachting and pay no attention to the affairs of the corporation ought to be made criminally liable."

Action on the amendment will be urged later.

A movement is developing among Democratic senators to end the anti-trust legislative program with the passage of the Clayton bill, deferring the pending bill authorizing the interstate commerce commission to regulate the issuance of securities of common carriers until the next session.

Republican leaders, in an informal conference with administration senators, suggested that congress could conclude all necessary legislation within two weeks, but the Democrats would not consent to any agreement, insisting that congress must remain in session during the war in Europe.

RESPONSIBLE FOR AGENTS

Hicken Says Hotel Men Will Not Escape By Blaming Waiters.

Hearing on St. Louis Case Likely to Attract Big Crowd.

A plea that if liquor was sold illegally in the St. Louis case, it was done without the knowledge and against the consent of the management, will not cause Safety Commissioner W. A. Hicken to change his recommendation that the license be revoked.

The safety commissioner said this morning that at the time he warned J. W. Irwin, proprietor and licensee, and Milton Lewis, the manager, that the hotel must observe the regulations, he told them specifically that they would be held responsible for the acts of their agents, who are principally the waiters and bartenders. He stated that this was at the time the license was held up about two months ago, the condition under which he would recommend a renewal of the license, he declared that the renewal was granted upon their promise to conduct the hotel in compliance with the law. The license of the hotel has still not been renewed.

At the council meeting Monday afternoon Commissioner Hicken will introduce a resolution citing Mr. Irwin to appear to show cause why the license should not be revoked. He will also call the following Monday afternoon the arrest of the two waiters and the bus boy on charges of selling liquor illegally has caused much comment throughout the city as the hotel is one of the oldest in Duluth and is well known throughout the Northwest. It is likely that the council proposed revocation comes up for consideration.

The three employees, who were arrested Wednesday, pleaded not guilty to their trials were set for 2 o'clock Monday afternoon. They were released on $100 bail, each. If they are convicted the ordinance provides that the building shall be penalized for a year.

PAYS BAIL OUT OF BIG "ROLL"

Prisoner Not Inconvenienced By Demand for $750.

Adam Laukkanen, who was bound over to the September grand jury yesterday afternoon on a charge of assault in the second degree, was not worried when the court set the bail at $750. He walked out of court and handed him $750 in cash.

"That was nothing to me," said Clerk Richeson, "and it surprised the court some, too. But it failed to come near the roll a prisoner brought up here several years ago. He had put up ten of these with him and he and Laukkanen and Richard Manninen were examined all day yesterday before Judge Cutting on a charge of having assaulted each other. They pleaded

PRISONER'S NAME PUZZLES JAILER

Apostolos Apostolakis Is Too Much for Ears of Wanwick.

"What's your name?" asked Jailer Wanwick in his customary manner, when a prisoner was brought in by Patrolman Barber this morning. "Apostolos Apostolakis," replied the person under arrest.

"Apostolos Apostolakis?" Don't confuse it, said the jailer who once studied Latin.

"Sure, I understood you. I can talk English pretty well."

"All right, then, what is it?"

"Apostolos Apostolakis," called the jailer who once studied Latin.

"Well, I'll be damned. I can't make out what it is."

And with that remark Jailer Wanwick called John Connolly and Fred Johnson of the chief's office in to help him.

"I can't get this fellow's name," said Jailer Wanwick in explanation. "I think he's kidding me. See what you fellows can get out of him."

"What did you say your name was?" asked Connolly of Johnson in union. "Apostolos Apostolakis."

Then the prisoner was handed a piece of paper and he wrote his name. Jailer Wanwick copied it, after perusing it several times. Then Apostolos Apostolakis was taken upstairs by Capt. Fiskett and arraigned before Judge Cutting on a charge of violating the state factory law.

Apostolakis is accused by Miss Victoria Erickson, state factory inspector, of having Bertha Olson work in his candy store at 111 West Superior street recently three hours a week, which is in violation of the state law, prohibiting women to work more than fifty-eight hours. Apostolakis pleaded not guilty and his trial was set for 10 o'clock next Wednesday morning.

He claims that the young girl has been working overtime and that he paid her extra money for it. This he did, he told the court, at the girl's request, she having expressed a desire to earn a little more money each week.

LARGEST FUR STORE IN NORTHWEST ENLARGED

In order to take care of the increasing business that the Beckman Fur company is enjoying it has been found necessary to make some very important changes.

The present location of the concern, which is at 16 East Superior street, was formerly used as the salesroom and factory, but Mr. Beckman rented the location at 17 East Michigan street to be used entirely for factory purposes. This change means that their present location will be used exclusively for salesrooms, which will give them twice as much display room as formerly. In speaking of the fur business yesterday, Mr. Beckman stated that the styles this season are entirely different than they were last season and especially is this true of the fur coats. The Beckman Fur company is now showing its complete line of furs for the 1914-15 season and cordially invites the women of Duluth to call and see its beautiful line of fur garments.

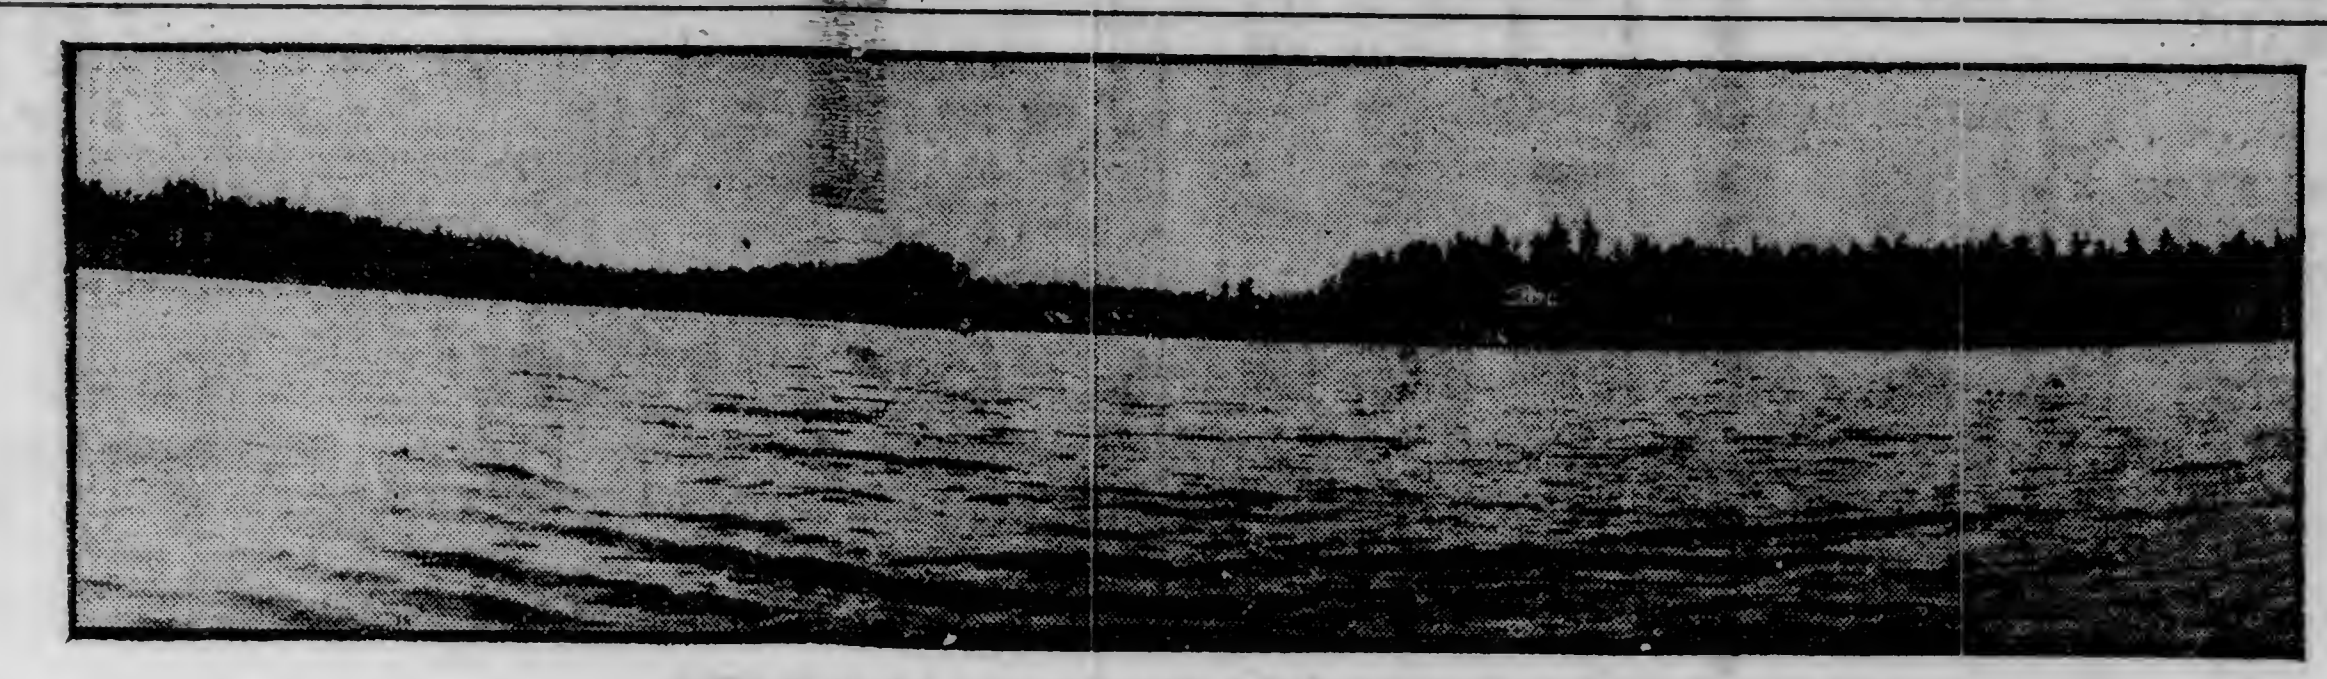

AVIATOR FALLS 1,000 FEET AND WILL LIVE.

Mineola, N. Y., Aug. 21.—Albert Fleux of New York city, an aviator, fell 1,000 feet in his monoplane to the Hempstead aviation field today, and escaped with his life. He was badly bruised and lacerated, but surgeons at the Nassau hospital and that he was suffering chiefly from shock and that they thought he would live.

GALLINGER WANTS EXPRESSION ON WAR.

Washington, Aug. 21.—A resolution reaffirming adherence of the United States to the "open door" policy in China, and proclaiming that this government, in view of the apparent cessation of the war in Europe to the far East, could not view with indifference any alteration of the status quo of the islands of the Pacific and Oceania, was introduced in the senate today by Senator Gallinger. It was referred to the foreign relations committee.

DULUTHIANS RAPIDLY PICKING UP CHOICE SITES FOR THEIR SUMMER HOMES ON NEARBY LAKES

WHERE MANY DULUTHIANS HAVE SUMMER HOMES.

This summer, as never before, the possibilities of the many small lakes near Duluth are being recognized by those in search of sites for summer homes.

Within a radius of fifty miles of Duluth may be found hundreds of small lakes. Some of these are so small that they are not even named and are not shown on the map. Others are several miles in length.

Tourists who come to Duluth and motor into the country from here, are quick to recognize the possibilities of these small lakes for summer homes, and the marvelous growth in the number of automobile owners in Duluth has created a big demand for summer home sites. Duluthians are picking up choice sites for summer cottages, and are erecting little bungalows where they can go for a week end, or where they can spend their vacations.

A good example of how lake shore cottages are being built, is seen at Sunset lake, which is about twenty-four miles from Duluth, and where twelve Duluthians have cottages. A few years ago it was known only to the Duluth Migrant & Northern railway and a half mile south of the Cloquet river.

Sunset lake covers an area of 100 or more acres, it being three-fourths of a mile long and a half mile wide. It is readily accessible by road and can be reached with an automobile from Duluth in an hour and one-half. Among those in the Duluth summer colony at Sunset lake are: Rupert G. Mend, Guy Engel, C. W. Klemm, Walter N. Totman, W. A. Klemm, J. A. Menger, A. C. Eggers, James Ginder, William O'Brien, W. H. Barnes, Thomas E. Considine and A. C. Ritchie.

Only the faintest signs of improvement are to be discerned and these are more symptoms than real manifestations.

Canadiana, fearing that by some twist of the American interpretation of neutrality, exporting of coal from the United States may be stopped, are taking coal as fast as they can dispose of it. This, however, has its sinister aspect in that the Canadian demand for coal is being met by other sources.

The owners of ships plying between Port Colborne and Montreal in the United States, are being stopped when they refused to consider when taking coal as fast as they can dispose of it. This, however, has its sinister aspect in that the Canadian demand for coal is being met by other sources.

Vessel owners have named boats to fill contracts for grain due next week. tenders are to keep the boats moving as long as possible in hope that larger business will come soon. No stimulation of the ore trade, however, is expressed in the Daily Iron Trade, as follows:

"Lake Superior iron ore shippers are not sanguine of marked improvement in the ore trade, although lake navigation. While the movement of ore at present is not as brisk as it was last season, physical conditions make it so. Some small ore sales have been made in the Duluth market, but no large shipments are coming into the market for ore.

"There appears to be absolutely no inquiry for baser metal, nor for iron in the Duluth market. Although some sales of foundry iron have been made, because of the ore trade, however, is expected as the season is over."

Ship shippers, in fact, do not appear especially eager for business, arguing they will have a better price for the output next spring.

Marine BURNED BOAT WILL BE SOLD

Owners of Agnew Will Get $15,000 for Rescuing Van Vleck.

Judge Morris Orders Public Auction to Satisfy the Claim.

The steamer Van Vleck, which was brought in port on the morning of Aug. 3, with her hold full of lumber, was ordered by Judge Morris to be sold for the benefit of the Agnew owners, who had paid the cost of the vessel, and the money paid to the Duluth Steamship company, in a decree entered early yesterday afternoon by Federal Judge Morris.

The Buffalo Steamship company, owners of the Agnew, entered a libel suit in admiralty court against the steamer Van Vleck, asking the court to order the vessel sold, and the cargo of 1,000,000 feet of lumber, has been estimated at being worth $40,000.

The Agnew found the Van Vleck on fire near Devil's Island and after partly putting out the fire, brought the burning vessel into Duluth, after a thirty-hour run. The libellant company claimed that it saved the vessel, crew, and the entire cargo of lumber.

The Van Vleck was brought to public auction on the afternoon of Sept. 7 in the office of Deputy Marshal Mallory. The sale will start at 2 o'clock.

LAKE SHIPPING IN WAITING ATTITUDE

Faint Signs of Improvement—Canadians Grabbing Coal.

Lake shipping is dragging along subject to small change and waiting.

UNDERRATED THE PRESIDENT

Canada Expected United States to Be Drawn Into War.

According to George Gamble, a plain clothes officer in the Port Arthur police department, who is spending his vacation in Duluth this week, the Canadians have been constantly expecting the United States to become involved in the present European war.

"The Canadians believed all along," said Mr. Gamble at police headquarters this morning, following a visit with the officers, "that your country would become entangled in some way. But your president has successfully met all the issues and it looks now as if you will be out of the fight."

"Many Canadians are leaving for the front, three reservists from our office having been called to England last week. In my opinion, this country will be a lengthy one. The countries have been preparing for this war for years and they are prepared to meet it for at least a year."

Mr. Gamble is at the McKay hotel during his stay in the city.

WATCHFUL WAITING WINS, SAYS BRYAN

He Predicts Peace, Progress and Prosperity in Mexico.

Washington, Aug. 21.—"The situation in Mexico City is very favorable and you can quote me as saying 'Watchful waiting wins,'" said Secretary Bryan today, his face beaming with smiles. "The peaceful transfer of authority has taken place and we are hoping for an era of peace, progress and prosperity."

Mr. Bryan said the question of recognition of the Carranza government and withdrawal of the American forces at Vera Cruz had not yet been considered.

COUNTERFEIT MONEY PASSED

Worthless Silver Dollars Are in Circulation in Duluth.

Counterfeit money is being circulated throughout the city, according to reports received at police headquarters last night. Several spurious dollars are now in the hands of West end saloon keepers.

John Olson, proprietor of the saloon at 1223 West Superior street, telephoned the police last evening that two young men came into his saloon and each paid him for their drinks with a silver dollar. He later discovered that the money was counterfeit and immediately telephoned the authorities. Patrolman Fagerberg was detailed to investigate the report, and Mr. Olson was unable to give a description of the two men.

A short time later Gus Peterson, who conducts a saloon at 2011 West Superior street, also telephoned headquarters that he had a counterfeit silver dollar in his possession, and that he did not remember the man who gave it to him. Sergeant Hunter was given the task of finding the counterfeiters.

The police believe that the same two men went to the two saloons and paid the spurious money over for drinks, getting away with money in change.

FARMERS WILL HAVE BANNER DAY

Patronage and Prices Are Good; Wide Interest Shown.

Tomorrow is expected to be another banner day for the farmers who attend the three public markets in the city.

Since the markets and the farmers have received good prices for their products Saturday is the best day of the week, and it is probable that all available tables and stalls will be occupied.

The recent visit of Mayor Prince and C. C. Craig, chairman of the agricultural committee of the Commercial club, together with the success which has attended the fair, has combined to arouse much interest among city in increasing numbers, have loads of vegetables, greens, poultry, honey, flowers and other products of their farms.

DYNAMITING TRIED AT IRONWOOD, MICH.

Attempt Is Made to Wreck Boiler House at Newport Mine.

Ironwood, Mich., Aug. 21.—(Special to The Herald).—An attempt was made to blow up the boiler house of the Newport mine about 2 o'clock this morning. A large charge of dynamite was discharged under a corner of the building, but the soft ground prevented any serious damage. Only the coal dock and puffer house were wrecked to an extent of $150. The officials of the mining company are looking for the person or persons who laid the dynamite, and there is no doubt that they are laying suspicion on any party.

KICKED BY HORSE; WANTS $2,500 DAMAGES

A fall which John Trekovitch, woodsman, received from a horse propelled by "Joe" a bay horse used at Camp No. 5 at Gooseberry on Feb. 25, 1913, forms the basis for a personal injury suit which Trekovitch started against the Virginia & Rainy River Logging company in district court this morning. The black and white horse, he says, he is suing for $2,500 damages.
